

T E D I E E E A

I S L A N D

Written by Beth
Daley
Illustrated by Lynn
Duncan
and Emma Grant

"I'd know that sound anywhere its a baby gorilla!"

A story about a 14 year old boy, his girlfriend and a friend called Paul, who has a over large sense of humour.
Mark finds a map in his sister's diary. The three follow the map through a few traps which (until they start thinking or well, you'll find out what the or is) seem as if they will never get out.

Recommended for children aged 10-13. It is not the best book in the universe, but then who can expect it to be when its been written and produced by us. None of us are your favourite author or artist, editor, typist, researcher or layout person. For your enjoyment we have worked as a team and done our very best, so you can enjoy the book.

Thankyou, everyone who helped put this book together, but most of all thanks to you who taken the time to read (at least the back cover) this book; without you this book would have been a complete waste of time. Now, you can forget about this boring stuff and concentrate on the below picture.

