PREFACE

THE present volume, though it appears after the publication of the two volumes containing the Service for the Day of Atonement, forms the first of the series. The observations which were made in the Prefatory Note to the Evening Service for the Day of Atonement apply to this and the succeeding volumes, and need not be repeated. It is with deep sorrow that the death must be recorded of Mr. Arthur Davis, to whose initiative this work is due, and who bore a large part in the work of translation and who with Mr. Herbert Adler has been responsible for the preparation of the Hebrew text. With unflagging zeal and untiring interest he laboured towards ensuring the accuracy and reliability of the work and he was engaged upon it almost till the moment of his death. He left considerable materials also for the remaining volumes, in connexion chiefly with the text and translation of the Bible passages, a task with which he was peculiarly fitted to deal.

The translation of the prose in this, as in the preceding volumes, has been executed by Mr. Davis and the Editor, Mr. Adler. Some degree of use has been made of the translations contained in the Rev. S. Singer's edition of the Daily Prayer Book, as it was frequently felt that it would be difficult to improve upon so scholarly a rendering. To him and to the Jewish Religious Education Board the thanks of the authors are due for the permission which they readily gave. The passages that have been translated into verse are the work of Mr. Israel Zangwill, Mrs. Redcliffe Salaman ("Nina Davis"), and Miss Elsie Davis. Lady Magnus has also contributed the translation of a poem. A detailed key of the composers and translators has, as before, been inserted in the Appendix.

AFTERNOON SERVICE

FOR

THE EVE OF THE NEW YEAR

HAPPY are they that dwell in thy house; they will be ever praising thee. Selah. Happy is the people that is in such a case; happy is the people whose God is the Lord.

Psalm cxlv. A Psalm of Praise of David.

I will extol thee, my God, O King; and I will bless thy name for ever and ever. Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy name for ever and ever. Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable. One generation shall laud thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts. Of the glorious honour of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous works, will I speak. And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts; and I will declare thy greatness. They shall utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness. The Lord is gracious and full of compassion; slow to anger and of great mercy. The Lord is good to all; and his tender mercies are over all his works. All thy works shall give thanks unto thee, O Lord; and thy pious servants shall bless thee. They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power; to make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glory of the majesty of his kingdom. Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.

אֱלֹהֵי יִצְחָק וֵאלֹהֵי יַעֲקֹב׃ הָאֵל הַגָּדוֹל הַגִּבּוֹר וְהַנּוֹרָא

The Lord upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down. The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat in due season. Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing. The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and merciful in all his works. The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth. He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him; he also will hear their cry, and will save them. The Lord preserveth all them that love him; but all the wicked will he destroy. My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord; and let all flesh bless his holy Name for ever and ever.

And as for us, we will bless the Lord from this time forth, and for evermore. Praise ye the Lord.

Reader. Magnified and sanctified be his great Name in the world he hath created according to his will. May he establish his kingdom in your life-time and in your days, and in the life-time of all the house of Israel, speedily and at a near time; and say ye, Amen.

Cong. Let his great Name be blessed for ever and ever.

Reader. Blessed, praised and glorified, exalted, extolled and honored, adored and lauded be the Name of the Holy One, blessed be he, beyond, yea, beyond all blessings and hymns, praises and songs, which are uttered in the world, and say ye, Amen.

The Amidah until as in ancient years, on p. 11, is said silently.

O Lord, open thou my lips, and my mouth shall declare thy praise.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, God of Abraham, God of Isaac, and God of Jacob, O great, mighty and awful God, most high God, who bestowest gracious favours and who possessest all things, who remeberest the piety of the patriarchs, and who in love wilt bring a redeemer to their children's children, for the sake of thy Name. O King, Helper, Saviour and Shield; blessed art thou, O Lord, the Shield of Abraham.

Thou art mighty for ever, O Lord; it is thou who quickenest the dead and art mighty to save. Thou sustainest the living with loving-kindness, quickenest the dead with great mercy, supportest the falling and healest the sick, loosest the bound, and keepest thy faith unto them that sleep in the dust. Who is like unto thee, Lord of mighty acts, and who can be compared unto thee, O King, who killest and restorest to life and causest salvation to spring forth? And faithful art thou to quicken the dead. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who quickenest the dead.

Thou art holy and thy Name is holy, and holy beings praise thee daily. Selah. Blessed art thou, O Lord, the holy God.

In repeating the Amidah, the Reader substitutes from We will sanctify to Holy God for the preceding paragraph.

We will sanctify thy Name in the world, as they sanctify it in the highest heavens, as it is written by the hand of thy prophet: and one cried unto another and said,

Cong. and Reader. Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.

Reader. Those over against them say, Blessed—

Cong. and Reader. Blessed be the glory of the Lord from his place.

Reader. And in thy holy words it is written, saying—

Cong. and Reader. The Lord shall reign for ever, thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the Lord.

Reader. Unto all generations we will declare thy greatness, and to all eternity we will proclaim thy holiness; and thy praise, O our God, shall not depart from our mouth for ever; for thou art a great and holy God and King. Blessed art thou, O Lord, the Holy God.

Thou dost graciously give knowledge unto man, and teachest mortals understanding; O graciously give us knowledge, understanding and discernment from thee. Blessed art thou, O Lord, gracious giver of knowledge.

Cause us to return, O our Father, unto thy law; draw us near, O our King, unto thy service, and bring us back in perfect repentance unto thy presence. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who delightest in repentance.

Forgive us, O our Father, for we have sinned: pardon us, O our King, for we have transgressed; for thou dost pardon and forgive. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who art gracious and dost abundantly forgive.

Look upon our afflictions, and plead our cause, and redeem us speedily for the sake of thy Name; for thou art a mighty Redeemer. Blessed art thou, O Lord, the Redeemer of Israel.

Heal us, O Lord, and we shall be healed, save us and we shall be saved; for thou art our praise. And bring perfect healing to all our wounds; for thou, Almighty King, art a faithful and merciful healer. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who healest the sick of thy people Israel.

Bless this year unto us, O Lord our God, and every kind of the produce thereof for our benefit; set a blessing upon the face of the earth. O satisfy us from thy goodness, and bless our year like other good years. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who blessest the years.

Sound the great horn for our freedom; lift up the ensign to gather our exiles, and gather us together from the four corners of the earth. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who gatherest the outcasts of thy people Israel.

Restore our judges as at the first, and our councillors as at the beginning: remove from us sorrow and sighing; reign thou over us, O Lord, thou alone, in kindness and tender mercy, and justify us in judgment. Blessed art thou, O Lord, thou King who lovest righteousness and judgment.

And for slanderers let there be no hope; and let all wickedness perish in a moment; let all thine enemies be speedily cut off, and the dominion of arrogance do thou uproot and crush and cast down and humble speedily in our days. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who breakest the enemies and humblest the arrogant.

Upon the righteous and the pious, upon the elders of thy people the house of Israel, upon the remnant of their scribes, upon the proselytes of righteousness and upon us may thy tender mercies be moved, O Lord our God. O grant a good reward unto all who faithfully trust in thy Name; set our portion with them for ever; so that we may not be put to shame; for we have trusted in thee. Blessed art thou, O Lord, the stay and trust of the righteous.

And to Jerusalem, thy city, return in mercy, and dwell in the midst thereof as thou hast spoken; rebuild it soon in our days as an everlasting building, and speedily set up therein the throne of David. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who buildest up Jerusalem.

Speedily cause the offspring of David, thy servant, to flourish, and let his horn be exalted by thy salvation; for we wait for thy salvation all the day. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who causest the horn of salvation to flourish.

Hear our voice, O Lord our God, pity and compassionate us, and accept our prayer in mercy and favour: for thou art a God who hearkenest unto prayers and supplications. And from thy presence, O our King, turn us not away empty, for thou hearkenest in mercy to the prayer of thy people Israel. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who hearkenest unto prayer.

Accept, O Lord our God, thy people Israel and their prayer; restore the service to the innermost part of thine house; receive in love and favour the fire-offerings of Israel and their prayer; and may the service of thy people Israel be ever acceptable to thee. And let our eyes behold thy return in mercy to Zion. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who restorest thy divine presence unto Zion.

We make acknowledgment unto thee, that thou art the Lord our God and the God of our fathers for ever and ever; thou art the Rock of our lives, the Shield of our salvation through every generation. We will give thanks unto thee and declare thy praise for our lives which are delivered into thy hand, and for our souls which are committed unto thy charge, and for thy miracles which are with us every day, and for thy wondrous benefits which are with us at all times, even, morn and noon. Thou art the Beneficent One, for thy mercies never fail; thou art the Merciful One, for thy kindnesses never cease. We have ever hoped in thee.

When the Reader repeats the Amidah, the Congregation substitute for the above paragraph—

We make acknowledgement unto thee, that thou art the Lord, our God and the God of our fathers, the God of all flesh, our Creator and the Creator of all things in the beginning. Blessings and thanksgivings be to thy great and holy Name, because thou hast kept us alive and supported us. So continue to keep us alive and support us; and gather our exiles to thy holy courts to observe thy statutes, to perform thy will and to serve thee with a perfect heart; for this we give thanks unto thee. Blessed be God to whom thanksgivings belong.

And for all these things, O our King, thy Name shall be continually blessed and exalted for ever and ever. And every one that liveth shall give thanks unto thee, Selah; and shall praise thy Name in truth, O God, our salvation and help, Selah. Blessed art thou, O Lord, whose name is the Beneficient One, and unto whom it is becoming to give thanks.

Grant abundant peace unto Israel thy people for ever; for thou art Sovereign of all peace; and may it be good in thy sight to bless thy people Israel at all times and in every hour with thy peace. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who blessest thy people Israel with peace.

O my God, guard my tongue from evil and my lips from speaking guile; and to such as curse me, let my soul be silent, yea, let my soul be unto all as the dust. Open thou my heart to thy Law, and let my soul pursue thy commandments. And as to any who devise evil against me, speedily make their counsel of none effect and frustrate their design. Do thou it for the sake of thy Name, do it for the sake of thy right hand, do it for the sake of thy holiness, do it for the sake of thy Law, that thy beloved ones may be delivered. O save with thy right hand and answer me. Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable before thee, O Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer. He who maketh peace in his high places, may he make peace for us and for all Israel, and say ye, Amen. May it be thy will, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, that the temple be speedily rebuilt in our days, and grant our portion in thy Law.

And there we will serve thee with awe, as in the days of old and as in ancient years. And the offering of Judah and Jerusalem shall be pleasant unto the Lord, as in the days of old and as in ancient years.

The Reader repeats the Amidah aloud to Israel with peace above, and continues with the following Kaddish:

Magnified and sanctified be his great Name in the world which he hath created according to his will. May he establish his kingdom in your life-time and in your days, and in the life-time of all the house of Israel, speedily and at a near time; and say ye, Amen.

Cong. Let his great Name be blessed for ever and ever.

EVENING SERVICE

FOR

THE NEW YEAR

On Sabbath the following Psalms and Kaddish are said:

Psalm xcii. A Psalm, a Song for the Sabbath Day.

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto thy Name, O Most High: to show forth thy loving kindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness every night, upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the psaltery; upon the harp with a solemn sound. For thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands. How great are thy works, O Lord! thy thoughts are very deep. A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this. When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever. But thou, O Lord, art most high for evermore. For, lo, thine enemies, O Lord, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered. But my horn hast thou exalted like the horn of the wild ox: I am anointed with fresh oil. Mine eye hath seen mine enemies; mine ears have heard of the wicked who rise up against me. The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon. They shall be planted in the house of the Lord; they shall flourish in the courts of our God. They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be full of sap, and green; to show that the Lord is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Psalm xciii.

The Lord reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the Lord is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself; the world also is established, that it cannot be moved. Thy throne is established of old: thou art from everlasting. The floods have lifted up, O Lord, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves. The Lord on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty breakers of the sea. Thy testimonies are very sure; holiness becometh thine house, O Lord, for ever.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who at thy word bringest on the evening, with wisdom openest the gates, and with understanding changest the times and variest the seasons and orderest the stars in their watches in the firmament according to thy will. Thou createst day and night; thou rollest away the light from before the darkness, and the darkness before the light; thou makest the day to pass and the night to approach, and dividest the day from the night: the Lord of hosts is thy Name; O God, living and enduring continually, who wilt reign over us for ever and ever. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who bringest on the evening.

With everlasting love hast thou loved the house of Israel, thy people; a law and commandments, statutes and judgments hast thou taught us. Therefore, O Lord our God, when we lie down and when we rise up, we will meditate on thy statutes, and we will rejoice in the words of thy Law and in thy commandments for ever and ever; for they are our life and the length of our days, and on them we will meditate day and night. And mayest thou never take thy love away from us. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who loves thy people Israel.

Deuteronomy vi. 4-9.

[1] Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is One.

The following verse is said silently:

[2] Blessed be his glorious, sovereign Name for ever and ever.

And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: and thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be for frontlets between thine eyes. And thou shalt write them upon the door-posts of thine house, and upon thy gates.

Deuteronomy xi. 13-21.

And it shall come to pass, if ye will hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love the Lord your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul: that I will give the rain of your land in its season, the first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn and thy wine and thine oil. And I will send grass in thy fields for thy cattle, that thou mayest eat and be satisfied. Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them: and the Lord's wrath be kindled against you, and he shut up the heaven, and there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit, and ye perish quickly from off the good land which the Lord giveth you. Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, and they shall be for frontlets between your eyes. And ye shall teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down and when thou risest up. And thou shalt write them upon the door-posts of thine house and upon thy gates: that your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the Lord sware unto your fathers to give them, as the days of the heavens upon the earth.

Numbers xv. 37-41.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying: Speak unto the children of Israel, and bid them that they make them fringes in the corners of their garments throughout their generations, and that they put upon the fringe of the corner a thread of blue: and it shall be unto you for a fringe, that ye may look upon it and remember all the commandments of the Lord, and do them; and that ye seek not after your own heart and your own eyes, after which ye use to go astray: that ye may remember and do all my commandments, and be holy unto your God. Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God; I am the Lord your God.

True and faithful is all this, and it is established with us that he is the Lord our God, and there is none beside him, and that we, Israel, are his people. It is he who redeemed us from the hand of kings; he is our King who delivered us from the hand of all the terrible ones; the God, who on our behalf dealt retribution to our adversaries, and requited all the enemies of our soul; who doeth great things past finding out, and marvellous things without number; who hath appointed our soul in life, and hath not suffered our feet to be moved; who made us tread upon the high places of our enemies, and exalted our horn over all them that hated us; who wrought for us miracles and vengeance upon Pharaoh, signs and wonders in the land of the children of Ham; who, in his wrath, smote all the first-born of Egypt, and brought forth his people Israel from among them to everlasting freedom; who made his children pass between the division of the Red Sea, and sank their pursuers and their enemies in the depths. Then his children beheld his might; they praised and gave thanks unto his Name, and willingly accepted his sovereignty. Moses and the children of Israel sang a song unto thee with great joy, saying all of them:

Who is like unto thee, O Lord, among the mighty ones? Who is like unto thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?

Thy children beheld thy sovereign power as thou didst cleave the sea before Moses; they exclaimed, This is my God! and said: The Lord shall reign for ever and ever.

And it is said, For the Lord hath delivered Jacob, and redeemed him from the hand that was stronger than he. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who hast redeemed Israel.

Cause us, O Lord our God, to lie down in peace, and raise us up, O our King, unto life, and spread over us the canopy of thy peace; direct us with thy counsel, and Guard our going out and our coming in, unto life and peace from this time forth and for evermore; and spread over us the canopy of thy peace. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who spreadest the canopy of peace over us, and over all thy people Israel, and over Jerusalem.

On Sabbath add until and rested:

And the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations, as an everlasting covenant. Between me and the children of Israel it is a sign for ever; for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he ceased from work and rested.

Blow ye the trumpet on the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast-day. For it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob.

Reader. Magnified and sanctified be his great Name in the world he hath created according to his will. May he establish his kingdom in your life-time and in your days, and in the life-time of all the house of Israel, speedily and at a near time; and say ye, Amen.

Cong. and Reader. Let his great Name be blessed for ever and ever.

Reader. Blessed, praised and glorified, exalted, extolled and honoured, adored and lauded be the Name of the Holy One, blessed be he, beyond, yea, beyond all blessings and hymns, praises and songs, which are uttered in the world; and say ye, Amen.

The Amidah until in ancient years, on page 19 is said standing and in silence.

O Lord, open thou my lips, and my mouth shall declare thy praise.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, God of Abraham, God of Isaac, and God of Jacob, O great, mighty and awful God, most high God, who bestowest gracious favours, and who possessest all things, who rememberest the piety of the patriarchs, and who in love wilt bring a redeemer to their children's children, for the sake of thy Name. Remember us unto life, O King, who delightest in life, and inscribe us in the book of life, for thine own sake, O living God. O King, Helper, Saviour and Shield; blessed art thou, O Lord, the Shield of Abraham.

Thou art mighty for ever, O Lord; it is thou who quickenest the dead, and are mighty to save. Thou sustainest the living with loving-kindness, quickenest the dead with great mercy, supportest the falling and healest the sick, loosest the bound, and keepest thy faith unto them that sleep in the dust. Who is like unto thee, Lord of mighty acts, and who can be compared unto thee, O King, who killest and restorest to life and causest salvation to spring forth? Who is like unto thee, Father of mercy, who in mercy rememberest thy creatures unto life? And faithful art thou to quicken the dead. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who quickenest the dead.

Thou art holy and thy Name is holy, and holy beings praise thee daily. Selah.

Now therefore, O Lord our God, impose thine awe upon all thy works and thy dread over all that thou hast created, that all thy works may fear thee and all creatures prostrate themselves before thee, that they may all form one band to do thy will with a perfect heart: even as we know, O Lord our God, that dominion is thine, strength is in thy hand, and might in thy right hand, and that thy Name is awful over all that thou hast created.

And therefore, O Lord, give glory unto thy people, praise to them that fear thee, hope to them that seek thee, confidence to them that wait for thee, joy to thy land, gladness to thy City, a flourishing horn unto David thy servant, and a constant light upon the son of Jesse, thine anointed, speedily in our days.

Then shall the just see and be glad, the upright shall exult, the pious shall rejoice in song, and iniquity shall close her mouth, and all wickedness shall be wholly consumed like smoke, when thou makest the dominion of arrogance to pass away from the earth.

And thou, O Lord, shalt reign, thou alone, over all thy works on Mount Zion, the dwelling-place of thy glory, and in Jerusalem, thy holy City; as it is written in thy holy words, The Lord shall reign for ever, thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the Lord.

Holy art thou, and awful is thy Name, and there is no God beside thee; as it is written, And the Lord of hosts is exalted in judgment and the holy God is sanctified in righteousness. Blessed art thou, O Lord, the holy King.

Thou hast chosen us from all peoples; thou hast loved us and taken pleasure in us, and hast exalted us above all tongues. Thou hast sanctified us by thy commandments, and hast drawn us near, O our King, unto thy service, and hast called us by thy great and holy name.

On Saturday night the following is added:

Thou hast made known unto us, O Lord our God, thy righteous judgments, and hast taught us to perform the statutes of thy will. Thou hast given us, O Lord our God, just ordinances and laws of truth, statutes and commandments that are good. Thou hast caused us to inherit joyous seasons and holy days, and festivals of freewill offering. Thou hast endowed us with the sanctity of the Sabbath, the honour of the holy days, and the festive delight of thy feasts. And thou hast bidden us, O Lord our God, to distinguish between holy and profane, between light and darkness, between Israel and other peoples, between the seventh day and the six days of work. Thou hast set a distinction between the holiness of the Sabbath and the holiness of the Festival, and hast hallowed the seventh day above the six days of work. Thou hast distinguished and sanctified thy people Israel with thy holiness.

On Sabbath add the bracketed words:

And thou hast given us in love, O Lord our God, [this Sabbath day and] this Day of Memorial, a day of blowing the horn: [On Sabbath say: a day of remembrance of the blowing of the horn, in love:] a holy convocation, a memorial of the departure from Egypt.

Our God and God of our fathers, may our remembrance and our name, and the remembrance of our fathers, the remembrance of Messiah the son of David, the remembrance of Jerusalem thy holy City, and the remembrance of all thy people the house of Israel, rise and go up, approach to thy presence and find grace; may it be heard, visited, and remembered, for deliverance and for good, for grace, loving-kindness and mercy, for life and for peace on this Day of Memorial. Remember us, O Lord our God, thereon for good; visit us with a blessing, and save us unto life. And with thy word of salvation and mercy, spare us and be gracious unto us; have mercy upon us and save us; for unto thee our eyes are turned, for thou art a gracious and merciful God and King.

Our God and God of our fathers, reign over the whole Universe in thy glory, and in thy splendour be exalted over all the earth. Shine forth in the majesty of thy triumphant strength over all the inhabitants of thy world, that every form may know that thou hast formed it, and every creature understand that thou hast created it, and that all that hath breath in its nostrils may say: The Lord God of Israel is King and his dominion ruleth over all. [Our God and the God of our fathers, accept our rest,] sanctify us by thy commandments and grant our portion be in thy Law; satisfy us with thy goodness, and gladden us with thy salvation, [and cause us, O Lord our God, in love and favour to inherit thy holy Sabbath; and may Israel find repose thereon who hallow thy Name,] and purify our hearts to serve thee in truth; for thou, O God, art truth, and thy word is truth and endureth for ever. Blessed art thou, O Lord, thou King over all the earth, who sanctifiest [the Sabbath and] Israel and the Day of Memorial.

Accept, O Lord our God, thy people Israel and their prayer; restore the service to the innermost part of thine house; receive in love and favour the fire-offerings of Israel and their prayer; and may the service of thy people Israel be ever acceptable to thee. And let our eyes behold thy return in mercy to Zion. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who restorest thy divine presence unto Zion.

We make acknowledgment unto thee, that thou art the Lord our God and the God of our fathers for ever and ever; thou art the Rock of our lives, the Shield of our salvation through every generation. We will give thanks unto thee and declare thy praise for our lives which are delivered into thy hand, and for our souls which are committed unto thy charge, and for thy miracles which are with us every day, and for thy wondrous benefits which are with us at all times, even, morn and noon. Thou art the Beneficient one, for thy mercies never fail; thou art the Merciful One, for thy kindnesses never cease. We have ever hoped in thee.

And for all these things, O our King, thy Name shall be continually blessed and exalted for ever and ever. And inscribe all the children of thy covenant for a happy life. And every one that liveth shall give thanks unto thee, Selah; and shall praise thy Name in truth, O God, our salvation and help, Selah. Blessed art thou, O Lord, whose Name is the Beneficent One, and unto whom it is becoming to give thanks.

Grant abundant peace unto Israel thy people for ever; for thou art Sovereign of all peace; and may it be good in thy sight to bless thy people Israel at all times and in every hour with thy peace. In the book of life, blessing, peace and good sustenance may we be remembered and inscribed before thee, we and all thy people the house of Israel, for a happy life and peace. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who makest peace.

O my God, guard my tongue from evil and my lips from speaking guile; and to such as curse me, let my soul be silent, yea, let my soul be unto all as the dust. Open thou my heart to thy Law, and let my soul pursue thy commandments. And as to any who devise evil against me, speedily make their counsel of none effect and frustrate their design. Do thou it for the sake of thy Name, do it for the sake of thy right hand, do it for the sake of thy holiness, do it for the sake of thy Law, that thy beloved ones may be delivered. O save with thy right hand and answer me. Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable before thee, O Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer. He who maketh peace in his high places, may he make peace for us and for all Israel, and say ye, Amen. May it be thy will, O Lord our God, and God of our fathers, that the temple be speedily rebuilt in our days, and grant our portion in thy Law.

And there we will serve thee with awe, as in the days of old and as in ancient years. And the offering of Judah and Jerusalem shall be pleasant unto the Lord, as in the days of old and as in ancient years.

holy Sabbath; forasmuch as he delighted in them to give them repose. Him will we serve with awe and reverence, and every day give thanks unto his Name continually, from the appointed form of blessings. He is God of thanksgivings and Lord of peace, who halloweth the Sabbath and blesseth the seventh day, and who in holiness granteth rest unto a people satisfied with his delights, a memorial of the work of the creation.

Reader. Our God and God of our fathers, accept our rest. Sanctify us by thy commandments, and grant our portion be in thy Law; satisfy us with thy goodness, gladden us with thy salvation and purify our hearts to serve thee in truth. And cause us, O Lord our God, in love and favour to inherit thy holy Sabbath, and may Israel find repose thereon, who sanctify thy Name. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who sanctifiest the Sabbath.

Magnified and sanctified be his great Name in the world which he hath created according to his will. May he establish his kingdom in your life-time and in your days, and in the life-time of all the house of Israel, speedily and at a near time; and say ye, Amen.

Cong. Let his great Name be blessed for ever and ever.

Blessed, praised and glorified, exalted, extolled and honoured, adored and lauded be the Name of the Holy One, blessed be he, beyond, yea, beyond all blessings and hymns, praises and songs, which are uttered in the world; and say ye, Amen.

May the prayers and supplications of the whole house of Israel be accepted in the presence of their Father who is in heaven; and say ye, Amen.

May there be abundant peace from heaven, and life for us and for all Israel; and say ye, Amen.

May he who maketh peace in his high places, make peace for us and for all Israel: and say ye. Amen.

The Reader takes a cup of wine in his right hand and says the following blessings. The bracketed words are added on Sabbath.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who createst the fruit of the vine.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who hast chosen us from all peoples and exalted us above all tongues and sanctified us by thy commandments. Thou hast given us in love, O Lord our God, [this Sabbath day and] this Day of Memorial, a day of blowing the horn: [on Sabbath say: a day of remembrance of the blowing of the horn, in love:] a holy convocation, a memorial of the departure from Egypt. For thou hast chosen us and hast sanctified us above all nations; and thy word is truth and endureth for ever. Blessed art thou, O Lord, thou King over all the earth, who sanctifiest [the Sabbath and] Israel and the Day of Memorial.

On Saturday night the following until holy and holy is added:

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who createst the light of the fire.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who hast made a distinction between holy and profane, between light and darkness, between Israel and other peoples, between the seventh day and the six days of work. Thou hast set a distinction between the holiness of the Sabbath and the holiness of the Festival, and hast hallowed the seventh day above the six days of work; thou hast distinguished and sanctified thy people Israel by thy holiness. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who hast made a distinction between holy and holy.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who hast kept us in life, and hast preserved us and enabled us to reach this season.

It behoveth us to praise the Lord of all, to ascribe greatness to him who formed the world in the beginning; that he hath not made us like the nations of other lands, and hath not placed us like other families of the earth, that he hath not given unto us a portion as unto them, nor a lot as unto all their multitude; for we bend the knee and prostrate ourselves and make acknowledgment before the supreme King of kings, the Holy One, blessed be he, who stretched forth the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth, the abode of whose glory is in the heavens above, and the dwelling of whose majesty is upon the loftiest heights. He is our God, there is none else: in truth he is our King, there is none beside him, as it is written in his Law, Know therefore this day, and lay it to thine heart, that the Lord he is God in heaven above and upon the earth beneath, there is none else.

Therefore we hope in thee, O Lord our God, that we may speedily behold the glory of thy might, when thou wilt remove the abominations from the earth, and the idols shall be utterly cut off; when the world shall be set under the kingdom of the Almighty, and all the children of flesh shall call upon thy Name, when thou wilt turn unto thyself all the wicked of the earth. All the inhabitants of the world shall know and acknowledge that unto thee every knee must bend, every tongue must swear. Before thee, O Lord our God, shall they kneel and fall, and they shall give honour unto thy glorious Name; they shall all accept the yoke of thy kingdom, and over them thou wilt speedily reign for ever and ever. For the Kingdom is thine, and to all eternity wilt thou reign in glory, as it is written in thy Law, The Lord shall reign for ever and ever.    No semblance of His holiness can frame.

4. Before Creation's dawn He was the same;
   The first to be, though never He began.

5. He is the world's and every creature's Lord;
   His rule and majesty are manifest,

6. And through His chosen, glorious sons exprest
   In prophecies that through their lips are poured.

7. Yet never like to Moses rose a seer,
   Permitted glimpse behind the veil divine.

8. This faithful prince of God's prophetic line
   Received the Law of Truth for Israel's ear.

צוֹפֶה וְיוֹדֵעַ סְתָרֵינוּ· מַבִּיט לְסוֹף דָּבָר בְּקַדְמָתוֹ :
גּוֹמֵל לְאִישׁ חֶסֶד כְּמִפְעָלוֹ· נוֹתֵן לָרָשָׁע רַע כְּרִשְׁעָתוֹ :

מֵתִים יְחַיֶּה אֵל בְּרֹב חַסְדּוֹ· בָּרוּךְ עֲדֵי עַד שֵׁם תְּהִלָּתוֹ :

The last verse is repeated.

The following form of greeting is used:

לְשָׁנָה טוֹבָה תִּכָּתֵב (תִּכָּתְבוּ): To men.

לְשָׁנָה טוֹבָה תִּכָּתְבִי (תִּכָּתַבְנָה): To women.

After קידוש and מוציא have been said in the home, it is customary to take an apple dipped in honey and to say:

בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם· בּוֹרֵא פְּרִי הָעֵץ

After partaking of the apple and honey, say:

יְהִי רָצוֹן מִלְּפָנֶיךָ יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ וֵאלֹהֵי אֲבוֹתֵינוּ
שֶׁתְּחַדֵּשׁ עָלֵינוּ שָׁנָה טוֹבָה וּמְתוּקָה:

9. The Law God gave He never will amend,
Nor ever by another Law replace.

10. Our secret things are spread before His face;
In all beginnings He beholds the end.

11. The saint's reward He measures to his meed;
The sinner reaps the harvest of his ways.

12. Messiah He will send at end of days,
And all the faithful to salvation lead.

13. God will the dead again to life restore
In His abundance of almighty love.

Then blessèd be His name, all names above,
And let His praise resound for evermore.

The following form of greeting is used:

May you be inscribed for a happy life.

After Kiddush and the Grace before bread have been said in the home, it is customary to take an apple dipped in honey and to say:

Blessed art thou O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who createst the fruit of the tree.

After partaking of the apple and honey, say;

May it be thy will, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, to renew unto us a happy and pleasant year.

MORNING SERVICE

Prayers on entering the Synagogue:

AND as for me, in the multitude of thy loving-kindness I will come into thy house: in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

Into the house of God we will walk in company.

How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob; thy tabernacles, O Israel. And as for me, in the multitude of thy loving-kindness I will come into thy house: in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple. Lord, I love the habitation of thy house and the place where thy glory dwelleth. And I will worship and bow down, I will bend the knee before the Lord, my Maker. And as for me, my prayer be unto thee, O Lord, in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude of thy mercy, answer me in the truth of thy salvation.

At the dawn I seek Thee,
Refuge, Rock sublime;
Set my prayer before Thee in the morning,
And my prayer at eventime.

I before Thy greatness
Stand and am afraid:
All my secret thoughts Thine eye beholdeth
Deep within my bosom laid.

And withal what is it
Heart and tongue can do?
What is this my strength, and what is even
This the spirit in me too?

But indeed man's singing
May seem good to Thee;
So I praise Thee, singing, while there dwelleth
Yet the breath of God in me.

Lord of the world, He reigned alone
While yet the universe was naught.
When by His will all things were wrought,
Then first His sovran name was known.

And when the All shall cease to be,
In dread lone splendour He shall reign.
He was, He is, He shall remain
In glorious eternity.

For He is one, no second shares
His nature or His loneliness;
Unending and beginningless,
All strength is His, all sway He bears.

He is the living God to save,
My Rock while sorrow's toils endure,
My banner and my stronghold sure,
The cup of life whene'er I crave.

I place my soul within His palm
Before I sleep as when I wake,
And though my body I forsake,
Rest in the Lord in fearless calm.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who hast sanctified us with thy commandments and commanded us concerning the washing of the hands.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who hast fashioned man in wisdom and created in him many orifices and tubes. It is revealed and known before thy glorious throne that if but one of these be stopped or opened it would be impossible to exist and to stand before thy presence. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who healest all flesh and workest wondrously.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who hast sanctified us with thy commandments and commanded us to study the words of the Law.

And mayest thou make the words of thy Law, O Lord our God, pleasant in our mouth and in the mouth of thy people, the house of Israel, so that we and our descendants and the descendants of thy people, the house of Israel, may all have knowledge of thy Name and may study thy Law for its own sake. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who teachest the Law to thy people Israel. Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who hast chosen us from all peoples and hast given us thy Law. Blessed art thou, O Lord, giver of the Law.

The Lord bless thee and keep thee. The Lord make his face to shine upon thee and be gracious unto thee. The Lord incline his countenance unto thee and give thee peace.

Mishnah Peah 1, and Baraithoth.

The following are the commandments as to which no measure is imposed: leaving the corner of the field, offering the first-fruits, gifts on appearing at the sanctuary on the three festivals, charity and the study of the Law. The following are the commandments of which a man enjoys the fruit in this world, whilst the principal is laid up for him in the world to come: honouring one's father and mother and practising charity, visiting the house of study morning and evening, entertaining wayfarers, visiting the sick, dowering a bride, following the dead to the grave, praying with devotion and making peace between a man and his fellow; but the study of the Law is equal to all of them.

O my God, the soul which thou hast set within me is pure. Thou didst create it, thou didst fashion it, thou hast breathed it into me and thou preservest it within me. Thou wilt take it from me; but thou wilt restore it to me again hereafter. Whilst yet the soul is within me, I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord my God and God of my fathers, Sovereign of all works, Master of all souls. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who restorest the soul to the dead.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who hast given the cock understanding to distinguish between day and night.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who hast not made me a heathen.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who has not made me a slave.

Men say:

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who hast not made me a woman.

Women say:

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who hast made me according to thy will.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who enlightenest the blind.

Blessed are thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who clothest the naked.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who loosest the bound.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who raisest them that are bowed down.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who stretchest out the earth upon the waters.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who hast provided me with all my necessities.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who hast ordained the steps of man.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who girdest Israel with might.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who crownest Israel with glory.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who givest strength to the weary.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who causest sleep to pass from mine eyes and slumber from mine eyelids. And may it be thy will, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, to cause us to walk in thy Law and to cleave to thy commandments; bring us not into sin, transgression or iniquity, nor lead us into temptation or contempt. Let not the evil inclination rule over us, but keep us far from evil men and evil companions, and cause us to cleave to our good inclination and to good deeds. O bend our will to thy service, and grant us this day and every day grace, favour and mercy both in thy sight and in the sight of all who see us, and bestow thy loving-kindness upon us. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who bestowest loving-kindnesses upon thy people Israel.

May it be thy will, O Lord my God and God of my fathers, to deliver me this day and every day from shamelessness and shameless men, from an evil man, an evil companion and an evil neighbour, and from an evil occurrence; from the corrupting tempter, from an unjust judgment and an unjust opponent, be he a son of the covenant or be he not a son of the covenant.

A man should ever fear Heaven even in private. He should acknowledge the truth and speak the truth in his heart. Let him rise up early and say:—

Sovereign of all the worlds, not because of our righteous deeds do we present our supplication before thee, but for thy great mercies. What are we? What is our life? What is our piety? What our acts of righteousness? What our salvation? What is our strength? What is our might? What shall we say before thee, O Lord our God and God of our fathers? Are not all the mighty ones like naught before thee, and men of fame as though they were not, wise men as if they were without knowledge, and men of understanding as though they were void of discretion? For the multitude of their works is emptiness, and the days of their life are vanity before thee; and the pre-eminence of man over beast is naught: for all is vanity.

Howbeit we are thy people, the children of thy covenant, the children of Abraham that loved thee and to whom thou didst make oath on Mount Moriah, the seed of Isaac his only son, who was bound upon the altar, the congregation of Jacob thy son and first-born, whose name out of the love thou didst bear him and the joy with which thou didst rejoice over him thou didst call Israel and Jeshurun.

It is therefore our duty to give thanks unto thee, to praise thee and to glorify thee, to bless and hallow and render praise and thanksgiving to thy Name. Happy are we! How goodly is our portion, how pleasant our lot, how beautiful our inheritance! Happy are we who pray morning and evening, at sunrise and sunset, saying twice every day:—

Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is One.

Blessed be his glorious, sovereign Name for ever and ever.

Thou wast ere yet the world was created. Thou wast after its creation, thou art in this world and will be in the world to come. O hallow thy Name through them that call it holy. Yea, hallow thy Name in thy world, and in thy salvation uplift and exalt our horn. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who hallowest thy Name amongst the multitude.

Thou art the Lord our God in heaven and on earth and the highest heaven of heavens. Of a truth thou art the first and thou art the last, and beside thee there is no god. O gather those that hope in thee from the four corners of the earth. Let all that come into the world understand and acknowledge that thou alone art God over all the kingdoms of the earth. Thou hast made the heavens and the earth, the sea and all that is therein. And who is there of all thy handiwork of those above or those below that shall say unto thee, What doest thou? Our Father which art in heaven, deal mercifully with us for the sake of thy great Name by which we are called; and fulfil unto us, O Lord our God, that which is written: At that time will I bring you in, and at that time will I gather you: for I will make you a name and a praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I bring again your captivity before your eyes, saith the Lord.

Numbers xxviii. 1-8.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, My offering, my food for my sacrifices made by fire, of a sweet savour unto me, shall ye observe to offer unto me in their due season. And thou shalt say unto them, This is the offering made by fire which ye shall offer unto the Lord; two he-lambs of the first year without blemish day by day, for a continual burnt offering. The one lamb shalt thou offer in the morning, and the other lamb shalt thou offer at even; and a tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a meal-offering, mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil. It is a continual burnt offering, which was ordained on Mount Sinai for a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the Lord. And the drink-offering thereof shall be the fourth part of an hin for the one lamb: in the holy place shalt thou pour out a drink-offering of strong drink unto the Lord. And the other lamb shalt thou offer at even: as the meal-offering of the morning, and as the drink-offering thereof, thou shalt offer it, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the Lord.

Leviticus i. 11.

And he shall kill it on the side of the altar, northward before the Lord; and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle its blood upon the altar round about.

On Sabbath the following is added:

Numbers xxviii. 9-10.

And on the Sabbath day two he-lambs of the first year without blemish, and two tenth parts of fine flour for a meal-offering, mingled with oil, and the drink-offering thereof; this is the burnt offering of every Sabbath, beside the continual burnt-offering and the drink-offering thereof.

Mishnah Zebachim v.

1. Which are the places where the sacrifices were offered? The most holy were killed at the north of the altar. The bull and he-goat of the Day of Atonement were killed at the north, and their blood, which was received in a vessel of ministration at the north, required sprinkling between the staves of the ark, before the veil and on the golden altar. The omission of any of these sprinklings invalidated the ceremony. The rest of the blood the priest poured upon the western base of the outer altar; but if he did not do so, the ceremony was not invalid. 2. The bulls and he-goats which had to be burnt were killed at the north, and their blood, which was received in a vessel of ministration at the north, required sprinkling before the veil and on the golden altar. The omission of either of these sprinklings invalidated the ceremony. The rest of the blood the priest poured upon the western base of the outer altar; but if he omitted to do so, the ceremony was not invalid. Both alike were burnt in the repository of ashes. 3. As to the sin-offerings of the congregation and of the individual—the following are the sin-offerings of the congregation: the he-goats of new moons and festivals—these were killed at the north, and their blood, which was received in a vessel of ministration at the north, required four sprinklings on the four horns of the altar. How was this done? The priest went up the ascent, and, turning to the middle ledgment bordering the altar, he walked along it to the south-east, north-east, north-west and south-west corners successively. The rest of the blood he poured upon the southern base. These sacrifices had to be eaten within the hangings of the court by males of the priesthood, and might be dressed in any fashion, but had to be consumed within the same day and the following night until midnight. 4. The burnt offering belonged to the most holy sacrifices. It had to be killed at the north, and its blood, which was received in a vessel of ministration at the north, required two sprinklings at opposite angles of the altar, making four in all. The offering had to be flayed and cut up, and entirely consumed by fire. 5. As to the peace-offerings of the congregation and trespass-offerings—the following are the trespass-offerings: the trespass-offerings for robbery, for appropriating sanctified objects, in regard to a betrothed handmaid, the trespass-offerings of a Nazarite who has become defiled, of a leper on his cleansing, and for a sin, the commission of which is doubtful—all these were killed at the north, and their blood, which was received in a vessel of ministration at the north, required two sprinklings at opposite angles of the altar, making four in all. They had to be eaten within the hangings of the court by males of the priesthood, and might be dressed in any fashion, but had to be consumed within the same day and the following night until midnight. 6. The thank-offering and the ram offered by the Nazarite on the termination of his vow were of a minor degree of holiness. They might be killed in any part of the court, and their blood required two sprinklings at opposite angles of the altar, making four in all. They might be eaten, dressed in any fashion, in any part of the city and by any person; but had to be consumed within the same day and the following night until midnight. The heaved and waved portions were treated like the rest, except that they might only be eaten by the priests, their wives, children and servants. 7. Peace-offerings were also of a minor degree of holiness. They might be killed in any part of the court, and their blood required two sprinklings at opposite angles of the altar, making four in all; and they might be eaten, dressed in any fashion, in any part of the city, and by any person within two days and one night. The heaved and waved portions were treated like the rest, except that they might only be eaten by the priests, their wives, children and servants. 8. The first-born, the tithe of animals and the paschal lamb, were of a minor degree of holiness. They were killed in any part of the court, and their blood required one sprinkling; only the priest had to direct it towards the base of the altar. The difference in their consumption was that the first-born might only be eaten by the priests, but the tithe by any person. They might both be eaten, dressed in any fashion, in any part of the city, and by any person within two days and one night. The paschal lamb, however, might only be eaten by night, only up till midnight, only by members of each previously appointed number, and only roasted.

Rabbi Ishmael says the Torah is expounded by thirteen methods:—

1. From a light case and from a weighty one.
2. From an identical expression.
3. From a principle drawn from one text and from a principle drawn from two texts.
4. From a general and a special law.
5. From a special and a general law.
6. A general law, a special and a general law; one may not draw inferences save in accordance with the meaning of the special law.
7. From a general law that requires a special one, and from a special law that requires a general one.
8. Any matter which is included in a general law and which is detached therefrom to predicate concerning a special case, is not detached to predicate concerning that case only, but concerning the whole of the general law.
9. Any matter which is included in a general law and which is detached to elucidate something in harmony therewith, is detached to relax and not to restrict.
10. Any matter which is included in a general law and which is detached to elucidate something different and not in harmony therewith, is detached both to relax and to restrict.
11. Any matter included in a general law and detached to determine something fresh, must not be restored to the general law until the text itself so restores it.
12. A passage that is understood from its context, and a passage that is understood from its concluding terms.
13. And thus two texts may contradict each other until a third text is found that will harmonize the two.

May it be thy will, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, that the Temple be speedily rebuilt in our days, and grant our portion in thy Law. And there we will serve thee with awe, as in the days of old and as in ancient years.

Psalm for the second day of the week:

הַיּוֹם יוֹם שֵׁנִי בְּשַׁבָּת שֶׁבּוֹ הַלְוִיִּם הָיוּ אוֹמְרִים בַּמִּקְדָּשׁ·

מ״ח שִׁיר מִזְמוֹר לִבְנֵי־קֹרַח: גָּדוֹל יְהוָה וּמְהֻלָּל מְאֹד בְּעִיר אֱלֹהֵינוּ הַר־קָדְשׁוֹ: יְפֵה נוֹף מְשׂוֹשׂ כָּל־הָאָרֶץ

On putting on the Tallith say:

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who hast sanctified us with thy commandments and hast commanded us to robe in the garment with fringes.

How excellent is thy loving-kindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings. They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures. For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light. O continue thy loving-kindness unto them that know thee, and thy righteousness to the upright in heart.

Psalm for the first day of the week:

This is the first day in the week, on which the Levites in the Temple used to say:

Psalm xxiv. A Psalm of David.

The earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein. For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods. Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully. He shall receive a blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation. This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face; O Jacob. Selah. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah.

sides of the north, the city of the great King. God hath made himself known in her palaces for a refuge. For, lo, the kings assembled, they passed by together. They saw it, then they were amazed; they were troubled, and hasted away. Trembling took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail. Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish with an east wind. As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the Lord of hosts, in the city of our God: God will establish it for ever. Selah. We have thought of thy loving-kindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple. According to thy Name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness. Let mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments. Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof. Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following. For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even beyond death.

Psalm for the third day of the week:

This is the third day in the week, on which the Levites in the Temple used to say:

Psalm lxxxii. A Psalm of Asaph.

God standeth in the congregation of the mighty; he judgeth among the judges. How long will ye judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? Selah. Judge the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and destitute. Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked. They know not, neither do they understand; they walk on in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are moved. I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High. But ye shall die like men, and fall together, all ye princes. Arise, O God, judge the earth: for thou shalt inherit all nations.

judge of the earth: render to the proud their desert. Lord, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph? They prate, they speak arrogantly: all the workers of iniquity boast themselves. They break in pieces thy people, O Lord, and afflict thine heritage. They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless. Yet they say, The Lord shall not see, neither shall the God of Jacob consider. Understand, ye brutish among the people: and ye fools, when will ye be wise? He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not see? He that chastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct, even he that teacheth man knowledge? The Lord knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity. Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O Lord, and teachest him out of thy Law; that thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit be digged for the wicked. For the Lord will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance. But judgment shall return unto righteousness: and all the upright in heart shall follow it. Who will rise up for me against evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity? Unless the Lord had been my help, my soul had almost dwelt in silence. When I said, My foot slippeth, thy mercy, O Lord, held me up. In the multitude of my doubts within me thy comforts delight my soul. Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by statute? They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn innocent blood. But the Lord hath been my fortress; and my God the rock of my refuge. And he hath brought upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yea, the Lord our God shall cut them off.

Psalm for the fifth day of the week:

This is the fifth day of the week, on which the Levites in the Temple used to say:

Psalm lxxxi.: To the chief Musician upon Gittith, a Psalm of Asaph.

Sing aloud unto God our strength: make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob. Take up the psalm, and bring hither the timbrel, the pleasant harp with the psaltery. Blow ye the trumpet on the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast-day. For it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob. This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony, when he went out through the land of Egypt: where I heard a language that I understood not. I removed his shoulder from Hear, O my people, and I will testify unto thee: O Israel, if thou wouldst hearken unto me! There shall no strange god be in thee; neither shalt thou worship any strange god. I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it. But my people would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would none of me. So I let them go after the stubbornness of their heart: and they walked in their own counsels. Oh that my people would hearken unto me, Israel would walk in my ways! I should soon subdue their enemies, and turn my hand against their adversaries. The haters of the Lord would have submitted themselves unto him: but their time should have endured for ever. He would feed them also with the finest of the wheat: and with honey out of the rock would satisfy thee.

Psalm for the sixth day of the week:

This is the sixth day in the week, on which the Levites in the Temple used to say:

Psalm xciii.

The Lord reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the Lord is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself; the word also is stablished, that it cannot be moved. Thy throne is established of old: thou art from everlasting. The floods have lifted up, O Lord, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves. The Lord on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty breakers of the sea. Thy testimonies are very sure: holiness becometh thine house, O Lord, for ever.

For thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands. How great are thy works, O Lord! thy thoughts are very deep. A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this. When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever. But thou, O Lord, art most high for evermore. For, lo, thine enemies, O Lord, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered. But my horn hast thou exalted like the horn of the wild ox: I am anointed with fresh oil. Mine eye hath seen mine enemies; mine ears have heard of the wicked who rise up against me. The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon. They shall be planted in the house of the Lord; they shall flourish in the courts of our God. They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be full of sap, and green; to show that the Lord is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Psalm xxvii. A Psalm of David.

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? When evildoers came upon me to eat up my flesh, even mine enemies and my foes, they stumbled and fell. Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident. One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple. For in the time of trouble he shall keep me secretly in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall lift me up upon a rock. And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord. Hear my voice, O Lord, when I cry: have mercy also upon me, and answer me. When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, Lord, will I seek. Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation. When my father and my mother forsake me, then the Lord will take me up. Teach me thy way, O Lord, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies. Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty. I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living. Wait on the Lord: be strong, and let thine heart take courage; yea, wait thou on the Lord.

HYMN OF UNITY FOR THE FIRST DAY OF THE WEEK

The verses of these hymns are said by the Reader and Congregation alternately.

I WILL sing songs to my God while I yet have being—God who hath shepherded me since I have been.

Until this day thou hast held fast hold of my hand; life and loving-kindness hast thou given to me.

Blessed be the Lord and blessed be his glorious Name; for unto his servant his mercy is wonderful.

How shall I come before God, the most high? and how shall I bow before the God of old?

If the mountains were an altar, and all the wood of Lebanon were laid thereon;

If all cattle and all beasts were slain, prepared, and laid upon the wood;

And if blood covered the corners of the altar, as the waters cover the sea;

If fine flour, rich and abundant as sand, were mingled with ten thousand rivers of oil;

And for a memorial, frank-incense and spices, yea, all the chief spices;

If the lights on the lamps were radiant as the two great luminaries;

And if the shew-bread, arranged upon tables within, were like high mountains;

And if for drink-offering there were wine like the rain of heaven, and strong drink abundant as fountains of water;

If all the sons of men were priest; Levites chanting like winged songsters;

וְכָל עֲצֵי עֵדֶן וְכָל עֲצֵי יְעָרִים· כְּנוֹרוֹת וְנֵבְלִים לַשָּׁרִים׃
וְכָל בְּנֵי אֱלֹהִים בְּקוֹל תְּרוּעָתָם· וְהַכּוֹכָבִים מְמַסְלוֹתָם׃

עַל דִּבַּר זֶבַח וְעוֹלֹתֵיכֶם· לֹא צִוִּיתִי אֶת אֲבוֹתֵיכֶם׃
מַה שְׁאֵלָתִי וּמַה דָּרָשְׁתִּי· מִמְּךָ· כִּי אִם לִירְאָה אוֹתִי׃
לַעֲבוֹד בְּשִׂמְחָה וּבְלֵבָב טוֹב· הִנֵּה שְׁמוֹעַ מִזֶּבַח טוֹב׃
וְלֵב נִשְׁבָּר מִמְּנוּחָה טְהוֹרָה· זִבְחֵי אֱלֹהִים רוּחַ נִשְׁבָּרָה׃

And all the trees of Eden and all the trees of the forests were harps and viols for the singers;

If all the angels gave their voice in song and the stars did sing from their courses—

All Lebanon would not suffice for fuel, nor all its beasts for burnt-offering—

Lo! all these were not enough to serve, to come therewith before the God of Glory.

For thou, our King, art exceeding glorious: how then should we bow down before our Lord?

Verily none living can honour thee—how then can I, thy servant?

Seeing I am despised and least of men, contemptible in mine own eyes, and lowly among mankind;

And thy servant hath naught wherewith to honour thee, to render unto thee for all thy loving-kindness.

For thou hast multiplied good things towards me—for thou hast magnified thy mercy unto me.

Great are the debts I owe thee for the good thou hast wrought for me.

But thou owest no debt of benefit to me; for thou needest not to bestow aught upon me.

I have not served thee in accordance with thy benefits; one in ten thousand I have not repaid thee.

If I say, I will declare their number, I know not how to count them.

And what shall I return unto thee, seeing that all is thine? thine are the heavens, and the earth also is thine.

The seas and all that is within them are in thine hand, yea, and out of thine hand all these are satisfied.

We are thy people and thy sheep, who delight to obey thy will.

But how shall we serve, since our hand hath no power, and our sanctuary is burnt with fire?

How shall we serve without sacrifice and meat offering? for we are not yet come unto our rest.

Neither is there water to wash away defilement; lo! we are upon unpurified ground.

But I rejoice at thy word, and I am come according to thy bidding;

For it is written: I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices, or thy burnt offerings.

Concerning your sacrifices and your burnt offerings I commanded not your fathers.

What have I asked, and what have I sought of thee but to fear me?

To serve with joy and a good heart; behold, to hearken is better than sacrifice,

And a broken heart than a pure offering. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit.

זֶבַח וּמִנְחָה לֹא חָפַצְתָּ· חַטָּאת וְעוֹלָה לֹא שָׁאָלְתָּ:

עַד אֵין מִסְפָּר וְעַד אֵין חֵקֶר· וְלֹא נוֹדַע כִּי לֹא יֵחָקֵר:
אֵיזוֹ עַיִן אֲשֶׁר תְּעִידֶךָּ· וְאֵיזֶה פֶּה אֲשֶׁר יַגִּידֶךָּ:
חַי לֹא רָאֲךָ וְלֵב לֹא יְדָעֲךָ· וְאֵיזֶה שֵׂכֶל אֲשֶׁר יַצִּיעֲךָ:
גַּם מִשְׁרֵתֶיךָ לֹא רָאוּךָ· וְכָל חַכְמֵי לֵב לֹא מְצָאוּךָ:
אַתָּה לְבַדְּךָ מַכִּיר שִׁבְחֶךָ· וְאֵין זוּלָתְךָ יוֹדֵעַ כֹּחֶךָ:
וְאֵין יוֹדֵעַ בִּלְעֲדֶיךָ· שִׁבְחוֹת רְאוּיוֹת לִכְבוֹדֶךָ:
עַל כֵּן תְּבוֹרַךְ בָּרְאוּי לָךְ· כְּפִי קָדְשֶׁךָ כְּבוֹדֶךָ וְגָדְלֶךָ:
וּמִפִּי הַכֹּל בְּכָל אֱילוֹתָם· כְּפִי מַדָּע אֲשֶׁר אַתָּה חֲנַנְתָּם:
יוֹדוּ פְלָאֶךָ הַשָּׁמַיִם· וְיַאִדִּירוּךָ קְלוֹת מָיִם:
וְיָרִיעוּ לְךָ כָּל הָאָרֶץ· יוֹדוּךָ כָּל מַלְכֵי אָרֶץ:
אַף יוֹדוּךָ כָּל הָעַמִּים· וְיִשְׁבְּחוּךָ כָּל הָאֻמִּים:
כָּל זֶרַע יַעֲקֹב עַבְדֶּיךָ· כִּי עֲלֵיהֶם נִבְרוּ חַסְדֶּיךָ:
אֶת שֵׁם יְיָ יְהַלְלוּ כֻלָּם· אֵל אֱלֹהִים אֱמֶת וּמֶלֶךְ עוֹלָם:

In sacrifice and meat-offering thou delightest not; sin-offering and burnt-offering thou hast not asked.

I will build an altar of the broken fragments of my heart, and will break my spirit within me.

The haughty heart I will humble, yea, the haughtiness of mine eyes; and I will rend my heart for the sake of the Lord.

My broken spirit—that is thy sacrifice; let it be acceptable upon thine altar.

I will proclaim aloud thy praise, I will declare all thy wonders.

That which my soul knoweth I will tell; I will speak and declare thy mighty acts.

But what should I set forth when, I know naught? Lo! is there anything that I can utter?

For there is no searching out his greatness, and his understanding is beyond measure.

Wise of heart, who is like unto him? Mighty in strength, we cannot comprehend him.

Doings great things and abundant in marvels, thou art great and workest wonders

That are without number, yea, they are not to be searched out; neither can they be understood, for they are inscrutable.

Where is the eye that can testify of thee? and where is the mouth that can tell of thee?

None living hath seen thee, and no heart knoweth thee, then where is the praise that shall comprehend thee?

Even thy ministering angels have not seen thee, neither can the wise of heart perceive thee.

Thou alone knowest thy praise, and none beside thee hath knowledge of thy strength,

And none knoweth beside thee the praises befitting thy glory.

Therefore be thou blessed as it befitteth thee according to thy holiness, thy glory and thy greatness;

Yea, from the mouth of all, with their whole strength, according to the knowledge wherewith thou hast graciously endowed them.

The heavens shall acknowledge thy wonders, and the voice of the waters shall glorify thee.

And all the earth shall shout unto thee, and all the kings of the earth shall give thanks unto thee.

Yea, all the people shall give thanks unto thee, and all the nations shall praise thee;

And all the seed of Jacob, thy servant; for upon them have thy loving-kindnesses been exceeding great—

They all shall praise the Name of the Lord God, the true God and everlasting King.

HYMN OF UNITY FOR THE SECOND DAY.

I, THY servant, the son of thine handmaid, I will speak, I will tell of thy might.

I will declare but the uttermost border of the ways of thy praise; I will say how tremendous are thy works.

Thy praises cannot be set forth in a book; if I would declare them, they would be beyond my power to tell.

The secret of God cannot be found, and the perfection of the Almighty cannot be limited.

Is there any searching out his understanding? and can the number of his years be discovered?

There is no number to thy troops; in thine hosts is the sign of thy glory.

Where is the eye that shall testify of thee? for none living hath seen the face of thy glory.

The understanding and the wise—lo! they know not; how then can I set forth that whereof I have no knowledge?

If a man should say: "I will prepare meet praise unto him, yea unto the full measure thereof;

I will come and I will discover the perfection of his praise," verily his spirit is not steadfast with God.

He would be confounded, for he knoweth not the estimation thereof; when he hath exhausted the words of his mouth, he hath told but the beginning of God's way.

It is not thus with me; I will not suffer my mouth and my lips to sin.

I will declare unto my brethren but a part of God's ways, and unto Israel what God hath wrought.

As it is written: "Say ye unto God, How terrible are thy works, O God!"

And thou hast said: "This people which I formed for myself shall declare my name and my praise.

In Egypt I performed my wonders in order that thou shouldst declare my signs."

Therefore I, thy servant, will declare that which I may seek out of the Book.

My soul shall praise the might of thy works, and all that is within me thy holy Name;

וַאֲבָרְכָה בְּכָל עִנְיָנִי· וּבְכָל לִבִּי אוֹדֶה אֶת אֲדֹנָי׃)

לְהָשִׁית׃
אֵין קֵצֶה אֶל גְּבוּלֶךָ· וְאֵין סוֹף לְעֹמֶק מִדּוֹתֶיךָ׃

And I will bless thee in all my thoughts, and with my whole heart I will thank the Lord.

Yea, my throat and my mouth will I fill with thine exaltation and thy praise.

For my mouth shall declare thy praise, and thy glory all the day.

I will say, how mighty are thy terrible deeds, and I will meditate on the words which tell of thy wonders.

I will make mention of thy goodnes and thy righteous deeds; thy mercies and thy might.

I know that thou art great, that thou art very great above all gods.

For these give no reward unto them that serve them; wherefore then do they honour them?

In the time of trouble, then they pray; but they answer not, nor can they profit them.

They seek with all their heart that which hath no spirit; but the Lord is nigh unto the people near unto him.

For all the gods of the heathen are dumb idols; there is no spirit in them.

He who hath formed all, he is our God; he made us, and unto him alone do we belong,

People of his pasture and sheep of his hand; we will bless his Name for his mercy endureth for ever.

In our distress thou art verily found of us, for thou forsakest not them that seek thee.

And continually is thy praise in our mouth, praises unto thy glorious Name.

Thou art witness of thyself and of thy glory; yea, also thy ministering angels and thy servants,

That thy glory is the fulness of the whole earth, and that thy glory is over all the earth.

Our fathers chose thee alone to serve, and no strange god beside thee.

We also will serve thee alone, and, as a son his father, will we honour thee.

Behold us, thy witnesses by day and by night, to declare thy unity.

Yea, all of us declare from our heart that thou alone art our God.

Thou art our God; we are witnesses to thy unity, we thy servants.

There is no beginning to thine existence, neither is there any limit or end to thy being;

First and last, without beginning and without end; no heart can conceive it.

There is no limit to thine exaltation, and there is no fathoming the depth of thine attributes.

וְלֹא חָלוּ בְךָ שְׁמָחָה וָעֶצֶב· וְדִמְיוֹן נוֹצַר וְכָל דִּבֵּר קֶצֶב׃
כִּי לֹא יְסוֹבֵב אוֹתְךָ נֶשֶׁם· אַף לֹא תִדְמֶה אֶל כָּל נֶשֶׁם׃
כָּל הַיְצוּרִים גְּבוֹל סִבַּבְתָּם· אֶל רֹאשִׁיתָם וְלְאַחֲרִיתָם׃

There is no boundary unto thee nor any limit; wherefore none living hath seen thee.
Surface and side do not enclose thee; to thee neither breadth nor length nor depth can be ascribed.
There is no confine that can encompass thee, neither is space contained within thee.
There is no wisdom that can know thee, and no knowledge that can approach thee;
For naught of it can reach unto thee, and there is no intelligence that can understand and know
Aught of thee whatsoever, or how, from nothing, thou has created all.

HYMN OF UNITY FOR THE THIRD DAY.

In truth, I know that thou O God of Jacob, art he that hath formed all things.
Thou art the Creator, but thou wast not created; thou art the Former, but thou wast not formed.
Thou killest and thou causest all to pass away; thou bringest down to the grave and bringest up.
Thou art faithful to revive the dead, and this hast thou made known by the hand of thy prophet.[1]
Thou, who art the living God, wilt ever live; thou art from eternity to eternity.
Thou bringest to the birth and causest to bear, but thou existest of thyself; thou dost wound and heal, but thou art invulnerable.
Death and disease are not before thee; slumber and sleep are not in thine eyes.
Lo! thou art the living God from eternity; from ever thou art changeless.
Unto everlasting thou art the same; and thy divine attributes will never be dimmed.
Thou existest! new and old are naught unto thee; thou renewest all, but thou art immutable.
Nor old age nor youth have rested upon thee; neither hoary age nor dawn of years.
Joy and pain come not unto thee; nor can form or shape image thee.
Substance cannot encompass thee; neither canst thou be likened unto any breathing thing.
Thou hast set limits around every being, from their beginning unto their end.

כָּל אֲשֶׁר הָיָה בָּרִאשׁוֹנָה. וַאֲשֶׁר יִהְיֶה בָּאַחֲרוֹנָה:
כָּל הַיְצוּרִים וְכָל מַעֲשֵׂיהֶם. וְכָל דִּבְרֵיהֶם וּמַחְשְׁבוֹתֵיהֶם:
מֵרֹאשׁ וְעַד סוֹף תֵּדַע כֻּלָּם. וְלֹא תִשְׁכַּח כִּי אַתָּה אֶצְלָם:
אַתָּה בָּרָאתָם וּלְבַדְּךָ עֲרָכָם. לְבַדְּךָ תֵּדַע מְקוֹמָם וְדַרְכָּם:
הֵן אֵין דָּבָר מִמְּךָ נֶעְלָם. כִּי לְפָנֶיךָ נְכוֹנִים כֻּלָּם:
אֵין חֹשֶׁךְ וְאֵין מָנוֹס וְסֵתֶר. לָנוּס שָׁמָּה וּלְהִסָּתֵר:
אֶת אֲשֶׁר תְּבַקֵּשׁ אַתָּה מוֹצֵא. בְּלִי נְטוֹת אֲלֵיהֶם בְּעֵת שֶׁתִּרְצֶה:
כִּי אֶת הַכֹּל בְּאַחַת תִּרְאֶה. לְבַדְּךָ תַּעֲשֶׂה וְאֵינְךָ נִלְאֶה:
כִּי עַל גּוֹי וְעַל אָדָם יָחִד. עַל כֹּל תְּדַבֵּר בְּרֶגַע אֶחָד:
תִּשְׁמַע בְּרֶגַע כָּל הַקּוֹלוֹת. וַעֲנָק וְלַחַשׁ וְכָל הַתְּפִלּוֹת:
אַף תָּבִין אֶל כָּל מַעֲשֵׂיהֶם. בְּרֶגַע תַּחְקוֹר כָּל לִבְבֵיהֶם:
וְלֹא תַאֲרִיךְ עַל מַחְשְׁבוֹתֶיךָ. וְלֹא תִתְמַהְמַהּ עַל עֲצָתֶךָ:
אֶצֶל עֲצָתְךָ גְּוֶרֶתְךָ. לְקֵץ וּלְמוֹעֵד קְרִיאָתֶךָ:
וְכֻלָּם בֶּאֱמֶת בְּתֹם וּבְיֹשֶׁר. מִבְּלִי עֶרֶךְ וּמִבְּלִי חֶסֶר:
מִמְּךָ דָּבָר לֹא יֹאבַד. וְדָבָר מִמְּךָ לֹא יִכָּבֵד:
כָּל אֲשֶׁר תַּחְפּוֹץ תּוּכַל לַעֲשׂוֹת. וְאֵין מִי מוֹחֶה בְּיָדְךָ מֵעֲשׂוֹת:
וַכְלַת יְיָ בְּחָפְצוֹ קְשׂוֹרָה. וּבְרָצוֹת יְיָ לֹא אֲחֹרָה:

Yea, thou hast set all creatures within bounds; and the days of their appointed time hast thou encircled with a border.

But unto thee there are no bounds, nor to thy days, thy years or thy being.

Wherefore thou hast no need of anything; but of thine hand, and of thy mercy, all have need.

Yea, all have need of thy charity; but thou hast no need of thy creatures.

While yet naught was formed, thou alone didst exist; and nothing was wanting unto thee.

The beginning and the end of all things are ordered by thine hand; thou art in them, and they grow by thy spirit.

Lo! all that was at the beginning, and all that shall be hereafter;

Every created being, and all their works, their words and their thoughts

Thou knowest, from the beginning unto the end; thou wilt not forget them, for thou art near them.

Thou didst create them, and thy wisdom hath directed them; thou alone knowest their place and their way.

Lo! nothing is hid from thee; for all things are set before thee.

There is no darkness, nor refuge, nor secret place, whither a man may flee to hide himself.

For that which thou seekest, thou turnest not aside; at the time thou desirest, thou findest.

For thou seest all things at once; thou doest all things, thou alone, and thou art never weary.

Thou speakest in one movement concerning all; yea, of all nations and all mankind together.

In one moment thou hearest every voice, cry and whisper, and every prayer.

Thou dost also observe their every action, and in a moment thou searchest all their hearts.

Thou tarriest not in thy purposes, neither haltest thou over thy counsel.

Thy decree is instantaneous with thy counsel, to the appointed time that thou hast proclaimed.

And all is done in truth and rectitude and justice; nothing is superfluous, and nothing is deficient.

Naught can fail thee; nothing can be too difficult for thee.

All that thou desirest thou canst do; and no one may stay thy hand.

The power of the Lord is bound within his will; and when the Lord willeth, there is no delay.

מִבַּלְעֲדֵי כֹחֲךָ אֵין גְּבוּרָה· וּמִבַּלְעֲדֵי עֻזְּךָ אֵין עֵזְרָה:

No secret thing can be hid from thee; the things of the future and the things of the past are the same with thee.

From everlasting unto everlasting all things are in thee, and thou art in all.

Unto thy servants and messengers thou hast declared the things to come, and the mystery of thy ways.

There is no need to tell thee, to make known any concealed and secret thing.

For with thee, every mystery is revealed, while yet it hath not come up upon the heart of any creature.

No man's heart can comprehend thee; then let not arrogancy come out of our mouth.

He is infinite and indivisible; no heart can perceive him; no mouth can depict him.

For he hath no boundaries, and includeth no space; so that words fail to tell of him.

Who can fetch his knowledge from afar, to reach unto him who is without beginning and without end?

For midst, end and beginning are bound together. I will restrain both mouth and heart from seeking, and from deep research.

Height and depth are one as in a turning sphere;[1] lo! the wise man and the understanding cannot conceive it.

Thou encompassest all and fillest all; and since thou art the All, thou art in all.

There is none above thee and there is none below thee; there can be nothing without thee, and naught can be in the midst of thee.

Colour and shape cannot be applied to thy Oneness, nor body to the essence of thy Unity.

Neither is anything separate from thee in the midst; nor is the smallest place void of thee.

Thou art not derived or detached from anything; nor is any place empty or devoid of thee.

Accident and change do not exist in thee, nor time, nor discord, nor any imperfection.

Thou hast arranged all seasons and times; thou appointest and changest them.

No knowledge can reach thee; no understanding can comprehend thee.

For thy wisdom is according to thine attribute, and thine understanding is according to thy greatness.

Thou art wise of thine own self, living of thyself, and there is none like unto thee.

Except thy wisdom, there is no wisdom; same for thine understanding, there is no counsel.

Thou hast imparted intelligence to the heart of the wise; thy spirit filleth them, and thou directest their knowledge.

Without thy power there is no strength; and without thy might, there is no help.

שְׁמוֹת יְקָרְךָ יַעֲנוּ וְיָעִידוּ · בְּתִקֻּף יְקָרְךָ בְּךָ יַסְהִידוּ:

None is honourable unless thou hast honoured him; and no man is great, unless thou hast exalted him.

Everything precious and good is from thine hand, for him to whom thou delightest to shew thy mercy.

Thy greatness cannot be searched out, nor can thine understanding be declared.

There is no being but thine, O living God; thou canst do all things, and there is none beside thee.

Before anything was, thou wast the All; and when all was, thou didst fill all.

Thy creation did not weary thee; neither did it turn thee aside nor diminish thee.

When thou hadst made all, thou wast not separated, nor didst thou cease from being in the midst of thy works.

When thou didst make the heavens, the earth and the waters,

They did not draw thee nearer, nor did they distance thee; for no walls can separate thee.

Torrents of water cannot overwhelm thee; nor can the mighty wind drive thee.

No impurity can touch thee; thou who art a consuming fire, no fire can consume thee.

Thy existence is without defect; and thy Oneness hath no fault.

As thou hast been, so thou wilt ever be; less and more have no existence in thee.

Thy Name testifieth of thee: thou hast been, art and ever wilt be; and thou art in all.

Thou existest eternally, and thus hast thou made thyself known; we testify of thee, for thus hast thou testified of thyself—

That thou art he who existeth in all; all is thine, and all is from thee

Thy glorious Names declare and bear witness; yea, they testify to the power of thy glory.

HYMN OF UNITY FOR THE FOURTH DAY.

I WILL extol the God of my father and my God; yea, I will praise my God, my Rock and my Redeemer.

Twice will I proclaim every day the Unity of the God of heaven and earth.

The one living God, he created us; the Mighty One of Israel, Father to us all.

Our Lord, Lord of all the earth; how glorious is thy Name in all the earth!

There is none like God, a devouring fire and jealous. The Lord is true for ever, he is the faithful God,

My Light and my Salvation, the Stronghold of my life; all my desires centre in him.

He is the God of truth, the Living God; the nations and the isles cannot endure his wrath, Glorious and mighty in strength, and great in power; God of gods and Lord of lords.

God is my Maker, my Beloved and my Lord, Guide of my youth, my Guardian and my Refuge, Creator of all and Redeemer of Israel; blessed be God, the God of Israel.

Creator of the wind, former of the mountains, from thee no design is withheld.

The exalted One will render a reward unto the proud, unto the lofty, and those who are lifted up.

He is mighty when he ariseth to strike terror with his wrath; at the glory of his majesty who shall not be afraid?

He is most high, he beareth up all that is under him; and, great in strength, he doeth great deeds.

He is great and his Name is mighty; if the lion roar who is not afraid?

My Beloved is the chiefest among ten thousand; a God very terrible in the council of the holy ones.

He sitteth to judge as the Ancient of Days; his host is upon the left hand and upon the right.

His honour and his majesty are upon the children of his servants; he is honoured by all his saints.

He is God, God of the spirits of all flesh; he hearkeneth unto the prayer of all.

True and perfect, he knoweth and beareth witness; the Lord shall reign for ever and ever,

Who is the sword of our excellency[1] to fight our battles.

כַּבִּיר כֹּחַ כְּשָׁמִיר וָשַׁיִת: וְלֹא יַשְׁאִיר כְּנוֹקֵף וָיִת:

He remembereth for ever the covenant of the ancestors; a thousand years are with him but as yesterday.

This is our God, in him we hope; the Lord is our song, he will save us.

The portion of Jacob, the Former of all, the Lord is merciful and gracious unto all.

The Lord who liveth for ever is my portion; the Lord, wise in secret things, is my strength.

Good and beneficent is he that teacheth knowledge; too pure of sight to look upon evil.

Upright is the Lord and upright his word; most lovely are his holy tabernacles.

He counselleth and decreeth, who can frustrate it? he worketh suddenly, who shall undo it?

My Beloved is fair; they shall see and behold his beauty and his excellence when he returneth unto Zion.

Like a mighty man he shall go forth, like a man of war; he shall arouse his anger to do vengeance.

Like an eagle on eagles' wings he carried his servants, and he made the rugged places plain.

Like a bear bereaved, like a fierce leopard, like destruction, and like the moth; his spirit also is as a torrent.

Like a bear bereaved, like a leopard will he hasten, and as the rod of an almond tree,[1] to perform his word.

Mighty in power as a leopard; like a lioness and a lion; his spirit also is like a torrent.

Like a choice cedar is his greatness; yet he is gentle as the green fir tree.

Like the fragrance of an apple tree is the strength of his love; his majesty is over Israel.

Like an apple tree among the trees of the forest, thus is my beloved among those who sit in the gate.

Mighty in power, he taketh vengeance on them that provoke him; but he is like the dew unto Israel.

My cup, the portion of mine inheritance, and my lot; I am the heritage of my Beloved, and my Beloved is mine.

The Lord is my glory, I will not turn from him; he hath plighted troth unto us, and we have plighted troth unto him.

Like a lion he will rage, and roar like a young lion; he will not be like a stranger, like a man astonied;

Like a shepherd who is unable to deliver his flock, so they become a prey;

Like a mighty man whose strength is gone; nor like a wayfarer that fleeth and hasteth away lamenting bitterly.

He will be like a ravening lion, like a strong lion, unto them that forsake him; like destruction, even like the moth, unto his enemies.

Of mighty strength, he will destroy them like the thorn and the briar; he shall not leave aught of them, even as when the olive tree is shaken.

Like the thorn and briar, he will consume his enemies; like winged birds, he will fly to shield his city.

Like welcome rain, he will come unto us; like the latter rain, and like dew, to those that cleave unto him.

Like the eagle hovereth over its young, so in the shadow of his wings all those who trust in him will find shelter.

Like birds, he will protect his city; and in the shadow of his wings we will sing joyful songs.

The Lord alone worketh great wonders, God, awful in deeds.

My Beloved is like the hart and the young roe; my God of mercy goeth before me.

Before his people he will make the rugged places plain; he will bear them upon eagles' wings.

The Lord is my portion for ever, and the Rock of my heart; my flesh and my heart pine for him.

The Lord alone worketh great wonders, and he is great in terrible deeds.

Thou art the place of thy world; and no one knoweth thy place.

God is my fear, my shepherd and my former; the Rock who bore me and brought me forth; yea, he is my Rock.

He is a high place and a stronghold unto me, and my shelter; a tower of strength is the Name of the Lord my Refuge.

The King of Jacob is a high tower unto us; he is our law-giver and our Saviour.

A tower of salvation and a support he shall be unto me; God is my trust, the Lord is my strength.

Thy kingdom is an everlasting dominion; thy rule is throughout all generations.

O that thou wert as my brother in my distress! Save, O Lord, for thy hand is not waxen short.

Fountain of life, Hope of Israel, I will not forsake him; for God is my strength.

Shield of my salvation and sword of excellence, the soul longeth for thy Name and the remembrance of thee.

He is a shield unto all that trust in him; happy is the man whose strength is in him.

Pure and gracious, radiant and awful; his Name is glorious and girt with might.

He is faithful, the strength of Israel and his deliverer; he lieth not; happy are all that trust in him.

The strength of Jeshurun, the faithful God; Judah is not forsaken of his God.

Wonderful is he above all wonders, exalted above all that are exalted.

My holy God is sanctified and feared; abiding and exalted is the Lord, my banner.

He avengeth and keepeth anger: he is Lord of wrath against them that vex him, a man of war unto his enemies.

The Lord is my lamp, when he sheddeth his light upon my head; and his word is as a lamp unto my feet.

The Lord, my Rock, upholdeth and supporteth; he beareth and pardoneth, and forgiveth my transgression.

The Lord is my witness, my Rock and my hiding-place; he pardoneth and is patient; he is my support and my hope.

The Lord is our Rock and our Stronghold, our Help and our Deliverer, Powerful and mighty, my Might and my Help; the Most High is strength unto me; let him not be mine enemy.

Angels and holy ones hath he set round about his secret place; verily, O God, thou art concealed from us.

He is a speedy witness to render a reward unto his enemies; he keepeth his covenant and his mercy with them that love him.

He delivered Abraham his beloved; he will deliver Israel his servant.

The fear of Isaac will set his fear upon the enemies of the sons of his servant Jacob.

He worketh and seeketh out and inquireth, and searcheth narrowly all hearts; unto him I will ascribe righteousness.

As a bundle of myrrh, as a cluster of copher;[1] he delivereth unto his people his enemies for a ransom.

My Beloved is white and ruddy, an ensign among his hosts; therefore is his Name called the Lord of Hosts.

Righteous is the Lord, the perfect Rock; I will trust for evermore in the everlasting Rock,

The host of heaven boweth down before him; above him stand the seraphim.

He is holy with all manner of holiness; three bands of holy ones thrice cry, Holy.

The living God abideth for ever, Lord of the earth and Lord of heaven.

My possessor is compassionate, he is jealous against his enemies; the horn of my salvation, he is nigh unto them that call upon him.

He is far from all, yet he seeth all; for the Lord is exalted, yet beholdeth he the lowly.

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want; and he is of great strength and abundant mercy unto all.

Merciful is the Lord: he healeth and bindeth up the broken of heart, and subdueth iniquity.

My Beloved is altogether lovely; his judgments are true, sweet and pleasant.

First and last, from everlasting unto everlasting, thou art God, who dwellest in eternity.

The Ruler, king of heaven throughout all generations; him we praise, exalt and glorify.

Sun and shield is the Lord God; he judgeth uprightly and casteth down the haughty.

Excellent in strength, we have not found him; he doeth loftily in his power, and who is like unto him?

His Name is Peace, for peace is his; he speaketh peace unto his pious ones.

The Name of the Lord is: "I am that I am"; the strength of the wild ox is his, he is like a young lion, yea, a mighty lion.

Almighty, my Light, my King and my God; praise ye the Lord, praise his Name, O my soul.

Thou wilt show thyself perfect with the inhabitants of Netaim,[1] the noble branches of the three shepherds.

Thou wilt show thyself merciful and pure unto them; but with the perverse thou wilt appear froward, to confound them.

Perfect is thy way, mighty beyond all; thou art able, thou alone, to do all things.

For thee I wait, thou art my trust and my hope; my soul longeth for thee, thou art my desire.

Thou art he who brought me forth from my mother's womb; my praise, my glory and my strength.

Perfect in knowledge, God of knowledge, thou art One; all hearts thou searchest together.

HYMN OF UNITY FOR THE FIFTH DAY

Who is like unto thee who teachest knowledge and createst the fruit of the lips?

Thy purposes are deep and exalted, and thy years have no end.

None taught thee thy wisdom nor imparted to thee thy understanding.

Thou didst not succeed to thy kingdom, nor inherit thy dominion.

For all time shall the glory of thy majesty be thine alone and unshared by others;

For thou wilt not yield of thy praise unto other gods, unto graven images and idols.

Glory and honour proceed from thee, idols shall not share them with thee.

Thy Unity is declared by thee, by thy law and by thy servants;

Yea, O our God, to thy Unity thou art thyself a faithful witness, and we thy servants.

No god preceded thee, and there was no stranger with thee in thy work.

Thou wast not counselled, nor instructed when thou madest all things new; for understanding is thine.

From the depths of thy mind and from thine own heart thou didst conceive all thy works.

Have we not discerned a little portion of thy ways? Lo! we have learnt from thy works

That thou art the God who unaided didst create everything, thyself undiminished.

Thou wast not compelled to perform thy work, and hadst no need of a helper.

Yea, thou wast before all, and couldst need naught when naught existed.

For from thy love to thy servants, thou didst create the whole world unto thy glory.

No God save thee is known, none like thee, none beside thee;

Nor ever hath risen or existed, or been heard or seen;

Nor after thee shall there be any god. First and last is the God of Israel.

Blessed are thou, O one and only God; the Lord is one and his Name is one.

For who can do like unto thy works, thy deeds, thy mighty actions?

There is no form save of thy forming, no creature save of thy creation.

Thou workest thy pleasure over all, for thou are exalted above all.

Yea, there is none like thee and none beside thee, for there is no God save thee.

Thou art He who performest marvels, but unto whom naught is marvellous.

Who is like unto thee, tremendous in praise, O God who alone workest wonders?

There are no signs like thy signs, no portents like thy portents;

There is no knowledge like thy knowledge, no greatness like thy greatness.

For thy purposes are very deep, and the paths of thy treading are very lofty.

There is no majesty like thy majesty, yea, and there is no gentleness like thy gentleness;

No holiness like thy holiness, no nearness like nearness to thee;

No righteousness like thy righteousness, no salvation like thy salvation;

No strength like thy strength, no sound like the thunder of thy might.

There is no mercy like thy mercy, and no grace like thy graciousness.

There is no divinity like thy divinity, and naught full of wonders like thy glorious Name.

For thy Names are swift angels who speed upon thy miracles, when thou rememberest the oppressed.

No enchanter or magician can compel thee, no spell or sorcery can prevail against thee.

Not all the wizards, the enchanters and magicians can avail against thee.

Thou turnest the wizards back, and the subtle enchanters strive in vain

To annul thy designs, to frustrate the purpose of thy secret decree.

From thy will they cannot move thee, nor hasten thee, nor delay thee.

For thy counsel frustrateth the counsel of all counsellors, and thy strength dissolveth the heart of the mighty.

Thou commandest, and thy terror levelleth all before thee, but over thee lies no directing power.

Thou knowest not hope, who art the Hope of the world, and in whom every soul that hopeth is satisfied.

Among all thy manifold creatures there is naught to compare with thy great majesty.

Their thoughts are not thy thoughts, for there is no creator beside thee.

Our God is wondrous beyond compare, yea, our Lord is exalted past conception;

More hidden than aught that is hidden or stored up or treasured,

Finer than the finest substance, invisible of the invisible, mightiest of the mighty.

Highest is he of the high, and most impenetrable; his Name also is eternal.

He is loftier than the loftiest, greater than the greatest; most mysterious

Of all that is mysterious; he is unsearchable above all else, and the heart of all knowledge centres about him.

For no understanding, no wit, no wisdom can bring aught to compare with him.

For these cannot predicate manner or quantity of him; they cannot find analogy to him,

Nor any chance or accident, association or combination, light or darkness.

They cannot find in him form or colour nor any corporeal property.

Wherefore every investigation of him is baffled, and every calculation is confounded.

All thoughts and all reflections weary themselves to find terms for him,

To estimate him, to delimit him, to delineate him, to reveal him.

וְשֶׁבַע כַּמָּיוֹת וְשֵׁשֶׁת נְדוּת: וְשָׁלֹשׁ גְּוֵרוֹת וְעִתּוֹת וּמִדּוֹת:
הֵן בַּבּוֹרֵא אֵין גַּם אֶחָד: כִּי הוּא בְּרָאָם כֻּלָּם יָחַד:
כֻּלָּם יִבְלוּ אַף יַחֲלוֹפוּ: הֵם יֹאבְדוּ וְאַף יָסוּפוּ:
וְאַתָּה תַּעֲמוֹד וּתְבַלֵּה כֻּלָּם: כִּי חַי וְקַיָּם אַתָּה לְעוֹלָם:

Though with all our wit and mind we have searched to discover what he is,
Yet we have not found him nor known him. Howbeit from his works we recognize and learn
That he is the sole Creator, Living, Omnipotent, and All-wise;
That he is older than aught, wherefore he is called the God of old.
Forasmuch as he made everything from nothing, we know that he is almighty.
Forasmuch as all his works are wise, we know that he fashioned them with understanding.
As day by day he reneweth them all, we know that he is an everlasting God;
And since he existed before any of them, we know that he is living and everlasting.
Therefore we may not attempt to reason of our Creator by thought or speech.
We may not class him with matter or substance, or ascribe to him accident or attribute.
We may not think of him as of root or stem, as genus or species, or as in any wise limited.
All things that are seen or conceived or known are included in the ten categories.
There are seven kinds of quantity[1] and six kinds of motion, three modes of predication, three times, and three dimensions.
Lo! in the Creator not one of them exists, for he created them all together.
They shall all wither and pass away, yea, they shall perish and be no more.
But thou wilt abide and see them all to fade, for thou livest and endurest to all eternity.

HYMN OF UNITY FOR THE SIXTH DAY.

THOU alone art the Creator of all things, but naught in creation can be likened unto thee.

Not all the earth can contain thee, nor heaven itself sustain thee.

Of yore the living waters trembled at thy presence, O God of Life;

The earth quaked, and the waters fled and streamed from the sky.

Thou who stretchest out the heavens by thyself and spreadest out the earth upon the waters,

Alone thou didst complete thy whole purpose, and hadst no need of a helpmate.

There is none that could assist thee; for everything is from thee and of thy hand.

As were thy power and knowledge then, so are they now; for thy glory abideth with thee to eternity.

Thou wast not weary, thou wast not faint; for in thy work was no labour.

By thy word thy creatures were formed, and the design of thy purpose by thy mere utterance.

Thou didst not delay it, thou didst not speed it, but madest everything good in its due season.

From nothingness thou broughtest forth a new world, forming everything from nothing.

Before any foundation existed, thou didst found the universe, and by the will of thy spirit thou didst suspend it.

Yea, the everlasting arms support the world from the beginning to the end of time and grow not weary.

Naught is difficult in thy sight, for thy will performeth every mandate of thy Spirit.

Thou are not like unto thy work, nor comparable to any shape.

No work preceded thine, but thy wisdom prepared everything.

Thy creatures were fashioned nor earlier nor later than thy will; they neither overstepped thy pleasure nor fell short of it.

Thou didst not forget aught of thy purpose, nor leave aught unfinished.

There was nothing deficient, nothing superfluous, nothing useless in all thy works.

Thou didst approve of them; who, then, could reject them? No matter of reproach can be found in them.

In wisdom thou didst begin them, and with understanding and knowledge didst complete them.

מֵרֹאשִׁית וְעַד אַחֲרִית עֲשׂוּיִם· בֶּאֱמֶת וּבְיֹשֶׁר וְטוֹב רְאוּיִם׃

עֵשֶׂב וְחָצִיר לָבְשָׁה אֲדָמָה· מַאֲכָל לְחַיָּה וּלְכָל בְּהֵמָה׃
בְּקֶרֶן שֶׁמֶן גַּן נָטַעְתָּ· אֶל הָאָדָם אֲשֶׁר עָשִׂיתָ׃
עֵזֶר כְּנֶגְדּוֹ עָשִׂיתָ לוֹ· דֵּי מַחְסוֹרוֹ אֲשֶׁר יֶחְסַר לוֹ׃
כָּל מַעֲשֶׂיךָ בְּיָדוֹ תַּתָּה· וְתַחַת רַגְלָיו הַכֹּל שַׁתָּה׃
לְהַעֲלוֹת מֵהֶם בָּקָר וְצֹאן· עַל מִזְבַּחֲךָ יַעֲלוּ לְרָצוֹן׃
עָשִׂיתָ לוֹ כְּתֹנֶת לְשֶׂרֶת· לְהַדֶּרֶת קֹדֶשׁ וּלְתִפְאֶרֶת׃
שַׂמְתָּ בְּקִרְבּוֹ חָכְמַת אֱלֹהִים· כִּי יְצַרְתּוֹ לְךָ בְּצֶלֶם אֱלֹהִים׃
לֹא מָנַעְתָּ עַל פְּנֵי אֲדָמָה· צָרְכֵי אָדָם וְכֶלֶם בְּחָכְמָה׃
מַעֲשֶׂיךָ מְאֹד רַבּוּ וְגָדְלוּ· וְשִׁמְךָ יְיָ כֻּלָּם יְהַלְלוּ׃
רַבּוּ וְגָדְלוּ מְאֹד מַעֲשֶׂיךָ· יוֹדוּךָ יְיָ כָּל מַעֲשֶׂיךָ׃
כֹּל פָּעָלְתָּ לְמַעֲנֶךָ· וְלִכְבוֹדְךָ כָּל קִנְיָנֶךָ׃

From the first of them to the last, they were fashioned in truth and in righteousness; yea, and thou didst declare them good.

