MUNSTER VOLUNTEER
REGISTER:

CONTAINING
A COMPLETE LIST

OF THE

Field Officers, and Officers,

OF THE

Several Corps of Cavalry, Artillery and Infantry,

OF THE

VOLUNTEER ARMY

OF MUNSTER PROVINCE,

THE UNIFORM OF EACH CORPS,

THEIR DATE OF ASSOCIATING,

WITH AN ALPHABETICAL INDEX.

BY A VOLUNTEER OF C. R. L. D.

The Love we bear our Country is a Root,
Which never fails to bring forth Golden Fruit:
'Tis in the Mind an everlasting Spring,
Of glorious Actions which become a King.

D U B L I N:

PRINTED BY BRETT SMITH, NO. 34,
BRIDGE-STREET.

M, DCC, LXXXII.

THE different Corps of MUNSTER were early applied to for Returns; such as sent them, are dated regularly, and those without Dates never favoured the Author with any, so he was obliged to insert them according to the best Information he could procure from the different Reviews of this Summer; he presents his warmest thanks to the different Corps who favoured him with Returns; and apprehends his letters to those who did not, must have miscarried.

N. B. All Cavalry wear Helmets, Infantry Hats, except Flank Companies. The Uniform Waistcoat and Breeches of every Corps (except those mentioned Buff) are White.

Address to the Volunteers of Ireland.

A PUBLICATION tending to transmit to Posterity, an authentic Record of the Volunteer Corps of this Kingdom, has long been ardently wished for; the Utility of a Work exhibiting in a small Compass every desirable Information of the most glorious Body of Patriots any Nation cou'd ever boast of, is too obvious to require the Aid of Comment to facilitate its Reception.

DID I address myself to a less illustrious Body, I might perhaps call in the Assistance of Panegyric: to the Volunteers of IRELAND, Panegyric must yield to the Feelings of Gratitude; our Country rescued from Usurpation, and elevated to a Rank among the Nations of Europe; our Rights secured, our Commerce revived, and our Coasts protected from the Insults of an Enemy, are Blessings too firmly imprinted in the Minds of IRISHMEN, to challenge the unmeaning Compliments too often the Stile of Dedication.

IT was indeed the Wish of the Author of the MUNSTER Volunteer Registry, to extend it beyond the Limits of one Province; but the Difficulties he experienced in that Undertaking, rendered a more general one, almost impracticable. Whilst the Wishes of the Nation seem'd to call aloud for some Work to perpetuate the Memory of the Saviours of their Country, he join'd the general Voice, and expected the Efforts of superior Abilities; since for so long a Period, a profound Silence has baffled the public Hopes, he cannot help offering his Tribute; happy might it serve for a Spur, to incite some Gentleman of more extensive information to finish the GREAT Work he has begun, he shall deem himself amply compensated for his Trouble, should his Labours prove the Materials of any Work, for the Honour of the Volunteer Cause, and the Satisfaction of the Public.
