THE  C---R's Apology  TOTHE

Free-holders of this Kingdom Co N D U U C T THIS $S--S--N$ of $P--R-L-N T$.
CONTAINING,

Some Pieces of Interefting Humour, neceffary to be made known to the Free and Independent Electors of $I---D$.
To which is Added,

A Bill of C--t Mortality, &c.

$$
\mathrm{V}, \mathrm{I} \mathrm{Z} \text {. }
$$

Deaths, Forty Five. | Miscifances,
Casualties, Twelve. Accidents, Thirty Five.

Twenty Four.
Miscarriages, One.

$$
\mathcal{L} O N D O N \text { : }
$$

Printed at the Sign of Betty Ireland, delivered of a Ty - -t in Purple, a Monfter in Black, and a BaShaw in Red. M nce liv.

$$
\text { rithe } 59.0
$$

 ( 85

 -5729
(.)

$$
\text { Wo ako } 1
$$

THE

C------R's APOLOGY

TOTHE

Freeholders of this Kingdom, $\mathscr{E}^{\circ} c$.

GENTLEMEN,

WE have read with the fincereft Concern, feveral Libels which were artfully contrived to alienate your Affections and Intereft from us, and nothing lefs than fuch an Attempt, could induce us to addrefs you in this public Manner, and upon fo public an Occation, as it will reluctantly conftrain us to open feveral Anecdotes in Vindication of our Conduct, which we fhould rather defend in a more private Matner, for many Reafons that will appear too obvious in the Courfe of this Addrefs.

Tha

(4)

That we can't pretend to Infalibility, is evident, and that our Hearts fhould be impregnable againft golden Bullets, when thofe of a bafer Mettal batter'd down Bergenopzoom, is impoffible.
I need not tell you Gentlemen, that there are fome great Merr, who owe their Rife to Accidents, and every Man may make his Fortune one time or other, if he embraces the critical Minute.

The C-rs of this Kingdom ever fince Roger Decoverly's Time, have been kept at a great Diftance, and tho' we made feveral Attempts to make our Fortunes, yet we were always foil'd with Difgrace.

In the beginning of the laft $\mathrm{S}-\mathrm{f}-\mathrm{n}$, we began to look about us, and thought it was high time to diflocate Roger, who always proved fo averfe to our Intereft. This we foon found we could not accomplifh, for he had been as firmly fix'd in his Chair, as if he had been nail'd to it.

However, we refolved to take the Reins out of his Hands, which we affected with fuch Succefs, that we left him a meer nominal Officer of State.

The Confequence we naturally hop'd from this, was, that his Friends would defert him, and by the Revolt, we might make a Krave of every Card in the Pack, and cut a Court Trump when ever we pleafed,

But the ftubborn Difpofition of Roger's Friends, was too unfhaken to be mov'd by the fevereft Tryals, and except a few Scouts, we catch'd, we could boaft of no Advantage in that Point. Not long after, for a Tryal of Skill and Intereft, we fet a Compiler between two Fires, and for the Glory of the Conteft, burnt him almoft to Death between us, whereupon, * we beg'd a Truce, and that we might rally with fome Advantage, we rub'd the Compiler over with Bees Wax and Buttcr, which we were told would prove an Antidete againft the ftrongeft Party-Conflagration for the Future.

But Roger's Friends, who had no Notion of makirg an Egyptian Mummy of him, at the Expence of the Nation,

[^0]Nation, refolv'd to burn bim as black as ever his Undertakers did the Bricks of the B-r-ks. For which Purpofe, feveral wife Heads were feet to work, and that -it might be a truly national Affair, he who imbezled the Wealth of the People, was to be protected at their Expense, and to own the Truth, this brought in a - pretty Penny to forme of our Friends, befides Penfions, Commiffions, and Titles of Honour, which latter, they are afhamed to wear, till the Ferment cools.

This Gentlemen, you call felling our Country: Whereas it was only making a Purchase in our Cointry, of fuch a Place, Penfion, Commiffion or Tithe.

If no Purchafes were to be made by our Family, but where the Nation was to be no Lofer, forme of us might remain unprovided for, and undignified all the Days of our Lives.

There is a Maxim held in our Family, that he who has got fomething, may laugh at him who has got nothing, and the Injured has a Right to complain, for any Service it will do him.