Before thy handiwork thou didst send forth the abundance of thy mercies and loving-kindness;

For, as for these, are they not of old unto thy servants?

Before the birth of each living thing, its sustenance was provided; before the eater existed, thou didst prepare his eating.

For all thy creatures thou didst provide food, for each of them according to his wants.

Thus thou didst make the first three days a prelude to the latter three.

First thou didst clothe thee with light as with a garment, even with the splendid mantle of the luminaries.

Thou wast exceeding great before all, and exceeding great after all.

Before any raiment was fashioned, he was arrayed in glory and honour; ere yet a weaver breathed, he was clothed in majesty,

Who covereth himself with light as with a garment and a mantle, who stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain.

Therein thou didst set pathways for the stars that travel calmly onward.

Thou didst separate the waters with the curtain of the firmament.

The depths of ocean thou madest the feeding-ground of water-animals, and the sky of winged birds.

The earth was clad with grass and herbs, food for every kind of beast and cattle.

In a fruitful spot thou didst plant a garden for the man thou madest;

And gavest him a helpmate that should make his life complete.

All thy works thou didst place in his hand; yea, and didst set them beneath his feet,

That of them he might offer oxen and sheep, an acceptable offering upon thine altar.

Thou madest him a garment that he might minister therein in the beauty of holiness and glory.

In his heart thou didst set the wisdom of God, for in the image of God thou didst form him for thee.

And from the face of the earth in wisdom thou didst supply all his wants, leaving none unsatisfied.

Lo! thy works are very many and very great, and all of them shall praise thy Name, O Lord.

Yea, and in all their greatness and multitude, O Lord, they shall give thanks unto thy Name.

Thou hast created the whole world for thy sake, and all thy possessions exist but for thy glory.

HYMN OF UNITY FOR THE SABBATH

On the seventh day thou didst rest of old, and therefore thou hast blessed the Sabbath.
Thy pious servants will continually bless thee in well ordered praise for all thy works.
Blessed be the Lord who hath created them all, the living God and everlasting King.
From eternity the abundance of thy mercies and loving-kindnesses have been extended to thy servants.
In Egypt thou didst begin to make it known how greatly thou art exalted Above all gods, when thou didst execute great judgments on the nation and its gods.
And when thou didst cleave the Red Sea, thy people saw thy great Hand and were afraid.
Thou didst guide them on their way to make thee a glorious name, and to show forth thy might.
Thou spakest to them from heaven, and the clouds dropped water.
Thou didst observe their journeying in the wilderness, in a parched land untrodden by man.
And thou gavest thy people the corn of heaven, flesh abundant as dust, and water from the rock.
Thou didst drive out many nations and peoples, whose land and whose labour they inherited.
That so they might observe statutes and laws, even the sayings of the Lord, which are pure.
They enjoyed fat pastures and pools of oil from the flinty rock.
And when they had rest, they built thy holy city and glorified thy sanctuary.
And thou saidst: "In Zion I will dwell for aye, and her substance I will greatly bless."
There her people were wont to offer up righteous sacrifices, and thy priests clothed themselves with righteousness.
The house of Levi sang sweet melody and praised thee with triumphant song.
The house of Israel, too, and all that feared the Lord gave thanks unto thy Name, O Lord.
Thou didst deal very kindly with those that went before: deal kindly, too, with those that come after.

יְיָ תָּשִׁישׁ נָא עָלֵינוּ· כַּאֲשֶׁר שָׂשְׂתָּ עַל אֲבוֹתֵינוּ:

שֵׁם כְּבוֹדְךָ וּמְרוֹמָם עַל כָּל בְּרָכָה וּתְהִלָּה: וְנֶאֱמַר בָּרוּךְ
יְיָ אֱלֹהֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל מִן הָעוֹלָם וְעַד הָעוֹלָם וְאָמַר כָּל הָעָם
אָמֵן הַלֵּלוּיָהּ: וְנֶאֱמַר וַיְבָרֶךְ דָּוִיד אֶת יְיָ לְעֵינֵי כָּל
הַקָּהָל וַיֹּאמֶר דָּוִיד· בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל אָבִינוּ
מֵעוֹלָם וְעַד עוֹלָם:

Yea, rejoice over us, O Lord, as thou didst rejoice over our ancestors,
To multiply us and to prosper us, that we may thank thee forever for thy goodness.
O Lord, build thy city speedily, for it is called by thy Name;
Cause the horn of David to spring up in it, and do thou, O Lord, dwell in its midst for ever.
Let us there again offer up righteous sacrifices, and let the meat-offering be accepted as in the days of old.
O bless thy people with the light of thy countenance; be it thy will to do their longing,
Even as they long to do thy will. O Lord, we beseech thee, we are all thy people.
Thou hast chosen us to be unto thee a peculiar people, and upon us thou hast set thy blessing. Selah!
We will continually declare thy praise and extol thy glorious Name.
Let thy people be blessed of thee, for whomso thou blessest is blessed.
And as for me, whilst yet I live, I will praise my Creator, yea, I will bless thee all the days of my pilgrimage.
Blessed be the Name of the Lord from everlasting unto everlasting.

As it is written, "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel for ever and ever. And all the people said Amen, and Praise to the Lord." "And Daniel answered and said: Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his." And it is said, "Then the Levites, Jeshua and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashbaniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebeniah and Pethahiah said: Stand up and bless the Lord your God for ever and ever, that all may bless thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise." And it is said: "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting, and let all the people say Amen, Praise ye the Lord." And it is said: "David blessed the Lord before all the congregation, and David said, Blessed be thou, Lord God of Israel our father, from everlasting unto everlasting."

THE HYMN OF GLORY

The Ark is opened.

I

Sweet hymns shall be my chant and woven songs,
For Thou art all for which my spirit longs—

To be within the shadow of Thy hand
And all Thy mystery to understand.

The while Thy glory is upon my tongue,
My inmost heart with love of Thee is wrung.

So though Thy mighty marvels I proclaim,
'Tis songs of love wherewith I greet Thy name.

II

I have not seen Thee, yet I tell Thy praise,
Nor known Thee, yet I image forth Thy ways.

For by Thy seers' and servants' mystic speech
Thou didst Thy sov'ran splendour darkly teach,

And from the grandeur of Thy work they drew
The measure of Thy inner greatness, too.

They told of Thee, but not as Thou must be,
Since from Thy work they tried to body Thee.

To countless visions did their pictures run,
Behold through all the visions Thou art one.

III

In Thee old age and youth at once were drawn,
The grey of eld, the flowing locks of dawn,

The ancient Judge, the youthful Warrior,
The Man of Battles, terrible in war,

The helmet of salvation on His head,
And by His hand and arm the triumph led,

His head all shining with the dew of light,
His locks all dripping with the drops of night.

IV

I glorify Him, for He joys in me,
My crown of beauty He shall ever be!

His head is like pure gold: His forehead's flame
Is graven glory of His holy name.

And with that lovely diadem 'tis graced,
The coronal His people there have placed.

A mourner says Kaddish (p. 10).

His hair as on the head of youth is twined,
In wealth of raven curls it flows behind.

His circlet is the home of righteousness;
Ah, may He love His highest rapture less!

And be His treasured people in His hand
A diadem His kingly brow to band.

By Him they were uplifted, carried, crowned,
Thus honoured inasmuch as precious found.

His glory is on me, and mine on Him,
And when I call He is not far or dim.

Ruddy in red apparel, bright He glows
When He from treading Edom's wine-press goes.

Phylacteried the vision Moses viewed
The day he gazed on God's similitude.

He loves His folk; the meek will glorify,
And, shrined in prayer, draw their rapt reply.

V

Truth is Thy primal word; at Thy behest
The generations pass—O aid our quest

For Thee, and set my host of songs on high,
And let my psalmody come very nigh.

My praises as a coronal account,
And let my prayers as Thine incense mount.

Deem precious unto Thee the poor man's song,
As those that to Thine altar did belong.

Rise, O my blessing, to the lord of birth,
The breeding, quickening, righteous force of earth.

Do Thou receive it with acceptant nod,
My choicest incense offered to my God.

And let my meditation grateful be,
For all my being is athirst for Thee.

Thine, O Lord, are greatness and power, glory, victory and majesty; for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine: thine is sovereignty, O Lord, and pre-eminence supreme. Who can utter the mighty acts of the Lord? Who can show forth all his praise?

The Ark is closed.

The Mourners' Kaddish is said (p. 10).

Blessed be he who hath compassion upon the earth. Blessed be he who hath compassion upon his creatures. Blessed be he who bestoweth a good reward upon them that fear him. Blessed be he who liveth for ever and endureth to all eternity. Blessed be he who ransometh and delivereth; blessed be his Name. Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, O God, merciful Father, praised by the mouth of thy people, extolled and glorified by the tongue of thy pious ones and servants. With the psalms of David thy servant we will praise thee, O Lord our God; with hymns and songs we will magnify thee and extol thee and glorify thee; we will make mention of thy Name and do homage to thee, our King and God, that art one, the Life of worlds. O King, who art extolled and glorified, thy Name endureth to all eternity. Blessed art thou, O Lord, King adored with praises.

1 Chronicles xvi. 8-36.

Give thanks unto the Lord, call upon his Name, make known his deeds among the people. Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him, talk ye of all his wondrous works. Glory ye in his holy Name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the Lord. Seek the Lord and his strength, seek his face continually. Remember his marvellous works that he hath done, his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth; O ye seed of Israel his servant, ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones. He is the Lord our God; his judgments are in all the earth. Remember his covenant for ever; the word which he commanded to a thousand generations, the covenant which he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac; and confirmed the same to Jacob for a statute, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant, saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance; when ye were but few, even a few, and strangers in it. And when they went from nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another people; he suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproved kings for their sakes, saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

Sing unto the Lord, all the earth; shew forth from day to day his salvation. Declare his glory among the heathen; his marvellous works among all nations. For great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised: he also is to be feared above all gods. For all the gods of the people are idols: but the Lord made the heavens. Glory and honour are in his presence; strength and gladness are in his place. Give unto the Lord, ye kindreds of the people, give unto the Lord glory and strength. Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his Name: bring an offering, and come before him: worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness. Tremble before him, all the earth: the world also shall be stablished, that it be not moved. Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice: and let men say among the nations, The Lord reigneth. Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof: let the fields rejoice, and all that is therein. Then shall the trees of the wood sing for joy before the Lord, because he cometh to judge the earth. O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever. And say ye, Save us, O God of our salvation, and gather us together and deliver us from the nations, to give thanks unto thy holy Name and to triumph in thy praise. Blessed be the Lord God of Israel for ever and ever. And all the people said, Amen, and praised the Lord.

Exalt ye the Lord our God, and worship at his footstool; for he is holy. Exalt ye the Lord our God, and worship at his holy hill; for the Lord our God is holy. And he being full of compassion forgiveth iniquity and destroyeth not: yea, many a time he turneth his anger away and stirreth not up all his wrath. Thou, O Lord, wilt not withhold thy tender mercies and thy loving-kindnesses; for thy are of truth continually preserve me. Remember, O Lord, thy tender mercies and thy loving-kindness; for thy are of old. Ascribe ye strength unto God: his excellency is over Israel, and his strength is in the skies. O God, thou art terrible out of thy holy places: the God of Israel is he that giveth strength and power unto his people. Blessed be God. O Lord God, to whom vengeance belongeth; O God to whom vengeance belongeth, shine forth. Lift up thyself, thou judge of the earth: render to the proud their desert. Salvation belongeth unto the Lord: thy blessing be upon thy people. Selah. The Lord of Hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is a high tower unto us. Selah. O Lord of Hosts, happy is the man that trusteth in thee. Save, O Lord: may the King answer us on the day we call. Save thy people and bless thine inheritance: feed them also, and lift them up for ever. Our soul hath waited for the Lord; he is our help and our shield. For our heart shall rejoice in him, because we have trusted in his holy Name. Let thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us, according as we have hoped in thee. Shew us thy mercy, O Lord, and grant us thy salvation. Rise up for our help and redeem us for thy mercy's sake. I am the Lord thy God which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide and I will fill it. Happy is the people that is in such a case; happy is the people whose God is the Lord. And as for me, I have trusted in thy mercy; my heart shall rejoice in thy salvation. I will sing unto the Lord, because he hath dealt bountifully with me.

Psalm xix. For the Chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handiwork. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge. There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard. Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun, which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race. His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof. The Law of the Lord is perfect, restoring the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple. The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes. The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also thy honey and the honeycomb. Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward. Who can discern his errors? clear Psalm xxxiv. A Psalm of David; when he changed his behaviour before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he departed.

I will bless the Lord at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth. My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the meek shall hear thereof, and be glad. O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together. I sought the Lord, and he answered me, and delivered me from all my fears. They looked unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed. This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles. The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them. O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him. O fear the Lord, ye his holy ones: for there is no want to them that fear him. The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing. Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the Lord. What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good? Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile. Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it. The eyes of the Lord are toward the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry. The face of the Lord is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth. The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles. The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit. Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all. He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken. Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate. The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be condemned.

Psalm xc. A Prayer of Moses the man of God.

Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God. Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men. For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night. Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as in sleep: in the morning they are like grass which groweth up. In the morning it flourisheth and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down and withereth. For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled. Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance. For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years as a tale that is told. The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their pride labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away. Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath. So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom. Return, O Lord; how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants. O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil. Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children. And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

Psalm xci.

He dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High, he abideth under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust. For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence. He shall cover thee with his pinions, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be a shield and a buckler. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked. For thou, O Lord, art my refuge;

Psalm cxxxv.

Praise ye the Lord. Praise ye the Name of the Lord; praise him, O ye servants of the Lord. Ye that stand in the house of the Lord, in the courts of the house of our God, praise the Lord; for the Lord is good: sing praises unto his Name; for it is pleasant. For the Lord hath chosen Jacob unto himself, and Israel for his peculiar treasure. For I know that the Lord is great, and that our Lord is above all gods. Whatsoever the Lord pleaseth, that hath he done in heaven and in earth, in the seas and all deeps. He causeth vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings for the rain; he bringeth the wind out of his treasuries. Who smote the firstborn of Egypt, both of man and beast. Who sent tokens and wonders into the midst of thee, O Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his servants. Who smote great nations, and slew mighty kings; Sihon king of the Amorites, and Og king of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Canaan: and gave their land for an heritage, an heritage unto Israel his people. Thy Name, O Lord, endureth for ever; thy memorial, O Lord, throughout all generations. For the Lord will judge his people, and he will repent him concerning his servants. The idols of the heathen are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. They have mouths, but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not; they have ears, but they hear not; neither is there any breath in their mouths. They that make them shall be like unto them: yea, every one that trusteth in them. Bless the Lord, O house of Psalm xxxiii.

Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright. Give thanks unto the Lord with harp: sing unto him with the psaltery of ten strings. Sing unto him a new song; play skilfully with a loud noise. For the word of the Lord is right; and all his works are done in faithfulness. He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the goodness of the Lord. By the word of the Lord were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth. He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap: he layeth up the depth in storehouses. Let all the earth fear the Lord: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him. For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast. The Lord bringeth the counsel of nations to naught: he maketh the devices of peoples of none effect. The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations. Happy is the nation whose God is the Lord; the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance. The Lord looketh from heaven; he beholdeth all the sons of men. From the place of his habitation he looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth, he that fashioneth the hearts of them all, that considereth all their works. The king is not saved by the multitude of an host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength. An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength. Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope for his mercy; to deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine. Our soul hath waited for the Lord: he is our help and our shield. For our heart shall rejoice in him, because we have trusted in his holy Name. Let thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us, according as we have hoped in thee.

Psalm xcii. A Psalm, a Song for the Sabbath Day.

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto thy Name, O most High: to shew forth thy loving-kindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness every night, upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the psaltery; upon the harp with a solemn sound. For thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands. How great are thy works, O Lord! thy thoughts are very deep. A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this. When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever: But thou, O Lord, art most high for evermore. For, lo, thine enemies, O Lord, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered. But my horn hast thou exalted like the horn of the wild ox: I am anointed with fresh oil. Mine eyes hath seen mine enemies; mine ears have heard of the wicked who rise up against me. The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon. They shall be planted in the house of the Lord; they shall flourish in the courts of our God. They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be full of sap, and green; to show that the Lord is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Psalm xciii.

The Lord reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the Lord is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself; the world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved. Thy throne is established of old: thou art from everlasting. The floods have lifted up, O Lord, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves. The Lord on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty breakers of the sea. Thy testimonies are very sure; holiness becometh thine house, O Lord, for ever.

Let the glory of the Lord endure for ever; let the Lord rejoice in his works. Blessed be the Name of the Lord from this time forth and for evermore. From the rising of sun unto the going down of the same the Lord's Name is praised. The Lord is high above all nations, and his glory above the heavens. Thy Name, O Lord, endureth for ever; thy memorial, O Lord, throughout all generations. The Lord hath established his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all. Let the heavens rejoice and let the earth be glad, and let men say among the nations, The Lord reigneth. The Lord reigneth: the Lord hath reigned: the Lord will reign for ever and ever. The Lord is King for ever and ever: the heathen are perished out of his land. The Lord bringeth the counsel of nations to naught: he maketh the devices of peoples of none effect. There are many devices in a man's heart; but the counsel of the Lord, that shall stand. The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations. For he spake and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast. For the Lord hath chosen Zion; he hath desired it for his habitation. For the Lord hath chosen Jacob unto himself, and Israel for his peculiar treasure. For the Lord will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance. And he being full of compassion forgiveth iniquity and destroyeth not: yet, many a time he turneth his anger away and stirreth not up all his wrath. Save, O Lord: may the King answer us on the day we call.

Happy are they that dwell in thy house; they will be ever praising thee. Selah. Happy is the people that is in such a case; happy is the people whose God is the Lord.

Psalm cxlv. A Psalm of Praise of David.

I will extol thee, my God, O King; and I will bless thy Name for ever and ever. Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy Name for ever and ever. Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable. One generation shall laud thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts. Of the glorious honour of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous works, will I speak. And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts: and I will declare thy greatness. They shall utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness. The Lord is gracious and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy. The Lord is good to all; and his tender mercies are over all his works. All thy works shall give thanks unto thee, O Lord; and thy pious servants shall bless thee. They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power; to make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glory of the majesty of his kingdom. Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations. The Lord upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down. The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat in due season. Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing. The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and merciful in all his works. The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth. He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him; he also will hear their cry, and will save them. The Lord preserveth all them that love him; but all the wicked will he destroy. My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord; and let all flesh bless his holy Name for ever and ever.

And as for us, we will bless the Lord from this time forth, and for evermore. Praise ye the Lord.

Psalm cxlvi.

Praise ye the Lord. Praise the Lord, O my soul. While I live will I praise the Lord: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being. Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help. His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his purposes perish. Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the Lord his God. Which made heaven and earth, the sea and all that therein is: which keepeth truth for ever: which executeth judgment for the oppressed: which giveth food to the hungry. The Lord looseth prisoners: the Lord openeth the eyes of the blind: the Lord raiseth them that are bowed down: the Lord loveth the righteous: the Lord preserveth the strangers; he relieveth the fatherless and widow; but the way of the wicked he subverteth. The Lord shall reign for ever, thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the Lord.

Psalm cxlvii.

Praise ye the Lord: for it is good to sing praises unto our God; for it is pleasant; and praise is comely. The Lord doth build up Jerusalem: he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel. He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds. He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names. Great is our Lord, and of great power: his understanding is infinite. The Lord lifteth up the meek: he castest the wicked down to the ground. Sing unto the Lord with thanksgiving; sing praise upon the harp unto our God: who covereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains. He giveth to the beast his food, and to the young ravens which cry. He delighteth not in the strength of the horse: he taketh no pleasure in the legs of a man. The Lord taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope for his mercy. Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem; praise thy God, O Zion. For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates; he hath blessed thy children within thee. He maketh thy border peace; he filleth thee with the fat of the wheat. He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth: his word runneth very swiftly. He giveth snow like wool: he scattereth the hoar-frost like ashes. He casteth forth his ice like morsels: who can stand before his cold? He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: he causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow. He sheweth his word unto Jacob, his statutes and his judgments unto Israel. He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye the Lord.

Psalm cxlviii.

Praise ye the Lord. Praise ye the Lord from the heavens: praise him in the heights. Praise ye him, all his angels: praise ye him, all his hosts. Praise ye him, sun and moon: praise him, all ye stars of light. Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that be above the heavens. Let them praise the name of the Lord: for he commanded, and they were created. He hath also stablished them for ever and ever: he hath made a decree which shall not pass. Praise the Lord from the earth, ye sea monsters, and all Psalm cxlix.

Praise ye the Lord. Sing unto the Lord a new song, and his praise in the congregation of his pious servants. Let Israel rejoice in him that made him: let the children of Zion be joyful in their King. Let them praise his Name in the dance: let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp. For the Lord taketh pleasure in his people: he will beautify the meek with salvation. Israel, who alone doeth wondrous things. And blessed be his glorious Name for ever; and let the whole earth be filled with his glory; Amen and Amen.

From And David to worshippeth thee is said standing.

1 Chronicles xxix. 10-13.

And David blessed the Lord before all the congregation: and David said, Blessed be thou, Lord God of Israel our father, for ever and ever. Thine, O Lord, are greatness and power, glory, victory and majesty; for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine: thine in sovereignty, O Lord, and pre-eminence supreme. Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all. Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious Name.

Nehemiah ix. 6-11.

Thou, even thou, art Lord alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee. Thou art the Lord the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham; and foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Jebusites and the Girgashites, even to give it unto his seed, and hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous: and didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red sea; and shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them, and didst get thee a name, as it is this day. And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their pursuers thou didst cast into the depths, as a stone into the mighty waters.

Exodus xiv. 30-xv. 18.

Thus the Lord saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians: and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore. And Israel saw that great work which the Lord did upon the Egyptians: and the people feared the Lord, and believed the Lord and his servant Moses.

Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the Lord, and spake, saying, I will sing unto the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

The Lord is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation; my father's God, and I will exalt him.

The Lord is a man of war: the Lord is his name.

Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath he cast into the sea: his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red sea.

The deeps covered them: they sank into the depths as a stone.

Thy right hand, O Lord, is glorious in power: thy right hand, O Lord, hath dashed in pieces the enemy.

And in the greatness of thine excellency thou overthrowest them that rise up against thee: thou sendest forth thy wrath, it consumeth them as stubble.

And with the blast of thy nostrils the waters were gathered together, the floods stood upright as an heap, and the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea.

The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.

Thou didst blow with thy wind, the sea covered them: they sank as lead in the mighty waters.

Who is like unto thee, O Lord, among the mighty ones? who is like thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?

Thou stretchedest out thy right hand; the earth swallowed them.

Thou in thy mercy hast led forth the people which thou hast redeemed; thou has guided them in thy strength unto thy holy habitation.

The people have heard, they tremble: pangs have taken hold on the inhabitants of Philistia.

Then were the dukes of Edom amazed; the mighty men of Moab, trembling taketh hold upon them; all the inhabitants of Canaan are melted away.

Terror and dread fall upon them; by the greatness of thine arm they shall be as still as a stone: till thy people pass over, O Lord, till the people pass over, which thou hast gotten.

Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of thine inheritance, in the place, O Lord, which thou hast made for thee to dwell in, in the Sanctuary, O Lord, which thy hands have established.

The Lord shall reign for ever and ever.

The last verse is repeated.

For sovereignty is the Lord's: and he is ruler over the nations. And saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau and sovereignty shall be the Lord's. And the Lord shall be King over all the earth; in that day shall the Lord be One and his Name One. And in thy Law it is written: Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is One.

The breath of every living thing shall bless thy Name, O Lord our God, and the spirit of all flesh shall glorify and extol thy memorial, O our King, continually. From everlasting unto everlasting thou art God, and beside thee we have no King, O thou who redeemest and savest, who rescuest and deliverest, who supportest and hast compassion at all times of trouble and distress. Yea, we have no King but thee. Thou art the God of the first and of the last, God of all creatures, Lord of all generations, adored in innumerable praises, governing thy world with loving-kindness and thy creatures with compassion. Lo, the Lord slumbereth not nor sleepeth, but arouseth sleepers and awakeneth them that slumber. He maketh the dumb to speak, he looseth the bound, he stayeth the falling and supporteth them that are bowed down. To thee alone do we give thanks. Though our mouths were full of song as the sea, our tongues of exultation as the fulness of its waves, and our lips of praise as the plains of the firmament: though our eyes gave light as the sun and moon: though our hands were outspread as the eagles of heaven, and our feet were swift as hinds, yet should we be unable to thank thee, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, and to bless thy Name for even one of the countless thousands and tens of thousands of kindnesses which thou hast done by our fathers and by us. From Egypt didst thou redeem us, O Lord our God, and from the house of bondage thou didst release us; in famine thou didst feed us and in time of plenty it was thou who didst sustain us. Thou hast delivered us from the sword, saved us from pestilence and rescued us from dire and lingering sicknesses. Uutil now thy mercies have helped us and thy loving-kindnesses have not failed us; and mayest thou never forsake us, O Lord our God. Therefore the members which thou hast planted in us, and the spirit and the soul which thou hast breathed into us, and the tongue which thou hast placed in our mouths, lo, they shall thank and bless, extol and glorify, exalt, reverence, hallow and do homage to thy Name, O our King. For every mouth shall thank thee and every tongue shall swear allegiance unto thee. Before thee shall every knee bend and every stature be prostrated. Every heart shall fear thee, and the inward parts and reins shall all sing praises to thy Name, even as it is written: All my bones shall say, O Lord who is like thee? Thou deliverest the needy from him that is stronger than he, yea, the needy and poor from him that spoileth him. Who is like unto thee, who is equal to thee, who can be compared to thee, O God, great, mighty, awful and supreme God, founder of heaven and earth? We will praise thee, extol thee and glorify thee; we will bless thy holy Name, as it is said by David, Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all my inward parts his holy Name. Thou art God in the vastness of thy power; thou art great in the glory of thy Name, mighty through thine Eternity and awful in thine awful works.

Thou art the King

Who sitteth upon a throne, high and exalted.

He abideth to eternity; exalted and holy is his Name. And it is written, Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous; for praise is comely for the upright. Through the mouth of the upright thou shalt be exalted; with the words of the righteous thou shalt be blessed; thou shalt be hallowed by the tongue of the pious, and praised in the midst of the holy.

And in the assemblies of the tens of thousands of thy people, in the house of Israel, thy Name, O our King, shall be glorified with song throughout every generation. For such is the duty of all creatures before thee, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, to give thanks unto thee, to praise, laud, glorify, exalt, adore, bless, magnify and acclaim thee with all the words of song and praise of David, the son of Jesse, thine anointed servant.

Praised be thy Name, O our King for ever, thou God and King that art great and holy in heaven and on earth. For unto thee, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, song and praise are meet, psalm and hymn, power and dominion, supremacy, greatness, might, psalmody and glory, holiness and sovereignty, blessings and thanksgivings henceforth and evermore. Blessed are thou, O Lord, God and King, great in praises, God of thanksgiving, Lord of wonders, who makest choice of song and psalmody, sovereign God, the Life of worlds.

Congregation silently:

Blessed, praised, glorified, exalted and extolled be the Name of the supreme King of kings, the Holy One, blessed be he, who is the first and the last, and besides him there is no God. Extol him that rideth upon the heavens whose Name is Jah, and rejoice before him. His name is exalted above all blessing and praise. Blessed be his glorious sovereign Name for ever and ever. Let the Name of the Lord be blessed from this time forth and for evermore.

Cong. and Reader. Blessed be the Lord, who is blessed for ever and evermore.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who formest light and createst darkness, who makest peace and createst all things:

Yea, eternal light in the treasury of life; for he spake, and out of darkness there was light.

King with might begirded,
Name of strength eternal,
Thine the arm of triumph, Thine the fame.

King in garb of vengeance,
On the day of vengeance
Striking back the foeman to their shame.

King begirt in splendour,
Dying seas of water,
Crushing haughty breakers as they spring.

King in tenfold garments,[1]
Girt by holy beings,
Throngs assembled calling "Holy King!"

King enshrined in radiance,
Clothed in light for vesture,
He will bring our judgment into light.

King set round with triumph,
Strong in power and purpose,
Whilst all men are empty of all might.

King arrayed in justice,
Sanctified in judgment,
Thine, O Lord, the justice, Thine alone!

King in proud apparel,
Helmeted a saviour,
God that sitteth holy on His throne.

King in crimson garments,
Treading down deceivers,
Binding haughty spirits on their height.

King in snow-white raiment,
He will cleanse His creatures,
Make them pure who, striving, fain were white.

King with zeal encompassed,
Jealous for His glory,
Warlike, waking fervour into birth.

King of earth's far limits,
King of worlds that worship,
When to judge He cometh to the earth.

King, when He ariseth,
All He made shall tremble,
Under His eternal, lofty path.

King, the world's strong ruler,
Mountains quake before Him,
Skip like rams in terror at His wrath.

King o'er kings tremendous,
Earth shall quake beholding
God amid encircling cherubim.

King—ah! who conceiveth
Sovereign strength upbearing
Weary steps whose power waxeth dim?

King who stands for judgment,
Who in time of judgment
Ready for the haughty justice keeps.

King unfolding secrets,
Showing deep-laid counsel,
Laying bare the secret of the deeps.

King who calleth tempests
For the proud in spirit,
Seizing them, o'erwhelming with His blast.

King amid His tempest
Gath'ring earthly monarchs,
Laying on them silence at the last.

King Most High in judgment,
King that loveth justice,
Throned on right and justice on His height.

King and Judge unerring,
Justice walks before Him
Pleading for pursuers of the right.

King in high dominion,
Throned o'er heavenly spaces,
Making realms of rulers nothing worth.

King whose gazing earthward
Shaketh her foundations,
When he sendeth vision o'er the earth.

King who probeth action,
All within His searching—
Earth and Heaven together—He shall bring.

King and God eternal,
His eternal people
Hail Him King for ever, Holy King!

On Sabbath from here until glorify thee; selah, on page 84 is said:

All shall give thanks unto thee, and all shall praise thee, and all shall say, There is none holy like the Lord. All shall extol thee, thou Creator of all; selah: O God, who openest every day the doors of the gates of the East, and cleavest the windows of the firmament, bringing forth the sun from his place, and the moon from her dwelling; giving light to the whole world and the inhabitants thereof, whom thou createdst by the attribute of mercy. In mercy thou givest light to the earth and to them that dwell thereon, and in thy goodness renewest the creation every day continually. O King, thou alone has been exalted of yore; praised, glorified and extolled from days of old. O everlasting God, in thine abundant mercies have mercy upon us, Lord of our strength, Rock of our stronghold, Shield of our salvation, O thou Stronghold around us. There is none to be compared unto thee, neither is there any beside thee; there is none but thee! who is like unto thee? There is none to be compared unto thee, O Lord our God, in this world, neither is there any beside thee, O our King, for the life of the world to come; there is none but thee, O our Redeemer, for the days of the Messiah; neither is there any like unto thee, O our Saviour, for the resurrection of the dead.

God, the Lord over all works, blessed is he; yea, blessed by the mouth of everything that hath breath. His greatness and goodness fill the Universe; knowledge and understanding surround him. He is exalted above the holy Chayoth, and is adorned in glory above the Chariot[1]; purity and rectitude are before his throne; loving-kindness and mercy before his glory. The luminaries are good which our God hath created; he formed them with knowledge, understanding and discernment; he gave them might and power to rule in the midst of the world. They are full of lustre, they radiate brightness; beautiful is their lustre all over the world. They rejoice in their going forth, and are glad in their coming in, performing with awe the will of their Master. Glory and honour they render unto his Name, joy and song at the remembrance of his sovereignty. He calleth unto the sun, and it shineth forth in light; he looketh and setteth the phases of the moon. All the hosts on high give praise unto him: the Seraphim, the Ophanim and the holy Chayoth render glory and greatness—

To God who rested from all his works, and on the seventh day exalted himself and sat upon the throne of his glory; who robed himself in majesty on the day of rest, and called the Sabbath-day a delight. This is the praise of the seventh day, that God rested thereon from all his work; and the seventh day uttered praise and said[2]: "A Psalm, a Song for the Sabbath day. It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord." Therefore let all his creatures glorify and bless God; let them render praise, honour and greatness unto God, the King and Creator of all, who in his holiness giveth an inheritance of rest unto his people Israel on the holy Sabbath day. Thy Name, O Lord our God, shall be sanctified, and thy remembrance, O our King, shall be glorified in heaven above and on the earth beneath. Be thou blessed, O our Saviour, for the excellency of thy handiwork, and for the bright luminaries which thou hast made: they shall glorify thee; selah.

On week days:

Thou givest light in mercy to the earth and to them that dwell thereon, and in thy goodness renewest the creation every day continually. How great are thy works, O Lord! in wisdom hast thou made them all; the earth is full of thy possessions. O King, thou alone has been exalted of yore, praised, glorified, and extolled from days of old. O everlasting God, in thine abundant mercies have mercy upon us, Lord of our strength, Rock of our stronghold, Shield of our salvation, O thou Stronghold around us. The blessed God, who is great in knowledge, hath designed and made the radiance of the sun: the Beneficient One hath wrought glory unto his Name; he hath set luminaries round about his strength. Chiefs of holy hosts continually declare the high praises of the Almighty, the glory of God and his holiness. Be thou blessed, O Lord our God, for the excellency of thy handiwork and for the bright luminaries which thou hast made: they shall glorify thee; selah.

Be thou blessed, O our Rock, our King and our Redeemer, Creator of holy beings. Praised be thy Name for ever, O our King, Creator of ministering angels: whose ministering angels stand in the heights of the Universe and together proclaim with awe aloud the words of the living God and everlasting King. All of them are beloved: all of them are pure: all of them are mighty, and all of them in dread and awe do the will of their Master: and all of them open their mouths in holiness and purity, with song and psalm, and bless and praise, glorify and reverence, sanctify and ascribe sovereignty—

To the name of God, the great, mighty and awful King; holy is he; and they all take upon themselves the yoke of the kingdom of heaven one from the other, and they give leave, one unto the other, to declare the holiness of their Creator. In tranquil spirit, with pure speech and holy melody they all respond in unison and exclaim with awe:

Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory.

Tent-like this day the King stretched out the sky,
His glory and His love to testify;
This day for judgment all, both low and high,
Must face their King.

He girds Himself with majesty and might,
And earth and heaven tremble in affright;
But He who fashions hearts will judge aright,
Our gracious King.

For He, who knows each action and its aim,
Will mercifully moderate our blame
This day, when solemn trumpet-blasts proclaim
Our Lord the King.

So He ordained to purify His flock,
Who feeds His saints from His unfailing stock;
Whose covenant is built upon the rock,
Almighty King.

O root not out the remnant of Thy sons,
Not one the service of Thy palace shuns;
From yesterday began our orisons
To praise the King.

Ah, pity us, by grace of our descent
From him to whom three messengers were sent
And him for whom the angels' tears were spent,
Our fathers' King!

And add unto our cry the merits vast
Of him who down in sleep his body cast,
Where up and down the holy angels passed
To serve the King.

Assuage the rigours of Thy first degree,
Let justice not with mercy disagree;
Hark how to-day the trumpet sounds our plea,
O gentle King!

Mercy for all whose hopes in Thee do rest,
Thy devotees, in whom the world is blest;
Let benedictions spring in every breast,
Eternal King!

The Chayoth sing: the Cherubim glorify: the Seraphim exult, and the Arelim bless. The face of every Chayah, Ophan and Cherub is set toward the Seraphim, and thus confronting each the other, they utter praise and say, Blessed be the glory of the Lord from his place.

To the blessed God they offer sweet song; to the King, the living and ever-enduring God, they utter hymns and make their praises heard; for he alone worketh mighty deeds, and maketh new things. He is the Lord of battles; he soweth righteousness, causeth salvation to spring forth and createth remedies. He is fearful in praises. He is the Lord of wonders, who in his goodness reneweth the creation every day continually, as it is said: Give thanks to him that made great lights: for his mercy endureth for ever. O cause a new light to shine upon Zion, and may we all soon be worthy of its brightness: Blessed art thou, O Lord, Creator of the luminaries.

With much love hast thou loved us, O Lord our God, and with great and exceeding tenderness hast thou pitied us. O our Father, our King, for the sake of our fathers, who trusted in thee and whom thou didst teach the statutes of life, be gracious unto us also and teach us. O our Father, compassionate Father, who art merciful, have mercy upon us and put it into our hearts to understand and to discern, to hearken, to learn and to teach, to observe, to do and to fulfil in love all the words of instruction in thy Law. Enlighten our eyes in thy Law, and cause our hearts to cleave to thy commandments, and unite our hearts to love and fear thy Name, so that we be never put to shame. For we have trusted in thy holy, great and awful Name. Let us rejoice and be glad in thy salvation. O bring us in peace from the four corners of the earth, and make us go upright to our land; for thou art the God who worketh salvation. Thou hast chosen us from all peoples and tongues, and hast brought us near unto thy great Name in truth; selah: that we may give thanks unto thee and proclaim thy Unity in love. Blessed are thou, O Lord, who hast chosen thy people Israel in love.

Deuteronomy vi. 4-9.

Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is One.

Blessed be his glorious, sovereign Name for ever and ever.

And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: and thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be for frontlets between thine eyes. And thou shalt write them upon the door-posts of thine house and upon thy gates.

Deuteronomy xi. 13-21.

And it shall come to pass, if ye will hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love the Lord your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul: that I will give the rain of your land in its season, the first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn and thy wine and thine oil. And I will send grass in thy fields for thy cattle, that thou mayest eat and be satisfied. Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them: and the Lord's wrath be kindled against you, and he shut up the heaven and there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit, and ye perish quickly from off the good land which the Lord giveth you. Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, and they shall be for frontlets between your eyes. And ye shall teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. And thou shalt write them upon the door-posts of thine house and upon thy gates; that your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the Lord sware unto your fathers to give them, as the days of the heavens upon the earth.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying: Speak unto the children of Israel, and bid them that they make them fringes in the corners of their garments throughout their generations, and that they put upon the fringe of the corner a thread of blue: and it shall be unto you for a fringe, that ye may look upon it and remember all the commandments of the Lord, and do them; and that ye seek not after your own heart and your own eyes, after which ye use to go astray: that ye may remember and do all my commandments, and be holy unto your God. I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God; I am the Lord your God.

True and firm, established and enduring, right and faithful, beloved and precious, desirable and pleasant, awful and mighty, set and acceptable, good and beautiful, is this word unto us for ever and ever. It is true, the God of the Universe is our King, the Rock of Jacob, the Shield of our salvation: throughout all generations he endureth and his Name endureth; his throne is established, and his kingdom and his faithfulness endure for ever. His words also live and endure: they are faithful and desirable for ever and to all eternity, as for our fathers, so also for us, for our children and for our generations, and for all the generations of the seed of Israel thy servants. For the first and for the last ages this word is good and endureth for ever and ever; it is true and constant, a statute which shall not pass away. It is true that thou art the Lord our God and the God of our fathers, our King, our fathers' King, our Redeemer, the Redeemer of our fathers, our Creator, the Rock of our salvation, our Preserver and Deliverer; thy Name is from everlasting; there is no God beside thee.

Thou hast been the help of our fathers from of old, a Shield and a Saviour to their children after them in every generation. In the heights of the Universe is thy habitation, and thy judgments and thy righteousness reach unto the ends of the earth. Happy is the man who hearkeneth unto thy commandments, and layeth up thy Law and thy word in his heart. It is true that thou art the Lord of thy people, and a mighty King to plead their cause. It is true that thou art the first and thou art the last, and beside thee we have no King, redeemer and saviour. From Egypt thou didst redeem us, O Lord our God, and from the house of bondage thou didst deliver us; all their first-born thou didst slay, but thy first-born didst thou redeem; thou didst divide the Red Sea and drown the proud; thou madest the beloved to pass through, but the waters covered their adversaries; not one of them was left. Wherefore the beloved praised and extolled God, yea, the beloved offered hymns, songs, praises, blessings and thanksgivings to the King and God who liveth and endureth, who is high and exalted, great and awful, who bringeth low the haughty and raiseth up the lowly, leadeth forth the prisoners, delivereth the meek, helpeth the poor and answereth his people when they cry unto him—even praises to the Most High God, blessed is he, yea blessed. Moses and the children of Israel sang a song unto thee with great joy, saying all of them:

Who is like unto thee, O Lord, among the mighty ones? Who is like unto thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?

With a new song the redeemed offered praise unto thy Name at the sea-shore; together they all gave thanks and proclaimed thy sovereignity, saying:

The Lord shall reign for ever and ever.

O Rock of Israel, arise to the help of Israel, and deliver according to thy word Judah and Israel. Our Redeemer, the Lord of hosts is his Name, the Holy One of Israel. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who hast redeemed Israel.

The Amidah until in ancient years, on page 95, is said standing and in silence.

O Lord, open thou my lips, and my mouth shall declare thy praise.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, God of Abraham, God of Isaac, and God of Jacob, O great, mighty and awful God, most high God, who bestowest gracious favors, and who possessest all things, who rememberest the piety of the patriarchs, and who in love wilt bring a redeemer to their children's children, for the sake of thy Name. Remember us unto life, O King, who delightest in life, and inscribe us in the book of life, for thine own sake, O living God. O King, Helper, Saviour and Shield; blessed art thou, O Lord, the Shield of Abraham.

Thou art mighty for ever, O Lord; it is thou who quickenest the dead, and art mighty to save. Thou sustainest the living with loving-kindness, quickenest the dead with great mercy, supportest the falling and healest the sick, loosest the bound, and keepest thy faith unto them that sleep in the dust. Who is like unto thee, Lord of mighty acts, and who can be compared unto thee, O King, who killest and restorest to life and causest salvation to spring forth? Who is like unto thee, Father of mercy, who in mercy rememberest thy creatures unto life? And faithful art thou to quicken the dead. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who quickenest the dead.

Thou art holy and thy Name is holy, and holy beings praise thee daily. Selah.

Now therefore, O Lord our God, impose thine awe upon all thy works and thy dread over all that thou hast created, that all thy works may fear thee and all creatures prostrate themselves before thee, that they may all form one band to do thy will with a perfect heart; even as we know, O Lord our God, that dominion is thine, strength is in thy hand, and might in thy right hand, and that thy Name is awful over all that thou hast created.

And therefore, O Lord, give glory unto thy people, praise to them that fear thee, hope to them that seek thee, confidence to them that wait for thee, joy to thy land, for good; visit us with a blessing, and save us unto life. And with thy word of salvation and mercy, spare us and be gracious unto us; have mercy upon us and save us; for unto thee our eyes are turned, for thou art a gracious and merciful God and King.

Our God and God of our fathers, reign over the whole Universe in thy glory, and in thy splendour be exalted over all the earth. Shine forth in the majesty of thy triumphant strength over all the inhabitants of thy world, that every form may know that thou hast formed it, and every creature understand that thou hast created it, and that all that hath breath in its nostrils may say: The Lord God of Israel is King and his dominion ruleth over all. [Our God and the God of our fathers, accept our rest,] sanctify us by thy commandments and grant our portion be in thy Law; satisfy us with thy goodness, and gladden us with thy salvation, [and cause us, O Lord our God, in love and favour to inherit thy holy Sabbath; and may Israel find repose thereon who hallow thy Name,] and purify our hearts to serve thee in truth; for thou, O God, art truth, and thy word is truth and endureth for ever. Blessed art thou, O Lord, thou King over all the earth, who sanctifiest [the Sabbath and] Israel and the Day of Memorial.

