A COPY of a CHARTER, for Erecting
English Protestant Schools, &c.

George the Second, by the Grace of God of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. To all Persons to whom these Presents shall come. Forasmuch as We have received Information by the Petition of the Lord Primate, Lord Chancellor, Archbishops, Noblemen, Bishops, Judges, Gentry and Clergy of Our Kingdom of Ireland, That in many Parts of our said Kingdom there are great Tracts of Mountainy and Coarse Land, of Ten, Twenty, and Thirty Miles in Length, and of considerable Breadth, almost intirely inhabited by Papists, and that in most Parts of the same, and more especially in the Provinces of Leinster, Munster, and Connaught, the Papists far exceed the Protestants of all Denominations in Number. That the Generality of the Popish Natives appear to have very little Sense or Knowledge of Religion, but what they implicitly take from their Clergy, to whose Guidance, in such Matters, they seem wholly to give themselves up, and thereby are kept, not only in gross Ignorance, but also in great Disaffection to our Person and Government, scarce any of them appearing to have been willing to abjure the Pretender to Our Throne: So that if some effectual Method be not made use of to instruct these great Numbers of People in the Principles of true Religion and Loyalty, there is little Prospect, but that Superstition and Idolatry, and Disaffection to Us and Recites, That in many Parts of this Kingdom there are great Tracts of Land, almost intirely inhabited by Papists.

That they are kept by their Clergy in great Ignorance of the true Religion, and bred up in great Disaffection to the Government.

That the Erecting of Protestant English Schools in those Places, is absolutely necessary for their Conversion.

That the English Parish Schools already established, are not sufficient for that Purpose, nor can the Residence of the Parochial Clergy only fully answer the End.

Our Royal Posterity, will, from Generation to Generation, be propagated amongst them. That among the Ways proper to be taken for converting and civilizing of the said deluded Persons, and bringing them (through the Blessing of God) in Time to be good Christians and faithful Subjects, one of the most necessary, and without which, all others are likely to prove ineffectual, has always been thought to be the Erecting and Establishing a sufficient Number of English Protestant Schools, wherein the Children of the Irish Natives may be instructed in the English Tongue, and the fundamental Principles of true Religion. That in Pursuance thereof, the Parish Ministers (throughout Our said Kingdom) have generally endeavoured, and often, with some Expence to themselves, to provide Masters for such Schools, within their respective Parishes, as the Law requires them to do: But the richer Papists commonly refusing to send their Children to such Schools, and the poorer (which are much the greater Number) not being able to pay the accustomed Salary, as the Law directs, for their Children's Schooling, such Schoolmasters (where they have been placed) have seldom been able to subsist; and, in most Places, sufficient Masters are utterly discouraged from undertaking such an Employment; nor is it to be expected, that the Residence of the Protestant Clergy, upon their respective Benefices, will ever be a sufficient Remedy for this growing Evil, if some effectual Encouragement be not given to such English Protestant Schools. To the Intent therefore, that the Children of the Popish, and other poor Natives of Our said Kingdom of Ireland, may be instructed in the English Tongue, and in the Principles of true Religion and Loyalty, in all succeeding Generations.

AND to the End that so good a Design may the more orderly and effectually be carried on, Know ye therefore, that We of Our especial Grace, certain Knowledge, and meer Motion, by and with the Advice and Consent of Our Right Trusty, and right entirely beloved Cousin and Councillor, Lionel Cranfield, Duke of Dorset, Our Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Our said Kingdom of Ireland, and according to the Tenor and Effect of Our Letters, under Our Privy-Signet and Sign-Manual, bearing Date at Our Court at Richmond the Twelfth Day of July, One thousand, Seven hundred and Thirty three, in the Seventh Year of Our Reign, have granted, ordained, declared, constituted and appointed: And by these Presents We do for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, grant, ordain, declare, constitute and appoint, That Our Right Trusty, and right entirely beloved Cousin and Councillor, Lionel Cranfield, Duke of Dorset, Our Lieutenant-General, and General Governor of Our Kingdom of Ireland, and the Chief Governor or Governors of Our said Kingdom, for the Time being; the Most Reverend Father in God, Our Right Trusty, and right entirely beloved Councillor, Hugh, Lord Archbishop of Ardmagh, Primate of all Ireland, and the Archbishop of Ardmagh, for the Time being, and the Archbishops of Ardmagh, for the Time being.
