

I think Ratoath is a fine place to live but it lacks basic things or facilities that a place of its population requires. My friends and I go and do various sports and activities sport facilities are fine with soccer and the new Brownestown development, but I would like to see mabe [maybe] a park for people to meet up and to walk around, a better community centre which needs to be bigger. Mabe [maybe] a swimming pool, arcade, cineama [cinema], playground. One major problem is traffic, the village is a jam most days and alot more people are going to get killed our roads if measures are not put in place. The pitch and putt is one good thing but I need to be dropped up their. The school is overcrowded if every house goes up the builders pay a levy compulsory levy for the development of the comm