Accept, O Lord our God, thy people Israel and their prayer; restore the service to the innermost part of thine house; receive in love and favour the fire-offerings of Israel and their prayer; and may the service of thy people Israel be ever acceptable to thee. And let our eyes behold thy return in mercy to Zion. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who restorest thy divine presence unto Zion.

We make acknowledgment unto thee, that thou art the Lord our God and the God of our fathers for ever and ever; thou art the Rock of our lives, the Shield of our salvation through every generation. We will give thanks unto thee and declare thy praise for our lives which are delivered into thy hands, and for our souls which are committed unto thy charge, and for thy miracles which are with us every day, and for thy wondrous benefits which are with us at all times, even, morn and noon. Thou art the Beneficient One, for thy mercies never fail; thou art the Merciful One, for thy kindnesses never cease. We have ever hoped in thee.

And for all these things, O our King, thy Name shall be continualy blessed and exalted for ever and ever. And inscribe all the children of thy covenant for a happy life. And every one that liveth shall give thanks unto thee, Selah; and shall praise thy Name in truth, O God, our salvation and help, Selah. Blessed art thou, O Lord, whose Name is the Beneficent One, and unto whom it is becoming to give thanks.

Grant peace, welfare, blessing, grace, loving-kindness and mercy unto us and unto all Israel, thy people. Bless us, O our Father, yea, all of us together, with the light of thy countenance; for by the light of thy countenance thou hast given unto us, O Lord our God, the Law of life, loving-kindness and righteousness, blessing, mercy, life and peace; and may it be good in thy sight to bless thy people Israel at all times and in every hour with thy peace. In the book of life, blessing, peace and good sustenance may we be remembered and inscribed before thee, we and all thy people the house of Israel, for a happy life and peace. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who makest peace.

O my God, guard my tongue from evil and my lips from speaking guile; and to such as curse me, let my soul be silent, yea, let my soul be unto all as the dust. Open thou my heart to thy Law, and let my soul pursue thy commandments. And as to any who devise evil against me, speedily make their counsel of none effect and frustrate their designs. Do thou it for the sake of thy Name, do it for the sake of thy right hand, do it for the sake of thy holiness, do it for the sake of thy Law, that thy beloved ones may be delivered. O save with thy right hand and answer me. Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable before

READER'S REPETITION OF THE AMIDAH.

The Ark is opened.

Reader. Blessed art thou, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, God of Abraham, God of Isaac and God of Jacob, great, mighty and awful God, most high God, who bestoweth gracious favours and who possessest all things, who rememberest the piety of the patriarchs, and who in love wilt bring a Redeemer to their children's children, for the sake of thy Name.

From the counsel of the wise and understanding, and from knowledge gotten of the discerning, I will open my lips in prayer and supplication, to entreat and implore the presence of the King of kings and Lord of lords.

Trembling, I now pour forth my prayerful plea,
And, suppliant, seek Thee shrined in awe supreme.
I fear that worthless Thou my deeds must deem;
Wisdom I lack, and hope forsaketh me.
Teach me my sacred portion to possess;
Strengthen, uphold me, weak, in terror's snare.
Account my whispered plaint as incense rare,
Sweeter than honey voice of my distress.
Its guileless utterance through Thy grace confirm,
And pardon's ransom to my people speed.

Melodious let my supplication plead
For these Thy suitors, humbled as the worm,
Thy promise, from the sheltering covert heard,
Renew, and hearken to the prayer I frame.
When Thou dost search my heart, mine inwards flame;
With dread of doom my stricken soul is stirred.
Lest sin be paid full due each heart, doth quake:
As streams, the fountains of mine eyelids flow.
Craving Thy charity, I wait; bestow
Thy pardon, for the righteous fathers' sake.
My heart grows hot the while I muse and pray,
'Tis kindled as a fiery glowing coal;
Doubts, like a tempest, agitate my soul;
For terror hath invaded us this day.

Cong. [1] The terrible day of visitation is come, and dread hath seized all flesh; assembled and with bended knee they raise their thoughts aloft, even as a whole-burnt offering. O thou who hast formed man's frame, when thou judgest him and in the balance weighest both rich and poor, remember the suppliant prayer of him who said, Shall not the judge of all the earth do right? [2] While yet naught was fashioned, thou didst design a monument hewn as of rock,[3] steadfast amidst the dawn of ages and the years untold, a pattern graven for men to look upon. With sap of youth didst thou enrich her who was his portion,[4] to put forth at fourscore years and ten a glorious branch, a marvellous token to the Lily,[5] that they might pass into thy Presence on this New Year's Day. Her offspring tremble, standing now before thine awful throne, raising their chastened voice in fervent prayer; they throng thy courts, and with the trumpet they sound an alarm that redemption may be theirs. They pray in unison and, hastening to thy gates, repose upon the merit of her to whom thou didst promise visitation.[6]

Reader. They are supported by the memory of his ashes who was bound like a lamb, of him who was the gift of thy visitation.

Cong. The Lord is exalted in judgment, he is gone up with a shout; the earth trembleth and all that dwell therein.

Reader. I will seek his reconciliation with the sound of the Shophar [On Sabbath: with the memorial of the sound of the Shophar] and with bended knee; while he shieldeth me beneath the covert of the faithful, in his courts I will triumph with the Shophar's shout.

Remember us unto life, O King who delightest in life, and inscribe us in the book of life, for thine own sake, O living God. O King, Helper, Saviour and Shield; blessed art thou, O Lord, the Shield of Abraham.

Thou art mighty for ever, O Lord; it is thou who quickenest the dead and art mighty to save. Thou sustainest the living with loving-kindness, quickenest the dead with great mercy, supportest the falling and healest the sick, loosest the bound, and keepest thy faith unto them that sleep in the dust. Who is like unto thee, Lord of mighty acts, and who can be compared unto thee, O King, who killest and restorest to life and causest salvation to spring forth?

Cong. When thou wast fain to heal this people's wound, thou didst instruct them in the potent influence of prayer, in the triumphant song wherewith the ancient mountains[1] resounded; thou didst bid them cry aloud and shun the snare of sin. Thou didst teach them to dwell upon the patriarchs' righteousness amid the utterance of prayer, to make known their work in the midst of years, and in an acceptable time and in a day of salvation[2] to tell of the ram caught in the thicket and of the oath-sealed covenant. Therefore we approach thee with a prayer of nine benedictions,[3] the parts and the blessings thereof answering to the ninefold utterance of thy Name in the prayer of Hannah, of her that was barren and bare seven. We ascribe majesty unto thee in the prayer of sovereignity[4] in ten utterances inscribed in Holy Writ according to the number of Abraham's trials[5]: ten texts we recite concerning thy remembrance, and ten concerning the Shophar sounds, in memory of the tenfold blessing wherewith the patriarch Isaac blessed his lordly son. And do thou have regard to the beloved child of the wanderer from the two rivers, even unto him who was fast bound on Mount Moriah, and, mindful of his ashes, be thou gracious to the remnant of his sons, who, morning and evening, approach thy presence. At this season he besought thee for her that was barren until thou didst loosen her bonds.

Reader. Thou didst set the captive's cry as a jewel in

Ah, why is the Kingdom,
The realm of glory,
Cast out and no longer
Acclaimed in story?

'Twas Bel the dragon,
The idol hollow,
With lawless footsteps
We fain would follow.

The mistress of kingdoms
Hence holds us lowly,
Till shines renascent
God's Kingdom holy.

Our home in ashes,
Our saints all scattered,
Chaldea waxeth,
In might unshattered.

She bends her bowstring,
Her yoke extending;
She rends the tender,
And reigns unending.

Reader and Cong. Mend your deeds and his covenant shall not be annulled. Your cry shall reach him who garnished the firmament, and it shall be better than an ox or a bullock to the Lord, the holy One.

Reader and Cong. Lead up the tribes of the patriarch called to thee, and give them dominion, and in thy pruning lop off the enemy's straggling branches. For sovereignty and rule are the Lord's, the holy One.

On a week-day:

Roots fiercely plucking,
Foundations baring,
She planned in secret,
Performed in daring.

She broke our tent-poles,
Our curtains wrested,
And drove the plough-share
Where once we nested.

She props up princedoms,
And realms sustaineth,
But us she vexeth,
But us she paineth.

Now swoln with cunning,
And guile sans leaven,
In regal vesture
She soars to heaven.

'Gainst Thee rebelleth,
High treason scheming,
Her idols vaunteth,
Thy rule blaspheming.

Lo! us Thy children
She sorely tasketh,
What King o'er me is?
Profanely asketh.

On Sabbath:

Reader and Cong. Yea, may he lead up our captivity from afar unto his holy mountain, that we may unceasingly glorify him in the shrine of his sanctuary. For he hath remembered his sacred promise, most Holy.

Reader and Cong. All creatures of the Universe, all denizens of Earth shall proclaim continually, "The Lord hath wrought wondrous things throughout the Earth." For the Lord shall be King over all the Earth, all-holy One.

Reader. I will offer homage and adoration in a garland of praise. I will order my supplication of lips and heart.

Cong. I will call unto God most high;

Reader. That on this day, chosen from the dread skies for perfect judgment, I may worship his holy Presence. Cong. The Lord reigneth; let the earth rejoice.

Reader. His majesty is greater than the earth can contain; what power can declare his might? Cong. God is King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding.

Reader and Cong. His chosen people glorify his Name; adoring angels tell his praise, and in his temple everything saith glory to the holy One.

On a week-day:

And cries, usurping
Thy sceptre lonely,
Save me no King is,
I reign, I only.

Lord, far uplifted,
Hurl down her glory,
Once more be sovran
Of Israel's story.

Reader. Thou shalt rouse thee like a warrior and shout so that all evil-doers may be cut off; and thou shalt be hallowed by them that know the Shophar's blast, O holy One.

Reader and Cong. And thus the Lord visited Sarah as he had said. Even so visit thou her offspring this day for good, O holy One.

On Sabbath:

Reader. O that all his creatures might get them knowledge and learn how great are his marvels! Cong. He hath made his wonderful acts to be remembered.

Reader. He laid the Earth's corner-stone and set it fast, that he might grant his nation the delightsome heritage of his Law. Cong. He hath remembered his covenant for ever.

Reader. And he engraved it in a statute of the Law of my meditation that he would have remembrance of me every year —Cong. A memorial in the temple of the Lord.

Reader and Cong. They who keep his commandments shall yet return to their stronghold, and there will his worshippers hold converse in piety and rectitude. And the Lord shall have hearkened and heard it, and it shall be recorded in the book of memorial before the holy One.

Reader. When of old Isaac, the holy sacrifice, found favour in his sight, he ordained for his ransom the offering of the ram —Cong. Which was caught behind in a thicket by his horns.

Reader. He afterward instructed his flock to blow the horn on this day of new moon, and that if it should light upon the holy Sabbath, that it should be— Cong. A remembrance of the blowing of the horn, an holy convocation.

Reader. But if its advent should be upon a week-day, then "bid them blow in all your borders."

Reader and Cong. O King, thou rememberest the sacrifice of the ram that was caught by its horns unto the people that sound the horn before thee this day, O thou awful and holy God!

To Him who is feared a Crown will I bring,
Thrice Holy each day acclaim Him my King;
At altars, ye mighty, proclaim loud His praise,
And multitudes too may whisper His lays.
Ye angels, ye men, whose good deeds He records—
Sing, He is One, He is good, our yoke is the Lord's!
Praise Him trembling to-day, His mercy is wide—
Ye who fear for His wrath—it doth not abide!

On Sabbath:

Cong. It shall be a day of blowing the horn unto you.

Reader and Cong. Mend your deeds and his covenant shall not be annulled. Your cry shall reach him who garnished the heavens, and it shall be better than an ox or a bullock unto the Lord, the holy One.

Reader. Be the Rock of my salvation exalted by the mouth of all nations. Yea, make bare thine arm to save us from our adversaries. Cong. Thy Kingdom is an everlasting kingdom.

Reader. O appear again in thy dwelling-place and make thyself manifest unto the eyes of all, that the throngs may testify with their lips— Cong. The Lord shall reign for ever and ever.

Reader. Honour appertaineth unto thee and strength. The world with all its creatures and all the isles exclaim— Cong. Who would not fear thee, O King of nations?

Reader and Cong. Lead up the tribes of the patriarch called to thee, and give them dominion, and in thy pruning lop off the enemy's straggling branches. For sovereignty and rule are the Lord's the holy One.

Reader. Humble our foes and break their fetters. Gather thy scattered sheep and redeem them without ransom. Cong. Remember thy congregation which thou hast gotten of old.

On Sabbath:

Reader and Cong. He judgeth the world in righteousness and the peoples in equity, the holy God.

Reader and Cong. He is One, and who can turn him? And what his soul desireth, even that he doeth, the awful and holy God.

My Maker's justice I will praise this day,
Ordained of yore, each human deed to weigh.

Supreme in strength, enthroned upon His height;
Yet mild is He according to His might.

The Lord, all worlds were formed at his behest:
Lo! who resisteth him and findeth rest?

The pious ones are ever in His thought;
The orphan's judgment by His grace is wrought.

He that is pure, enthroned on heights sublime,
Made all things beautiful in their due time.

Though He be mighty, He will not despise
The lowly spirit, vile in its own eyes.

He rides the heav'ns, His glory we acclaim:
Light is before Him, fire and flash of flame.

With whetted blade He carveth out redress,
The widowed righting and the fatherless.

He rendereth according to the deed;
He formed the mouth, the dumb His will decreed.

He in compassion doth the All possess:
The high God brings the high to lowliness.

A gracious Judge to creatures of the sod,
His work is perfect: lo! the faithful God.

The earthly judges are as nought; with dread
Of Him they are amazed, discomfited.

He is His people's Judge: O may it be
That o'er His anger, grace gain mastery.

The rulers, they that weigh with deepest thought,
Are sore afraid, though they His judgment wrought.

No secret thing is hidden from the sight
Of Him that dwelleth o'er the loftiest height.

Watchful of all things brought to birth is He;
He probes the issues of futurity.

He called the generations forth of old
To search the inmost thoughts each heart did hold.

The first Sires' covenant remembering still,
Unto their seed His oath will He fulfil.

Reader and Cong. He judgeth the world in righteousness and the peoples in equity, the holy God.

The Lord is King, the Lord was King, the Lord shall be King for ever and ever.

The terrible sons of the mighty race
Shout in thunder the Lord is King,
The angels whose figure the lightnings trace
Flame to the world that the Lord was King,
And seraphs whose stature is one with Space,
Proclaim that the Lord shall be King for ever.
The Lord is King, the Lord was King, the Lord shall be King for ever and ever.

The rushing and undulant sons of fire
Fiercely cry that the Lord is King,
The rustling legions with harp and lyre
Sweetly tell that the Lord was King,
And numberless creatures in ceaseless choir
Chant that the Lord shall be King for ever.
The Lord is King, the Lord was King, the Lord shall be King for ever and ever.

The bards who remember the songs of yore
Sing aloud that the Lord is King,
The sages enshrouded in mystic lore
Find and proclaim that the Lord was King,
And rulers of spans of the heavenly floor
Cry that the Lord shall be King for ever.
The Lord is King, the Lord was King, the Lord shall be King for ever and ever.

The heirs of the Torah, Thy rich bequest,
Chant in joy that the Lord is King,
The lordly warriors with crown and crest
Crown Thee, declaring the Lord was King,
And angels in fiery garments drest
Repeat that the Lord shall be King for ever.
The Lord is King, the Lord was King, the Lord shall be King for ever and ever.

Mellifluous orators trained of tongue
Preach and teach that the Lord is King,
The shimmering cherubim, radiant, young,
Trumpet exultant the Lord was King,
And seraphim circling have ever sung
The song that the Lord shall be King for ever.
The Lord is King, the Lord was King, the Lord shall be King for ev

Thy people in passionate worship cry
One to another the Lord is King.
In awe of the marvels beneath the sky
Each explains that the Lord was King.
One sound from Thy pastures ascends on high:
The chant that the Lord shall be King for ever.
The Lord is King, the Lord was King, the Lord shall be King
for ever and ever.

Assemblies of holiness consecrate
Thee with the cry that the Lord is King,
Innumerous myriads iterate
Only this—that the Lord was King,
And flame-flashing angels enthroned in state
Echo the Lord shall be King for ever.
The Lord is King, the Lord was King, the Lord shall be King
for ever and ever.

The universe throbs with Thy pauseless praise,
Chorus eternal, the Lord is King.
Thy glory is cried from the dawn of days,
Worshippers calling the Lord was King.
And ever the Saints who shall witness Thy ways
Shall cry that the Lord shall be King for ever.
The Lord is King, the Lord was King, the Lord shall be King
for ever and ever.

Reader. And thus, all shall acclaim sovereignty unto thee:

Unto God who ordereth judgment:
Who searcheth hearts on the day of judgment;
Who revealeth deep things in judgment:
Who ordaineth righteousness on the day of judgment;
Who uttereth knowledge in judgment:
Who is perfect, and sheweth mercy on the day of judgment;
Who remembereth his covenant in judgment:
Who had compassion upon his handiwork on the day of judgment;
Who prufieth them that trust in him in judgment:
Who divineth men's thoughts on the day of judgment;
Who restraineth his indignation in judgment:
Who is clothed in charity on the day of judgment;
Who pardoneth iniquities in judgment:
Who is terrible in praises on the day of judgment;
Who forgiveth the people borne up by him in judgment:
Who answereth his suppliants on the day of judgment:
Who sheweth his mercy in judgment:
Who looketh on secret things on the day of judgment:
Who possesseth his servants is judgment:
Who hath compassion upon his people on the day of judgment:
Who preserveth them that love him in judgment:
Who supporteth his perfect ones on the day of judgment.

Reader. And thus may the sanctification ascend unto thee; for thou art our God and King.

Cong. We will sanctify thy Name in the world, as they sanctify it in the highest heavens.

Reader. As it is written by the hand of thy prophet: and one cried unto another and said,

Cong. Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.

Reader. Then with a noise of great rushing, mighty and strong, they make their voices heard, and, raising themselves toward the Seraphim, they exclaim over against them: Blessed—

Cong. Blessed be the glory of the Lord from his place.

Reader. From thy place shine forth, O our King, and reign over us; for we wait for thee. When wilt thou reign in Zion? Speedily, in our days, do thou dwell there for ever and ever. Mayest thou be magnified and sanctified in the midst of Jerusalem, thy City, throughout all generations and to all eternity. And let our eyes behold thy Kingdom, according to the word spoken in the songs of thy might by the hand of David thy righteous anointed:

Cong. and Reader. The Lord shall reign for ever, thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the Lord.

Reader. Unto all generations we will declare thy greatness, and to all eternity we will proclaim thy holiness; and thy praise, O our God, shall not depart from our mouth for ever; for thou art a great and holy God and King.

Now, therefore, O Lord our God, impose thine awe upon all thy works and thy dread over all that thou hast created, that all thy works may fear thee and all creatures prostrate themselves before thee, that they may all form one band to do thy will with a perfect heart: even as we know, O Lord our God, that dominion is thine, strength is in thy hand, and might in thy right hand, and that thy Name is awful over all that thou hast created.

And therefore, O Lord, give glory unto thy people, praise to them that fear thee, hope to them that seek thee, confidence to them that wait for thee, joy to thy land, gladness to thy City, a flourishing horn unto David thy servant, and a constant light unto the son of Jesse, thine anointed, speedily in our days.

Then shall the just see and be glad, the upright shall exult, the pious shall rejoice in song, and iniquity shall close her mouth, and all wickedness shall be wholly consumed like smoke, when thou makest the dominion of arrogance to pass away from the earth.

And thou, O Lord, shalt reign, thou alone, over all thy works on Mount Zion, the dwelling-place of thy glory, and in Jerusalem, thy holy City; as it is written in thy holy words, The Lord shall reign for ever, thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the Lord.

Holy art thou, and awful is thy Name, and there is no God beside thee; as it is written, And the Lord of hosts is exalted in judgment and the holy God is sanctified in righteousness. Blessed art thou, O Lord, the holy King.

Thou hast chosen us from all peoples; thou hast loved us and taken pleasure in us, and hast exalted us above all tongues. Thou hast sanctified us by the commandments, and hast drawn us near, O our King, unto thy service, and hast called us by thy great and holy Name.

On Sabbath add the bracketed words:

And thou hast given us in love, O Lord our God, [this Sabbath day and] this Day of Memorial, a day of blowing the horn: [On Sabbath say: a day of remembrance of the blowing of the horn, in love:] a holy convocation—a memorial of the departure from Egypt.

thy people the house of Israel, rise and go up, approach to thy presence and find grace; may it be heard, visited, and remembered, for deliverance and for good, for grace, loving-kindness and mercy, for life and for peace on this Day of Memorial. Remember us, O Lord our God, thereon for good; visit us with a blessing, and save us unto life. And with thy word of salvation and mercy, spare us and be gracious unto us; have mercy upon us and save us; for unto thee our eyes are turned, for thou art a gracious and merciful God and King.

Our God and God of our fathers, reign over the whole Universe in thy glory, and in thy splendour be exalted over all the earth. Shine forth in the majesty of thy triumphant strength over all the inhabitants of thy world, that every form may know that thou hast formed it, and every creature understand that thou hast created it, and that all that hath breath in its nostrils may say: The Lord God of Israel is King and his dominion ruleth over all. [Our God and the God of our fathers, accept our rest,] sanctify us by thy commandments and grant our portion be in thy Law; satisfy us with thy goodness, and gladden us with thy salvation, [and cause us, O Lord our God, in love and favour to inherit thy holy Sabbath; and may Israel find repose thereon who hallow thy Name,] and purify our hearts to serve thee in truth; for thou, O God, art truth, and thy word is truth and endureth for ever. Blessed art thou, O Lord, thou King over all the earth, who sanctifiest [the Sabbath and] Israel and the Day of Memorial.

Accept, O Lord our God, thy people Israel and their prayer; restore the service to the innermost part of thine house; receive in love and favour the fire-offerings of Israel and their prayer; and may the service of thy people Israel be ever acceptable to thee. And let our eyes behold thy return in mercy to Zion. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who restorest thy divine presence unto Zion.

We make acknowledgment unto thee, that thou art the Lord our God and the God of our fathers for ever and ever; thou art the Rock of our lives, the Shield of our salvation through every generation. We will give thanks unto thee and declare thy praise for our lives which are delivered into thy hand, and for our souls which are committed unto thy charge, and for thy miracles which are with us every day, and for thy wondrous benefits which are with us at all times, even, morn and noon. Thou art the Beneficent One, for thy mercies never fail; thou art the Merciful One, for thy kindnesses never cease. We have ever hoped in thee.

Whilst the Reader says the foregoing paragraph, the Congregation say:

We make acknowledgment unto thee, that thou art the Lord our God and the God of our fathers, the God of all flesh, our Creator and the Creator of all things in the beginning. Blessings and thanksgivings be to thy great and holy Name, because thou hast kept us alive and supported us. So continue to keep us alive and support us; and gather our exiles to thy holy courts to observe thy statutes, to perform thy will and to serve thee with a perfect heart; for this we give thanks unto thee. Blessed be God to whom thanksgivings belong.

And for all these things, O our King, thy Name shall be continually blessed and exalted for ever and ever.

Cong. and Reader. And inscribe all the children of thy covenant for a happy life.

And every one that liveth shall give thanks unto thee, Selah; and shall praise thy Name in truth, O God, our salvation and help, Selah. Blessed art thou, O Lord, whose Name is the Beneficent One, and unto whom it is becoming to give thanks.

Our God and God of our fathers, bless us with the threefold blessing in the Law, written by the hand of thy servant Moses, and uttered by the mouth of Aaron and his sons, the priests, thy holy people, as it is said: The Lord bless thee and keep thee. Cong. May this be his will.

The Lord make his face shine upon thee and be gracious unto thee. Cong. May this be his will.

The Lord incline his countenance unto thee, and give thee peace. Cong. May this be his will.

thy countenance; for by the light of thy countenance thou hast given unto us, O Lord our God, the Law of life, loving-kindness and righteousness, blessing, mercy, life and peace. And may it be good in thy sight to bless thy people Israel at all times and in every hour with thy peace.

Cong. and Reader. In the book of life, blessing, peace and good sustenance may we be remembered and inscribed before thee, we and all thy people, the house of Israel, for a happy life and peace.

Blessed art thou, O Lord, who makest peace.

The following verses are said aloud by the Reader, and repeated by the Congregation. They are omitted on Sabbath.

Our Father, our King, we have sinned before thee.
Our Father, our King, we have no king beside thee.
Our Father, our King, deal with us according to thy Name.
Our Father, our King, renew unto to us a happy year.
Our Father, our King, annul every severe decree concerning us.
Our Father, our King, annul the designs of those who hate us.
Our Father, our King, frustrate the counsel of our enemies.
Our Father, our King, cause every oppressor and adversary to vanish from us.
Our Father, our King, stay the mouths of our adversaries and of those who accuse us.
Our Father, our King, remove pestilence, sword, famine, captivity, destruction and plague from the children of thy covenant.
Our Father, our King, hold back the plague from thine heritage.
Our Father, our King, forgive and pardon all our inquities.
Our Father, our King, blot out, and cause our transgressions and sins to pass away from before thine eyes.
Our Father, our King, efface in thine abundant mercy all records of our guilt.

Our Father, our King, inscribe us in the book of happy life.

Our Father, our King, inscribe us in the book of redemption and salvation.

Our Father, our King, inscribe us in the book of sustenance and maintenance.

Our Father, our King, inscribe us in the book of merit.

Our Father, our King, inscribe us in the book of forgiveness and pardon.

Our Father, our King, cause salvation speedily to spring forth for us.

Our Father, our King, exalt the horn of Israel thy people.

Our Father, our King, exalt the horn of thine anointed.

Our Father, our King, fill our hands with thy blessings.

Our Father, our King, fill our storehouses with plenty.

Our Father, our King, hear our voice, have pity and compassion upon us.

Our Father, our King, accept our prayer in mercy and favour.

Our Father, our King, open the gates of heaven to our prayer.

Our Father, our King, O turn us not back empty from thy presence.

Our Father, our King, remember we are dust.

Our Father, our King, let this hour be an hour of mercy and a time of favour before thee.

Our Father, our King, have pity upon us, and upon our children and infants.

Our Father, our King, do it for the sake of those who were slain for thy holy Name.

Our Father, our King, do it for the sake of those who were slaughtered for thy Unity.

Our Father, our King, do it for the sake of those who went through fire and water for the sanctification of thy Name.

Our Father, our King, do it for thy sake and save us.

Our Father, our King, do it for the sake of thine abundant mercies.

Our Father, our King, do it for the sake of thy great, mighty and awful Name, by which we are called.

The following verse is said silently:

Our Father, our King, be thou gracious unto us and answer us; for lo! we are destitute of works; deal thou with us in charity and loving-kindness, and save us.

The Ark is closed.

Magnified and sanctified be his great Name in the world which he hath created according to his will. May he establish his kingdom in your life-time and in your days, and in the life-time of all the house of Israel, speedily and at a near time; and say ye, Amen.

Cong. Let his great Name be blessed for ever and ever.

Blessed, praised and glorified, exalted, extolled and honoured, adored and lauded be the Name of the Holy One, blessed be he, beyond, yea, beyond all blessings and hymns, praises and songs, which are uttered in the world; and say ye, Amen.

May the prayers and supplications of the whole house of Israel be accepted in the presence of their Father who is in heaven; and say ye, Amen.

May there be abundant peace from heaven, and life for us and for all Israel; and say ye, Amen.

May he who maketh peace in his high places, make peace for us and for all Israel; and say ye, Amen.

READING OF THE LAW FOR THE FIRST DAY

There is none like unto thee among the gods, O Lord; neither are there any works like unto thy works. Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations. The Lord reigneth: the Lord hath reigned: the Lord will reign for ever and ever. The Lord will give strength unto his people; the Lord will bless his people with peace.

Father of compassion, do good in thy favour unto Zion; build thou the walls of Jerusalem. For in thee alone do we put our trust, O King, high and exalted God, Lord of worlds.

The Ark is opened.

And it came to pass, when the ark set forward, that Moses said: Rise up, O Lord, and let thine enemies be scattered, and let them that hate thee flee before thee. For out of Zion shall go forth the Law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

On Sabbath the following until thy salvation is omitted:

The Lord, the Lord, a God full of compassion and gracious, slow to anger, and abundant in goodness and truth; keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity, transgression and sin; and acquitting.

This is said thrice.

Lord of the Universe, fulfil the wishes of our hearts for good, yield our desire and grant us our petition; pardon all our iniquities and the iniquities of all our household with the pardon of loving-kindness and the pardon of mercy. Purify us from all our sins, our iniquities and transgressions, and remember us with a good remembrance from before thee, visit us with the visitation of salvation and compassion, and remember us for a long and happy life, for peace, for sustenance and support. Give us

O do thou send healing for all our sorrows and bless all the work of our hands. Ordain for us good decrees of salvation and comfort, and annul all severe decrees concerning us; and incline the hearts of the rulers and counsellors of the realm unto us for good. Amen, and may this be his will.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable before thee, O Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer.

And as for me, my prayer be unto thee, O Lord, in an acceptable time; O God, in the multitude of thy mercy, answer me in the truth of thy salvation.

The last verse is said three times.

Reader. Blessed be he who in his holiness hath given the Law unto his people Israel.

Two Scrolls of the Law are taken from the Ark.

Reader and Cong. Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is One.

Reader and Cong. One is our God; great is our Lord: holy and terrible is his Name.

Reader. Magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his Name together.

Cong. Thine, O Lord, are greatness and power, glory, victory and majesty; for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine: thine is sovereignty, O Lord, and pre-eminence supreme. Exalt ye the Lord our God and worship at his footstool: holy is he. Exalt ye the Lord our God, and worship at his holy mount; for the Lord our God is holy.

For silent prayer:

Magnified and sanctified, praised and glorified, exalted and extolled above all be the Name of the Supreme King of kings, the Holy One, blessed be he, in the worlds he hath created, this world and the world to come, in accordance with his will and the will of them that fear him, and of all the house of Israel. He is the everlasting Rock, the Lord of all creatures, the God of all souls: who dwelleth in the wide extended heights, who inhabiteth the heaven of heavens of old: whose holiness is above the Chayoth and above the throne of glory. Therefore thy Name, O Lord our God, shall be hallowed among us in the sight of all living. And we will sing a new song before him, as it is written, Sing unto God, sing praises unto his Name; extol him that rideth upon the heavens, whose Name is Jah, and rejoice before him. And may we see him eye to eye, when he returneth to his habitation, as it is written: For they shall see eye to eye, when the Lord returneth unto Zion. And it is said: And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

Reader. May the Father of compassion have mercy upon a people that have been borne aloft by him. May he remember the covenant with the patriarchs; may he deliver our souls from evil hours, curb the evil inclination in them that have been carried by him, and graciously grant us an everlasting deliverance, and fulfil our desires in the measure of his goodness, salvation and mercy.

The Scroll being placed upon the reading-desk, the Reader says:

And may he help, shield and save all who trust in him; and let us say, Amen. Ascribe ye all greatness unto our God, and render honour to the Law. Stand forth—

The Reader here names the person who is first called to the reading of the Law.

Blessed be he, who in his holiness hath given the Law unto his people Israel. The Law of the Lord is perfect, restoring the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple. The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes. The Lord will give strength unto his people; the Lord will bless his people with peace. As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the Lord is tried; he is a shield unto all that trust in him.

Cong. and Reader. And ye that cleave unto the Lord your God are alive every one of you this day.

Each person who is called to the reading of the Law says the following blessing:

בָּרְכוּ אֶת יְיָ הַמְבֹרָךְ׃

Congregation:

בָּרוּךְ יְיָ הַמְבֹרָךְ לְעוֹלָם וָעֶד׃

He repeats the response of the Congregation, and continues:

Each person who is called to the reading of the Law says the following blessing:

Bless ye the Lord, who is blessed.

Congregation:

Blessed be the Lord, who is blessed for ever and evermore.

He repeats the response of the Congregation, and continues:

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who hast chosen us from all peoples, and hast given us thy Law. Blessed art thou, O Lord, giver of the Law.

After the reading of a section of the Law, he says the following blessing:

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who has given us the Law of truth, and hast planted everlasting life in our midst. Blessed art thou, O Lord, giver of the Law.

Genesis, Cap. xxi.

And the Lord visited Sarah as he had said, and the Lord did unto Sarah as he had spoken. And Sarah conceived and bare Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him. And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, Isaac. And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him. And Abraham was an hundred years old when his son Isaac was born unto him. And Sarah said, God hath made me to laugh; every one that heareth will laugh with me. And she said, Who would have said unto Abraham, that Sarah should give children suck? for I have borne him a son in his old age. And the child grew and was weaned: and Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned. And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, which she had borne unto Abraham, mocking. And she said unto Abraham, Cast out this bond woman and her son: for the son of this bond woman shall not be heir with my son, even with Isaac. And the thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight on account of his son. And God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight because of the lad and because of thy bondwoman; in all that Sarah saith unto thee, hearken unto her voice: for in Isaac shall thy seed be called. And also of the son of the bondwoman will I make a nation: because he is thy seed. And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread and a bottle of water, and gave it unto Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, and the child, and sent her away; and she departed and wandered in the wilderness of Beer-sheba. And the water in the bottle was spent, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs. And she went, and sat her down over against him a good way off, as it were a bowshot: for she said, Let me not look upon the death of the child; and she sat over against him, and lift up her voice and wept. And God heard the voice of the lad; and an angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? Fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is. Arise; lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand; for I will make him a great nation. And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink. And God was with the lad, and he grew; and he dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer. And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran: and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

And it came to pass at that time, that Abimelech and Phicol the captain of his host spake unto Abraham, saying, God is with thee in all that thou doest. Now therefore swear unto me here by God that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son: but according to the kindness that I have done unto thee thou shalt do unto me and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned. And Abraham said, I will swear. And Abraham reproved Abimelech because of the well of water which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away. And Abimelech said, I wot not who hath done this thing: neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard I of it but to-day. And Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them unto Abimelech; and both of them made a covenant. And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves. And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What mean these seven ewe lambs which thou hast set by themselves? And he said, These seven ewe lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that it may be a witness unto me that I have digged this well. Wherefore he called that place Beer-sheba; because there they sware both of them. So they made a covenant at Beer-sheba: and Abimelech rose up, and Phicol the captain of his host, and they returned unto the land of the Philistines. And Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beer-sheba and called there on the name of the Lord, the Everlasting God. So Abraham sojourned in the land of the Philistines many days.

Both Scrolls being placed upon the desk, the Reader says:

The first Scroll is then held up, and the Congregation say:

And this is the Law which Moses set before the children of Israel, according to the command of the Lord by the hand of Moses. It is a tree of life to them that lay hold of it, and happy is every one that retaineth it. Its ways are ways of pleasantness, and all its paths are peace. Length of days is in its right hand; in its left hand are riches and honour. It pleased the Lord for the sake of his righteousness to magnify the Law and to make it honourable.

The following section is then read from the second Scroll:

Numbers xxix. 1-6.

And in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work: it shall be a day of blowing the horn unto you. And ye shall offer a burnt offering for a sweet savour unto the Lord: one young bullock, one ram, seven he-lambs of the first year without blemish: and their meal-offering, fine flour mingled with oil: three tenth parts for the bullock, two tenth parts for the ram, and one tenth part for every lamb of the seven lambs: and one he-goat for a sin-offering to make atonement for you: beside the burnt offering of the new moon, and the meal-offering thereof, and the continual burnt offering and the meal-offering thereof, and their drink-offerings according unto their ordinance, for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

The second Scroll is help up, and the Congregation say:

And this is the Law.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who hast chosen good prophets and hast found pleasure in their words, which were spoken in truth. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who hast chosen the Law, and Moses thy servant, and prophets of truth and righteousness.

1 Samuel i. 1 — ii. 20.

Now there was a certain man of Ramathaim-zophim of the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph an Ephraimite. And he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. And this man went up out of his city from year to year to worship and to sacrifice unto the Lord of hosts in Shiloh: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phineas, priests unto the Lord, were there. And when the day came that Elkanah sacrificed, he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions. But unto Hannah he gave a worthy portion: for he loved Hannah, but the Lord had shut up her womb. And her rival provoked her sore, for to make her fret: because the Lord had shut up her womb. And as he did so year by year, when she went up to the house of the Lord, so she provoked her; therefore she wept and did not eat. And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? am not I better to thee than ten sons? So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk: now Eli the priest sat upon his seat by the door-post of the temple of the Lord. And she was in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto the Lord, and wept sore. And she vowed a vow, and said, O Lord of hosts, if thou wilt indeed look on the affliction of thine handmaid, and remember me, and not forget thine handmaid, but wilt give unto thine handmaid a man child, then I will give him unto the Lord all the days of his life, and there shall be no razor come upon his head. And it came to pass, as she continued praying before the Lord, that Eli marked her mouth. Now Hannah, she spake in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had been drunken. And Eli said unto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? put away thy wine from thee. And Hannah answered and said, No, my Lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit; I have drunk neither wine nor—strong drink, but I poured out my soul before the Lord. Count not thine handmaid for a daughter of worthlessness: for out of the abundance of my complaint and my provocation have I spoken hitherto. Then Eli answered and said, Go in peace: and the God of Israel grant thy petition that thou hast asked of him. And she said, Let thy servant find grace in thy sight; so the woman went her way, and did eat, and her countenance was no more sad. And they rose up in the morning early and worshipped before the Lord, and returned and came to their house to Ramah: and Elkanah knew Hannah his wife; and the Lord remembered her. And it came to pass, when the time was come about, that Hannah conceived and bare a son; and she called his name Samuel, saying, Because I have asked him of the Lord. And the man Elkanah and all his house went up to offer unto the Lord the yearly sacrifice and his vow. But Hannah went not up; for she said unto her husband, I will not go up until the child be weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may appear before the Lord, and there abide for ever. And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Do what seemeth thee good; tarry until thou have weaned him; only the Lord establish his word; so the woman tarried and gave her son suck, until she weaned him. And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bullocks and one ephah of meal and a bottle of wine, and brought him unto the house of the Lord in Shiloh: and the child was young. And they slew the bullock, and brought the child to Eli. And she said, O my Lord, as thy soul liveth, my Lord, I am the woman that stood by thee here, praying unto the Lord. For this child I prayed: and the Lord hath given me my petition which I asked of him. Therefore I also have lent him to the Lord; as long as he liveth he is lent to the Lord: and he worshipped the Lord there.

And Hannah prayed and said, My heart exulteth in the Lord, mine horn is exalted in the Lord: my mouth is enlarged over mine enemies, because I rejoice in thy salvation. There is none holy as the Lord, for there is none beside thee: neither is there any rock like our God. Talk no more so exceeding proudly; let not arrogancy come out of your mouth: for the Lord is a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed. The bows of the mighty men are broken: and they that stumbled are girded with strength. They that were full have hired out themselves for bread, and they that were hungry have ceased: yea, the barren hath borne seven, and she that hath many children languisheth. The Lord killeth and maketh alive: he bringeth down to the grave and bringeth up. The Lord maketh poor and maketh rich: he bringeth low and lifteth up. He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, he lifteth up the needy from the dunghill, to make them sit with princes and inherit the throne of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the Lord's, and he hath set the world upon them. He will keep the feet of his holy ones, but the wicked shall be put to silence in darkness; for by strength shall no man prevail. They that strive with the Lord shall be broken to pieces; upon them shall he thunder in heaven: the Lord shall judge the ends of the earth; and he shall give strength unto his king, and exalt the horn of his anointed.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, Rock of all worlds, righteous throughout all generations, O faithful God, who sayest and doest, who speakest and fulfillest, whose words are all truth and righteousness. Faithful art thou, O Lord our God, and faithful are thy words, and not one of thy words shall return void; for thou art a faithful and merciful God and King. Blessed art thou, O Lord God, who art faithful in all thy words.

Have mercy upon Zion, for it is the home of our life, and save her that is grieved in spirit speedily, in our days. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who causest Zion to rejoice in her children.

Make us to rejoice, O Lord our God, in Elijah the prophet, thy servant, and in the kingdom of the house of David,

On Sabbath add the bracketed words:

For the Law and for the Service and for the prophets, [for this Sabbath day] and for this Day of Memorial, which thou, O Lord our God, hast given us [for holiness and for rest,] for honour and for glory; for all these, O Lord our God, we thank and bless thee. Blessed be thy Name by the mouth of every living being continually and for evermore. Thy word is truth and endureth for ever. Blessed art thou, O Lord, King over all the earth, who sanctifiest [the Sabbath and] Israel and the Day of Memorial.

The following two paragraphs are omitted on a week-day.

May deliverance come forth from heaven with grace, mercy and compassion, long life, plentiful sustenance, heavenly aid, health of body, true enlightenment, and a living and robust offspring, an offspring that will not forsake nor neglect any of the words of the Law, unto all this holy congregation, great and small, children and women. May the King of the Universe bless you, prolong your lives, increase your days and add to your years; and may you be delivered and saved from every affliction and mishap. May the Lord of heaven be your help in all times and seasons; and let us say, Amen.

May the Holy One, blessed be he, give them their reward; may he remove from them all sickness; may he heal their body, forgive all their iniquity, and send blessing and prosperity upon all the work of their hands, and upon all Israel their brethren; and let us say, Amen.

Psalm xlvii. To the Chief Musician: A Psalm of the Sons of Korah. All ye peoples clap your hands; shout unto God with a voice of triumph. For the Lord most high is terrible; he is a great King over all the earth. He subdueth the peoples under us, and the nations under our feet. He chooseth our inheritance for us, the excellency of Jacob whom he loved. Selah. God is gone up with a shout, the Lord with the sound of the trumpet. Sing praises to God, sing praises; sing praises unto our King, sing praises. For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding. God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon the throne of his holiness. The princes of the people are gathered together, even the people of the God of Abraham; for the shields of the earth belong unto God: he is greatly exalted.

Sovereign of the Universe! Thou hast commanded us in thy holy Law to sound the horn in thy presence on this Day of Memorial, as it is writen, "And in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, ye shall have a holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work; it shall be a day of blowing the horn unto you." And in thy holy Words it is written, saying, "Blow ye the trumpet on the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast-day. For it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob." And it is written, "Happy is the people that knoweth the sound of the trumpet; in the light of thy countenance, O Lord, shall they walk. In thy name shall they rejoice all the day, and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted. For thou art the glory of their strength, and in thy favour shall our horn be exalted."

And now may it be thy gracious will, O Lord our God and the God of our fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob, that this hour may be an

And it is written, "And ye shall be remembered before the Lord your God, and ye shall be saved from your enemies." Grant, O Lord, that there may be an end to every oppressor and adversary. Help us, O God of our salvation, to subdue our stubbornness and to bend our will that it may become subservient to thee, that we may ever perform thy will with love. O remember us on this Day of Memorial to vouchsafe unto us a life of happiness and of peace. Exalt the horn of thy people Israel, and reign thou over us in mercy. Blessed art thou, O God of mercy.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who hast sanctified us by thy commandments and commanded us to hear the sound of the Shophar.

Psalm cxlv. A Psalm of Praise of David.

I will extol thee, my God, O King; and I will bless thy Name for ever and ever. Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy Name for ever and ever. Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable. One generation shall laud thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts. Of the glorious honour of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous works, will I speak. And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts: and I will declare thy greatness. They shall utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness. The Lord is gracious and full of compassion; slow to anger and of great mercy. The Lord is good to all; and his tender mercies are over all his works. All thy works shall give thanks unto thee, O Lord; and thy pious servants shall bless thee. They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power; to make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glory of the majesty of his kingdom. Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations. The Lord upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down. The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat in due season. Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing. The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and merciful in all his works. The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth. He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him; he also will hear their cry, and will save them. The Lord preserveth all them that love him; but all the wicked will he destroy.

