

Where I live is very quite and peaceful as I live in the countryside. My house is surrounded by many fields and farms. I do not live in an estate. I live in a row of houses. There are not much kids living where I live so I don't have much friends around where I live. Sometimes I walk to the shop. Its a long way away.