

Positive	Negative	Qualitative	Programme Participation
351	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Can't find heads in "Talisman" but otherwise great work. ▪ Why did you restore the Asgard so much that it no longer looks original? ▪ A pity the voice recordings were not on video. ▪ Half lovely, but the sandcast swords are gopping, with none of the elegance or delicacy of either the other pieces or the original swords themselves. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Very beautiful museum, pity the descriptions aren't in French. ▪ The glass works are so imaginative and so beautiful with little hidden surprises in the "raindrops". ▪ I really enjoyed this museum, unique in this type. The exhibition on Irish wars was fantastic and the glass artworks are amazing. ▪ Thank you for having English descriptions. Wonderful, really enjoyed the sounds too. ▪ We got to draw so we here happy. PS love the chairs. ▪ Very educational museum. ▪ Stunning work displaying passion, commitment and skill to the highest level. Well done Roisin. ▪ Amazing history and beautiful stories! The building is stunning and staff very helpful! ▪ The music and glass in the room are very good together. ▪ I enjoyed the rain themed pieces. ▪ Beautiful exhibition – opens the soul of glass – a tradition that should be grown and developed for each generation to cherish. ▪ What a tribute to the craftsman of Waterford - display cabinets magnificent also. ▪ Beautiful objects displayed beautifully. Also liked music. ▪ The museum tour is fantastic. Thank you for keeping a little piece Waterford glass alive. Stunning exhibition. I love seeing everything. ▪ Had a great time looking at the different pieces and their methods. 10/10 would recommend to a friend. ▪ Liked the exhibition where children got the opportunity to show what they like. ▪ Beauty and magnificence of the material in its most extreme perfection! The display absolutely virtuous!!! 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Beautiful work, very inspiring, went to the open studio and it was very educational, best of luck with the residency and congrats and well done on all of the hand work so far.

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Beautiful work. Light, lift, sparkles & dance & the most rich sounds. Especially love the coloured music pieces & want to handle the talismans. ▪ Very informative. Loved it. ▪ Beautiful work. Especially the interplay of the exhibits with light. Loved the drones, my favourite was the orange bowl with the dead leaf “engraved” into the shadow – stunning! ▪ A very nice museum, especially the history bit. ▪ Love the colours, shapes, lights & shadows. Wonderful. ▪ I love the shadows. ▪ A very interesting exhibition and the use of shadows are beautiful. ▪ A fitting tribute to the workers of Waterford Crystal. The sound of their voices is haunting. ▪ Fantastic! Love the use of light and shadow with the glass exhibits. Story of Waterford glass artists is wonderful. ▪ Great detail given about unique pieces of sculpture & glass. ▪ Music in the galleries a wonderful compliment to the art and glass. ▪ Amazing pieces, beautifully exhibited. ▪ Just an amazing experience worth exploring around! ▪ Really enjoyed the talk. Learnt loads! ▪ The oral histories are brilliant – and sad. ▪ Lovely collection! Also very much admired the accessibility of the building, both in design and cost. ▪ Wonderful exhibition combining the traditional and the modern. ▪ So beautiful! Nice museum! Glass art is definitely the best here. ▪ Glass symposium. Great day. Great speakers. Great experience. Thank you so much. ▪ Beautiful pieces, enchanting story! ▪ Gorgeous exhibit. Creative, relevant, historic and much more than expected! Super. ▪ So lovely to see the tradition moving forward.
--	--	---	--

US	Italy	France	Brazil	Portugal	Canada	Netherlands	Spain	Romania
40	14	13	13	11	9	5	4	4

Germany	Poland	N. Ireland	Denmark	Finland	Mexico	Morocco	England	Chile
4	4	3	3	3	3	3	3	2

Austria	India	Greece	Canary Isl.	Estonia	Australia	Japan	Philippines	Sweden
2	2	2	2	1	1	1	1	1

Moldova	Norway	Wales	Scotland	Turkey	Turkmenistan	Czech Rep.	Russia	Croatia
1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1

Lithuania	Kazakhstan
1	1