יַעֲלֶה בְהַר יְהוָה וּמִי־יָקוּם בִּמְקוֹם קָדְשׁוֹ: נְקִי כַפַּיִם

My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord; and let all flesh bless his holy Name for ever and ever.

And as for us, we will bless the Lord from this time forth, and for evermore. Praise ye the Lord.

The Ark is opened.

Reader. Let them praise the Name of the Lord; for his Name alone is exalted;

Cong. His glory is above the earth and heaven. He also hath lifted up the horn of his people, the praise of all his saints, even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him. Praise ye the Lord.

On Sabbath the following Psalm is sung:

Psalm xxix. A Psalm of David.

Give unto the Lord, O ye mighty, give unto the Lord glory and strength. Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his Name; worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness. The voice of the Lord is upon the waters: the God of glory thundereth: the Lord is upon many waters. The voice of the Lord is powerful; the voice of the Lord is full of majesty. The voice of the Lord breaketh the cedars; yea, the Lord breaketh the cedars of Lebanon. He maketh them also to skip like a calf; Lebanon and Sirion like a young wild ox. The voice of the Lord divideth the flames of fire. The voice of the Lord shaketh the wilderness; the Lord shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh. The voice of the Lord maketh the hinds to calve, and discovereth the forests: and in his temple everything saith, Glory. The Lord sitteth upon the flood; yea, the Lord sitteth King for ever. The Lord will give strength unto his people; the Lord will bless his people with peace.

On a week-day the following Psalm is sung:

Psalm xxiv. A Psalm of David.

The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein. For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods. Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully. He shall receive a blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation. This is the generation of them that seek Him, that seek Thy face; O Jacob. Selah. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who is the King of glory? The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah.

As the Scrolls are placed in the Ark, the following is said:

And when it rested, he said, Return, O Lord, unto the many thousands of Israel. Arise, O Lord, unto thy resting place; thou, and the ark of thy strength. Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; and let thy pious ones shout for joy. For the sake of David thy servant, turn not away the face of thine anointed. For I give you good doctrine; forsake ye not my Law. It is a tree of life to them that lay hold of it, and happy is every one that retaineth it. Its ways are ways of pleasantness, and all its paths are peace. Turn thou us unto thee, O Lord, and we shall be turned; renew our days as of old.

The Ark is closed.

ADDITIONAL SERVICE FOR THE FIRST DAY

Reader. Magnified and sanctified be his great Name in the world he hath created according to his will. May he establish his kingdom in your life-time and in your days and in the life-time of all the house of Israel, speedily and at a near time; and say ye, Amen.

Cong. and Reader. Let his great Name be blessed for ever and ever.

Reader. Blessed, praised, and glorified, exalted, extolled and honoured, adored and lauded be the Name of the Holy One, blessed be he, beyond, yea, beyond all blessings and hymns, praises and songs, which are uttered in the world; and say ye, Amen.

The Amidah until in ancient years, on page 142, is said standing and in silence.

O Lord, open thou my lips, and my mouth shall declare thy praise.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, God of Abraham, God of Isaac and God of Jacob, O great, mighty and awful God, most high God, who bestowest gracious favours and who possessest all things, who remeberest the piety of the patriarchs, and who in love wilt bring a redeemer to their children's children, for the sake of thy Name. Remember us unto life, O King who delightest in life, and inscribe us in the book of life, for thine own sake, O living God, O King, Helper, Saviour and Shield; blessed art thou, O Lord, the Shield of Abraham.

Thou art mighty for ever, O Lord; it is thou who quickenest the dead and art mighty to save. Thou sustainest the living with loving-kindness, quickenest the dead with great mercy, supportest the falling and healest the sick, loosest the bound, and keepest thy faith unto them that sleep in the dust. Who is like unto thee, Lord of mighty acts, and who can be compared unto thee, O King, who killest and restorest to life and causest salvation to spring forth? Who is like unto thee, Father of mercy, who in mercy rememberest thy creatures unto life? And faithful art thou to quicken the dead. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who quickenest the dead.

Thou art holy and thy Name is holy, and holy beings praise thee daily. Selah.

Now therefore, O Lord our God, impose thine awe upon all thy works and thy dread over all that thou hast created, that all thy works may fear thee and all creatures prostrate themselves before thee, that they may all form one band to do thy will with a perfect heart: even as we know, O Lord our God, that dominion is thine, strength is in thy hand, and might in thy right hand, and that thy Name is awful over all that thou hast created.

And therefore, O Lord, give glory unto thy people, praise to them that fear thee, hope to them that seek thee, confidence to them that wait for thee, joy to thy land, gladness to thy City, a flourishing horn unto David thy servant, and a constant light unto the son of Jesse, thine anointed, speedily in our days.

Then shall the just see and be glad, the upright shall exult, the pious shall rejoice in song, and iniquity shall close her mouth, and all wickedness shall be wholly con-

Holy art thou, and awful is thy Name, and there is no God beside thee; as it is written, And the Lord of hosts is exalted in judgment and the holy God is sanctified in righteousness. Blessed art thou, O Lord, the holy King.

Thou hast chosen us from all peoples; thou hast loved us and taken pleasure in us, and hast exalted us above all tongues. Thou hast sanctified us by thy commandments, and hast drawn us near, O our King, unto thy service, and hast called us by thy great and holy Name.

On Sabbath add the bracketed words:

And thou hast given us in love, O Lord our God, [this Sabbath day and] this Day of Memorial, a day of blowing the horn: [On Sabbath say: a day of remembrance of the blowing of the horn, in love:] a holy convocation, a memorial of the departure from Egypt.

But because of our sins we have been exiled from our land and removed far away from our country, and we are unable to perform our duties in the house of thy choice, the great and holy house called by thy Name, because of the hand that hath been stretched out against thy sanctuary.

May it be thy will, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, merciful King, again in thine abundant mercy to have compassion upon us and upon thy sanctuary; O speedily rebuild it and magnify its glory. Our Father, our King, reveal the glory of thy Kingdom unto us speedily, and shine forth and exalt thyself over us in the sight of all living Bring together our scattered ones from among the nations

On Sabbath the following paragraph is added:

And on the Sabbath day two he-lambs of the first year without blemish, and two tenth parts of fine flour for a meal-offering, mingled with oil, and the drink-offering thereof; this is the burnt offering of every Sabbath, beside the continual burnt offering and the drink-offering thereof.

And in the seventh month, on the first day of the month ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work: it shall be a day of blowing the horn unto you. And ye shall offer a burnt offering for a sweet savour unto the Lord: one young bullock, one ram, seven he-lambs of the first year without blemish.

And their meal-offering and their drink-offerings as ordained; three tenth parts for the bullock, two tenth parts for the ram, and one tenth part for each lamb, and wine according to the drink-offering thereof, and two he-goats wherewith to make atonement, and the two continual offerings according to their ordinance: beside the burnt offering of the new moon, and the meal-offering thereof, and the continual burnt offering and the meal-offering thereof, and their drink-offerings according to their ordinance: for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

On Sabbath the following paragraph is added:

[They shall rejoice in thy Kingdom who keep the Sabbath and call it a delight; the people that hallow the seventh day shall, all of them, be satisfied and delighted with thy goodness; for thou didst find pleasure in the seventh day and didst hallow it; the desirable of days didst thou call it, in remembrance of the work of creation.]

[1] It behoveth us to praise the Lord of all, to ascribe greatness to him who formed the world in the beginning; that he hath not made us like the nations of other lands, and hath not placed us like other families of the earth, that he hath not given unto us a portion as unto them, nor a lot as unto all their multitude; for we bend the knee and prostrate ourselves and make acknowledgment before the supreme King of kings, the Holy One, blessed be he, who stretched forth the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth, the abode of whose glory is in the heavens above, and the dwelling of whose majesty is upon the loftiest heights. He is our God, there is none else: in truth he is our King, there is none beside him, as it is written in his Law, Know therefore this day, and lay it to thine heart, that the Lord he is God in heaven above and upon the earth beneath, there is none else.

Therefore we hope in thee, O Lord our God, that we may speedily behold the glory of thy might, when thou wilt remove the abominations from the earth, and the idols shall be utterly cut off; when the world shall be set under the Kingdom of the Almighty, and all the children of flesh shall call upon thy Name, when thou wilt turn unto thyself all the wicked of the earth. All the inhabitants of the world shall know and acknowledge that unto thee every knee must bend, every tongue must swear. Before thee, O Lord our God, shall they kneel and fall, and they shall give honour unto thy glorious Name; they shall all accept the yoke of thy kingdom, and over them thou wilt speedily reign for ever and ever. For the Kingdom is thine, and to all eternity wilt thou reign in glory, as it is written in thy Law, The Lord shall reign for ever and ever.

And it is said, He hath not beheld iniquity in Jacob, neither hath he seen perverseness in Israel: the Lord his God is with him, and the shout of a King is among them. And it is said, And he was King of Jeshurun, when the heads of the people were gathered, the tribes of Israel together. And in thy Holy Words it is written, saying, For sovereignty is the Lord's: and he is the ruler over the nations. And it is said, The Lord reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the Lord is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself; the world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved. And it is said, Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah. And by the hands of thy servants, the prophets, it is written, saying, Thus saith the Lord, the King of Israel and his Redeemer, the Lord of hosts: I am the first and I am the last; and beside me there is no God. And it is said, And saviours shall come up on Mount Zion to judge the Mount of Esau, and sovereignty shall be the Lord's. And it is said, And the Lord shall be King over all the earth; in that day shall the Lord be One and his Name One. And in thy Law it is written, saying, Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is One.

On Sabbath add the bracketed words:

Our God and God of our fathers, reign over the whole Universe in thy glory, and in thy splendour be exalted over all the earth. Shine forth in the majesty of thy triumphant strength over all the inhabitants of thy world, that every form may know that thou hast formed it, and every creature understand that thou hast created it, and that all that hath breath in its nostrils may say: The Lord God of Israel is King and his dominion ruleth over all. [Our God and the God of our fathers, accept our rest,] sanctify us by thy commandments and grant our portion be in thy Law; satisfy us with thy goodness, and gladden us with thy salvation, [and cause us, O Lord our God, in love and favour to inherit thy holy Sabbath; and may Israel find repose thereon who hallow thy Name,] and purify our hearts to serve thee in truth; for thou, O God, art truth, and thy word is truth and endureth for ever. Blessed art thou, O Lord, thou King over all the earth, who sanctifiest [the Sabbath and] Israel and the Day of Memorial.

Thou rememberest what was wrought from eternity, and art mindful of all that hath been formed from of old: before thee all secrets are revealed and the multitude of hidden things from the beginning; for there is no forgetfulness before the throne of thy glory, nor is there aught hidden from thine eyes. creature is concealed from thee; all things are manifest and known unto thee, O Lord our God, who lookest and seest to the end of all generations. For thou wilt bring on the appointed time of memorial when every spirit and soul shall be visited, and the multitudinous works be remembered with the countless throng of thy creatures. From the beginning didst thou make this known, and from aforetime didst thou reveal it. This day, on which was the beginning of thy work, is a memorial of the first day; for it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob. Thereon sentence is pronounced upon countries—which of them is destined to the sword and which to peace, which to famine and which to plenty; and every creature is visited thereon, and recorded for life or for death. Who is not visited on such a day as this? For the remembrance of every creature cometh before thee, man's deeds and destiny, his works and ways, the thoughts and designs of man and the workings of his imagination. Happy is the man who forgetteth thee not, and the son of man who strengtheneth himself in thee; for they that seek thee shall never stumble, neither shall they ever be put to shame who trust in thee. For the remembrance of all works cometh before thee, and thou searchest into the doings of them all. Of Noah also thou wast mindful in thy love, and didst visit him with a promise of salvation and mercy, when thou broughtest forth the waters of the flood to destroy all flesh because of their evil deeds. So his remembrance came before thee, O Lord our God, to increase his seed like the dust of the earth, and his offspring like the sand of the sea: as it is written in thy Law, And God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that were with him in the ark: and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters assuaged. And it is said, And God heard their groaning: and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. And it is said, Then will I remember my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember the land. And in thy Holy Words it is written, saying, He hath made a memorial for his wondrous works: the Lord is gracious and full of compassion. And it is said, He hath given meat unto them that fear him: he will ever be mindful of his covenant. And it is said, And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. And by the hands of thy servants, the prophets, it is written, saying, Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I remember for thee the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals: how thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown. And it is said, Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth: and I will establish unto thee an everlasting covenant. And it is said, Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? For as often as I speak against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my heart yearneth towards him; I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the Lord.

Our God and God of our fathers, let us be remembered by thee for good, and visit us with a visitation of salvation and mercy from the heavens, the heavens of old, and remember unto us, O Lord our God, the covenant and the loving-kindness and the oath which thou swarest unto Abraham our father on Mount Moriah: and may the binding with which Abraham our father bound his son Isaac on the altar appear before thee, how he suppressed his compassion in order to perform thy will with a perfect heart. So may thy compassion soften thine anger against us; in thy great goodness may the fierceness of thy wrath turn aside from thy people, thy City and thine inheritance. Fulfil unto us, O Lord our God, the word in which thou hast caused us to trust in thy Law through the hand of thy servant Moses, by thy glorious command, as it is said, And I will, for their sakes, remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their God: I am the Lord. For thou art he who remembereth from eternity all forgotten things, and before the throne of whose glory there is no forgetfulness. O remember the binding of Isaac this day in mercy unto his seed. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who rememberest the covenant.

Thou didst reveal thyself in a cloud of glory unto thy holy people to speak with them. Out of heaven thou didst make them hear thy voice, and wast revealed unto them in clouds of purity. The whole world trembled at thy presence and the works of creation were in awe of thee, when thou didst thus reveal thyself, O our King, upon Mount Sinai to teach thy people Law and commandments, and didst make them hear the majesty of thy voice, and thy holy words out of flames of fire. Amid thunders and lightnings thou didst manifest thyself to them, and while the trumpet sounded thou didst shine forth upon them; as it is written in thy Law, And it came to pass on the third day, when it was morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the sound of the trumpet exceeding loud: and all the people that were in the camp trembled. And it is said, And the sound of the trumpet waxed louder and louder: Moses spake, and God answered him by a voice. And it is said, And all the people perceived the thunderings and the lightnings and the voice of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking: and when the people saw it, they were moved and stood afar off. And in thy Holy Words it is written, saying, God is gone up with a shout: the Lord with the sound of the trumpet. And it is said, With trumpets and sound of the horn make a joyful noise before the King, the Lord. And it is said, Blow ye the trumpet on the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast-day. For it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob. And it is said, Praise ye the Lord; praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power. Praise him for his mighty acts: praise him according to his excellent greatness. Praise him with the sound of the trumpet: praise him with the psalter and harp. Praise him with the timbrel and dance: praise him with stringed instruments and the pipe. Praise him upon the loud cymbals: praise him upon the high-sounding cymbals. Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord; praise ye the Lord. And by the hands of thy servants, the prophets, it is written, saying, All ye inhabitants of the world, and ye dwellers on the earth, when an ensign is lifted up on the mountains, see ye, and when the trumpet is blown, hear ye. And it is said, And it shall come to pass on that day, that a great trumpet shall be blown; and they shall come which were lost in the land of Assyria, and they that were outcasts in the land of Egypt: and they shall worship the Lord in the holy mountain at Jerusalem. And it is said, And the Lord shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord God shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south. The Lord of hosts shall shield them. So be thou a shield over thy people Israel with thy peace.

Our God and God of our fathers, sound the great trumpet for our freedom, lift up the ensign to gather our exiles, bring together our scattered ones from among the nations, and gather our dispersed from the uttermost parts of the earth. Lead us in triumph unto Zion thy City, and unto Jerusalem, the place of thy sanctuary, with everlasting joy; and there will we prepare before thee the offerings enjoined on us, as is commanded us in thy Law through the hand of thy servant Moses, by thy glorious command, as it is said, And in the day of your gladness and in your set feasts, and in the beginnings of your months, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices of your peace-offerings: and they shall be a memorial for you before your God; I am the Lord your God. For thou hearest the sound of the horn, and givest heed to the trumpet-shout, and there is none like unto thee. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who in mercy hearest the voice of the trumpet-shout of thy people Israel.

Accept, O Lord our God, thy people Israel and their prayer; restore the service to the innermost part of thine house; receive in love and favour the fire-offerings of Israel and their prayer; and may the service of thy people Israel be ever acceptable to thee. And let our eyes behold thy return in mercy to Zion. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who restorest thy divine presence unto Zion.

We make acknowledgment unto thee, that thou art the Lord our God and the God of our fathers for ever and ever; thou art the Rock of our lives, the Shield of our salvation through every generation. We will give thanks unto thee and declare thy praise for our lives which are delivered into thy hand, and for our souls which are committed unto thy charge, and for thy miracles which are with us every day, and for thy wondrous benefits which are with us at all times, even, morn and noon. Thou art the Beneficent One, for thy mercies never fail; thou art the Merciful One, for thy kindnesses never cease. We have ever hoped in thee.

And for all these things, O our King, thy Name shall be continually blessed and exalted for ever and ever. And inscribe all the children of thy covenant for a happy life. And every one that liveth shall give thanks unto thee, Selah; and shall praise thy Name in truth, O God, our salvation and help, Selah. Blessed art thou, O Lord, whose Name is the Beneficent One, and unto whom it is becoming to give thanks.

Grant peace, welfare, blessing, grace, loving-kindness and mercy unto us and unto all Israel, thy people. Bless us, O our Father, yea, all of us together, with the light of thy countenance; for by the light of thy countenance thou hast given unto us, O Lord our God, the Law of life, loving-kindness and righteousness, blessing, mercy, life and peace, and may it be good in thy sight to bless thy people Israel at all times and in every hour with thy peace. In the book of life, blessing, peace and good sustenance may we be remembered and inscribed before thee, we and all thy people the house of Israel, for a happy life and peace. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who makest peace.

O my God, guard my tongue from evil and my lips from speaking guile; and to such as curse me, let my soul be silent, yea, let my soul be unto all as the dust. Open thou my heart to thy Law, and let my soul pursue thy commandments. And as to any who devise evil against me, speedily make their counsel of none effect and frustrate their designs. Do thou it for the sake of thy Name, do it for the sake of thy right hand, do it for the sake of thy holiness, do it for the sake of thy Law, that thy beloved ones may be delivered. O save with thy right hand and answer me. Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable before

READER'S REPETITION OF THE AMIDAH.

The Ark is opened.

Reader. Blessed art thou, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, God of Abraham, God of Isaac and God of Jacob, great, mighty and awful God, most high God, who bestowest gracious favours and who possessest all things, who rememberest the piety of the patriarchs, and who in love wilt bring a Redeemer to their children's children, for the sake of thy Name.

From the counsel of the wise and understanding, and from knowledge gotten of the discerning, I will open my lips in prayer and supplication, to entreat and implore the presence of the King of kings and Lord of lords.

Cong. [1] From of old this is the appointed day whereon the deeds of every day are weighed and judged, whereon all creatures approach thy terrible presence, beseeching thee that redemption may outweigh strict justice. When Adam, man first created, disobeyed the statute of thy word, this day of largess pleaded in his strait[2]; then didst thou ordain it for a time of judgment for unborn generations. This day the Hills and Rocks were hewn and set on the pillars of the world[3]: they are our forefathers who planted trees and fashioned vessels out of clay,[4] and taught thy righteousness to ages yet wrapt in the womb of time. This month is surnamed the Moon of Constancy.[1] Thereon are tried both the lofty and those of low estate. The book is open and proclaims man's deeds; all creatures pass before thy presence and perforce must yield account. On this day, the first appointed of thy holy convocations, thou causest thy flock to pass under thy crook. Reader. And when thy witnesses sound aloud [On Sabbath: make mention of the sound of] the horn, in thy mercy be thou mindful of thine oath unto thy servants.

Cong. O let the Shophar's shout ascend and with it our prayer, and in thy tender mercy, Almighty God, be thou reconciled with us.

Reader. O sheathe the glittering sword; uphold thy mighty shield and beneath its covert guard us on every side.

Remember us unto life, O King who delightest in life, and inscribe us in the book of life, for thine own sake, O living God. O King, Helper, Saviour and Shield; blessed art thou, O Lord, the Shield of Abraham.

Thou art mighty for ever, O Lord; it is thou who quickenest the dead and art mighty to save. Thou sustainest the living with loving-kindness, quickenest the dead with great mercy, supportest the falling and healest the sick, loosest the bound, and keepest thy faith unto them that sleep in the dust. Who is like unto thee, Lord of mighty acts, and who can be compared unto thee, O King, who killest and restorest to life and causest salvation to spring forth?

Cong. Most High, if seated on thy judgment-throne thou takest thought of man to chasten him, then let thine ear be attentive to the voice of the Shophar that goeth up from Earth. The bitterness of the decree—"My spirit shall no more grant you judgment"[2]—not again shall it arise for destruction; and in thy loving-kindness and faithfulness, O Lord, support thy world that is judged at the four seasons of the year.[3] We are assembled like warriors in the day of battle, yea, we are at war with the evil in ourselves. Do thou incline from heaven's heights to the Shophar-blast and change thy throne of judgment into thy seat of mercy. For the sake of the only son who was proved as he lay bound on the altar, grant his offspring redemption from the judgment-sentence. Remember the words, Far be it from thee, O God of Justice; shall not the Judge of all the world do right?[1] And if we, like mortals, have been faithless to thy covenant, thou art God, and being God wilt yet regard it.

Reader. "These are the words of the covenant"[2]: O let those words of doom be rolled away by the memory of thy thrice-sworn covenant with the patriarchs.

Cong. When thou searchest the world on this New Year's Day, clothe thou the year with righteousness—

Reader. With fruits and dew, with rains and warmth; and with thy dew of life revive them that sleep in death.

Who is like unto thee, Father of mercy, who in mercy remberest thy creatures unto life? And faithful art thou to quicken the dead. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who quickenest the dead.

Cong. O Lord, though thy path is judgment we hope in thee. In trouble do we seek thee, the longing of our soul. In purity of heart we sought thee yesterday before the Shophar sounded the alarm. Thou didst set a statute from the time the world was formed and didst decree that repentance is the beginning of thy word,[3] that from the first it should go forth, ere judgment had been ordained, to redeem the penitent from destruction's doom. Thou who hast fashioned man's heart with warp and woof,[4] who lookest and perceivest its innermost thought, if thou discernest evil lurking in its hidden recess, thou wilt yet be mindful of our fathers' piety. O remember him from whose shoulder thou didst remove the burden,[5] the bondsman whose shackles of affliction thou didst loosen to set him free; though his offspring have been led astray by lust, let the memory of his words[6] win grace for them whose life is vanity. Sealed up in the heart of God is the final recompense, the day whereon he will gather in his outcasts, the day appointed to make an end of troublous times,[7] for which from year to year we wait even to the end ordained. Lo, the appointed day of revelation when the moon shall unveil her face;[8] then shall the cut and withered thorns of wickedness be kindled into flame.

Reader. And guile, the stumbling-block of every heart be swept away, a memorial of Abraham, of Isaac and of Jacob.

The Lord shall reign for ever, thy God, O Zion, unto all generations; praise ye the Lord.

For thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel; O God, we beseech thee.

Reader and Cong. O faithful God, if when thou preparest judgment thou shouldest wring out the full measure of justice, who would be found guiltless before thee, holy One?

Reader and Cong. If for thine own sake thou dost not remove from us thy fierce wrath and indignation, we cannot seek and find merit in our deeds, All-holy One.

And thus he was King in Jeshurun.

Highest divinity,
Throned in the firmament,
Potentate paramount,
Hand superdominant,
Lord of infinity!

Highest divinity,
Great in performing all,
Sure in decreeing all,
Stern in unbaring all,
Lord of Infinity!

Highest divinity,
Speaking in holiness,
Vestured in righteousness,
Heedful of suppliants,
Lord of Infinity!

Highest divinity,
Saving the children by Grace of their ancestors,
Vexing their enemies,
Lord of Infinity!

Highest divinity,
Time is His dwelling-place,
Goodness e'erlastingly
Spanning the firmament,
Lord of Infinity!

Highest divinity,
Light is His robe and veil,
Suns, stars, have sprung from Him.
Potent and terrible,
Lord of Infinity!

Highest divinity,
King of the Universe,
Piercer of mysteries,
Causing the dumb to speak,
Lord of Infinity!

Highest divinity,
Propping, sustaining all,
Slaying, surviving all,
Seeing, unseen of all,
Lord of Infinity!

Highest divinity,
Crowned with omnipotence,
Right hand victorious,
Saviour and Shelterer,
Lord of Infinity!

Highest divinity,
Round Him flame cherubim,
Seas shake at word of Him,
Yet is His love at call,
Lord of Infinity!

Highest divinity,
Sleeping nor slumbering,
Centre of restfulness,
Awed angels chant His praise,
Lord of Infinity!

Lowly humanity,
Doomed to go down to death,
Grave-ward and lower still.
Vain is man's heritage,
Sovran of Vanity!

Lowly humanity,
Sleep is his daily end,
Deep sleep his final goal.
Darkness flows over him,
Sovran of Vanity!

Highest divinity,
Dynasty of endlessness,
Timeless resplendency,
Worshipped eternally,
Lord of Infinity!

Reader. And thus may the sanctification ascend unto thee; for thou art our God and King.

Gong. [1] We will celebrate the mighty holiness of this day, for it is one of awe and terror. Thereon is thy dominion exalted and thy throne is established in mercy, and thou sittest thereon in truth. Verily it is thou alone who art judge and arbiter, who knowest and art witness; thou writest down and settest the seal, thou recordest and tellest; yea, thou rememberest the things forgotten. Thou unfoldest the records, and the deeds therein inscribed proclaim themselves; for lo! the seal of every man's hand is set thereto. Reader. The great trumpet is sounded; the still small voice is heard; the angels are dismayed; fear and trembling seize hold of them as they proclaim, Behold the Day of Judgment! The host of heaven is to be arraigned in judgment. For in thine eyes they are not pure; and all who enter the world dost thou cause to pass before thee as a flock of sheep. As a shepherd seeketh out his flock and causeth them to pass beneath his crook, so dost thou cause to pass, and number, tell and visit every living soul, appointing the measure of every creature's life and decreeing their destiny.

On the first day of the year it is inscribed, and on the Day of Atonement the decree is sealed, how many shall pass away and how many shall be born, who shall live and who shall die, who at the measure of man's days and who before it; who shall perish by fire and who by water, who by the sword, who by wild beasts, who by hunger and who by thirst; who by earthquake and who by plague, who by strangling and who by stoning; who shall have rest and who shall go wandering, who shall be tranquil and who shall be harassed, who shall be at ease and who shall be afflicted; who shall become poor and who shall wax rich; who shall be brought low and who shall be upraised.

But Penitence, Prayer and Charity
avert the severe decree.

Cong. For according to thy Name so is thy praise. Thou art slow to anger and ever ready to be reconciled; for thou desirest not the death of the sinner, but that he turn from his way and live. And even until the day of his death thou waitest for him: and if he return thou dost straightway receive him.

Reader. In truth thou art their Creator, who knowest their nature, that they are flesh and blood. As for man, he is from the dust and unto the dust will he return; he getteth his bread with the peril of his life; he is like a fragile potsherd, as the grass that withereth, as the flower that fadeth, as a fleeting shadow, as a passing cloud, as the wind that bloweth, as the floating dust, yea, and as a dream that flieth away.

But thou art the King, the living and everlasting God.

Thy years have no measure nor hath the length of thy days any end. None can conceive the chariots of thy glory, nor fathom the mystery of thy Name. Thy Name befits thee and thou art according to thy Name, and our Name hast thou linked with thine own.

O do it for the sake of thy Name, and sanctify thy Name through them that call it holy; yea, for thy glorious Name's sake, which is reverenced and sanctified by the mystic utterance of the holy Seraphim, who hallow it in the sanctuary, they that dwell in the heavens uniting with those who dwell on earth:

Reader. As it is written by the hand of thy prophet, And one cried unto another and said,

Cong. and Reader. Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.

Reader. His glory filleth the Universe: his ministering angels ask one of another, Where is the place of his glory? Those over against them say, Blessed—

Cong. and Reader. Blessed be the glory of the Lord from his place.

Reader. From his place he will turn in mercy and be gracious unto a people who continually, evening and morning, twice every day, proclaim the unity of his Name, saying in love, Hear—

Cong. and Reader. Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is One.

Reader. One is he, our God, our Father, our King, our Saviour; and he in his mercy will yet again let us hear, in the presence of all living, his promise, To be unto you for a God.

Cong. and Reader. "I am the Lord your God."

Reader. Thou art most glorious; O Lord our Lord, how glorious is thy Name in all the earth! And the Lord shall be King over all the earth; in that day shall the Lord be One and his Name One. And in thy holy words it is written, saying:

Cong. and Reader. The Lord shall reign for ever, thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the Lord.

Reader. Unto all generations we will declare thy greatness, and to all eternity we will proclaim thy holiness; and thy praise, O our God, shall not depart from our mouth for ever; for thou art a great and holy God and King.

O have compassion upon thy work and rejoice therein. And when thou hast justified them that have been borne aloft by thee, thy faithful servants shall say: O Lord, be thou sanctified over all thy works.

For with thy holiness thou hast sanctified them that call thee holy. Meet unto the Holy One is his pious servants' crown of praise. And thus may thy Name, O Lord our God, be hallowed over thy people Israel and over Jerusalem thy city, over Zion the habitation of thy glory, over the Kingdom of the house of David thine anointed, over thy dwelling-place and thy Temple. He will yet remember the love of the patriarch, our sire; yea, and for the sake of the son who was bound he will still our strife, and for the merit of the perfect one,[1] the All-feared will bring forth our suit to the light of acquittal: for this day is holy unto our Lord. If there be no advocate of righteousness to plead against the witness of transgression, do thou thyself teach Jacob the word, even of law and justice; and clear us in judgment, O King of justice—

Reader. Whose hand taketh hold of judgment;

Cong. And all believe that he is the faithful God.

He trieth and searcheth the most hidden secrets;

Cong. And all believe that he searcheth the innermost parts.

He redeemeth from death and delivereth from the grave;

Cong. And all believe that he is the mighty Redeemer.

He alone is the Judge of all who come into the world;

Cong. And all believe that he is the true Judge.

He is called "I am that I am;"

Cong. And all believe that he is, was, and ever will be.

The Immutable is his Name and such is his praise;

Cong. And all believe that there is none beside him.

He recordeth a memorial of love to those who remember him;

Cong. And all believe that he remembereth the covenant.

He appointeth life unto all his creatures;

Cong. And all believe that he liveth and endureth.

Cong. and Reader. And all believe that he is the righteous Judge.
He is perfect and dealeth truly with the pure;
And all believe that his work is perfect.

Thou alone wilt be exalted, and thou wilt reign over all in Unity, as it is written by the hand of thy prophet: The Lord shall be King over all the earth; in that day shall the Lord be One and his Name One.

Now therefore, O Lord our God, impose thine awe upon all thy works and thy dread over all that thou hast created, that all thy works may fear thee, and all creatures prostrate themselves before thee, that they may all form one band to do thy will with a perfect heart: even as we know, O Lord our God, that dominion is thine, strength is in thy hand, and might in thy right hand, and that thy Name is awful over all that thou hast created.

And therefore, O Lord, give glory unto thy people, praise to them that fear thee, hope to them that seek thee, confidence to them that wait for thee, joy to thy land, gladness to thy City, a flourishing horn unto David thy servant, and a constant light unto the son of Jesse, thine anointed, speedily in our days.

Then shall the just see and be glad, the upright shall exult, the pious shall rejoice in song, and iniquity shall close her mouth, and all wickedness shall be wholly consumed like smoke, when thou makest the dominion of arrogance to pass away from the earth.

All the world shall come to serve Thee
And bless Thy glorious Name,
And Thy righteousness triumphant
The islands shall acclaim.
And the peoples shall go seeking
Who knew Thee not before,
And the ends of earth shall praise Thee,
And tell Thy greatness o'er.

מִקְרָא קֹדֶשׁ. זֵכֶר לִיצִיאַת מִצְרָיִם:

They shall build for Thee their altars,
Their idols overthrown,
And their graven gods shall shame them,
As they turn to Thee alone.
They shall worship Thee at sunrise,
And feel Thy Kingdom's might,
And impart their understanding
To those astray in night.

They shall testify Thy greatness,
And of Thy power speak,
And extol Thee, shrined, uplifted
Beyond man's highest peak.
And with reverential homage,
Of love and wonder born,
With the ruler's crown of beauty
Thy head they shall adorn.

With the coming of Thy Kingdom
The hills shall break into song,
And the islands laugh exultant
That they to God belong.
And all their congregations
So loud Thy praise shall sing,
That the uttermost peoples, hearing,
Shall hail Thee crowned King.

And thou, O Lord, shalt reign, thou alone, over all thy works on Mount Zion, the dwelling-place of thy glory, and in Jerusalem, thy holy City; as it is written in thy holy words, The Lord shall reign for ever, thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the Lord.

Holy art thou, and awful is thy Name, and there is no God beside thee; as it is written, And the Lord of hosts is exalted in judgment and the holy God is sanctified in righteousness. Blessed art thou, O Lord, the holy King.

Thou hast chosen us from all peoples; thou hast loved us and taken pleasure in us, and hast exalted us above all tongues. Thou hast sanctified us by thy commandments, and hast drawn us near, O our King, unto thy service, and hast called us by thy great and holy Name.

On Sabbath add the bracketed words:

And thou hast given us in love, O Lord our God, [this Sabbath day and] this Day of Memorial, a day of blowing the horn: [On Sabbath say: a day of remembrance of the blowing of the horn, in love:] a holy convocation, a memorial of the departure from Egypt.

But because of our sins we have been exiled from our land and removed far away from our country, and we are unable to perform our duties in the house of thy choice, the great and holy house called by thy Name, because of the hand that hath been stretched out against thy sanctuary.

May it be thy will, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, merciful King, again in thine abundant mercy to have compassion upon us and upon thy sanctuary; O speedily rebuild it and magnify its glory. Our Father, our King, reveal the glory of thy Kingdom unto us speedily, and shine forth and exalt thyself over us in the sight of all living. Bring together our scattered ones from among the nations, and gather our dispersed from the uttermost parts of the earth. Lead us in triumph unto Zion thy City, and unto Jerusalem, the place of thy sanctuary, with everlasting joy; and there will we prepare before thee the offerings enjoined on us, the continual offerings according to their order, and the additional offerings according to their ordinance and the additional offering of [this Sabbath day and] this Day of Memorial will we prepare and offer unto thee in love according to the commandment of thy will, as thou hast prescribed for us in thy Law, through the hand of thy servant Moses, by thy glorious command, as it is said:

On Sabbath the following paragraph is added:

And on the Sabbath day two he-lambs of the first year without blemish, and two tenth parts of fine flour for a meal-offering, mingled with oil, and the drink-offering thereof; this is the burnt offering of every Sabbath, beside the continual burnt offering and the drink-offering thereof.

And in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work: it shall be a day of blowing the horn unto you.

And ye shall offer a burnt offering for a sweet savour unto the Lord: one young bullock, one ram, seven he-lambs of the first year without blemish.

And their meal-offering and their drink-offerings as ordained; three tenth parts for the bullock, two tenth parts for the ram, and one tenth part for each lamb, and wine according to the drink-offering thereof, and two he-goats wherewith to make atonement, and the two continual offerings according to their ordinance: besides the burnt offering of the new moon, and the meal-offering thereof, and the continual burnt offering and the meal-offering thereof, and their drink-offerings according to their ordinance: for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

On Sabbath the following paragraph is added:

[They shall receive thy Kingdom who kept the Sabbath and call it a delight: the people that hallow the seventh day shall, all of them, be satisfied and delighted with thy goodness: for thou didst find pleasure in the seventh day and didst hallow it: the desirable of days didst thou call it, in remembrance of the work of creation.]

It behoveth us to praise the Lord of all, to ascribe greatness to him who formed the world in the beginning: that he hath not made us like the nations of other lands, and hath not placed us like other families of the earth, that he hath not given unto us a portion as unto them, nor a lot as unto all their multitude: for we bend the knee and prostrate ourselves and make acknowledgment before the supreme King of kings, the Holy One, blessed be he, who stretched forth the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth, the abode of whose glory is in the heavens above, and the dwelling of whose majesty is upon the loftiest heights. He is our God, there is none else; in truth he is our King, there is none beside him, as it is written in his Law, Know therefore this day, and lay it to thine heart, that the Lord he is God in heaven above and upon the earth beneath; there is none else.

Our God and God of our fathers, inspire the lips of those who have been deputed by thy people, the house of Israel, to stand in prayer before thee, to beseech thee and supplicate thy presence for them. Teach them what they shall say, instruct them what they shall speak, grant unto them that which they ask, and make known to them how they may glorify thee. They walk in the light of thy countenance; they bend the knee unto thee, and with their lips utter blessing on thy people; O deign that all of them be blessed with the blessings of thy mouth. They lead thy people before thy presence and from the midst of them they approach thee: the eyes of thy people are fixed upon them, and their eyes are bent on thee. They approach the holy ark in dread, to appease thine anger and wrath, encompassed by thy people as with walls; O look down from heaven in compassion upon them. Unto thee in heaven they lift up the eye, pouring forth their heart as water before thee; and do thou hear them from heaven. Suffer them not to falter with their tongue nor to err in their speech. that the multitudes that repose in them be not put to shame nor bear reproach; guard heir lips from uttering any word that is not according to thy will. For those to whom thou art gracious, O Lord our God, they indeed have found grace; and those pitied of thee, they indeed have won mercy. For we know, O Lord our God, that thou wilt be gracious to whom thou wilt be gracious, and wilt shew mercy on whom thou wilt shew mercy, as it is written in thy Law, And I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy. And it is said: Let not them that wait on thee be ashamed through me, O Lord God of hosts: let not those who seek thee be brought to dishonour through me, O God of Israel.

I will hope in God; I will beseech his Presence: I will ask of him the answer of the tongue, that in the congregation of the people I may sing of his power and utter joyful strains concerning his deeds. The preparations of the heart belong to man: but the answer of the tongue is from the Lord. O Lord, open thou my lips, and my month shall all declare thy praise. Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable before thee, O Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer.

Therefore we hope in thee, O Lord our God, that we may speedily behold the glory of thy might, when thou wilt remove the abominations from the earth, and the idols shall be utterly cut off; when the world shall be set under the kingdom of the Almighty, and all the children of flesh shall call upon thy Name, when thou wilt turn unto thyself all the wicked of the earth. All the inhabitants of the world shall know and acknowledge that unto thee every knee must bend, every tongue must swear. Before thee, O Lord our God, shall they kneel and fall, and they shall give honour unto thy glorious Name; they shall all accept the yoke of thy kingdom, and over them thou wilt speedily reign for ever and ever. For the Kingdom is thine, and to all eternity wilt thou reign in glory, as it is written in thy Law, The Lord shall reign for ever and ever.

And it is said, He hath not beheld iniquity in Jacob, neither hath he seen perverseness in Israel: the Lord his God is with him, and the shout of a King is among them. And it is said, And he was King of Jeshurun, when the heads of the people were gathered, the tribes of Israel together. And in thy Holy Words it is written, saying, For sovereignty is the Lord's, and he is the ruler over the nations. And it is said, The Lord reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the Lord is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself; the world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved. And it is said, Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah. And by the hands of thy servants, the prophets, it is written, saying, Thus saith the Lord, the King of Israel and his Redeemer, the Lord of hosts: I am the first and I am the last; and beside me there is no God. And it is said, And saviours shall come up on Mount Zion to judge the Mount of Esau, and sovereignty shall be the Lord's. And it is said, And the Lord shall be King over all the earth; in that day shall the Lord be One and his Name One. And in thy Law it is written, saying, Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is One.

Thou rememberest what was wrought from eternity, and art mindful of all that hath been formed from of old: before thee all secrets are revealed and the multitude of hidden things from the beginning; for there is no forgetfulness before the throne of thy glory, nor is there aught hidden from thine eyes. Thou rememberest every deed, and no creature is concealed from thee: all things are manifest and known unto thee, O Lord our God, who lookest and seest to the end of all generations. For thou wilt bring on the appointed time of memorial when every spirit and soul shall be visited, and the multitudinous works be remembered with the countless throng of thy creatures. From the beginning didst thou make this known, and from aforetime didst thou reveal it. This day, on which was the beginning of thy work, is a memorial of the first day; for it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob. Thereon sentence is pronounced upon countries—which of them is destined to the sword and which to peace, which to famine and which to plenty; and every creature is visited thereon, and recorded for life or for death. Who is not visited on such a day as this? For the remembrance of every creature cometh before thee, man's deeds and destiny, his works and ways, the thoughts and designs of man and the workings of his imagination. Happy is the man who forgetteth thee not, and the son of man who strengtheneth himself in thee; for they that seek thee shall never stumble, neither shall they ever be put to shame who trust in thee. For the remembrance of all works cometh before thee, and thou searchest into the doings of them all. Of Noah also thou wast mindful in thy love, and didst visit him with a promise of salvation and mercy, when thou broughtest forth the waters of the flood to destroy all flesh because of their evil deeds. So his remembrance came before thee, O Lord our God, to increase his seed like the dust of the earth, and his offspring like the sand of the sea: as it is written in thy Law, And God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that were with him in the ark: and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters assuaged. And it is said, And God heard their groaning:

and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. And it is said, Then will I remember my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember the land. And in thy Holy Words it is written, saying, He hath made a memorial for his wondrous works: the Lord is gracious and full of compassion. And it is said, He hath given meat unto them that fear him: he will ever be mindful of his covenant. And it is said, And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. And by the hands of thy servants, the prophets, it is written, saying, Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I remember for thee the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals: how thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown. And it is said, Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth: and I will establish unto thee an everlasting covenant. And it is said, Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? For as often as I speak against him I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my heart yearneth towards him; I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the Lord.

Our God and God of our fathers, let us be remembered by thee for good and visit us with a visitation of salvation and mercy from the heavens, the heavens of old, and remember unto us, O Lord our God, the covenant and the loving-kindness and the oath which thou swarest unto Abraham our father on Mount Moriah: and may the binding with which Abraham our father bound his son Isaac on the altar appear before thee, how he suppressed his compassion in order to perform thy will with a perfect heart. So may thy compassion soften thine anger against us; in thy great goodness may the fierceness of thy wrath turn aside from thy people, thy City and thine inheritance. Fulfil unto us, O Lord our God, the word in which thou hast caused us to trust in thy Law through the hand of thy servant Moses by thy glorious command, as it is said, And I will, for their sakes, remember the covenant of their

Thou didst reveal thyself in a cloud of glory unto thy holy people to speak with them. Out of heaven thou didst make them hear thy voice, and wast revealed unto them in clouds of purity. The whole world trembled at thy presence and the works of creation were in awe of thee, when thou didst thus reveal thyself, O our King, upon Mount Sinai to teach thy people Law and commandments, and didst make them hear the majesty of thy voice, and thy holy words out of flames of fire. Amid thunders and lightnings thou didst manifest thyself unto them, and while the trumpet sounded thou didst shine forth upon them; as it is written in thy Law, And it came to pass on the third day, when it was morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the sound of the trumpet exceeding loud: and all the people that were in the camp trembled. And it is said, And the sound of the trumpet waxed louder and louder: Moses spake, and God answered him by a voice. And it is said, And all the people perceived the thunderings and the lightnings and the voice of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking: and when the people saw it, they were moved and stood afar off. And in thy Holy Words it is written, saying, God is gone up with a shout: the Lord with the sound of the trumpet. And it is said, With trumpets and sound of the horn make a joyful noise before the King, the Lord. And it is said, Blow ye the trumpet on the new moon, in the time appointed on our solemn feast-day. For it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob. And it is said, Praise ye the Lord; praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power. Praise him for his mighty acts: praise him according to his excellent greatness. Praise him with the sound of the trumpet: praise him with the psalter and harp. Praise him with the timbrel and dance: praise him with stringed instruments and the pipe. Praise him upon the loud cymbals: praise him upon the high-sounding cymbals. Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord; praise ye the Lord. And by the hands of thy servants, the prophets, it is written, saying, All ye inhabitants of the world, and ye dwellers on the earth: when an ensign is lifted up on the mountains, see ye, and when the trumpet is blown, hear ye. And it is said, And it shall come to pass on that day, that a great trumpet shall be blown; and they shall come which were lost in the land of Assyria, and they that were outcasts in the land of Egypt: and they shall worship the Lord in the holy mountain at Jerusalem. And it is said, And the Lord shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord God shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with the whirlwinds of the south. The Lord of hosts shall shield them. So be thou a shield over thy people Israel with thy peace.