This Confideration, renders the Clamours and Outcries of the People more tolerable to us, than they otherwife would be.
3. Where an House is on Fire, every prudent Spectator provides for himfelf, and we never perceived a Flame -in our Watch-Houfe, but we made the bet Hand of it we could. Thus Gentlemen, while the Populace are reviling us in publick, we are regaling ourfelves in private upon the Fruits of our political Induftry, Suppofe then Gentlemen, that one of yourfelves was to be lock'd up in a Clofet for half an Hour, and that an illuftrious Statefman offer'd you five hundred? or a thoufand Pounds a Year, the Tenderness of your Conscience might fcruple it, on account of the Motives for which it was propofed, but when a fanctified Divine, who has the Care of the Confciences of the Na cion, cbuck'd you under the Chin, and told you there was no Crime in it. How could your refute fo much Beauty of Holiness? Some of us told him, if we wound jon against our Conftituents, they wou'd remember our Love to them, upon a future Application of Intereft.

Hrs Holineis foon made us eafy in that Point, by affuring us we wou'd never have Occafion for your Suffrages any more, and that the E-h M-n--ry had 2 Scheme which would free us from any Apprehenfions of that Kind, and before we knew the Succers or Reafonablenefs of that Scheme, we involv'd ourfelves into the Intricacy of Affairs fo far, that we could not recede without being oblig'd to refund, which would be doing our Children an Injuftice.

The Word Authority, carries fuch a tremendous Air with it, that we were refolved Right or Wrong to comply with every M--n--r--l Fiat, becaufe the private Advantages we received, were fuperior to any Lofs we could fuffer in the general Oppreffion of the Nation.

This Confideration we muft own, was somewhat felfinh, but felf has been always a great Favourite in our Family, and in all human Probability, will be fo to the End.

Is is a political Maxim in our Side of the Houfe, to have a finking Fund, and could that Fund be ever eftablifh'd upon a more righteous Fodting, than by fpending the Lord knows what, fooner than refund the Lord knows bow much.

And like moft modern Lawfuits; the Difpute coft the Nation more, than the Conteft was worth.

To lead you a little into the Secrets of Affairs, you muft obferve, that the $E-\ldots$. M-n--ry finding their Purfes at Low-water-mark, and the Diffilution of the P-m--t, fo near at Hand, wanted I--Sh Money, to purchafe E--b Boroughs, and make good their Interefts upon the enfuing Elections. Where muft this Money be got, but from the Redundancy of the T---ry of this Kingdom? and their pious Care of your future Happinefs and Tranquility was fuch, that they refolved upon a Method of getting this Money, which would avoid any Difputes about the Matter for ever after. When the $\cdots \cdots$, who has a Right to the ufual Sup. plies, plies, was granted the Redundancy of the national Wealth, then indeed, there would be no occafion for a P--r--t, and confequently, no need of your future Voices ; thus far, you fee his Holinefs judg'd right.

(7)

Some Nations as they grow wealthy, become tenacious of their Liberties; but we are to be of a contrary Principle, and as we grow rich, we are to grow humble in proportion, when we were poor, we granted Supplies of our own free Will; but now that we have fomething to fpare, we are allowed by fpecial Grace and Bounty, to beftow our Money to others, and if we do not do it chearfully, and dutifully, to avoid Ceremony, it was to be taken without anking. This we were told would fave a World of Trouble to the Nation, and every Gentleman might fpend the Winter at home, cultivating thofe Acres, deftin'd to feed that T---ry, which was gracioufly to be exhaufted without the Confent of any in the Nation but our Family.

WHEN we complained of the Misfortunes this Affair would bring on the Kingdom, we were fmartly rebuked, and told it was no Affair of ours; for if there was no more Money in the $\operatorname{Tr}-\mathrm{y}$ than would pay our Family their Penfions, $\varepsilon^{\circ} c$. $\varepsilon^{\circ} c$. $\varepsilon^{\circ} c$. we fhould have no Caufe to complain. This was fuch an Argumentum ad Hominem, that no reafonable Man could refift, and while our Corn, was fafe, any one might fet the Kiln on fire for us,

Perhaps you'll afk, Gent!emen, why did Men of fuch large Eftates, that they were afhamed to be pricked down for a Penfion or Place, $\mathcal{E}^{\circ}$ c. vote, as you call it, againft their Country. The Reafon is obvious, fome of them were Men of fuch mean Parts, and obfcure Birth, that they could never expect Titles, until they did the C---t fome fignal Service ; for would any $\mathrm{M}-\mathrm{n}-\mathrm{r}$ make a Man a Peer, who knew the Mark on a Bullocks Horn, better than the Seal of a Patent, if he had not joined him upon fo interefting a Crifis. And what babling Lawyer could expect to diflocate the P--r--me A 4

S----t

Soin-t, if he did not go thro' fome Dirt to get at it. And to fhew his Tendernefs, he cries in open Court, for the Fate of the B--ks, tho' he honoured his Father to the Grave with dry Eyes.
But Money, like a Man's Breath, at two Blafts can cool and heat.

