greet the pleasant sunshine, While you are still in bed!

R.H.

The sun himself has risen
 To call them, long ago ;
 And he has tried to wake you
 This last half-hour, you know.

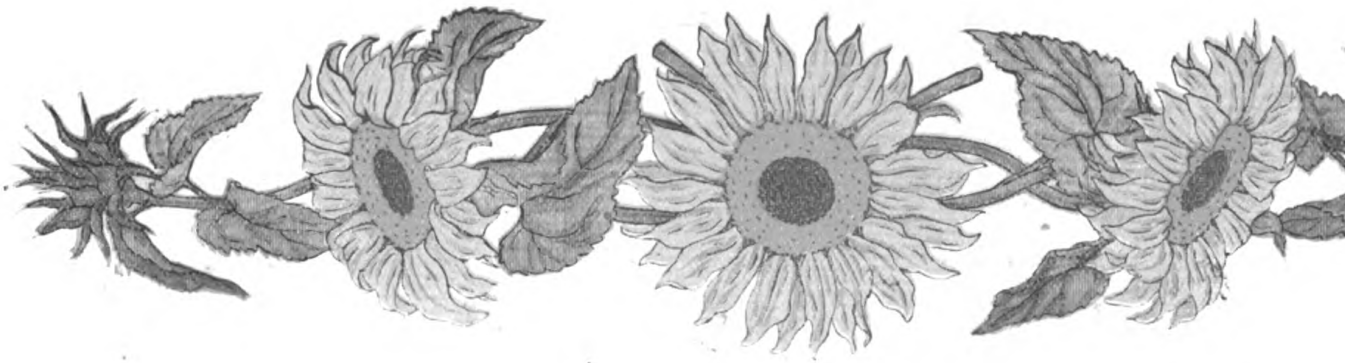

The merry little sunbeams
 Have travelled—oh, so far !
 Have crept between the shutters,
 In spite of bolt and bar.

'Twas time, indeed, to wake you,
 At last they seemed to think ;
 And shot their golden arrows
 Through every hole and chink.

And when the door was opened,
 And Mary came at last,
 Your eyes were almost blinded,
 They fell so thick and fast.

Then wake, and, like the flowers,
 Lift up each sleepy head ;
 It is too bright a morning
 To waste it all in bed.

A ROMP.

As fast as you will.

The musical score is arranged in three systems. The first system is in 6/8 time and features a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The second and third systems are in 2/4 time, continuing the melody and bass line. The notation includes treble and bass clefs, a key signature of one sharp (F#) for the first system and two sharps (D major) for the subsequent systems, and various rhythmic values such as eighth and sixteenth notes.