Our God and God of our fathers, sound the great trumpet for our freedom, lift up the ensign to gather our exiles, bring together our scattered ones from among the nations

Lead us in triumph unto Zion thy City, and unto Jerusalem, the place of thy sanctuary, with everlasting joy; and there will we prepare before thee the offerings that are enjoined on us, as is commanded us in thy Law through the hand of thy servant Moses, by thy glorious command, as it is said, And in the day of your gladness and in your set feasts, and in the beginnings of your months, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings: and they shall be a memorial for you before your God; I am the Lord your God. For thou hearest the sound of the horn, and givest heed to the trumpet-shout, and there is none like unto thee. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who in mercy hearest the voice of the trumpet-shout of thy people Israel.

TEKIAH SHEBARIM TERUAH TEKIAH

Cong. This day the world was called into being: this day thou causest all the creatures of the Universe to stand in judgment, as children or as servants. If as children, have pity upon us as a father pitieth his children; and if as servants, our eyes wait on thee until thou be gracious unto us and bring forth our judgment as the light, O God, terrible and holy.

The following paragraph is omitted on Sabbath:

May the entreaty of our lips find favour in thy presence, most high and exalted God, who understandest and hearest, regardest and art attentive to the voice of our trumpet-blasts. And accept with mercy and favour our recital concerning the Shophar.

Accept, O Lord our God, thy people Israel and their prayer; restore the service to the innermost part of thine house; receive in love and favour the fire-offerings of Israel and their prayer; and may the service of thy people Israel be ever acceptable to thee.

The Priests ascend the steps of the Ark, which is then closed.

Cong. and Reader. And may our prayer be acceptable unto thee as burnt offering and as sacrifice. O thou who art merciful, we beseech thee, in thine abundant mercy to restore thy divine presence unto Zion, and the ordained service to Jerusalem. And let our eyes behold thy return in mercy to Zion, and there will we worship thee in awe, as in the days of old and as in ancient years.

Reader. Blessed art thou, O Lord, whom alone we serve in awe.

On Sabbath, or when there are no Priests present, the following is substituted after ever acceptable to thee:

And let our eyes behold thy return in mercy to Zion. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who restorest thy divine presence unto Zion.

We make acknowledgment unto thee, that thou art the Lord our God and the God of our fathers for ever and ever; thou art the Rock of our lives, the Shield of our salvation through every generation. We will give thanks unto thee and declare thy praise for our lives which are delivered into thy hand, and for our souls which are committed unto thy charge, and for thy miracles which are with us every day, and for thy wondrous benefits which are with us at all times, even, morn and noon. Thou art the Beneficent One, for thy mercies never fail; thou art the Merciful One, for thy kindnesses never cease. We have ever hoped in thee.

Whilst the Reader says the foregoing paragraph, the Congregation say:

We make acknowledgment unto thee, that thou art the Lord our God and the God of our fathers, the God of all flesh, our Creator and the Creator of all things in the beginning. Blessings and thanksgivings be to thy great and holy Name, because thou hast kept us alive and supported us. So continue to keep us alive and support us; and gather our exiles to thy holy courts to observe thy statutes, to perform thy will and to serve thee with a perfect heart; for this we give thanks unto thee. Blessed be God to whom thanksgivings belong.

Cong. and Reader. Our Father, our King, remember thy mercy and suppress thine anger, and remove pestilence, sword and famine, destruction, captivity, iniquity and plague, all evil occurrences, and every disease, every stumbling-block and contention, every kind of punishment, every evil decree and all causeless enmity, from us and from all the children of thy covenant.

Cong. and Reader. And inscribe all the children of thy covenant for a happy life.

And every one that liveth shall give thanks unto thee, Selah; and shall praise thy Name in truth, O God, our salvation and help, Selah. Blessed art thou, O Lord, whose Name is the Beneficent One, and unto whom it is becoming to give thanks.

On Sabbath, or when there are no Priests present, the Reader continues:

Our God and God of our fathers, bless us with the threefold blessing in the Law, written by the hand of thy servant Moses, and uttered by the mouth of Aaron and his sons, the priests, thy holy people, as it is said: The Lord bless thee and keep thee.

Cong. May this be his will.

The Lord incline his countenance unto thee and give thee peace: Amen. Selah.

For silent prayer:

May it be thy will, O my God and God of my fathers, to answer me for the sake of thy holy mercies and thy great compassion, and for the sake of the purity of thy great and mighty and terrible Name. Be near me when I call unto thee and hear my prayer and my cry continually, even as thou didst hear the cry of Jacob, thy perfect servant. Grant me and all my household our food and sustenance, in plenty and not in penury, earned by righteous and not by wrongful means, in happiness and not in sorrow, from out of thine ever-open hand, even as thou didst give Jacob our father bread to eat and raiment for clothing. Grant that we may find love and grace and favour in thy sight, and in the sight of all who see us, and may my words be heard in thy service, even as thou didst grant grace and favour and mercy unto Joseph, thy righteous one, in thy sight and in the sight of all that beheld him. Do thy wondrous deeds and miracles by me; shew me a sign for good and prosper me in my ways. Put understanding into my heart, that I may discern and know and fulfil all the words of the study of thy Law and thy deep mysteries. Deliver me from error and purify my thoughts and my heart for thy worship; and prolong my days [and the days of my wife, my sons and my daughters] [and the days of my parents] in welfare, in happiness, in abundance of strength and in peace.

O thou who art glorious on high, abiding in might, thou art peace and thy Name is peace; may it be thy will to grant unto us and unto thy people, the house of Israel, life and blessing with enduring peace.

Upon a day like this thou wilt bring us glad and rejoicing unto thy Temple of peace, as it is written by the hand of thy prophet, "And I will bring them to my holy mountain and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for mine house shall be called an house of prayer for all peoples." And it is said, "And the Lord commanded us to do all those statutes, to fear the Lord our God for our good always, that he might preserve us alive, as at this day." And it is said, "And it shall be righteousness unto us, if we observe to do all this commandment before the Lord our God, as he hath commanded us." And righteousness and blessing, mercy, life and peace be unto us and unto all Israel for ever. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who makest peace.

Magnified and sanctified be his great Name in the world which he hath created according to his will. May he establish his kingdom in your life-time and in your days, and in the life-time of all the house of Israel, speedily and at a near time; and say ye, Amen.

Cong. Let his great Name be blessed for ever and ever.

Blessed, praised and glorified, exalted, extolled and honoured, adored and lauded be the Name of the Holy One, blessed be he, beyond, yea, beyond all blessings and hymns, praises and songs, which are uttered in the world; and say ye, Amen.

May the prayers and supplications of the whole house of Israel be accepted in the presence of their Father who is in heaven; and say ye, Amen.

May there be abundant peace from heaven, and life for us and for all Israel; and say ye, Amen.

May he who maketh peace in his high places, make peace for us and for all Israel; and say ye, Amen.

There is none like our God; there is none like our Lord; there is none like our King; there is none like our Saviour.

Who is like our God? who is like our Lord? who is like our King? who is like our Saviour?

We will give thanks unto our God; we will give thanks unto our Lord; we will give thanks unto our King; we will give thanks unto our Saviour.

Thou art our God; thou art our Lord; thou art our King; thou art our Saviour.

Talmud Babli: Kerithoth 6*a*.

The compound of the incense[1] consisted of balm, cloves,[2] galbunum and frankincense, of each a like weight — seventy manehs; of myrrh, cassia, spikenard and saffron, of each of a like weight — sixteen manehs; of costus twelve, of bark three, and of cinnamon nine manehs; of alkali procured from Karshina nine kabs; of Cyprus wine three seahs and three kabs, though if Cyprus wine was not procurable old white wine was brought; of salt of Sodom the fourth part of a kab, and a minute quantity of maaleh ashan.[3] Rabbi Nathan says, a minute quantity of the herb that grew on the banks of the Jordan was used; if one added honey he rendered the incense unfit for use, and if he omitted one of its sweet spices he was deserving of death. Rabban Simeon son of Gamaliel says, the balm is a resin that exudes from the wood of the balsam tree. The alkali procured from Karshina was used to bleach and beautify the cloves, and the Cyprus wine to steep them therein that the odour might be pungent.

Mishnah Tamid, Cap. vii.

These are the Psalms which the Levites used to say in the Temple[4]:—

On the first day of the week they said—"The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein."

On the second day—"Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness."

On the third day—"God standeth in the congregation of the mighty: he judgeth among the judges."

On the fourth day—"O Lord God, to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, shine forth."

Talmud Berachoth, 64.

Rabbi Eleazer said in the name of Rabbi Chanina, The disciples of the sages increase peace in the world, as it is said, "And all thy children shall be taught of the Lord: and great shall be the peace of thy children." Read not banayich—"thy children," but bonayich —"thy builders." Great peace have they who love thy Law: and there is no stumbling for them. Peace be within thy walls: prosperity within thy palaces. For my brethren and companions' sakes: I will now say, Peace be within thee. For the sake of the house of the Lord our God: I will seek thy good. The Lord will give strength unto his people: the Lord will bless his people with peace.

It behoveth us to praise the Lord of all, to ascribe greatness to him who formed the world in the beginning; that he hath not made us like the nations of other lands, and hath not placed us like other families of the earth, that he hath not given unto us a portion as unto them, nor a lot as unto all their multitude; for we bend the knee and prostrate ourselves and make acknowledgment before the supreme King of kings, the Holy One, blessed be he, who stretched forth the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth, the abode of whose glory is in the heavens above, and the dwelling of whose majesty is upon the loftiest heights. He is our God, there is none else: in truth he is our King, there is none beside him, as it is written in his Law, Know therefore this day, and lay it to thine heart, that the Lord he is God in heaven above and upon the earth beneath: there is none else.

Therefore we hope in thee, O Lord our God, that we may speedily behold the glory of thy might, when thou wilt remove the abominations from the earth, and the idols shall be utterly cut off; when the world shall be set under

Lord of the world, He reigned alone
While yet the universe was naught,
When by His will all things were wrought
Then first His sov'ran Name was known.

And when the All shall cease to be,
In dread lone splendour He shall reign
He was, He is, He shall remain
In glorious eternity.

For He is one, no second shares
His nature or His loneliness;
Unending and beginningless,
All strength is His, all sway He bears

He is the living God to save,
My Rock while sorrow's toils endure
My banner and my stronghold sure,
The cup of life whene'er I crave.

I place my soul within His palm
Before I sleep as when I wake,
And though my body I forsake
Rest in the Lord in fearless calm.

AFTERNOON SERVICE

Happy are they that dwell in thy house; they will be every praising thee. Selah. Happy is the people that is in such a case; happy is the people whose God is the Lord.

Psalm cxlv. A Psalm of Praise of David.

I will extol thee, my God, O King; and I will bless thy Name for ever and ever. Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy Name for ever and ever. Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable. One generation shall laud thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts. Of the glorious honour of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous works, will I speak. And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts: and I will declare thy greatness. They shall utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness. The Lord is gracious and full of compassion; slow to anger and of great mercy. The Lord is good to all; and his tender mercies are over all his works. All thy works shall give thanks unto thee, O Lord; and thy pious servants shall bless thee. They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power; to make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glory of the majesty of his kingdom. Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations. The Lord upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down. The eyes of all wait upon thee, and thou givest them their meat in due season. Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing. The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and merciful in all his works. The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth. He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him; he also will hear their cry, and will save them. The Lord preserveth all them that love him; but all the wicked will he destroy. My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord; and let all flesh bless his holy Name for ever and ever.

And as for us, we will bless the Lord from this time forth, and for evermore. Praise ye the Lord.

And a redeemer shall come to Zion and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the Lord. And as for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the Lord: my spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the Lord, from henceforth and for ever. But thou art holy, that dwellest amid the praises of Israel. And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory. [1 And they receive sanction one from the other, and say, Holy in the highest heavens, the place of his abode; holy upon earth, the work of his might; holy for ever and to all eternity is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of the radiance of his glory.] And a wind lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice of a mighty rushing—Blessed be the glory of the Lord from his place [1 And a wind lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice of a mighty rushing of those who uttered praises and said Blessed be the glory of the Lord from the place of his abode.] The Lord shall reign for ever and ever. [1 The kingdom of the Lord endureth for ever and to all eternity.] O Lord, God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever in the innate thoughts of the heart of thy people, and direct their heart unto thee. And he, being full of compassion, forgiveth iniquity and destroyeth not: yea, many a time he turneth his anger away, and stirreth not up all his wrath. For thou, O Lord, art good and ready to forgive, and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee. Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy Law is truth. Thou wilt perform truth to Jacob and mercy to Abraham, as thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old. Blessed be the Lord who day by day loadeth us with blessings: he is the God of our salvation, Selah. The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is a stronghold unto us. Selah. O Lord of hosts, happy is the man that trusteth in thee. Save, O Lord: may the King answer us on the day when we call.

Blessed is our God who hath created us for his glory, and hath separated us from them that go astray, who hath given us the Law of truth and planted everlasting life in our midst. May he open our hearts unto his Law, and set his love and fear within our hearts, that we may do his will and serve him with a perfect heart, that we may not labour in vain, nor bring forth unto confusion. May it be thy will, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, that we may keep thy statutes in this world, and be worthy to live, witness and inherit happiness and blessing in the days of the Messiah and in the life of the world to come. To the end that my glory may sing praise to thee and not be silent; O Lord my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever. Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord and whose trust the Lord is. Trust ye in the Lord for ever: for in Jah the Lord is an everlasting rock. And they that know thy Name will put their trust in thee; for thou hast not forsaken them that seek thee, O Lord. It pleased the Lord for the sake of his righteousness to magnify the Law and to make it honourable.

The Reader says Half Kaddish, page 14.
On Sabbath:

And as for me, my prayer be unto thee, O Lord, in an acceptable time; O God, in the multitude of thy mercy, answer me in the truth of thy salvation.

On Sabbath a Scroll is taken from the Ark and the following passage is read:

Deuteronomy xxxii. 1-12.

Give ear, ye heavens, and I will speak; and let the earth hear the words of my mouth. My doctrine shall drop as the rain; my speech shall distil as the dew, as the small rain upon the tender herb and as the showers upon the grass. For I will proclaim the Name of the Lord: ascribe ye greatness unto our God. The Rock, his work is perfect; for all his ways are judgment; God of faithfulness and without iniquity, just and right is he. They have corrupted themselves; not of children of him is their blemish: they are a perverse and crooked generation. Do ye thus requite the Lord, O foolish people and unwise? Is not he thy father that hath gotten thee? he hath made thee and established thee. Remember the days of old; consider the years of many generations. Ask thy father, and he will shew thee; thine elders, and they will tell thee. When the Most High gave to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the children of men, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel. For the Lord's portion is his people: Jacob is the lot of his inheritance. He found him in a desert land, and in the waste howling wilderness; he compassed him about, he instructed him; he kept him as the apple of his eye. As an eagle that stirreth up his nest, that fluttereth over his young—he spreadeth abroad his wings, he taketh them, he beareth them on his pinions—so the Lord alone did lead him, and there was no strange god with him.

The Scroll is returned to the Ark. The Amidah is then said (pp.15-19), and is repeated by the Reader, and the Service is then continued with Our Father, our King (except on Sabbath) and Kaddish (pp. 111-113), It behoveth us and the Mourners' Kaddish (pp. 22-23).

TASHLICH

Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? He retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy. He will turn again and have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. And all the sins of thy people, the house of Israel, thou wilt cast into a place where they shall not be remembered, neither shall they be visited, neither shall they ever come to mind. Thou wilt perform truth to Jacob and mercy to Abraham, as thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old.

MORNING SERVICE FOR THE SECOND DAY OF THE NEW YEAR

The Morning Service from And as for me, p. 25, to in thine awful works, p. 79, is the same as on the First Day.

Thou art the King

Who sitteth upon a throne, high and exalted.

He abideth to eternity; exalted and holy is his Name. And it is written, Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright. Through the mouth of the upright thou shalt be exalted; with the words of the righteous thou shalt be blessed; thou shalt be hallowed by the tongue of the pious, and praised in the midst of the holy.

And in the assemblies of the tens of thousands of thy people, the house of Israel, thy Name, O our King, shall be glorified with song throughout every generation. For such is the duty of all creatures before thee, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, to give thanks unto thee, to praise, laud, glorify, exalt, adore, bless, magnify and acclaim thee with all the words of song and praise of David, the son of Jesse, thine anointed servant.

Praised be thy Name, O our King for ever, thou God and King that art great and holy in heaven and on earth. For unto thee, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, song and praise are meet, psalm and hymn, power and dominion, supremacy, greatness, might, psalmody and glory, holiness and sovereignty, blessings and thanksgivings henceforth and evermore. Blessed art thou, O Lord, God and King, great in praises, God of Thankskiving, Lord of wonders, who makest choice of song and psalmody, sovereign God, the Life of worlds.

Cong. Let his great Name be blessed for ever and ever.

Blessed, praised and glorified, exalted, extolled and honoured, adored and lauded be the Name of the Holy One, blessed be he, beyond, yea, beyond all blessings and hymns, praises and songs, which are uttered in the world; and say ye, Amen.

Reader. Bless ye the Lord, who is blessed.

Congregation silently:

Blessed, praised, glorified, exalted and extolled be the Name of the supreme King of kings, the Holy One, blessed be he, who is the first and the last, and beside him there is no God. Extol him that rideth upon the heavens whose Name is Jah, and rejoice before him. His Name is exalted above all blessing and praise. Blessed be his glorious, sovereign Name for ever and ever. Let the Name of the Lord be blessed from this time forth and for evermore.

Cong. and Reader. Blessed be the Lord, who is blessed for ever and evermore.

Blessed are thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who formest light and createst darkness, who makest peace and createst all things:

Yea, eternal light in the treasury of life; for he spake, and out of darkness there was light.

Cong. O King, thy Word hath stood steadfast from of yore; thy Name abideth yet in glory with thy congregation; thy Word, O Lord, endureth for ever.

King, when on this day thou didst finish the work of thine handicraft, from judgment thou didst deliver the man fashioned in thine image; for from generation to generation is thy faithfulness.

And thus, O King, for his offspring thou hast decreed redemption, that so they may escape thy dread wrath, who stand at the bar of thy judgments this day.

Reader. יֵרָאֶה פָּעֳלֶךָ וַהֲדָרֶךָ לְתָמִימִים׃ חָיוּת בְּצִלְּךָ לְאָרֶךְ

Reader. They guard thy commandments: they are thy witnesses, thy worshippers. O take them and bear them to spread thy glory; for they are all thy servants, most holy One.

Cong. Remember them that seek thee, and raise them unto life. Exalt their horn and greet them with thy mercies. Remember thy congregation thou hast gotten thee of old. Remember her that was drawn after thee in loving entreaty, that was upheld by the sweet comforts of thy fire-given Law, and the tribe of thine inheritance whom thou didst redeem. O remember and speed the day of thy salvation, when we may again worship in thy shrine and enter into thy habitation on Mount Zion, thy dwelling-place.

Reader. Tend with compassion the little lambs of thy flock; give them their need of food for soul and body. And as for me, my prayer be unto thee in an acceptable time, most holy One.

Cong. The season is come to sound the appointed notes of the ram's horn, that there may be remembered thereby unto the faithful the sacrifice of the ram that behind the patriarch was caught by its horns in the thicket.

At the voice of the horn the camp trembled and stood from a distance. All merciful, remember it and be it thy gracious will to acquit us. For lo, "The horn waxes very loud."

Thou hast enjoined it for the appointed time upon the nation whose dust cannot be numbered, that so they may return from iniquity and enter into perfect atonement. Blow ye the horn on the New Moon.

Reader. God hath been pleased to array his inheritance with the beauty of holiness. He taught them to recite his offerings by number and that it should be better than an ox and a bullock unto the Lord, the holy One.

Cong. The King judgeth peoples with equity that he may be exalted, and from his lofty height he regardeth and examineth their case. He setteth his throne upon justice.

The omnipotent King is alone hallowed in righteousness. The Eternal is exalted and glorious in judgment, ready to execute the suit of his servant.

The King will remember mercy in wrath according to his promise. He is nigh to justify the people that testifieth to the Unity of his Name, his people Israel, every day.

Reader. May thy work and thy glory appear unto them that are whole in their faith, that they may dwell beneath

Its voice leaps through the coasts of Syria with tidings of freedom to Judah and Ephraim and to the outcasts in the land of Egypt.[1]

Through Zarephath and Sepharad[2] it shrills its call to holiness. To my far-scattered race it shall herald new and immortal life, and they shall worship before the Lord in the holy mountain.

Reader. Thy words of comfort shall solace me two-fold, foretelling that in all lands men shall serve thee and pray in thy hallowed mountain in Jerusalem, most holy One.

Cong. All-holy King, thou who inhabitest the dread skies, speed the forerunner of the Deliverer's coming. The Lord reigneth, the earth shall rejoice.

King, high and exalted, omniscient witness of all, build up thy City; for the time is come. The Lord shall reign to all eternity.

King, whose everlasting dominion extendeth over all, make straight the path of thy worshippers and lead them onward. The Lord shall reign for ever and ever.

Reader. Thou wilt guide our steps to the lands of the living. O come ye and let us walk in the light of the Lord. And sovereignty shall be the Lord's, the holy One.

Thou givest light in mercy to the earth and to them that dwell thereon, and in thy goodness renewest the creation every day continually. How great are thy works, O Lord! in wisdom hast thou made them all; the earth is full of thy possessions. O King, thou alone hast been exalted of yore, praised, glorified, and extolled from days of old. O everlasting God, in thine abundant mercies have mercy upon us, Lord of our strength, Rock of our stronghold, Shield of our salvation, O thou Stronghold around us. The blessed God, who is great in knowledge, hath designed and made the radiance of the sun: the Beneficent One hath wrought glory unto his Name; he hath set luminaries round about his strength. Chiefs of holy hosts continually declare the high praises of the Almighty, the glory of God and his holiness. Be thou blessed, O Lord our God, for the excellency of thy handiwork and for the bright luminaries which thou hast made: they shall glorify thee; selah.

Be thou blessed, O our Rock, our King and our Redeemer, Creator of holy beings. Praised be thy Name for ever, O our King, Creator of ministering angels: whose ministering angels stand in the heights of the Universe and together proclaim with awe aloud the words of the living God and everlasting King. All of them are beloved: all of them are pure: all of them are mighty, and all of them in dread and awe do the will of their Master: and all of them open their mouths in holiness and purity, with song and psalm, and bless and praise, glorify and reverence, sanctify and ascribe sovereignty—

To the name of God, the great, mighty and awful King; holy is he; and they all take upon themselves the yoke of the kingdom of heaven one from the other, and they give leave, one unto the other, to declare the holiness of their Creator. In tranquil spirit, with pure speech and holy melody they all respond in unison and exclaim with awe:

Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory.

Tent-like this day the King stretched out the sky,
His glory and His love to testify;
This day for judgment all, both low and high,
Must face their King.

He girds Himself with majesty and might,
And earth and heaven tremble in affright;
But He who fashions hearts will judge aright,
Our gracious King.

For He, who knows each action and its aim,
Will mercifully moderate our blame
This day, when solemn trumpet-blasts proclaim
Our Lord the King.

So He ordained to purify His flock,
Who feeds His saints from His unfailing stock;
Whose covenant is built upon the rock,
Almighty King.

O root not out the remnant of Thy sons,
Not one the service of Thy palace shuns;
From yesterday began our orisons
To praise the King.

Ah, pity us, by grace of our descent
From him to whom three messengers were sent
And him for whom the angels' tears were spent,
Our fathers' King!

And add unto our cry the merits vast
Of him who down in sleep his body cast
Where up and down the holy angels passed
To serve the King.

Assuage the rigours of Thy first decree,
Let justice not with mercy disagree;
Hark how to-day the trumpet sounds our plea,
O gentle King!

Mercy for all whose hopes in Thee do rest,
Thy devotees, in whom the world is blest;
Let benedictions spring in every breast,
Eternal King!

The Chayoth sing: the Cherubim glorify: the Seraphim exult, and the Arelim bless. The face of every Chayah, Ophan and Cherub is set towards the Seraphim, and thus confronting each the other, they utter praise and say, Blessed be the glory of the Lord from his place.

To the blessed God they offer sweet song; to the King, the living and ever-enduring God, they utter hymns and make their praises heard; for he alone worketh mighty deeds, and maketh new things. He is the Lord of battles; he soweth righteousness, causeth salvation to spring forth and createth remedies. He is fearful in praises. He is the Lord of wonders, who in his goodness reneweth the creation every day continually, as it is said: Give thanks to him that made great lights: for his mercy endureth for ever. O cause a new light to shine upon Zion, and may we all soon be worthy of its brightness. Blessed art thou, O Lord, Creator of the luminaries.

With much love hast thou loved us, O Lord our God, and with great and exceeding tenderness hast thou pitied us. O our Father, our King, for the sake of our fathers, who trusted in thee and whom thou didst teach the statutes of life, be gracious unto us also and teach us. O our Father, compassionate Father, who art merciful, have mercy upon us and put it into our hearts to understand and to discern, to hearken, to learn and to teach, to observe, to do and to fulfil in love all the words of instruction in thy Law. Enlighten our eyes in thy Law, and cause our hearts to cleave to thy commandments, and unite our hearts to love and fear thy Name, so that we be never put to shame. For we have trusted in thy holy, great and awful Name. Let us rejoice and be glad in thy salvation. O bring us in peace from the four corners of the earth, and make us go upright to our land; for thou art the God who worketh salvation. Thou hast chosen us from all peoples and tongues, and hast brought us near unto thy great Name in truth; selah: that we may give thanks unto thee and proclaim thy Unity in love. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who hast chosen thy people Israel in love.

Deuteronomy vi. 4-9.

Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is One.

Blessed be his glorious, sovereign Name for ever and ever.

And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: and thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be for frontlets between thine eyes. And thou shalt write them upon the door-posts of thine house and upon thy gates.

And it shall come to pass, if ye will hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love the Lord your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul: that I will give the rain of your land in its season, the first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn and thy wine and thine oil. And I will send grass in thy fields for thy cattle, that thou mayest eat and be satisfied. Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them: and the Lord's wrath be kindled against you, and he shut up the heaven and there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit, and ye perish quickly from off the good land which the Lord giveth you. Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, and they shall be for frontlets between your eyes. And ye shall teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. And thou shalt write them upon the door-posts of thine house and upon thy gates: that your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the Lord sware unto your fathers to give them, as the days of the heavens upon the earth.

Numbers xv. 37-41.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying: Speak unto the children of Israel, and bid them that they make them fringes in the corners of their garments throughout their generations, and that they put upon the fringe of the corner a thread of blue: and it shall be unto you for a fringe, that ye may look upon it and remember all the commandments of the Lord, and do them; and that ye seek not after your own heart and your own eyes, after which ye use to go astray, that ye may remember and do all my commandments, and be holy unto your God. I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God; I am the Lord your God.

True and firm, established and enduring, right and faithful, beloved and precious, desirable and pleasant, awful and mighty, set and acceptable, good and beautiful, is this word unto us for ever and ever. It is true, the God of the Universe is our King, the Rock of Jacob, the Shield of our salvation: throughout all generations he endureth and his Name endureth; his throne is established, and his kingdom and his faithfulness endure for ever. His words also live and endure: they are faithful and desirable for ever and to all eternity, as for our fathers, so also for us, for our children and for our generations, and for all the generations of the seed of Israel thy servants. For the first and for the last ages this word is good and endureth for ever and ever; it is true and constant, a statute which shall not pass away. It is true that thou art the Lord our God and the God of our fathers, our King, our fathers' King, and Redeemer, the Redeemer of our fathers, our Creator, the Rock of our salvation, our Preserver and Deliverer: thy Name is from everlasting; there is no God beside thee.

Thou hast been the help of our fathers from of old, a Shield and a Saviour to their children after them in every generation. In the heights of the Universe is thy habitation, and thy judgments and thy righteousness reach unto the ends of the earth. Happy is the man who hearkeneth unto thy commandments, and layeth up thy Law and thy word in his heart. It is true that thou art the Lord of thy people, and a mighty King to plead their cause. It is true that thou art the first and thou art the last, and beside thee we have no King, redeemer and saviour. From Egypt thou didst redeem us, O Lord our God, and from the house of bondage thou didst deliver us; all their first-born thou didst slay, but thy first-born didst thou redeem; thou didst divide the Red Sea and drown the proud; thou madest the beloved to pass through, but the waters covered their adversaries; not one of them was left. Wherefore the beloved praised and extolled God, yea, the beloved offered hymns, songs, praises, blessings and thanksgivings to the King and God who liveth and endureth, who is high and exalted, great and awful, who bringeth low the haughty and raiseth up the lowly, leadeth forth the prisoners, delivereth the meek, helpeth the poor and answereth his people when they cry unto him—even praises to the Most High God, blessed is he, yea, blessed. Moses and the children of Israel sang a song unto thee with great joy, saying all of them:

Who is like unto thee, O Lord, among the mighty ones? Who is like unto thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?

With a new song the redeemed offered praise unto thy Name at the sea-shore; together they all gave thanks and proclaimed thy sovereignty, saying:

The Lord shall reign for ever and ever.

O Rock of Israel, arise to the help of Israel, and deliver according to thy word Judah and Israel. Our Redeemer, the Lord of hosts is his Name, the Holy One of Israel. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who hast redeemed Israel.

The Amidah until in ancient years, on page 190, is said standing and in silence.

O Lord, open thou my lips, and my mouth shall declare thy praise.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, God of Abraham, God of Isaac, and God of Jacob, O great, mighty and awful God, most high God, who bestowest gracious favours and who possessest all things, who rememberest the piety of the patriarchs, and who in love wilt bring a redeemer to their children's children, for the sake of thy Name. Remember us unto life, O King, who delightest in life, and inscribe us in the book of life, for thine own sake, O living God. O King, Helper, Saviour and Shield; blessed art thou, O Lord, the Shield of Abraham.

Thou art mighty for ever, O Lord; it is thou who quickenest the dead and art mighty to save. Thou sustainest the living with loving-kindness, quickenest the dead with great mercy, supportest the falling and healest the sick, loosest the bound, and keepest thy faith unto them that sleep in the dust. Who is like unto thee, Lord of mighty acts, and who can be compared unto thee, O King, who killest and restorest to life and causest salvation to spring forth? Who is like unto thee, Father of mercy, who in mercy rememberest thy creatures unto life? And faithful art thou to quicken the dead. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who quickenest the dead.

Thou art holy and thy Name is holy, and holy beings praise thee daily. Selah.

Now therefore, O Lord our God, impose thine awe upon all thy works and thy dread over all that thou hast created, that all thy works may fear thee and all creatures prostrate themselves before thee, that they may all form one band to do thy will with a perfect heart: even as we know, O Lord our God, that dominion is thine, strength is in thy hand, and might in thy right hand, and that thy Name is awful over all that thou hast created.

And therefore, O Lord, give glory unto thy people praise to them that fear thee, hope to them that seek thee, confidence to them that wait for thee, joy to thy land, gladness to thy City, a flourishing horn unto David thy servant, and a constant light unto the son of Jesse, thine anointed, speedily in our days.

Then shall the just see and be glad, the upright shall exult, the pious shall rejoice in song, and iniquity shall close her mouth, and all wickedness shall be wholly consumed like smoke, when thou makest the dominion of arrogance to pass away from the earth.

And thou, O Lord, shalt reign, thou alone, over all thy works on Mount Zion, the dwelling-place of thy glory, and in Jerusalem, thy holy City; as it is written in thy holy words, The Lord shall reign for ever, thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the Lord.

Holy art thou, and awful is thy Name, and there is no God beside thee; as it is written, And the Lord of hosts is exalted in judgment and the holy God is sanctified in righteousness. Blessed art thou, O Lord, the holy King.

Thou hast chosen us from all peoples; thou hast loved us and taken pleasure in us, and hast exalted us above all tongues. Thou hast sanctified us by thy commandments, and hast drawn us near, O our King, unto thy service, and hast called us by thy great and holy Name.

And thou hast given us in love, O Lord our God, this Day of Memorial, a day of blowing the horn: a holy convocation—a memorial of the departure from Egypt.

Our God and God of our fathers, may our remembrance and our name, and the remembrance of our fathers, the remembrance of Messiah the son of David, the remembrance of Jerusalem thy holy City, and the remembrance of all thy people the house of Israel, rise and go up, approach to thy presence and find grace; may it be heard, visited, and remembered, for deliverance and for good, for grace, loving-kindness and mercy, for life and for peace on this Day of Memorial. Remember us, O Lord our God, thereon for good; visit us with a blessing, and save us unto life. And with thy word of salvation and mercy, spare us and be gracious unto us; have mercy upon us and save us; for unto thee our eyes are turned, for thou art a gracious and merciful God and King.

Our God and God of our fathers, reign over the whole Universe in thy glory, and in thy splendour be exalted over all the earth. Shine forth in the majesty of thy triumphant strength over all the inhabitants of thy world, that every form may know that thou hast formed it, and every creature understand that thou hast created it, and that all that hath breath in its nostrils may say: The Lord God of Israel is King and his dominion ruleth over all. Sanctify us by thy commandments and grant our portion be in thy Law; satisfy us with thy goodness, and gladden us with thy salvation, and purify our hearts to serve thee in truth; for thou, O God, art truth, and thy word is truth, and endureth for ever. Blessed art thou, O Lord, thou King over all the earth who sanctifiest Israel and the Day of Memorial.

Accept, O Lord our God, thy people Israel and their prayer; restore the service to the innermost part of thine house; receive in love and favour the fire-offerings of Israel and their prayer; and may the service of thy people Israel be ever acceptable to thee. And let our eyes behold thy return in mercy to Zion. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who restorest thy divine presence unto Zion.

We make acknowledgment unto thee, that thou art the Lord our God and the God of our fathers for ever and ever; thou art the Rock of our lives, the Shield of our salvation

We will give thanks unto thee and declare thy praise for our lives which are delivered into thy hand, and for our souls which are committed unto thy charge, and for thy miracles which are with us every day, and for thy wondrous benefits which are with us at all times, even, morn and noon. Thou art the Beneficent One, for thy mercies never fail; thou art the Merciful One, for thy kindnesses never cease. We have ever hoped in thee.

And for all these things, O our King, thy Name shall be continually blessed and exalted for ever and ever. And inscribe all the children of thy covenant for a happy life. And every one that liveth shall give thanks unto thee, Selah; and shall praise thy Name in truth, O God, our salvation and help, Selah. Blessed art thou, O Lord, whose Name is the Benficent One, and unto whom it is becoming to give thanks.

Grant peace, welfare, blessing, grace, loving-kindness and mercy unto us and unto all Israel, thy people. Bless us, O our Father, all of us together, with the light of thy countenance; for by the light of thy countenance thou hast given unto us, O Lord our God, the Law of life, loving-kindness and righteousness, blessing, mercy, life and peace; and may it be good in thy sight to bless thy people Israel at all times and in every hour with thy peace. In the book of life, blessing, peace and good sustenance may we be remembered and inscribed before thee, we and all thy people the house of Israel, for a happy life and peace. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who maketh peace.

O my God, guard my tongue from evil and my lips from speaking guile; and to such as curse me, let my soul be silent, yea, let my soul be unto all as the dust. Open thou my heart to thy Law, and let my soul pursue thy commandments. And as to any who devise evil against me, speedily make their counsel of none effect and frustrate their designs. Do thou it for the sake of thy Name, do it for the sake of thy right hand, do it for the sake of thy holiness, do it for the sake of thy Law, that thy beloved ones may be delivered. O save with thy right hand and answer me. Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable before

READER'S REPETITION OF THE AMIDAH.

The Ark is opened.

Reader. Blessed art thou, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, God of Abraham, God of Isaac and God of Jacob, great, mighty and awful God, most high God, who bestowest gracious favours and who possessest all things, who rememberest the piety of the patriarchs, and who in love wilt bring a Redeemer to their children's children, for the sake of thy Name.

From the counsel of the wise and understanding, and from knowledge gotten of the discerning, I will open my lips in prayer and supplication, to entreat and implore the presence of the King of kings and Lord of lords.

I come to supplicate Thee with my heart in tempest;
A beggar at Thy gates, I tender Thee my word
For pity:—wake Thy kindness, grant not only justice,
And open Thou my lips, O Lord.

No word is in my mouth, and on my tongue no murmur,
But Thou, O Lord, lo, Thou art mindful whence it springs;
And I am hoping for Thee from the heart's deep places,
Under the covert of Thy wings.

A fear hath hold of me, a trembling and a terror,
Since for Thy treasured souls, great God, my plea is said;
In all good thought and knowledge I am poor and wanting,
Therefore I creep to Thee in dread.

Weary with sighing, how am I to stand before Thee?
No works have I to give me merit to draw near;
And yet Thy throngs have sent me to entreat Thy mercy:
Prepare their heart and bend Thine ear.

For what am I? a worm; my life is but the worm's life;
Brutish in knowledge, void of counsel—yet I may,
Setting my trust on words within the Book of Wisdom,
By meekness turn His wrath away.[1]

My strength, I look towards Thee yet for Thine upholding;
Give light to lead me to the entrance of Thy word;
O justify me, give me power to rise and triumph,
My stronghold and my gracious Lord.

Thy multitudes are standing to entreat Thy pardon:
Be moved to mercy, let Thy pity stir Thy grace.
Behold, they pour their hearts out unto Thee like water;
Hear Thou from Heaven, Thy dwelling-place.

Yea, strengthen for Thy people now their hand so weakened;
Send help from Thine abode to make their healing sure.
And they shall take Thy words on them for strength and glory,
For all the words of God are pure.

Cong. Thy Word is pure and thy statutes are righteousness. Examine not our deeds in hostile wise as we enter into thy presence, but when thou drawest near to search out every secret and to con each hidden rift, suffer the cause of thine afflicted people to prevail in the hour of trial. Lo, thou didst build thy world with mercy; all-merciful as thou art, incline toward mercy. Weigh down the scale of merit; make firm thy help, and have compassion upon the stock of the patriarch[2] led forth from Syria's furnace. Before we call do thou answer, and may grace be found for us in thy reply. This day, when thou visitest thy creatures all in number, let thine angel encamp about us. Extend over us the attribute of thy goodness; cleanse us of iniquity and make our transgressions to pass away. With thine arm stay up them that hope in thee, and sustain them with thy promise of strength, of might renewed and soaring wings. Let the patriarch's work be remembered before thee, and his righteousness plead for our acquittal, that the accuser may be silenced. He took thy fear upon him and recognized thy Unity, speeding on thy precepts in uprightness and love. Perfect was he found in all his trials, and his heart was gladdened this day with promise of a child.

Reader. He hastened with praise and strength to his Merciful Lord, what time his perfect spouse was visited of heaven.

Cong. In God have we put our trust from of old, and he hath answered us with terrible deeds. May he accept our supplications with favour as whole burnt offerings.

Reader. With his shield may he protect us from the issues of sickness. As birds flying, so will the Lord of hosts defend us.

Remember us unto life, O King, who delightest in life, and inscribe us in the book of life, for thine own sake, O living God. O King, Helper, Saviour and Shield; blessed art thou, O Lord, the Shield of Abraham.

Thou art mighty for ever, O Lord; it is thou who quickenest the dead and art mighty to save. Thou sustainest the living with loving-kindness, quickenest the dead with great mercy, supportest the falling and healest the sick, loosest the bound, and keepest thy faith unto them that sleep in the dust. Who is like unto thee, Lord of mighty acts, and who can be compared unto thee, O King, who killest and restorest to life and causest salvation to spring forth?

Cong. O great in counsel, whose work is perfect, we have sought thy presence at daybreak, fain to find thy charity. Cleanse our stain, purge our impurity, take our cry to thee, and mend the breaches in our walls. Lo, the sheep for slaughter are cut off from the fold, the bulls and lambs for peace-offering and sacrifice. Yet we lay before thee the ordered offering of our lips in prayer; may our utterance find grace like incense or oblation. If the path of right hath been worn crooked by our erring steps, if we have forsaken thy mission and waxed slack in thy work, before thy sight let there arise Abraham's ordered altar and the ritual slaughter-knife[1] prepared from long ago. Lo, how they twain, sire and son, walked to Mount Moriah to consummate the sacrifice, obedient to thy behest, and let their act of dedication be treasured up and be thy mercies stirred, so that the memory of thine ancient oath may rise up, potent as incense. And when this day thou sittest to judge nations, let mercy fill thee for their offspring. Enlighten our cause and let us not go ashamed hence, but set fast the vine of thy planting for length of days. For the merit of him that Reader. I am sent on the mission of thy chosen band, who are mindful of thy troth and with awe-stirred hearts declare thy Unity. I have poured out my thoughts, seeking thy intercession. Hear my voice, O Lord, when I call.

Cong. Thou who speakest in righteousness, ever-merciful and gracious, show thyself a sheltering covert to thy worshippers. Though thou wring out the full measure of thy judgment upon thy creatures, let my sentence come forth triumphant from thy Presence. Incline to the clear-ascending notes of our shopharblasts; frustrate the indictment of sin and strengthen the good inclinations that plead for us. Let thine eyes look upon the upright—her that sat barren in the house[3] and the Rock of whom we are hewn.[4] Let the righteousness also of the perfect patriarch[5] be remembered before thee, who dwelt in the tents of thy Presence and whose name is graven on thy throne. Rescue me now from transgression and the brand of sin, nor let them have dominion over me; for then shall I be upright. O thou who governest in mercy, who rememberest the covenant, cleanse us from secret faults and we shall be pure as snow. Lead us in thy truth and grant us a latter end of peace, thou who pardonest iniquity and passest by the transgression of our remnant. When thou ascendest the Throne, terrible and awe-filling, to judge the creatures of earth this day, in thy mercy toward us cause us to find redemption. In God we exult all the day long. Remove our evil imagination in thy pity; accept us and shield us with the shelter of thy wing; take our repentance to thee and multiply our forgiveness; feed thy people with thy staff, even the flock of thine heritage.

Teach us to walk continuously in thy ways and paths, to bind up in our hearts the truth of thy statutes. May thy tender mercies be stirred and yearn for our forgiveness. We know that we have sinned, and that there is none among us that may stand unabashed. Bestow thy salvation upon thy well-beloved; she thirsteth for thy loving-kindness, yea, she longeth and pineth for thee. Behold and see, for she is sorely grieved. Thy righteousness is like great mountains; thy judgments are a great deep. Take pleasure in our meditation and in the voice of our trumpet-call. Whiten our sins and release our errors. Bind our adversaries and lay low their head. Be merciful unto us, O God, be merciful unto us: for our soul trusteth in thee. Draw us nigh to thy salvation on this my New Year: gather our dispersed to the fold of my city.

Reader. Let the foe see that my praise is of thee. I have waited patiently, O Lord my hope.

The Lord shall reign for ever, thy God, O Zion, unto all generations; praise ye the Lord.

For thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel; O God, we beseech thee:

His work is truth:	he is righteous and just.
He is nigh unto them that call upon him in truth.	Cong. and Reader. He is high and exalted.
He abideth in the heavens:	he hangeth the earth upon nothing,

Living and enduring, terrible and exalted and holy.

When the second day of the Festival falls on a Sunday, the piece below is substituted.

Reader and Cong. His chosen people glorify his Name; adoring angels tell his praise, and in his temple everything saith glory to the holy One.

Reader and Cong. They who keep his commandments shall yet return to their stronghold, and there will his worshippers hold converse in piety and rectitude. And the Lord shall have hearkened and heard it, and it shall be recorded in the book of memorial before the holy One.

Reader and Cong. Mend your deeds and his covenant shall not be annulled. Your cry shall reach him who garnished the firmament, and it shall be better than an ox or a bullock to the Lord, the holy One.

Reader and Cong. Lead up the tribes of the patriarch called to thee, and give them dominion, and in thy pruning lop off the enemy's straggling branches. For sovereignty and rule are the Lord's, the holy One.

Reader and Cong. Yea, may he lead up our captivity from afar unto his holy mountain, that we may unceasingly glorify him in the shrine of his sanctuary. For he hath remembered his sacred promise, most Holy.

On Sunday:

Reader and Cong. Thou shalt rouse thee like a warrior and shout so that all evil-doers may be cut off; and thou shalt be hallowed by them that know the Shophar's blast, O holy One.

Congregation:

Ah, why is the Kingdom,
The realm of glory,
Cast out and no longer
Acclaimed in story?

'Twas Bel the dragon,
The idol hollow,
With lawless footsteps
We fain would follow.

The mistress of kingdoms
Hence holds us lowly,
Till shines renascent
God's Kingdom holy.

Our home in ashes,
Our saints all scattered,
Chaldea waxeth,
In might unshattered.

She bends her bowstring,
Her yoke extending;
She rends the tender,
And reigns unending.

Roots fiercely plucking,
Foundations baring,
She planned in secret,
Performed in daring.

Reader and Cong. All creatures of the Universe, all denizens of Earth shall proclaim continually, "The Lord hath wrought wondrous things throughout the Earth." For the Lord shall be King over all the Earth, all-holy One.

Reader. I will offer homage and adoration in a garland of praise. I will order my supplication of lips and heart.

Cong. I will call unto God most high;

Reader. That on this day chosen from the dread skies for perfect judgment, I may worship his holy Presence. Cong. The Lord reigneth; let the earth rejoice.

Reader. His majesty is greater than the earth can contain; what power can declare his might? Cong. God is King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding.

Reader and Cong. His chosen people glorify his Name; adoring angels tell his praise, and in his temple everything saith glory to the holy One.

Reader. O that all his creatures might get them knowledge and learn how great are his marvels! Cong. He hath made his wonderful acts to be remembered.

On Sunday:

She broke our tent-poles,
Our curtains wrested,
And drove the plough-share
Where once we nested.

She props up princedoms,
And realms sustaineth,
But us she vexeth,
But us she paineth.

Now swoln with cunning,
And guile sans leaven,
In regal vesture
She soars to heaven.

'Gainst Thee rebelleth,
High treason scheming,
Her idols vaunteth,
Thy rule blaspheming.

Lo! us Thy children
She sorely tasketh,
What King o'er me is?
Profanely asketh.

And cries, usurping
Thy sceptre lonely,
Save me no King is,
I reign, I only.

Lord, far uplifted,
Hurl down her glory;
Once more be sovran
Of Israel's story.

Reader. Thou shalt rouse thee like a warrior and shout so that all evil-doers may be cut off; and thou shalt be hallowed by them that know the Shophar's blast, O holy One.

Reader and Cong. O King, thou rememberest the sacrifice of the ram that was caught by its horns unto the people that sound the horn before thee this day, O thou awful and holy God!

To Him who is feared a Crown will I bring,
Thrice Holy each day acclaim Him my King;
At altars, ye mighty, proclaim loud His praise,
And multitudes too may whisper His lays.
Ye angels, ye men, whose good deeds He records—
Sing, He is One, He is good, our yoke is the Lord's!
Praise Him trembling to-day, His mercy is wide—
Ye who fear for His wrath—it doth not abide!

On Sunday:

Reader. צִמְחֵיהֶם יִרְבּוּ כַּחוֹל אֵין מִסְפָּר. צִבְרֵיהֶם
יְעוֹרְרוּ וַיַּעֲלוּ מֵעָפָר.

Cong. כְּנִשּׁוּא נֵס הָרִים תִּרְאוּ וְכִתְקוֹעַ שׁוֹפָר:

Reader and Cong. שֶׁבַח מְגַדֵּל עוֹ שֵׁם הַנָּדוֹל. נֶצַח בְּתִתּוֹ לַמַּלְכּוֹ
עוֹ וּמְנַדֵּל. בְּיוֹם הַהוּא יִתָּקַע בְּשׁוֹפָר נָדוֹל. קָדוֹשׁ:

My Maker's justice I will praise this day,
Ordained of yore, each human deed to weigh.
Supreme in strength, enthroned upon His height;
Yet mild is He according to His might.
The Lord, all worlds were formed at his behest:
Lo! who resisteth him and findeth rest?
The pious noes are ever in His thought;
The orphan's judgment by His grace is wrought.
He that is pure, enthroned on heights sublime,
Made all things beautiful in their due time.
Though He be mighty, He will not despise
The lowly spirit, vile in its own eyes.
He rides the heav'ns, His glory we acclaim:
Light is before Him, fire and flash of flame.
With whetted blade He carveth out redress,
The widowed righting and the fatherless.
He rendereth according to the deed;
He formed the mouth, the dumb His will decreed.
He in compassion doth the All possess:
The high God brings the high to lowliness.
A gracious Judge to creatures of the sod,
His work is perfect: lo! the faithful God.
The earthly judges are as nought; with dread
Of Him they are amazed, discomfited.
He is His people's Judge: O may it be
That o'er His anger, grace gain mastery.
The rulers, they that weigh with deepest thought,
Are sore afraid, though they His judgment wrought.
No secret thing is hidden from the sight
Of Him that dwelleth o'er the loftiest height.
Watchful of all things brought to birth is He;
He probes the issues of futurity.
He called the generations forth of old
To search the inmost thoughts of each heart did hold.
The first Sires' covenant remembering still,
Unto their seed His oath will He fulfil.

Reader and Cong. He judgeth the world in righteousness and the peoples in equity, the holy God.

On Sunday:

awake and rise from the dust. Cong. When the ensign is lifted up ye shall see and when the horn is blown.

Reader and Cong. A glorious tower of strength shall his great Name be on the day when he shall grant victory to his king with strength and security. On that day shall a great trumpet be blown, O thou most Holy.

Reader and Cong. O Lord, if we lack good deeds, let thy great Name plead for us, and enter not into judgment with us, O holy One.

Reader and Cong. Behold he putteth not trust in his saints, and his flashing angels he chargeth with folly. How then shall his creatures formed of clay be justified before the holy One?

And thus He was King in Jeshurun.

King, Most High,
Mighty and exalted,
Head of all the highest,
All He saith is done;
Tower of strength to trust in,
Lofty and uplifting,
Setting Kings upon a throne—
He shall reign for ever and aye.

King, Most High,
Mighty 'mid His marvels,
Calling to the ages,
Showing secret things;
He whose words are stainless
Knoweth how to number
Stars upon their journeyings—
He shall reign for ever and aye.

King, Most High,
Praised by all the living,
Doing all He willeth,
Giving all men grace;
Giving life to all things,
Hidden from all vision,
But His eyes seek every place—
He shall reign for ever and aye.

King, Most High,
Guarding the forgotten,
Searching to the inmost
With unclosing eyes.
Thoughts He layeth open,
He is God of spirits,
And His every word is wise—
He shall reign for ever and aye.

King, Most High,
Pure where He abideth,
Rumoured 'mid His angels,
None can work as He;
None can work His wonders—
Making sand the borders
Round the raging of his sea—
He shall reign for ever and aye.

King, Most High,
Gathering in His waters,
Quieting His breakers,
Bidding tempests roar;
Stilling them in triumph,
Lest the world be swallowed:
Back they turn and are no more—
He shall reign for ever and aye.

King, Most High,
Governing, Almighty,
Walking in the whirlwind,
Clad in radiance wide,
Making night like morning,
Darkness is His covert,
Yet with Him doth light abide—
He shall reign for ever and aye.

King, Most High,
Clouds He hath to hide Him,
Flames fly round about Him,
Cherubim uphold;
Sparks perform His service,
Stars and constellations
Make His praises manifold—
He shall reign for ever and aye.

King, Most High,
He with hand wide open
Binds and frees the waters;
O'er the thirsty ways
Sends His wealth of showers.
Day to day declareth,
Uttering His wondrous praise—
He shall reign for ever and aye.

King, Most High,
Holy and tremendous,
In His fear and wonder
Measured He the earth,
Set its stone foundations.
All things e'er created
For His praise He gave them birth—
He shall reign for ever and aye.

King, Most High,
Heark'ning to the needy,
Hearing supplication,
Making mercy long,
Making short his anger;
First of all beginning,
Last of all His passing throng—
He shall reign for ever and aye.

* * * * * *

King on earth,
Perishing, descending
To the grave and lower,
Weary and he cannot rest—
How long shall this one reign?

King on earth,
Sleep shall overcome him,
Slumber steal upon him,
Over him the void is prest—
How long shall this one reign?

* * * * * *

King, Most High,
Faithful Judge for ever,
True is all He worketh,
Doing only Truth,
Only truth and mercy,
True is all His pathway,
And His seal is Truth—
He shall reign for ever and aye.

Reader. And thus, all shall acclaim sovereignty unto thee:

Unto God who ordereth judgment:
Who searcheth hearts on the day of judgment;
Who revealeth deep things in judgment:
Who ordaineth righteousness on the day of judgment;
Who uttereth knowledge in judgment:
Who is perfect, and sheweth mercy on the day of judgment;
Who remembereth his covenant in judgment:
Who hath compassion upon his handiwork on the day of judgment;
Who purifieth them that trust in him in judgment:
Who divineth men's thoughts on the day of judgment;
Who restraineth his indignation in judgment:
Who is clothed in charity on the day of judgment;
Who pardoneth iniquities in judgment:
Who is terrible in praises on the day of judgment;
Who forgiveth the people borne up by him in judgment:
Who answereth his suppliants on the day of judgment;
Who sheweth his mercy in judgment:
Who looketh on secret things on the day of judgment;
Who possesseth his servants in judgment:
Who hath compassion upon his people on the day of judgment;
Who preserveth them that love him in judgment:
Who supporteth his perfect ones on the day of judgment.

in Zion? Speedily, in our days, do thou dwell there for ever and ever. Mayest thou be magnified and sanctified in the midst of Jerusalem, thy City, throughout all generations and to all eternity. And let our eyes behold thy Kingdom, according to the word spoken in the songs of thy might by the hand of David thy righteous anointed:

Cong. and Reader. The Lord shall reign for ever, thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the Lord.

Reader. Unto all generations we will declare thy greatness, and to all eternity we will proclaim thy holiness; and thy praise, O our God, shall not depart from our mouth for ever; for thou art a great and holy God and King.

Now therefore, O Lord our God, impose thine awe upon all thy works and thy dread over all that thou hast created, that all thy works may fear thee and all creatures prostrate themselves before thee, that they may all form one band, to do thy will with a perfect heart: even as we know, O Lord, our God, that dominion is thine, strength is in thy hand, and might in thy right hand, and that thy Name is awful over all that thou hast created.

And therefore, O Lord, give glory unto thy people, praise to them that fear thee, hope to them that seek thee, confidence to them that wait for thee, joy to thy land, gladness to thy City, a flourishing horn unto David thy servant, and a constant light unto the son of Jesse, thine anointed, speedily in our days.

Then shall the just see and be glad, the upright shall exult, the pious shall rejoice in song, and iniquity shall close her mouth, and all wickedness shall be wholly consumed like smoke, when thou makest the dominion of arrogance to pass away from the earth.

And thou, O Lord, shalt reign, thou alone, over all thy works on Mount Zion, the dwelling-place of thy glory, and in Jerusalem, thy holy City; as it is written in thy holy words, The Lord shall reign for ever, thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the Lord.

Holy art thou, and awful is thy Name, and there is no God beside thee; as it is written, And the Lord of hosts is exalted in judgment and the holy God is sanctified in righteousness. Blessed art thou, O Lord, the holy King.

Thou hast chosen us from all peoples; thou hast loved us and taken pleasure in us, and hast exalted us above all tongues. Thou hast sanctified us by thy commandments, and hast drawn us near, O our King, unto thy service, and hast called us by thy great and holy Name.

And thou hast given us in love, O Lord our God, this day of Memorial, a day of blowing the horn: a holy convocation —a memorial of the departure from Egypt.

Our God and God of our fathers, may our remembrance and our name, and the remembrance of our fathers, the remembrance of Messiah the son of David, the remembrance of Jerusalem thy holy City, and the remembrance of all thy people the house of Israel, rise and go up, approach to thy presence and find grace; may it be heard, visited, and remembered, for deliverance and for good, for grace, loving-kindness and mercy, for life and for peace on this Day of Memorial. Remember us, O Lord our God, thereon for good; visit us with a blessing, and save us unto life. And with thy word of salvation and mercy, spare us and be gracious unto us; have mercy upon us and save us; for unto thee our eyes are turned, for thou art a gracious and merciful God and King.

Our God and God of our fathers, reign over the whole Universe in thy glory, and in thy splendour be exalted over all the earth. Shine forth in the majesty of thy triumphant

Sanctify us by thy commandments and great our portion be in thy Law; satisfy us with thy goodness, and gladden us with thy salvation, and purify our hearts to serve thee in truth; for thou, O God, art truth, and thy word is truth and endureth for ever. Blessed art thou, O Lord, thou King over all the earth, who sanctifiest Israel and the Day of Memorial.

Accept, O Lord our God, thy people Israel and their prayer; restore the service to the innermost part of thine house; receive in love and favour the fire-offerings of Israel and their prayer; and may the service of thy people Israel be ever acceptable to thee. And let our eyes behold thy return in mercy to Zion. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who restorest thy divine presence unto Zion.

We make acknowledgment unto thee, that thou art the Lord our God and the God of our fathers for ever and ever; thou art the Rock of our lives, the Shield of our salvation through every generation. We will give thanks unto thee and declare thy praise for our lives which are delivered into thy hand, and for our souls which are committed unto thy charge, and for thy miracles which are with us every day, and for thy wondrous benefits which are with us at all times, even, morn and noon. Thou art the Beneficent One, for thy mercies never fail; thou art the Merciful One, for thy kindnesses never cease. We have ever hoped in thee.

holy Name, because thou hast kept us alive and supported us. So continue to keep us alive and support us; and gather our exiles to thy holy courts to observe thy statutes, to perform thy will and to serve thee with a perfect heart; for this we give thanks unto thee. Blessed be God to whom thanksgivings belong.

And for all these things, O our King, thy Name shall be continually blessed and exalted for ever and ever.

Cong. and Reader. And inscribe all the children of thy covenant for a happy life.

And every one that liveth shall give thanks unto thee, Selah; and shall praise thy Name in truth. God, our salvation and help, Selah. Blessed art thou, O Lord, whose Name is the Beneficent One, and unto whom it is becoming to give thanks.

Our God and God of our fathers, bless us with the threefold blessing in the Law, written by the hand of thy servant Moses, and uttered by the mouth of Aaron and his sons, the priests, thy holy people, as it is said: The Lord bless thee and keep thee.

Cong. May this be his will.
The Lord make his face to shine upon thee and be gracious unto thee.

Cong. May this be his will.
The Lord incline his countenance unto thee, and give thee peace.

Cong. May this be his will.

Grant peace, welfare, blessing, grace, loving-kindness and mercy unto us and unto all Israel, thy people. Bless us, O our Father, yea, all of us together, with the light of thy countenance; for by the light of thy countenance thou hast given unto us, O Lord our God, the Law of life, loving-kindness and righteousness, blessing, mercy, life and peace. And may it be good in thy sight to bless thy people Israel at all times and in every hour with thy peace.

Cong. and Reader. In the book of life, blessing, peace and good sustenance may we be remembered and inscribed

Our Father, our King, we have sinned before thee.

Our Father, our King, we have no king beside thee.

Our Father, our King, deal with us according to thy Name.

Our Father, our King, renew unto us a happy year.

Our Father, our King, annul every severe decree concerning us.

Our Father, our King, annul the designs of those who hate us.

Our Father, our King, frustrate the counsel of our enemies.

Our Father, our King, cause every oppressor and adversary to vanish from us.

Our Father, our King, stay the mouths of our adversaries and of those who accuse us.

Our Father, our King, remove pestilence, sword, famine, captivity destruction and plague from the children of thy covenant.

Our Father, our King, hold back the plague from thine heritage.

Our Father, our King, forgive and pardon all our iniquities.

Our Father, our King, blot out, and cause our transgressions and sins to pass away from before thine eyes.

Our Father, our King, efface in thine abundant mercy all records of our guilt.

Our Father, our King, cause us to return unto thee in perfect repentance.

Our Father, our King, send perfect healing to the sick of thy people.

Our Father, our King, repeal the evil sentence of our judgment.

The following verse is said silently:

Our Father, our King, be thou gracious unto us and answer us; for lo! we are destitute of works; deal thou with us in charity and loving-kindness, and save us.

The Ark is Closed.

Magnified and sanctified be his great Name in the world which he hath created according to his will. May he establish his kingdom in your life-time and in your days, and in the life-time of all the house of Israel, speedily and at a near time; and say ye, Amen.

Cong. Let his great Name be blessed for ever and ever.

Blessed, praised and glorified, exalted, extolled and honoured, adored and lauded be the Name of the Holy One, blessed be he, beyond, yea, beyond all blessings and hymns, praises and songs, which are uttered in the world; and say ye, Amen.

May the prayers and supplications of the whole house of Israel be accepted in the presence of their Father who is in heaven; and say ye, Amen.

May there be abundant peace from heaven, and life for us and for all Israel; and say ye, Amen.

May he who maketh peace in his high places, make peace for us and for all Israel; and say ye, Amen.

READING OF THE LAW FOR THE SECOND DAY

There is none like unto thee among the gods, O Lord; neither are there any works like unto thy works. Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations. The Lord reigneth: the Lord hath reigned: the Lord will reign for ever and ever. The Lord will give strength unto his people; the Lord will bless his people with peace.

Father of compassion, do good in thy favour unto Zion; build thou the walls of Jerusalem. For in thee alone do we put our trust, O King, high and exalted God, Lord of worlds.

The Ark is opened.

And it came to pass, when the ark set forward, that Moses said: Rise up, O Lord, and let thine enemies be scattered, and let them that hate thee flee before thee. For out of Zion shall go forth the Law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

The Lord, the Lord, a God full of compassion and gracious, slow to anger, and abundant in goodness and truth; keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity, transgression and sin; and acquitting.

This is said thrice.

Lord of the Universe, fulfil the wishes of our hearts for good, yield our desire and grant us our petition; pardon all our iniquities and the iniquities of all our household, with the pardon of loving-kindness and the pardon of mercy. Purify us from all our sins, our iniquities and transgressions, and remember us with a good remembrance from before thee, visit us with the visitation of salvation and compassion, and remember us for a long and happy life, for peace, for sustenance and support. Give us

And as for me, my prayer be unto thee, O Lord, in an acceptable time; O God, in the multitude of thy mercy, answer me in the truth of thy salvation.

The last verse is said three times.

Reader. Blessed be he who in his holiness hath given the Law unto his people Israel.

Two Scrolls of the Law are taken from the Ark.

Reader and Cong. Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is One.

Reader and Cong. One is our God; great is our Lord: holy and terrible is his Name.

Reader. Magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his Name together.

Cong. Thine, O Lord, are greatness and power, glory, victory and majesty; for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine: thine is sovereignty, O Lord, and pre-eminence supreme. Exalt ye the Lord our God and worship at his footstool: holy is he. Exalt ye the Lord our God, and worship at his holy mount; for the Lord our God is holy.

For silent prayer:

Magnified and sanctified, praised and glorified, exalted and extolled above all be the Name of the Supreme King of kings, the Holy One, blessed be he, in the worlds he hath created, this world and the world to come, in accordance with his will and the will of them that fear him, and of all the house of Israel. He is the everlasting Rock, the Lord of all creatures, the God of all souls: who dwelleth in the wide extended heights, who inhabiteth the heaven of heavens of old: whose holiness is above the Chayoth and above the throne of glory. Therefore thy Name, O Lord our God, shall be hallowed among us in the sight of all living. And we will sing a new song before him, as it is written, Sing unto God, sing praises unto his Name; extol him that rideth upon the heavens, whose name is Jah, and rejoice before him. And may we see him eye to eye, when he returneth to his habitation, as it is written: For they shall see eye to eye, when the Lord returneth unto Zion. And it is said: And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

Reader. May the Father of compassion have mercy upon a people that have been borne aloft by him. May he remember the covenant with the patriarchs; may he deliver our souls from evil hours, curb the evil inclination in them that have been carried by him, and graciously grant us an everlasting deliverance, and fulfil our desires in the measure of his goodness, salvation and mercy.

The Scroll being placed upon the reading-desk, the Reader says:

And may he help, shield and save all who trust in him; and let us say, Amen. Ascribe ye all greatness unto our God, and render honour to the Law. Stand forth—

The Reader here names the person who is first called to the reading of the Law.

Blessed be he, who in his holiness hath given the Law unto his people Israel. The Law of the Lord is perfect, restoring the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple. The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes. The Lord will give strength unto his people; the Lord will bless his people with peace. As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the Lord is tried; he is a shield unto all that trust in him.

Cong. and Reader. And ye that cleave unto the Lord your God are alive every one of you this day.

Each person who is called to the reading of the Law says the following blessing:

בָּרְכוּ אֶת יְיָ הַמְבֹרָךְ׃

Congregation:

בָּרוּךְ יְיָ הַמְבֹרָךְ לְעוֹלָם וָעֶד׃

He repeats the response of the Congregation, and continues:

After the reading of a Section of the Law, he says the following blessing:

Bless ye the Lord, who is blessed.

Congregation:

Blessed be the Lord, who is blessed for ever and evermore.

He repeats the response of the Congregation, and continues:

Blessed art thou, O Lord, our God, King of the Universe who hast chosen us from all peoples, and hast given us thy Law. Blessed art thou, O Lord, giver of the Law.

After the reading of a section of the Law, he says the following blessing:

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who hast given us the Law of truth, and hast planted everlasting life in our midst. Blessed art thou, O Lord, giver of the Law.

Genesis, Cap. xxii.

And it came to pass after these things, that God did prove Abraham, and said unto him, Abraham; and he said, Here am I. And he said, Take now thy son, thine only son, whom thou lovest, even Isaac, and get thee into the land of Moriah; and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of. And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son: and he clave the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him. On the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off. And Abraham said unto his young men, Abide ye here with the ass, and I and the lad will go yonder: and we will worship, and come again to you. And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering, and laid it upon Isaac his son; and he took in his hand the fire and the knife; and they went both of them together. And Isaac spake unto Abraham, his father, and said, My father; and he said, Here am I, my son: and he said, Behold, the fire and wood, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering? And Abraham said, God will provide himself the lamb for a burnt offering, my son: so they went both of them together. And they came to the place which God had told him of; and Abraham built the altar there and laid the wood in order, and bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood. And Abraham stretched forth his hand and took the knife to slay his son. And the angel of the Lord called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham: and he said, Here am I. And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou anything unto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from me. And Abraham lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, behind him a ram caught in the thicket by his horns: and Abraham went and took the ram and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son. And Abraham called the name of that place, The Lord will see: as it is said to this day, In the mount of the Lord it shall be seen. And the angel of the Lord called unto Abraham a second time out of heaven. And he said, By myself have I sworn, saith the Lord: because thou hast done this thing and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son, that I will surely bless thee, and I will surely multiply thy seed as the stars of heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea-shore: and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies. And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice. So Abraham returned unto his young men, and they rose up and went together to Beer-sheba: and Abraham dwelt at Beer-sheba.

And it came to pass after these things, that it was told Abraham, saying, Behold, Milcah, she also hath borne children unto thy brother Nahor. Uz his first born, and Buz his brother, and Kemuel the father of Aaron, and Chesed and Hozo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and Bethuel. And Bethuel begat Rebekah: these eight did Milcah bear to Nahor, Abraham's brother. And his concubine, whose name was Reumah, she also bare Tebah, and Gaham and Tahash, and Maacah.

Both Scrolls being placed upon the Desk, the Reader says:

Magnified and sanctified be his great Name in the world which he hath created according to his will. May he establish his kingdom in your life-time and in your days, and in the life-time of all the house of Israel, speedily and at a near time; and say ye, Amen.

Cong. Let his great Name be blessed for ever and ever.

Blessed, praised and glorified, exalted, extolled and honoured, adored and lauded be the Name of the Holy One, blessed be he, beyond, yea, beyond all blessings and hymns, praises and songs, which are uttered in the world; and say ye, Amen.

The first Scroll is then held up, and the Congregation say:

And this is the Law which Moses set before the children of Israel, according to the command of the Lord by the hand of Moses. It is a tree of life to them that lay hold of it, and happy is every one that retaineth it. Its ways are ways of pleasantness, and all its paths are peace. Length of days is in its right hand; in its left hand are riches and honour. It pleased the Lord for the sake of his righteousness to magnify the Law and to make it honourable.

The following section is then read from the second Scroll:

Numbers xxix. 1-6.

And in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work: it shall be a day of blowing of trumpets unto you. And ye shall offer a burnt offering for a sweet savour unto the Lord: one young bullock, one ram, seven he-lambs of the first year without blemish: and their meal-offering, fine flour mingled with oil: three tenth parts for the bullock, two tenth parts for the ram, and one tenth part for every lamb of the seven lambs: and one he-goat for a sin-offering to make atonement for you: beside the burnt offering of the new moon, and the meal-offering thereof, and the continual burnt offerings and the meal-offering thereof, and their drink-offering according unto their ordinance: for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

The second Scroll is held up, and the Congregation say:

And this is the Law.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who hast chosen good prophets, and hast found pleasure in their words, which were spoken in truth. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who hast chosen the Law and Moses thy servant, and prophets of truth and righteousness.

Jeremiah, xxxi. 2-20.

Thus saith the Lord, The people which were left of the sword found grace in the wilderness: even Israel when I went to cause him to rest. The Lord appeared of old unto me: saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love; therefore with loving-kindness have I drawn thee. Again will I build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel: again shalt thou be adorned with thy tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry. Again shalt thou plant vineyards upon the mountains of Samaria: the planters shall plant, and shall enjoy the fruit thereof. For there shall be a day that the watchmen upon the hills of Ephraim shall cry: Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the Lord our God. For thus saith the Lord, Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout for the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O Lord, save thy people, the remnant of Israel. Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the uttermost parts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child, and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall they return hither. They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them; I will cause them to walk by rivers of waters, in a straight way wherein they shall not stumble: for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn. Hear the word of the Lord, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him as a shepherd doth his flock. For the Lord hath ransomed Jacob, and redeemed him from the hand of him that was stronger than he. And they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow together unto the goodness of the Lord, for corn, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock, and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all. Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, and the young men and the old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow. And I will satiate the soul of the priests with sap: and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness saith the Lord. Thus saith the Lord, A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping: Rachel weeping for her children: she refuseth to be comforted for her children, because they are not. Thus saith the Lord, Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the Lord; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy. And there is hope for thy latter end, saith the Lord: and thy children shall come again to their own border. I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus, Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a calf unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned, for thou art the Lord my God. Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth. Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? For as often as I speak against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my heart yearneth towards him; I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the Lord.

Faithful art thou, O Lord our God, and faithful are thy words, and not one of thy words shall return void; for thou art a faithful and merciful God and King. Blessed art thou, O Lord God, who art faithful in all thy words.

Have mercy upon Zion, for it is the home of our life, and save her that is grieved in spirit speedily, in our days. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who causest Zion to rejoice in her children.

Make us to rejoice, O Lord our God, in Elijah the prophet, thy servant, and in the kingdom of the house of David, thine anointed. Soon may he come and gladden our hearts. Suffer not a stranger to sit upon his throne, nor let others any longer inherit his glory; for by thy holy Name thou didst swear unto him, that his lamp should not be quenched for ever. Blessed art thou, O Lord, the Shield of David.

For the Law and for the Service and for the prophets, and for this Day of Memorial, which thou, O Lord our God, hast given us for honour and for glory; for all these O Lord our God, we thank and bless thee. Blessed be thy Name by the mouth of every living being continually and for evermore. Thy word is truth and endureth for ever. Blessed art thou, O Lord, King over all the earth, who sanctifiest Israel and the Day of Memorial.

PRAYER BEFORE THE SOUNDING OF THE SHOPHAR

Psalm xlvii. To the Chief Musician: A Psalm of the Sons of Korah.

All ye peoples clap your hands; shout unto God with a voice of triumph. For the Lord most high is terrible; he is a great King over all the earth. He subdueth the peoples under us, and the nations under our feet. He chooseth our inheritance for us, the excellency of Jacob whom he loved. Selah. God is gone up with a shout, the Lord with the sound of the trumpet. Sing praises to God, sing praises; sing praises unto our King, sing praises. For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding. God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon the throne of his holiness. The princes of the people are gathered together, even the people of the God of Abraham; for the shields of the earth belong unto God: he is greatly exalted.

Sovereign of the Universe! Thou hast commanded us in thy holy Law to sound the horn in thy presence on this Day of Memorial, as it is written, "And in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, ye shall have a holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work; it shall be a day of blowing the horn unto you." And in thy Holy Words it is written, saying, "Blow ye the trumpet on the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast-day. For it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob." And it is written, "Happy is the people that knoweth the sound of the trumpet; in the light of thy countenance, O Lord, shall they walk. In thy Name shall they rejoice all the day, and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted. For thou art the glory of their strength, and in thy favour shall our horn be exalted."

And now may it be thy gracious will, O Lord our God and the God of our fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob, that this hour may be an hour of mercy and a time of favour before thee. Remember us with favour and loving-kindness, even as it is written in thy Law, "They shall be a memorial for you before your God." And it is written, "And ye shall be remembered before the Lord your God, and ye shall be saved from your enemies." Grant, O Lord, that there may be an end to every oppressor and adversary. Help us, O God of our salvation, to subdue our stubbornness and to bend our will that it may become subservient to thee, that we may ever perform thy will with love. O remember us on this Day of Memorial to vouchsafe unto us a life of happiness and of peace. Exalt the horn of thy people Israel and reign thou over us in mercy. Blessed art thou, O God of mercy.

Blessed are thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who hast sanctified us by thy commandments and commanded us to hear the sound of the Shophar.

Blessed are thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who has kept us in life, and hast preserved us, and enabled us to reach this season.

Happy is the people that knoweth the sound of the trumpet in the light of thy countenance, O Lord, shall they walk.

Happy are they that dwell in thy house; they will be ever praising thee. Selah. Happy is the people that is in such a case; happy is the people whose God is the Lord.

Psalm cxlv. A Psalm of Praise of David.

I will extol thee, my God, O King; and I will bless thy Name for ever and ever. Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy Name for ever and ever. Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable. One generation shall laud thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts. Of the glorious honour of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous works, will I speak. And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts: and I will declare thy greatness. They shall utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness. The Lord is gracious and full of compassion; slow to anger and of great mercy. The Lord is good to all; and his tender mercies are over all his works. All thy works shall give thanks unto thee, O Lord; and thy pious servants shall bless thee. They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power; to make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glory of the majesty of his kingdom. Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations. The Lord upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down. The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat in due season. Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing. The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and merciful in all his works. The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth. He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him; he also will hear their cry, and will save them. The Lord preserveth all them that love him; but all the wicked will he destroy. My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord; and let all flesh bless his holy Name for ever and ever.

And as for us, we will bless the Lord from this time forth, and for evermore. Praise ye the Lord.

The Ark is opened.

Reader. Let them praise the Name of the Lord: for his Name alone is exalted;

Cong. His glory is above the earth and heaven. He also hath lifted up the horn of his people, the praise of all his saints, even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him. Praise ye the Lord.

Psalm xxiv. A Psalm of David.

The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein. For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods. Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully. He shall receive a blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation. This is the generation of them that seek Him, that seek Thy face; O Jacob. Selah. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah.

As the Scrolls are placed in the Ark, the following is said:

And when it rested, he said, Return, O Lord, unto the many thousands of Israel. Arise, O Lord, unto thy resting-place; thou, and the ark of thy strength. Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; and let thy pious ones shout for joy. For the sake of David thy servant, turn not away the face of thine anointed. For I give you good doctrine; forsake ye not my Law. It is a tree of life to them that lay hold of it, and happy is every one that retaineth it. Its ways are ways of pleasantness, and all its paths are peace. Turn thou us unto thee, O Lord, and we shall be turned; renew our days as of old.

ADDITIONAL SERVICE FOR THE SECOND DAY

Reader. Magnified and sanctified be his great Name in the world he hath created according to his will. May he establish his kingdom in your life-time and in your days, and in the life-time of all the house of Israel, speedily and at a near time; and say ye, Amen.

Cong. and Reader. Let his great Name be blessed for ever and ever.

Reader. Blessed, praised and glorified, exalted, extolled and honoured, adored and lauded be the Name of the Holy One, blessed be he, beyond, yea, beyond all blessings and hymns, praises and songs, which are uttered in the world; and say ye, Amen.

The Amidah until in ancient years, on page 237, is said standing and in silence.

O Lord, open thou my lips, and my mouth shall declare thy praise.

Blessed art thou, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, God of Abraham, God of Isaac and God of Jacob, O great, mighty and awful God, most high God, who bestowest gracious favors and who possessest all things, who remememberest the piety of the patriarchs, and who in love wilt bring a redeemer to their children's children, for the sake of thy Name. in life, and inscribe us in the book of life, for thine own sake, O living God. O King, Helper, Saviour and Shield; blessed art thou, O Lord, the Shield of Abraham.

Thou art mighty for ever, O Lord; it is thou who quickenest the dead and art mighty to save. Thou sustainest the living with loving-kindness, quickenest the dead with great mercy, supportest the falling and healest the sick, loosest the bound, and keepest thy faith unto them that sleep in the dust. Who is like unto thee, Lord of mighty acts, and who can be compared unto thee, O King, who killest and restorest to life and causest salvation to spring forth? Who is like unto thee, Father of mercy, who in mercy rememberest thy creatures unto life? And faithful art thou to quicken the dead. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who quickenest the dead.

Thou art holy and thy Name is holy, and holy beings praise thee daily. Selah.

Now therefore, O Lord our God, impose thine awe upon all thy works and thy dread over all that thou hast created, that all thy works may fear thee and all creatures prostrate themselves before thee, that they may all form one band to do thy will with a perfect heart: even as we know, O Lord our God, that dominion is thine, strength is in thy hand, and might in thy right hand, and that thy Name is awful over all that thou hast created.

And therefore, O Lord, give glory unto thy people, praise to them that fear thee, hope to them that seek thee, confidence to them that wait for thee, joy to thy land, gladness to thy City, a flourishing horn unto David thy servant, and a constant light unto the son of Jesse, thine anointed, speedily in our days.

Then shall the just see and be glad, the upright shall exult, the pious shall rejoice in song, and iniquity shall close her mouth, and all wickedness shall be wholly con-

And thou, O Lord, shalt reign, thou alone, over all thy works on Mount Zion, the dwelling-place of thy glory, and in Jerusalem, thy holy City; as it is written in thy holy words, The Lord shall reign for ever, thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the Lord.

Holy art thou, and awful is thy Name, and there is no God beside thee; as it is written, And the Lord of hosts is exalted in judgment and the holy God is sanctified in righteousness. Blessed art thou, O Lord, the holy King.

Thou hast chosen us from all peoples; thou hast loved us and taken pleasure in us, and hast exalted us above all tongues. Thou hast sanctified us by thy commandments, and hast drawn us near, O our King, unto thy service, and hast called us by thy great and holy Name.

And thou has given us in love, O Lord our God, this Day of Memorial, a day of blowing the horn: a holy convocation, a memorial of the departure from Egypt.

But because of our sins we have been exiled from our land and removed far away from our country, and we are unable to perform our duties in the house of thy choice, the great and holy house called by thy Name, because of the hand that hath been stretched out against thy sanctuary.

May it be thy will, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, merciful King, again in thine abundant mercy to have compassion upon us and upon thy sanctuary; O speedily rebuild it and magnify its glory. Our Father, our King, reveal the glory of thy Kingdom unto us speedily, and shine forth and exalt thyself over us in the sight of all living. Bring together our scattered ones from among the nations, and gather our dispersed from the uttermost parts of the earth. Lead us in triumph unto Zion thy City, and unto Jerusalem, the place of thy sanctuary, with everlasting joy; and there we will prepare before thee the offerings enjoined on us, the continual offerings according to their order, and the additional offerings according to their ordinance; and the additional offering of this Day of Memorial will we prepare and offer unto thee in love according to the commandment of thy will, as thou hast prescribed for us in thy Law, through the hand of thy servant Moses, by thy glorious command, as it is said:

And in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work: it shall be a day of blowing the horn unto you. And ye shall offer a burnt offering for a sweet savour unto the Lord: one young bullock, one ram, seven he-lambs of the first year without blemish.

And their meat-offering and their drink-offering as ordained; three tenth parts for the bullock, two tenth parts for the ram, and one tenth part for each lamb, and wine according to the drink-offering thereof, and two he-goats wherewith to make atonement, and the two continual offerings according to their ordinance: besides the burnt offering of the new moon, and the meal-offering thereof, and the continual burnt offering and the meal-offering thereof, and their drink-offerings according to their ordinance: for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

It behoveth us to praise the Lord of all, to ascribe greatness to him who formed the world in the beginning; that he hath not made us like the nations of other lands, and hath not placed us like other families of the earth, that he hath not given unto us a portion as unto them, nor a lot as unto all their multitude; for we bend the knee and prostrate ourselves and make acknowledgment before the supreme King of kings, the Holy One, blessed be he, who stretched forth the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth, the abode of whose glory is in the heavens above, and the dwelling of whose majesty is upon the loftiest heights. He is our God, there is none else: in truth he is our king, there is none beside him, as it is written in his Law, Know therefore this day, and lay it to thine heart, that the Lord he is God in heaven above and upon the earth beneath, there is none else.

Therefore we hope in thee, O Lord our God, that we may speedily behold the glory of thy might, when thou wilt remove the abominations from the earth, and the idols shall be utterly cut off; when the world shall be set under the kingdom of the Almighty, and all the children of flesh shall call upon thy Name, when thou wilt turn unto thyself all the wicked of the earth. All the inhabitants of the world shall know and acknowledge that unto thee every knee must bend, every tongue must swear. Before thee, O Lord our God, shall they kneel and fall, and they shall give honour unto thy glorious Name; they shall all accept the yoke of thy kingdom, and over them thou wilt speedily reign for ever and ever. For the Kingdom is thine, and to all eternity wilt thou reign in glory, as it is written in thy Law, The Lord shall reign for ever and ever.

And it is said, He hath not beheld iniquity in Jacob, neither hath he seen perverseness in Israel: the Lord his God is with him, and the shout of a King is among them. And it is said, And he was King of Jeshurun, when the heads of the people were gathered, the tribes of Israel together. And in thy Holy Words it is written, saying, For sovereignty is the Lord's: and he is the ruler over the nations. And it is said, The Lord reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the Lord is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself; the world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved. And it is said, Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah. And by the hands of thy servants, the prophets, it is written, saying, Thus saith the Lord, the King of Israel and his Redeemer, the Lord of hosts: I am the first and I am the last; and beside me there is no God.

And it is said, And saviours shall come up on Mount Zion to judge the Mount of Esau, and sovereignty shall be the Lord's. And it is said, And the Lord shall be King over all the earth; in that day shall the Lord be One and his Name One. And in thy Law it is written, saying, Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is One.

Our God and God of our fathers, reign over the whole Universe in thy glory, and in thy splendour be exalted over all the earth. Shine forth in the majesty of thy triumphant strength over all the inhabitants of thy world, that every form may know that thou hast formed it, and every creature understand that thou hast created it, and that all that hath breath in its nostrils may say: The Lord God of Israel is King and his dominion ruleth over all. Sanctify us by thy commandments and grant our portion be in thy Law; satisfy us with thy goodness, and gladden us with thy salvation, and purify our hearts to serve thee in truth; for thou, O God, art truth, and thy word is truth and endureth for ever. Blessed art thou, O Lord, thou King over all the earth, who sanctifiest Israel and the Day of Memorial.

Thou rememberest what was wrought from eternity, and art mindful of all that hath been formed from of old: before thee all secrets are revealed and the multitude of hidden things from the beginning; for there is no forgetfulness before the throne of thy glory, nor is there aught hidden from thine eyes. Thou rememberest every deed, and no creature is concealed from thee: all things are manifest and known unto thee, O Lord our God, who lookest and seest to the end of all generations. For thou wilt bring on the appointed time of memorial when every spirit and soul shall be visited, and the multitudinous works be remembered with the countless throngs of thy creatures. From the beginning didst thou make this known, and from aforetime didst thou reveal it. This day, on which was the beginning of thy work, is a memorial of the first day; for it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob. Thereon sentence is pronounced upon countries—which of them is destined to the sword and which to peace, which to famine and which to plenty; and every creature is visited thereon and recorded for life or for death. Who is not visited on such a day as this? For the remembrance of every creature cometh before thee, man's deeds and destiny, his works and ways, the thoughts and designs of man and the workings of his imagination. Happy is the man who forgetteth thee not, and the son of man who strengtheneth himself in thee; for they that seek thee shall never stumble, neither shall they ever be put to shame who trust in thee. For the remembrance of all works cometh before thee, and thou searchest into the doings of them all. Of Noah also thou wast mindful in thy love, and didst visit him with a promise of salvation and mercy, when thou broughtest forth the waters of the flood to destroy all flesh because of their evil deeds. So his remembrance came before thee, O Lord our God, to increase his seed like the dust of the earth, and his offspring like the sand of the sea: as it is written in thy Law, And God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that were with him in the ark; and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters assuaged. And it is said, And God heard their groaning: and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob, and it is said, Then will I remember my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember the land. And in thy Holy Words it is written, saying, He hath made a memorial for his wondrous works: the Lord is gracious and full of compassion. And it is said, He hath given meat unto them that fear him: he will ever be mindful of his covenant. And it is said, And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. And by the hands of thy servants, the prophets, it is written saying, Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I remember for thee the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals: how thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown. And it is said, Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth: and I will establish unto thee an everlasting covenant. And it is said, Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? For as often as I speak against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my heart yearneth towards him; I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the Lord.

Our God and God of our fathers, let us be remembered by thee for good, and visit us with a visitation of salvation and mercy from the heavens, the heavens of old, and remember unto us, O Lord our God, the covenant and the loving-kindness and the oath which thou swarest unto Abraham our father on Mount Moriah: and may the binding with which Abraham our father bound his son Isaac on the altar appear before thee, how he suppressed his compassion in order to perform thy will with a perfect heart. So may thy compassion soften thine anger against us; in thy great goodness may the fierceness of thy wrath turn aside from thy people, thy City and thine inheritance. Fulfil unto us, O Lord our God, the word in which thou hast caused us to trust in thy Law through the hand of thy servant Moses, by thy glorious command, as it is said, And I will, for their sakes, remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their God: I am the Lord. For thou art he who remembereth from eternity all forgotten things, and before the throne of whose glory there is no forgetfulness. O remember the binding of Isaac this day in mercy unto his seed. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who rememberest the covenant.