We have a fine Su-r Hill on our Farm, very fertile of Oats, which was tle ufual Diet of the Occupier in Days of yore.
Ba. This Gentleman's Mother, in Contempt of St. Patrick, your Favourite Patron, ufually carry'd her Wheel in her Chariot on that Feftival, fpinning as ? fhe went along, to fhew her Induftry to the wild Irifh, whom the little cared for, as the had no Alli3 ance in it fhe could buaft of.

And this fame Friend of ours, deftitute of Parts, natural or acquired, or the leaft Benevolence of Heart or Mind, but rather leven'd by a diffenting Gangrene, is to be made fenfible, that Exaltation and Lordly Iitles, are the Wages of the Sinis of our Family. Some of us you'll fay got Penfions we were afhamed to own, and put down a Cooper in Truft the better to fcreen the Matter. Pray which of you Gentlemen would refufe five hundred Pounds per Annum, upon fuch equitable, fecret, and honourable Terms. We Whad others upon the Gri/is, who pretended to be - fick, but as foon as the Prieft felt their Pulse, and told them they were pait Danger, they took $u p$ their Beds and walk'd to the intended Confifcation.
${ }^{4}$ You may fay alfo, that we had one Man among 2us, tho' he fmelt frong of the Grains in our Nofes, for feveral Years paft, yet upon the M-ry's Promife n of difpenfing with an Order of Heraldry, he laboured hard for us, or for a Title, or for Batbl'His Sire, who
1 made his Fortune by Guile, is now forgotten, and the - Iurkifb Beat is no longer to remain below Stairs.

We have feveral other Men among us, who have equal Pretenfons to Honour, and thofe above all others, 3. were Roger's moft inveterate Opponents.

GACK BAYLIN, who was never noticed by any Perfon of Diftinction, but by Roger, tho' he has feven times a greater Fortune, than he has an Heart to fpend, you'll fay, inglorioufly took a Bribe, at his Requeft, I affure you, he never fingered a Penny of it, for Mifs received it to help her off his Hands, as all the Charms fhe has lie within the Precincts of her Pocket.

But why fuch Outcries againft poor Ganymede, tho' he has no Fee-fimple, he has found out the Philofopher's Stone, which will never let him want while he has a - e: Pardon the Expreffion, Gentlemen.

The worft of all our Party, was fobn, the Marketman, were it not for the indefatigable Induftry of his Holinefs, and the Menaces of his Father, we fhould never be able to quiet the Qualms of his Confcience, and what he has done, was much againft his Inclination.

LOFT $\Upsilon$ FRIBBLE, who was always eafily perfuaded to any thing that was bad, except fighting, proved fo great a Friend to us, that he ran the Rifque of his Life to ferve us, and is now poor Gentleman dying for what would rejoyce other Men, the Ref-r-$\mathrm{m}-\mathrm{n}$ of his W-e.

Some of our Friends are gone the Way of all Flefh, and will fpeedily rot, you'll fay, I told you before, they were not infallible, be not therefore furprized at their Mortality.
Consider, Gentlemen, we are no more than Men, very Men in deed, and if we are allowed to know the Difference between Meum © Tuum, you'll not be furprized at our accepting fuch valuable Propofals.

IT is an ill Wind that blows no Body good, a Friend of ours, a pious Divine got a $\mathrm{D}-\mathrm{n}-\mathrm{ry}$ by making his Tenants turn Idolaters, and wormip Stone, but he's gone to $E-d$ to fhun an Examination, and when he comes home, by the Grace of God, he'll decry Corruption in the Pulpit as well as the beft of them. * Mifs $H-m-\rho t-d$ has large Expectations of having her Penfion augmented, and 'tis hoped his $D-n-j-b$ will not forget her.

Our Endeavours you fay were crowned with as little Honour, as Succefs, we deny the Argument ; for he who is paid before his Work is done, can never lofe his Labour, we don't fell our Voices upon a Motion; and as to Honour, we refign that to thofe who have got no other Reward for all their Services to their Country.
Some afk us, how we can look our Connituents in the Face? very eafily, for we can affiure you, Gentlemen, what we did, we intended for the beft, and if you afk what we got our Places, $\mathcal{E}^{\circ} \mathrm{c}$. $\mathcal{F}^{\circ} t$. $\varepsilon^{\circ} c$. for? It was for our Duty to our King, and Attachment to $\mathrm{M}-\mathrm{n}$-ry, who are attached to us.

You may fay, we might be mof fincerely in the $K$ _g's Intereft, and at the fame time Guardians of the Liberties of the People, this I can't difown; but we could not be Slaves to the M--n-ry, and Patrons of our Country. And I hope Gentlemen you don't expect fallible Men, thould encounter Impoffiblities.

UPON our Requefts for your Suffrages, we promis'd our moft ftrenuous endeavours in oppafition to every Motion, which tended to the Injury of our Country, we promis'd that no Bribes, E'c, no Huffaring Parties, Clofetting Priefts, or Lordly Bafhaws, fhould tempt or cajole us to our Country's Ruin : Thefe, Gentlemen, are Words of Courfe, and are no more binding in our Family, than they Suit our Intereft.

- A young Womam in $W-d-\int \ldots t$ whom he $d \ldots c h ' d$, and has a Son by. She goes by the Name of Mifs $\mathrm{H}-\ldots$-m-f.-.d.

Whin G---rs and Coun--f-rs refolve on the moft pernicious Meafures, and with the greateft Refolution purfue them to our Deftruction, their Auxilaries muft be inlifted at the Expence of the Nation, and in fuch a Scene of emolumentary Diftributions, is it not fitter, that a Native fhould enrich himfelf thereby, than a Foreigner. And if Nurferies are to be rear'd up to betray the Liberties of the People, they have this Comfort, that the Price of the Venality will circulate among them.

You inveigh againft us, particularly for deferting a Noble E--l, who had efpoufed his Country's Caufe. In this we are by no Means to blame, for if we took part with the E-1, told Truth, or did him the leaft Juftice, we muft confequently blacken our Leader, and leave him, as he now is, up to his Neck in dirt. Suppofe we were to tell you the M---ey B---lls, like the Naturalization Act, bubled forme modern Fews out of their Money, you'll tell us perhaps, the Nation paid the Score, and therefore we are entituled to no Thanks. Why, indeed, all we expected we have got, and Thanks were always thought too airy a Diet for our Family.

You upbraid us, Gentlemen, of fending over a S--c--ry to mifreprefent you; and have you not fent over your Guardian E-1 to reprefent our Leader and us too? Is not this Diamond cut Diamond?

UPOn the whole, Gentlemen, the Parts we have acted, were natural to our Family; we are now in a comfortable Condition, by the Courtefy of your Enemies, we have no more to expect, and if in Charity to our Infirmities, you can forgive us for making our Fortunes at your Expence, the Remainder of our Lives, fhall be devoted to our Country's Service. And by our Attachment to your Interefts, and the Conftancy of your worthy Patriots, you may fecurely rely on a N. Con. upon all future Occafions, where the Intereft of your Country is any way concerned. We therefore, take Leave to conclude,

( 12 )

GENTLEMEN,

rour moft faithful, obedient, and devoted Friends, Reprefentatives, and Servants,

The C-T P-r.

$$
(13)
$$

Co---rt Mortality, छog.

$$
D \quad I E D .
$$

I. D. of a Gangrene on his Liver, and Ma II. The L. P-, by knocking his Brains out againft the Back-door of $C-m$ 's Boghoufe.
III. L. G-, of a Game at Brag, where neither red, nor black Knave, proved a Trump. IV, $R \rightarrow b M-x$, Efq; of the SToNE.

14)