Thou didst reveal thyself in a cloud of glory unto thy holy people to speak with them. Out of heaven thou didst make them hear thy voice, and wast revealed unto them in clouds of purity. The whole world trembled at thy presence and the works of creation were in awe of thee, when thou didst thus reveal thyself, O our King, upon Mount Sinai to teach thy people Law and commandments, and didst make them hear the majesty of thy voice, and thy holy words out of flames of fire. Amid thunders and lightnings thou didst manifest thyself to them, and while the trumpet sounded thou didst shine forth upon them; as it is written in thy Law, And it came to pass on the third day, when it was morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the sound of the trumpet exceeding loud: and all the people that were in the camp trembled. And it is said, And the sound of the trumpet waxed louder and louder: Moses spake, and God answered him by a voice. And it is said, And all the people perceived the thunderings and the lightnings and the voice of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking: and when the people saw it, they were moved and stood afar off. And in thy Holy Words it is written, saying, God is gone up with a shout: the Lord with the sound of the trumpet. And it is said, With trumpets and sound of the horn make a joyful noise before the King, the Lord. And it is said, Blow ye the trumpet on the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast-day. For it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob. And it is said, Praise ye the Lord; praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power. Praise him for his mighty acts: praise him according to his excellent greatness. Praise him with the sound of the trumpet: praise him with the psalter and harp. Praise him with the timbrel and dance: praise him with stringed instruments and the pipe. Praise him upon the loud cymbals: praise him upon the high-sounding cymbals. Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord; praise ye the Lord. And by the hands of thy servants, the prophets, it is written, saying, All ye inhabitants of the world, and ye dwellers on the earth, when an ensign is lifted up on the mountains, see ye, and when the trumpet is blown, hear ye. And it is said, And it shall come to pass on that day, that a great trumpet shall be blown; and they shall come which were lost in the land of Assyria, and they that were outcasts in the land of Egypt: and they shall worship the Lord in the holy mountain at Jerusalem. And it is said, And the Lord shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord God shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south. The Lord of hosts shall shield them. So be thou a shield over thy people Israel with thy peace.

Our God and God of our fathers, sound the great trumpet for our freedom, lift up the ensign to gather our exiles, bring together our scattered ones from among the nations, and gather our dispersed from the uttermost parts of the earth. Lead us in triumph unto Zion thy City, and unto Jerusalem, the place of thy sanctuary, with everlasting joy; and there will we prepare before thee the offerings enjoined on us, as is commanded us in thy Law through the hand of thy servant Moses, by thy glorious command, as it is said, And in the day of your gladness and in your set feasts, and in the beginnings of your months, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices of your peace-offerings: and they shall be a memorial for you before your God; I am the Lord your God. For thou hearest the sound of the horn, and givest heed to the trumpet-shout, and there is none like unto thee. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who in mercy hearest the voice of the trumpet-shout of thy people Israel.

Accept, O Lord our God, thy people Israel and their prayer; restore the service to the innermost part of thine house; receive in love and favour the fire-offerings of Israel and their prayer; and may the service of thy people Israel be ever acceptable to thee. And let our eyes behold thy return in mercy to Zion. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who restorest thy divine presence unto Zion.

We make acknowledgment unto thee, that thou art the Lord our God and the God of our fathers for ever and ever; thou art the Rock of our lives, the Shield of our salvation through every generation. We will give thanks unto thee and declare thy praise for our lives which are delivered into thy hand, and for our souls which are committed unto thy charge, and for thy miracles which are with us every day, and for thy wondrous benefits which are with us at all times, even, morn and noon. Thou art the Beneficent One, for thy mercies never fail; thou art the Merciful One, for thy kindnesses never cease. We have ever hoped in thee.

And for all these things, O our King, thy Name shall be continually blessed and exalted for ever and ever. And inscribe all the children of thy covenant for a happy life. And every one that liveth shall give thanks unto thee, Selah; and shall praise thy Name in truth, O God, our salvation and help, Selah. Blessed art thou, O Lord, whose Name is the Beneficent One, and unto whom it is becoming to give thanks.

Grant peace, welfare, blessing, grace, loving-kindness and mercy unto us and unto all Israel thy people. Bless us, O our Father, yea, all of us together, with the light of thy countenance; for by the light of thy countenance thou hast given unto us, O Lord our God the Law of life, loving-kindness and righteousness, blessing, mercy, life, and peace; and may it be good in thy sight to bless thy people Israel at all times and in every hour with thy peace. In the book of life, blessing, peace and good sustenance may we be remembered and inscribed before thee, we and all thy people the house of Israel, for a happy life and peace. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who makest peace.

O my God, guard my tongue from evil and my lips from speaking guile; and to such as curse me, let my soul be silent, yea, let my soul be unto all as the dust. Open thou my heart to thy Law, and let my soul pursue thy commandments. And as to any who devise evil against me, speedily make their counsel of none effect and frustrate their designs. Do thou it for the sake of thy Name, do it for the sake of thy right hand, do it for the sake of thy holiness, do it for the sake of thy Law, that thy beloved ones may be delivered. O save with thy right hand and answer me. Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable before thee, O Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer. He who maketh peace in his high places, may he make peace for us and for all Israel, and say ye, Amen. May it be thy will, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, that the temple be speedily rebuilt in our days and grant our portion in thy Law.

And there we will serve thee with awe, as in the days of old and as in ancient years. And the offering of Judah and Jerusalem shall be pleasant unto the Lord, as in the days of old and as in ancient years.

READER'S REPETITION OF THE AMIDAH

The Ark is opened.

Reader. Blessed art thou, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, God of Abraham, God of Isaac and God of Jacob, O great, mighty and awful God, most high God, who bestowest gracious favours and who possessest all things, who rememberest the piety of the patriarchs, and who in love wilt bring a redeemer to their children's children, for the sake of thy Name. Remember us unto life, O King who delightest in life, and inscribe us in the book of life, for thine own sake, O living God. O King, Helper, Saviour and Shield; blessed art thou, O Lord, the Shield of Abraham.

Thou art mighty for ever, O Lord; it is thou who quickenest the dead and art mighty to save. Thou sustainest the living with loving-kindness, quickenest the dead with great mercy, supportest the falling and healest the sick, loosest the bound, and keepest thy faith unto them that sleep in the dust. Who is like unto thee, Lord of mighty acts, and who can be compared unto thee, O King, who killest and restorest to life and causest salvation to spring forth? Who is like unto thee, Father of mercy, who in mercy rememberest thy creatures unto life? And faithful art thou to quicken the dead. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who quickenest the dead.

Reader. And thus may the sanctification ascend unto thee; for thou art our God and King.

Cong. [1] We will celebrate the mighty holiness of this day, for it is one of awe and terror. Thereon is thy dominion exalted and thy throne is established in mercy, and thou sittest thereon in truth. Verily it is thou alone who art judge and arbiter, who knowest and art witness; thou writest down and settest the seal, thou recordest and tellest; yea, thou rememberest the things forgotten. Thou unfoldest the records, and the deeds therein inscribed proclaim themselves; for lo! the seal of every man's hand is set thereto. Reader. The great trumpet is sounded; the still small voice is heard; the angels are dismayed; fear and trembling seize hold of them as they proclaim, Behold the Day of Judgment! The host of heaven is to be arraigned in judgment. For in thine eyes they are not pure; and all who enter the world dost thou cause to pass before thee as a flock of sheep. As a shepherd seeketh out his flock and causeth them to pass beneath his crook, so dost thou cause to pass, and number, tell and visit every living soul, appointing the measure of every creature's life and decreeing their destiny.

On the first day of the year it is inscribed, and on the Day of Atonement the decree is sealed, how many shall pass away and how many shall be born, who shall live and who shall die, who at the measure of man's days and who before it; who shall perish by fire and who by water, who by the sword, who by wild beasts, who by hunger and who by thirst; who by earthquake and who by plague, who by strangling and who by stoning; who shall have rest and who shall go wandering, who shall be tranquil and who shall be harassed, who shall be at ease and who shall be afflicted; who shall become poor and who shall wax rich; who shall be brought low and who shall be upraised.

But Penitence, Prayer and Charity
avert the severe decree.

Cong. For according to thy Name so is thy praise. Thou art slow to anger and ever ready to be reconciled; for thou desirest not the death of the sinner, but that he turn from his way and live. And even until the day of his death thou waitest for him: and if he return thou dost straightway receive him.

Reader. In truth thou art their Creator, who knowest their nature, that they are flesh and blood. As for man, he is from the dust and unto the dust will he return; he getteth his bread with the peril of his life; he is like a fragile potsherd, as the grass that withereth, as the flower that fadeth, as a fleeting shadow, as a passing cloud, as the wind that bloweth, as the floating dust, yea, and as a dream that flieth away.

But thou art the King, the living and everlasting God.

Thy years have no measure nor hath the length of thy days any end. None can conceive the chariots of thy glory, nor fathom the mystery of thy Name. Thy Name befits thee and thou art according to thy Name, and our Name hast thou linked with thine own.

O do it for the sake of thy Name, and sanctify thy Name through them that call it holy; yea, for thy glorious Name's sake, which is reverenced and sanctified by the mystic utterance of the holy Seraphim, who hallow it in the sanctuary, they that dwell in the heavens uniting with those who dwell on earth:

Reader. As it is written by the hand of thy prophet, And one cried unto another and said,

Cong. and Reader. Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.

Reader. His glory filleth the Universe: his ministering angels ask one of another, Where is the place of his glory? Those over against them say, Blessed—

Cong. and Reader. Blessed be the glory of the Lord from his place.

Reader. From his place he will turn in mercy and be gracious unto a people who continually, evening and morning, twice every day, proclaim the unity of his Name, saying in love, Hear—

Cong. and Reader. Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is One.

Reader. One is he, our God, our Father, our King, our Saviour; and he in his mercy will yet again let us hear, in the presence of all living, his promise, To be unto you for a God.

Cong. and Reader. "I am the Lord your God."

Reader. Thou art most glorious; O Lord our Lord, how glorious is thy Name in all the earth! And the Lord shall be King over all the earth; in that day shall the Lord be One and his Name One. And in thy holy words it is written, saying:

Cong. and Reader. The Lord shall reign for ever, thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the Lord.

Reader. Unto all generations we will declare thy greatness, and to all eternity we will proclaim thy holiness; and thy praise, O our God, shall not depart from our mouth for ever; for thou art a great and holy God and King.

O have compassion upon thy work and rejoice therein. And when thou hast justified them that have been borne aloft by thee, thy faithful servants shall say: O Lord, be thou sanctified over all thy works.

For with thy holiness thou hast sanctified them that call thee holy. Meet unto the Holy One is his pious servants' crown of praise. And thus may thy Name, O Lord our God, be hallowed over thy people Israel and over Jerusalem thy city, over Zion the habitation of thy glory, over the Kingdom of the house of David thine anointed, over thy dwelling-place and thy Temple. He will yet remember the love of the patriarch, our sire; yea, and for the sake of the son who was bound he will still our strife, and for the merit of the perfect one.[1] the All-feared will bring forth our suit to the light of acquittal: for this day is holy unto our Lord. If there be no advocate of righteousness to plead against the witness of transgression, do thou thyself teach Jacob the word, even of law and justice; and clear us in judgment, O King of justice—

Reader. Whose hand taketh hold of judgment;

Cong. And all believe that he is the faithful God.

He trieth and searcheth the most hidden secrets;

Cong. And all believe that he searcheth the innermost parts.

He redeemeth from death and delivereth from the grave;

Cong. And all believe that he is the mighty Redeemer.

He alone is the Judge of all who come into the world;

Cong. And all believe that he is the true Judge.

He is called "I am that I am;"

Cong. And all believe that he is, was, and ever will be.

The Immutable is his Name and such is his praise;

Cong. And all believe that there is none beside him.

He recordeth a memorial of love to those who remember him;

Cong. And all believe that he remembereth the covenant.

He appointeth life unto all his creatures;

Cong. And all believe that he liveth and endureth.

Cong. and Reader. And all believe that he is the righteous Judge.
He is perfect and dealeth truly with the pure;
And all believe that his work is perfect.

Thou alone wilt be exalted, and thou wilt reign over all in Unity, as it is written by the hand of thy prophet: The Lord shall be King over all the earth; in that day shall the Lord be One and his Name One.

Now therefore, O Lord our God, impose thine awe upon all thy works and thy dread over all that thou hast created, that all thy works may fear thee, and all creatures prostrate themselves before thee, that they may all form one band to do thy will with a perfect heart: even as we know, O Lord our God, that dominion is thine, strength is in thy hand, and might in thy right hand, and that thy Name is awful over all that thou hast created.

And therefore, O Lord, give glory unto thy people, praise to them that fear thee, hope to them that seek thee, confidence to them that wait for thee, joy to thy land, gladness to thy City, a flourishing horn unto David thy servant, and a constant light unto the son of Jesse, thine anointed, speedily in our days.

Then shall the just see and be glad, the upright shall exult, the pious shall rejoice in song, and iniquity shall close her mouth, and all wickedness shall be wholly consumed like smoke, when thou makest the dominion of arrogance to pass away from the earth.

All the world shall come to serve Thee
And bless Thy glorious Name,
And Thy righteousness triumphant
The islands shall acclaim.
And the peoples shall go seeking
Who knew Thee not before,
And the ends of earth shall praise Thee,
And tell Thy greatness o'er.

מִקְרָא קֹדֶשׁ. זֵכֶר לִיצִיאַת מִצְרָיִם:

They shall build for Thee their altars,
Their idols overthrown,
And their graven gods shall shame them,
As they turn to Thee alone.
They shall worship Thee at sunrise,
And feel Thy Kingdom's might,
And impart their understanding
To those astray in night.

They shall testify Thy greatness,
And of Thy power speak,
And extol Thee, shrined, uplifted
Beyond man's highest peak.
And with reverential homage,
Of love and wonder born,
With the ruler's crown of beauty
Thy head they shall adorn.

With the coming of Thy Kingdom
The hills shall break into song,
And the islands laugh exultant
That they to God belong.
And all their congregations
So loud Thy praise shall sing,
That the uttermost peoples, hearing,
Shall hail Thee crowned King.

And thou, O Lord, shalt reign, thou alone, over all thy works on Mount Zion, the dwelling-place of thy glory, and in Jerusalem, thy holy City; as it is written in thy holy words, The Lord shall reign for ever, thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the Lord.

Holy art thou, and awful is thy Name, and there is no God beside thee; as it is written, And the Lord of hosts is exalted in judgment and the holy God is sanctified in righteousness. Blessed art thou, O Lord, the holy King.

Thou hast chosen us from all peoples; thou hast loved us and taken pleasure in us, and hast exalted us above all tongues. Thou hast sanctified us by thy commandments, and hast drawn us near, O our King, unto thy service, and hast called us by thy great and holy Name.

On Sabbath add the bracketed words:

And thou hast given us in love, O Lord our God, [this Sabbath day and] this Day of Memorial, a day of blowing the horn: [On Sabbath say: a day of remembrance of the blowing of the horn, in love:] a holy convocation, a memorial of the departure from Egypt.

But because of our sins we have been exiled from our land and removed far away from our country, and we are unable to perform our duties in the house of thy choice, the great and holy house called by thy Name, because of the hand that hath been stretched out against thy sanctuary.

May it be thy will, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, merciful King, again in thine abundant mercy to have compassion upon us and upon thy sanctuary; O speedily rebuild it and magnify its glory. Our Father, our King, reveal the glory of thy Kingdom unto us speedily, and shine forth and exalt thyself over us in the sight of all living. Bring together our scattered ones from among the nations, and gather our dispersed from the uttermost parts of the earth. Lead us in triumph unto Zion thy City, and unto Jerusalem, the place of thy sanctuary, with everlasting joy; and there will we prepare before thee the offerings enjoined on us, the continual offerings according to their order, and the additional offerings according to their ordinance and the additional offering of [this Sabbath day and] this Day of Memorial will we prepare and offer unto thee in love according to the commandment of thy will, as thou hast prescribed for us in thy Law, through the hand of thy servant Moses, by thy glorious command, as it is said:

On Sabbath the following paragraph is added:

And on the Sabbath day two he-lambs of the first year without blemish, and two tenth parts of fine flour for a meal-offering, mingled with oil, and the drink-offering thereof; this is the burnt offering of every Sabbath, beside the continual burnt offering and the drink-offering thereof.

And in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work: it shall be a day of blowing the horn unto you.

And their meal-offering and their drink-offerings as ordained; three tenth parts for the bullock, two tenth parts for the ram, and one tenth part for each lamb, and wine according to the drink-offering thereof, and two he-goats wherewith to make atonement, and the two continual offerings according to their ordinance: besides the burnt offering of the new moon, and the meal-offering thereof, and the continual burnt offering and the meal-offering thereof, and their drink-offerings according to their ordinance: for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

On Sabbath the following paragraph is added:

[They shall receive thy Kingdom who kept the Sabbath and call it a delight: the people that hallow the seventh day shall, all of them, be satisfied and delighted with thy goodness: for thou didst find pleasure in the seventh day and didst hallow it: the desirable of days didst thou call it, in remembrance of the work of creation.]

It behoveth us to praise the Lord of all, to ascribe greatness to him who formed the world in the beginning: that he hath not made us like the nations of other lands, and hath not placed us like other families of the earth, that he hath not given unto us a portion as unto them, nor a lot as unto all their multitude: for we bend the knee and prostrate ourselves and make acknowledgment before the supreme King of kings, the Holy One, blessed be he, who stretched forth the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth, the abode of whose glory is in the heavens above, and the dwelling of whose majesty is upon the loftiest heights. He is our God, there is none else; in truth he is our King, there is none beside him, as it is written in his Law, Know therefore this day, and lay it to thine heart, that the Lord he is God in heaven above and upon the earth beneath; there is none else.

Our God and God of our fathers, inspire the lips of those who have been deputed by thy people, the house of Israel, to stand in prayer before thee, to beseech thee and supplicate thy presence for them. Teach them what they shall say, instruct them what they shall speak, grant unto them that which they ask, and make known to them how they may glorify thee. They walk in the light of thy countenance; they bend the knee unto thee, and with their lips utter blessing on thy people; O deign that all of them be blessed with the blessings of thy mouth. They lead thy people before thy presence and from the midst of them they approach thee: the eyes of thy people are fixed upon them, and their eyes are bent on thee. They approach the holy ark in dread, to appease thine anger and wrath, encompassed by thy people as with walls; O look down from heaven in compassion upon them. Unto thee in heaven they lift up the eye, pouring forth their heart as water before thee; and do thou hear them from heaven. Suffer them not to falter with their tongue nor to err in their speech, that the multitudes that repose in them be not put to shame nor bear reproach; guard heir lips from uttering any word that is not according to thy will. For those to whom thou art gracious, O Lord our God, they indeed have found grace; and those pitied of thee, they indeed have won mercy. For we know, O Lord our God, that thou wilt be gracious to whom thou wilt be gracious, and wilt shew mercy on whom thou wilt shew mercy, as it is written in thy Law, And I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy. And it is said: Let not them that wait on thee be ashamed through me, O Lord God of hosts: let not those who seek thee be brought to dishonour through me, O God of Israel.

I will hope in God; I will beseech his Presence; I will ask of him the answer of the tongue, that in the congregation of the people I may sing of his power and utter joyful strains concerning his deeds. The preparations of the heart belong to man: but the answer of the tongue is from the Lord. O Lord, open thou my lips, and my month shall all declare thy praise. Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable before thee, O Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer.

Therefore we hope in thee, O Lord our God, that we may speedily behold the glory of thy might, when thou wilt remove the abominations from the earth, and the idols shall be utterly cut off; when the world shall be set under the kingdom of the Almighty, and all the children of flesh shall call upon thy Name, when thou wilt turn unto thyself all the wicked of the earth. All the inhabitants of the world shall know and acknowledge that unto thee every knee must bend, every tongue must swear. Before thee, O Lord our God, shall they kneel and fall, and they shall give honour unto thy glorious Name; they shall all accept the yoke of thy kingdom, and over them thou wilt speedily reign for ever and ever. For the Kingdom is thine, and to all eternity wilt thou reign in glory, as it is written in thy Law, The Lord shall reign for ever and ever.

And it is said, He hath not beheld iniquity in Jacob, neither hath he seen perverseness in Israel: the Lord his God is with him, and the shout of a King is among them. And it is said, And he was King of Jeshurun, when the heads of the people were gathered, the tribes of Israel together. And in thy Holy Words it is written, saying, For sovereignty is the Lord's. and he is the ruler over the nations. And it is said, The Lord reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the Lord is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself; the world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved. And it is said, Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah. And by the hands of thy servants, the prophets, it is written, saying, Thus saith the Lord, the King of Israel and his Redeemer, the Lord of hosts: I am the first and I am the last; and beside me there is no God. And it is said, And saviours shall come up on Mount Zion to judge the Mount of Esau, and sovereignty shall be the Lord's. And it is said, And the Lord shall be King over all the earth; in that day shall the Lord be One and his Name One. And in thy Law it is written, saying, Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is One.

Thou rememberest what was wrought from eternity, and art mindful of all that hath been formed from of old: before thee all secrets are revealed and the multitude of hidden things from the beginning; for there is no forgetfulness before the throne of thy glory, nor is there aught hidden from thine eyes. Thou rememberest every deed, and no creature is concealed from thee: all things are manifest and known unto thee, O Lord our God, who lookest and seest to the end of all generations. For thou wilt bring on the appointed time of memorial when every spirit and soul shall be visited, and the multitudinous works be remembered with the countless throng of thy creatures. From the beginning didst thou make this known, and from aforetime didst thou reveal it. This day, on which was the beginning of thy work, is a memorial of the first day; for it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob. Thereon sentence is pronounced upon countries—which of them is destined to the sword and which to peace, which to famine and which to plenty; and every creature is visited thereon, and recorded for life or for death. Who is not visited on such a day as this? For the remembrance of every creature cometh before thee, man's deeds and destiny, his works and ways, the thoughts and designs of man and the workings of his imagination. Happy is the man who forgetteth thee not, and the son of man who strengtheneth himself in thee; for they that seek thee shall never stumble, neither shall they ever be put to shame who trust in thee. For the remembrance of all works cometh before thee, and thou searchest into the doings of them all. Of Noah also thou wast mindful in thy love, and didst visit him with a promise of salvation and mercy, when thou broughtest forth the waters of the flood to destroy all flesh because of their evil deeds. So his remembrance came before thee, O Lord our God, to increase his seed like the dust of the earth, and his offspring like the sand of the sea: as it is written in thy Law, And God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that were with him in the ark: and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters assuaged. And it is said, And God heard their groaning:

and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. And it is said, Then will I remember my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember the land. And in thy Holy Words it is written, saying, He hath made a memorial for his wondrous works: the Lord is gracious and full of compassion. And it is said, He hath given meat unto them that fear him: he will ever be mindful of his covenant. And it is said, And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. And by the hands of thy servants, the prophets, it is written, saying, Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I remember for thee the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals: how thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown. And it is said, Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth: and I will establish unto thee an everlasting covenant. And it is said, Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? For as often as I speak against him I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my heart yearneth towards him; I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the Lord.

Our God and God of our fathers, let us be remembered by thee for good and visit us with a visitation of salvation and mercy from the heavens, the heavens of old, and remember unto us, O Lord our God, the covenant and the loving-kindness and the oath which thou swarest unto Abraham our father on Mount Moriah: and may the binding with which Abraham our father bound his son Isaac on the altar appear before thee, how he suppressed his compassion in order to perform thy will with a perfect heart. So may thy compassion soften thine anger against us; in thy great goodness may the fierceness of thy wrath turn aside from thy people, thy City and thine inheritance. Fulfil unto us, O Lord our God, the word in which thou hast caused us to trust in thy Law through the hand of thy servant Moses by thy glorious command, as it is said, And I will, for their sakes, remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt, in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their God: I am the Lord. For thou art he who remembereth from eternity all forgotten things, and before the throne of whose glory there is no forgetfulness. O remember the binding of Isaac this day in mercy unto his seed. Blessed art thou. O Lord, who rememberest the covenant.

TEKIAH SHEBARIM TERUAH TEKIAH

Cong. This day the world was called into being: this day thou causest all the creatures of the Universe to stand in judgment, as children or as servants. If as children, have pity upon us as a father pitieth his children; and if as servants, our eyes wait on thee until thou be gracious unto us and bring forth our judgment as the light, O God, terrible and holy.

The following paragraph is omitted on Sabbath:

May the entreaty of our lips find favour in thy presence, most high and exalted God, who understandest and hearest, regardest and art attentive to the voice of our trumpet-blasts. And accept with mercy and favour our recital of thy Remembrance.

Thou didst reveal thyself in a cloud of glory unto thy holy people to speak with them. Out of heaven thou didst make them hear thy voice, and wast revealed unto them in clouds of purity. The whole world trembled at thy presence and the works of creation were in awe of thee, when thou didst thus reveal thyself, O our King, upon Mount Sinai to teach thy people Law and commandments, and didst make them hear the majesty of thy voice, and thy holy words out of flames of fire. Amid thunders and lightnings thou didst manifest thyself unto them, and while the trumpet sounded thou didst shine forth upon them; as it is written in thy Law, And it came to pass on the third day, when it was morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the sound of the trumpet exceeding loud: and all the people that were in the camp trembled. And it is said, And the sound of the trumpet waxed louder and louder: Moses spake, and God answered him by a voice. And it is said, And all the people perceived the thunderings and the lightnings and the voice of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking: and when the people saw it, they were moved and stood afar off. And in thy Holy Words it is written, saying, God is gone up with a shout: the Lord with the sound of the trumpet. And it is said, With trumpets and sound of the horn make a joyful noise before the King, the Lord. And it is said, Blow ye the trumpet on the new moon, in the time appointed on our solemn feast-day. For it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob. And it is said, Praise ye the Lord; praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power. Praise him for his mighty acts: praise him according to his excellent greatness. Praise him with the sound of the trumpet: praise him with the psalter and harp. Praise him with the timbrel and dance: praise him with stringed instruments and the pipe. Praise him upon the loud cymbals: praise him upon the high-sounding cymbals. Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord; praise ye the Lord. And by the hands of thy servants, the prophets, it is written, saying, All ye inhabitants of the world, and ye dwellers on the earth: when an ensign is lifted up on the mountains, see ye, and when the trumpet is blown, hear ye. And it is said, And it shall come to pass on that day, that a great trumpet shall be blown; and they shall come which were lost in the land of Assyria, and they that were outcasts in the land of Egypt: and they shall worship the Lord in the holy mountain at Jerusalem. And it is said, And the Lord shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord God shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with the whirlwinds of the south. The Lord of hosts shall shield them. So be thou a shield over thy people Israel with thy peace.

Our God and God of our fathers, sound the great trumpet for our feedom, lift up the ensign to gather our exiles, bring together our scattered ones from among the nations

Cong. and Reader. And may our prayer be acceptable unto thee as burnt offering and as sacrifice. O thou who art merciful, we beseech thee, in thine abundant mercy to restore thy divine presence unto Zion, and the ordained service to Jerusalem. And let our eyes behold thy return in mercy to Zion, and there will we worship thee in awe, as in the days of old and as in ancient years.

Reader. Blessed art thou, O Lord, whom alone we serve in awe.

On Sabbath, or when there are no Priests present, the following is substituted after ever acceptable to thee:

And let our eyes behold thy return in mercy to Zion. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who restorest thy divine presence unto Zion.

We make acknowledgment unto thee, that thou art the Lord our God and the God of our fathers for ever and ever; thou art the Rock of our lives, the Shield of our salvation through every generation. We will give thanks unto thee and declare thy praise for our lives which are delivered into thy hand, and for our souls which are committed unto thy charge, and for thy miracles which are with us every day, and for thy wondrous benefits which are with us at all times, even, morn and noon. Thou art the Beneficent One, for thy mercies never fail; thou art the Merciful One, for thy kindnesses never cease. We have ever hoped in thee.

Whilst the Reader says the foregoing paragraph, the Congregation say:

We make acknowledgment unto thee, that thou art the Lord our God and the God of our fathers, the God of all flesh, our Creator and the Creator of all things in the beginning. Blessings and thanksgivings be to thy great and holy Name, because thou hast kept us alive and supported us. So continue to keep us alive and support us; and gather our exiles to thy holy courts to observe thy statutes, to perform thy will and to serve thee with a perfect heart; for this we give thanks unto thee. Blessed be God to whom thanksgivings belong.

Reader followed by the Priests:

The Lord bless thee and keep thee: Amen.

The Lord make his face to shine upon thee and be gracious unto thee: Amen.

The Lord incline his countenance unto thee and give thee peace: Amen. Selah.

For silent prayer:

May it be thy will, O my God and God of my fathers, to answer me for the sake of thy holy mercies and thy great compassion, and for the sake of the purity of thy great and mighty and terrible Name. Be near me when I call unto thee and hear my prayer and my cry continually, even as thou didst hear the cry of Jacob, thy perfect servant. Grant me and all my household our food and sustenance, in plenty and not in penury, earned by righteous and not by wrongful means, in happiness and not in sorrow, from out of thine ever-open hand, even as thou didst give Jacob our father bread to eat and raiment for clothing. Grant that we may find love and grace and favour in thy sight, and in the sight of all who see us, and may my words be heard in thy service, even as thou didst grant grace and favour and mercy unto Joseph, thy righteous one, in thy sight and in the sight of all that beheld him. Do thy wondrous deeds and miracles by me; shew me a sign for good and prosper me in my ways. Put understanding into my heart, that I may discern and know and fulfil all the words of the study of thy Law and thy deep mysteries. Deliver me from error and purify my thoughts and my heart for thy worship; and prolong my days [and the days of my wife, my sons and my daughters] [and the days of my parents] in welfare, in happiness, in abundance of strength and in peace.

O thou who art glorious on high, abiding in might, thou art peace and thy Name is peace; may it be thy will to grant unto us and unto thy people, the house of Israel, life and blessing with enduring peace.

Grant peace, welfare, blessing, grace, loving-kindness and mercy unto us and unto all Israel, thy people. Bless us, O our Father, yea, all of us together, with the light of thy countenance; for by the light of thy countenance thou hast given unto us, O Lord our God, the Law of life, loving-kindness and righteousness, blessing, mercy, life and peace. And may it be good in thy sight to bless thy people Israel at all times and in every hour with thy peace.

Cong. and Reader. In the book of life, blessing, peace and good sustenance may we be remembered and inscribed before thee, we and all thy people, the house of Israel, for a happy life and peace.

And it is said, "For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased." O inscribe us for a happy life. O thou living God! write us in the book of life; as it is written, "And ye that cleave unto the Lord your God are alive, every one of you, this day."

Thou art our God; thou art our Lord; thou art our King; thou art our Saviour.

Talmud Babli: Kerithoth 6*a*.

The compound of the incense[1] consisted of balm, cloves,[2] galbunum and frankincense, of each a like weight — seventy manehs; of myrrh, cassia, spikenard and saffron, of each of a like weight — sixteen manehs; of costus twelve, of bark three, and of cinnamon nine manehs; of alkali procured from Karshina nine kabs; of Cyprus wine three seahs and three kabs, though if Cyprus wine was not procurable old white wine was brought; of salt of Sodom the fourth part of a kab, and a minute quantity of maaleh ashan.[3] Rabbi Nathan says, a minute quantity of the herb that grew on the banks of the Jordan was used: if one added honey he rendered the incense unfit for use, and if he omitted one of its sweet spices he was deserving of death. Rabban Simeon son of Gamaliel says, the balm is a resin that exudes from the wood of the balsam tree. The alkali procured from Karshina was used to bleach and beautify the cloves, and the Cyprus wine to steep them therein that the odour might be pungent.

Mishnah Tamid, Cap. vii.

These are the Psalms which the Levites used to say in the Temple[4]:—

On the first day of the week they said—"The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein."

On the second day—"Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness."

On the third day—"God standeth in the congregation of the mighty: he judgeth among the judges."

On the fourth day—"O Lord God, to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, shine forth."

Talmud Berachoth, 64.

Rabbi Eleazer said in the name of Rabbi Chanina, The disciples of the sages increase peace in the world, as it is said, "And all thy children shall be taught of the Lord: and great shall be the peace of thy children." Read not banayich—"thy children," but bonayich —"thy builders." Great peace have they who love thy Law: and there is no stumbling for them. Peace be within thy walls: prosperity within thy palaces. For my brethren and companions' sakes: I will now say, Peace be within thee. For the sake of the house of the Lord our God: I will seek thy good. The Lord will give strength unto his people: the Lord will bless his people with peace.

It behoveth us to praise the Lord of all, to ascribe greatness to him who formed the world in the beginning; that he hath not made us like the nations of other lands, and hath not placed us like other families of the earth, that he hath not given unto us a portion as unto them, nor a lot as unto all their multitude; for we bend the knee and prostrate ourselves and make acknowledgment before the supreme King of kings, the Holy One, blessed be he, who stretched forth the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth, the abode of whose glory is in the heavens above, and the dwelling of whose majesty is upon the loftiest heights. He is our God, there is none else: in truth he is our King, there is none beside him, as it is written in his Law, Know therefore this day, and lay it to thine heart, that the Lord he is God in heaven above and upon the earth beneath: there is none else.

Therefore we hope in thee, O Lord our God, that we may speedily behold the glory of thy might, when thou wilt remove the abominations from the earth, and the idols shall be utterly cut off; when the world shall be set under the kingdom of the Almighty, and all the children of flesh shall call upon thy Name, when thou wilt turn unto thyself all the wicked of the earth. All the inhabitants of the world shall know and acknowledge that unto thee every knee must bend, every tongue must swear. Before thee, O Lord our God, shall they kneel and fall, and they shall give honour unto thy glorious Name; they shall all accept the yoke of thy kingdom, and over them thou wilt speedily reign for ever and ever. For the Kingdom is thine, and to all eternity wilt thou reign in glory, as it is written in thy Law, The Lord shall reign for ever and ever. And it is said, The Lord shall be King over all the earth; in that day shall the Lord be One, and his Name One.

Mourners' Kaddish.

Mourner. Magnified and sanctified be his great Name in the world which he hath created according to his will. May he establish his kingdom in your life-time and in your days, and in the life-time of all the house of Israel, speedily and at a near time; and say ye, Amen.

Cong. and Mourner. Let his great Name be blessed for ever and ever.

Mourner. Blessed, praised and glorified, exalted, extolled and honoured, adored and lauded, be the Name of the Holy One, blessed be he, beyond, yea, beyond all blessings and hymns, praises and songs, which are uttered in the world; and say ye, Amen.

May there be abundant peace from heaven, and life for us and for all Israel; and say ye, Amen.

May he who maketh peace in his high places, make peace for us, and for all Israel; and say ye, Amen.

The Shophar is sounded.

אָדוֹן עוֹלָם אֲשֶׁר מָלַךְ בְּטֶרֶם כָּל יְצִיר נִבְרָא :
לְעֵת נַעֲשָׂה בְחֶפְצוֹ כֹּל אֲזַי מֶלֶךְ שְׁמוֹ נִקְרָא :

וְעִם רוּחִי גְּוִיָּתִי יְיָ לִי וְלֹא אִירָא :

The Shophar is sounded.

Lord of the world, He reigned alone
While yet the universe was naught.
When by His will all things were wrought,
Then first His sov'ran Name was known.

And when the All shall cease to be,
In dread lone splendour He shall reign.
He was, He is, He shall remain
In glorious eternity.

For He is one, no second shares
His nature or His loneliness;
Unending and beginningless,
All strength is His, all sway He bears.

He is the living God to save,
My Rock while sorrow's toils endure
My banner and my stronghold sure,
The cup of life whene'er I crave.

I place my soul within His palm
Before I sleep as when I wake,
And though my body I forsake,
Rest in the Lord in fearless calm.

NOTES ON THE TEXT

I (to page 11, etc.).

Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is One.

Alternative rendering:

Hear, O Israel: the Lord is our God, the Lord is One.

II (ibid.).

Blessed be his glorious, sovereign Name for ever and ever.

Cf. Nehemiah ix. 5. . . . "Stand up and bless the Lord your God from everlasting to everlasting; and let them bless thy glorious Name, . . ."

Alternative renderings:

Blessed be the name of him whose glorious kingdom is for ever and ever.

Blessed be the name of his glorious kingdom for ever and ever.

Blessed be the name of the glory of his kingdom for ever and ever.

Blessed be his Name, which is the glory of his kingdom for ever and ever. (See Talmud Taanith, 16*b*.)

In ten categories.

The enumeration here given belongs to Jewish mediaeval philosophy. The ten categories are mentioned by Saadyah, who lived from 892-942 C. E., and were taken by him from Aristotle. They are:—substance (οὐσία), quantity (πόσον), quality (ποῖον), relation (πρὸς τί), place (ποῦ), time (πότε), position (κεῖσθαι), possession (ἔχειν), activity (ποιεῖν), and passivity (πάσχειν).

The seven quantities are not to be found in Aristotle, but appear to be borrowed from the philosopher Ibn Rashid (Averrhoes).

The six kinds of motion (Aristotle, Categories 14, 1) are:—creation (γένεσις), destruction (φθορὰ), growth (αὔξησις), diminution (μείωσις), transformation (ἀλλοίωσις), and change of place (ἡ κατὰ τόπον μεταβολή).

The three modes of predication are: by characteristic, by property, and by accident.

The three times are: the present, the past, and the future.

The three dimensions are: length, breadth and depth.

The poems which have found a place between the three first blessings of the repetition of the Amidah in each Service are known as קרובות or propitiatory prayers. They dilate upon and expand the theme of the first blessing, the piety of the three patriarchs, and illustrate it in language rich in Midrashic allusions.

The Shophar.

The key to a code of trumpet-signals has been preserved in Numbers x. 1-10. In obedience to these calls the hosts of Israel journeyed forth; the princes were summoned, or the elders assembled before the Tent of Meeting. Sacrifice was offered amid the sound of trumpets, and at the bidding of its peal the labourer ceased his toil on the eve of the Sabbath. The shophar sounded the alarm of war (Judges iii. 27), proclaimed the advent of peace (2 Sam. ii. 28) and gave a warning of danger. (Neh. iv. 14-20).

The origin of the rite of blowing the shophar on the Day of Memorial is met with in Lev. xxiii. 24, and Num. xxix. 1. The prescribed note is an alarm (תרועה) which it became customary to repeat thrice. This note is preceded and followed by the blast תקיעה—(תקיעה תרועה תקיעה). Thus a strain of nine blasts comprehended the early rite. Mishnah Rosh Hashanah, Chapter iv. 9. In our ritual this set of nine sounds has been extended to thirty by the addition of two variant sets of notes. In one set the alarm notes are שברים, and in another they are שברים תרועה. These triplet settings are due to a doubt that arose in the course of ages as to the precise note of the alarm. One tradition compared it to a wail of one in distress (תרועה), another described it as the moaning of a sigh (שברים), and yet another tradition likened it to both—the moaning of a sigh breaking forth into the voice of weeping (שברים תרועה). By sounding the three variant strains the Rabbis sought to preserve in one or the other of them the ancient "shout" of the trumpet that once resounded in the Temple, see Talmud Rosh Hashanah 33*b* and 34*a*. The substitution of the ram's horn for the silver trumpet is in memory of Abraham's offering (Gen. xxii. 13). The blowing of the shophar on the Day of Memorial is the theme of many a Midrash and Piyyut. At the alarm of the shophar memories are awakened and the thought of each heart is its own meditation. Efforts to formulate prayers for the occasion have not yet been uniformly successful, though the meditation of Gaon Saadyah is undoubtedly rich in conception. To him the voice of the shophar spoke of Creation's birthday, when once again, "with trumpets and sound of the horn," we acclaim God, our King (Ps. xcviii. 6). It recalls Abraham's sacrifice. It is an echo from Sinai of Israel's oath, "All that the Lord hath spoken will we do, and be obedient" (Exod. xxiv. 7). It heralds the day in which "A great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come who were ready to perish. . . ." (Isa. xxvii. 13). It is a portent, "Shall a trumpet be blown in a city and the people be not afraid?" (Amos iii. 6). It is the voice of conscience, as the prophet hath said, "I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war" (Jer. iv. 19). It is the watchman's warning (Ezek. xxxiii. 4). It is the "Voice of the Day of the Lord" (Zeph. i. 14-16). Verily it is the Voice that telleth of life eternal, as it is said, "All ye inhabitants of the world, and ye dwellers in the earth, when an ensign is lifted up in the mountains see ye: and when the trumpet is blown, hear ye" (Isa. xviii. 3).

The conception which another great Jewish teacher, Maimonides, formed of the significance of the Shophad may be illustrated by the following excerpt from his Hilchoth Teshubah (cap. iii. 4):

"Although the blowing of the Shophar on the New Year is a commandment of the Law, there is a further meaning in it of this purport: Awake, ye slumberers from your sleep, and rouse you from your lethargy. Make search into your deed and turn in repentance. Remember your Creator, ye who forget truth in the trifles of the hour, who go astray all your years after vain illusions which can neither profit nor deliver. Look to your souls and mend your ways and your actions; let one of you leave his evil path and his unworthy purpose."

VI (to pages 135-140).

The Musaf Amidah for the New Year is the longest in the prayer-book. Like every other Amidah, it contains the regular three initial and three concluding blessings; it includes also, the mention of the special sacrifices of the day which is the characteristic of the Musaf prayer. Following on this come certain prayers which divide themselves into three portions, namely: the מלכיות (or texts of sovereignty) the זכרונות (or texts of remembrance) and the שופרות (or texts concerning the Shophar). The New Year had, even in the time of the Temple, acquired three aspects. Primarily it was the day of blowing the horn (Num. xxix. 1). In its captivity as the anniversary of the creation of the world, it became a day particularly associated with reflections on the universal sovereignty of the Deity. Thirdly, it came to be regarded as the chosen day of judgment for the deeds of the past year, and as the day of account and reckoning it was termed יום הזכרון, the Day of Memorial. It will be seen, therefore, that these texts are illustrative of the threefold character of the day. The Mishnah (Rosh Hashanah iv. 5) makes mention of them as part of the ritual of the day, and states that the Shophar is sounded between each portion, a practice which is observed to the present day in the Reader's repetition of the Amidah. The Mishnah requires ten texts from the Bible to be adduced in the case of each portion, illustrating respectively the three subjects of: God the King, God the Divine Recorder, and the Ordinance of the Shophar. The selection of the actual texts was originally left as a matter of choice, but they have long become stereotyped. They consist in each case of three quotations from the Law, three from the Hagiographa and three from the Prophets, with a final text from the Law. Each of these collections of verses are in the ritual preceded by an introduction in the nature of a reflection and followed by a prayer terminating with a blessing. The introduction to the מלכיות is the familiar עלינו לשבח which may have been borrowed at an early period from its rightful position here to be used as a fitting conclusion to every service in the year. The prayer which concludes the מלכיות occurs as the distinctive prayer of the Festival in the other Amidoth of the day. The other reflections and prayers do not occur elsewhere, and their very unfamiliarity seems to add to the dignity which they possess. They are all written in the purest style of Hebrew and their sublime simplicity makes one wonder whether the language of prayer has ever reached a higher plane than it does here.

This meditation was composed, or at least reduced to its present form, by R. Meshullam ben Kalonymos, who flourished in Mayence about the year 1000 C.E. There is a well-known legend as to its origin, which is recounted in a MS. attributed to R. Ephraim of Bonn, who lived in the latter part of the twelfth century. It tells of one Rabbi Amnon of Mayence, and relates how the Archbishop of that Court continually urged the Rabbi to change his faith, and how, exasperated at length by his repeated refusals, he ordered his hands and feet to be mutilated. The Festival of the New Year was then at hand, and the Rabbi, dying from the effects of his wounds, was at his own request carried into the synagogue. When the Hazen was about to recite the Kedushah, Rabbi Amnon stayed him, saying "Pause that I may sanctify the most holy Name." He then began the hymn ונתנה תקף and expired as he reached the words ושמנו קראת בשמך R. Meshullam ben Kalonymos was said to have published this poem as a memorial of the martyr, and it has formed a portion of the New Year's Service among the Jews observing the German and Polish ritual since that period.