V. R. H. $\mathcal{Y}-P \rightarrow, \mathrm{Efq}$; of the corroding Matter of the Heart.
VI. W-m $B--r-w$, Efq; of a Surfeit of Famaica Rum.
VII. $7-n B-r-e$, Efq; of an old Family Diforder, the Spleen and Poifon of the Heart.
VIII. $R-d P-n-y$, Efq; of an unkennel'd Fox in the Groin.
IX. W-n $F-d$, Efq; of a Whip Silly-bub, Caput Mortuum, and Naked Underttanding.
X. $P-T-l$, Efq; of the Curfe of his Creditors.
XI. $L-H-$, Efq; of the Reformation of his W---e.
XII. $P-B-g$, Efq, of a fpurious Ulcer in his Heart, and an over Dofe of Viper Broth, adminiftred by Mrs. s—n-rs.
XIII. $A \rightarrow r D-b-s, E f q$; loft in his Paffage to Cape Sinifter.
XIV. $R-r B-r-n, E f q$; of a Sting in the Confcience.
XV. $R-b \mathcal{F}=n$, Efq; of a Kick, from a Limerick Mare.
XVI. The $H$. $A-H$-, Efq; of a Wheel in the Head and Heart. XVÏ, $E-d S-n P-$, Efq; hunted to Death hy the $P$-r-e $S-r-j-t$.
XVIII. $S-C-B-n$, Efq; crufhed to Death by Roger, and the Free-Citizens.
XIX. The R.H. $L-G-$, Efq; by the Fall of the Bridge.
XX. $B-n W-t-c y$, Efq; of an Appeal from Paxdemonium, to Equity and Confcience.
XXI. T-B-, Efq; M. G. fcar'd by the Corruption of his Heart, fhared his B--r's Fate, and died of an Explofion of Gunpowder.
XXIf: $R-b C-u-m$, Efq; of the Piles, and a Fiftula in ano.
XXIII. 7 - W- $n_{2}$ fent to Heaven, by the Iniduftry of his W-f-e.
XXIV. S. $T-P-$ Efq; purfu'd to Pandemonium, by the Cries of $O S h=e y$.
$\mathrm{XXV} .7-M-x-l, \mathrm{Ef} ;$; of the Cries of Widows and Orphans.
XXVI. $E-n S-d$, Efq; of a Revolt from Virtue to Corruption, 2 2i olim probus erat, nunc eft contrarius probo.
XXVII. $H \rightarrow r-d S c-v-n$, Efq; of an empty Pocket.
XXVIII. $A g---\quad V-y$, Efq; of a bleeding Heart for his Country. Mum-
XXIX. $70 \rightarrow p L-$ Efq; of a Surfeit of Small-beer, and an hot Poultis of Grains.
XXX. $R \rightarrow b-s — t$, Efq; loft in the NewryGalley.
XXXI. $C b-D-$, Efq; hang'd with a Pair of Beads about his Neck in Ma/s-Lane.
XXXII, $R-b F-$, Ditto.
XXXIII. $M-u \rightarrow r e K$, Efq; of Impotency, and Platonick Defires.
XXXIV. $7-A-g-r$, Efq; flarved to Death, and not a Niggard like himfelf to be found to clofe his Eyes.
XXXV. $R-P-v-l$, Efq; of the Curfe of his Conftituents.
XXXVI. $P \rightarrow p a-v=-r$, Efq; of a Duel with the Bifhop of $\mathrm{C}-\cdots$.
XXXVII. H, $L-R-$, Efq; of an old Itch for Peerage, and a falfe Step on the big Stairs at the C-f-le.
XXXVIII. S. $T_{-}$T-, Efq; of a Priapifin.
XXXIX. T $-T-\cdots$, Efq; gor'd by his Fa--r's favourite Bullock, Self Denial.
XL. $W-m W-l$, Efq; of the Staggers in his old Age, the Guile of $300 \%$ and a Penfion: 0 !? XLI. $\mathcal{F}---B-r--g-n$, Efq; Ditto, a Groan! -
XLII. To-n $S-t-d$, Efq; of a Conftitutional Hifs, and a Penfion he was athamed to own.
XLIII. $W-B--l-w$, Efq; By the Fall of a CAthedral Stone.
XLIV. $7-n n B u-r$, Efq; of a Surfeit of Minifterial Beef, and a large Draught of Blunder and Puff.
XLV. Th-- $B-u-t$, E fq; for robbing the whole Party of the Bleffing of God.

ACCIDENTS.

35 Bit by a mad Dog Promife, were carried away to the Infirmary of the Confcience, and judged incurable.
CASUALTIES.

12 Broke their Necks afcending the Steps of the H---se of L---ds.

1. Ma, ISCHANCES.

24 Suffocated by the Stench of Difgrace.
MISCARRIAGES.
I Broke his Leg as he was puffing through the Crowd, to get into Rager's Chair.

BIRTHS.

A C - p p-n brought to Bed of a P-ote.

$$
F \quad I \quad N \quad I \quad S
$$

[^0]:    -See the E. of $K \longrightarrow$ 's M—.

