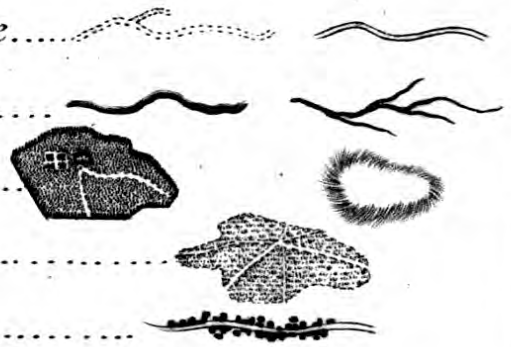
Parks and Hills.....

Heaths and Commons.....

Towns &c.....



Note

The GENERAL MAP being given to shew the junction of the pages, it is divided into the same Number of Squares as there are pages in the Book; by which means the connection which one page has with another will be immediately seen, by referring from any of the pages, to the same figure in the General Map, & the continuation of the roads by connecting the pages agreeable to the Squares will be immediately traced as

EXAMPLE.

Suppose you want the Road from London which is in page 25, to Epsom; refer to the Squares in the General Map that lead to it, which is 25-35-36-and 43, apply them to the corresponding pages in the Book, and you will find the road lain down as follows. From London page 25, you go to Newington Butts, from thence to Clapham, and Upper Tooting in page 35, to Tooting and Morden in page 36, to Ewel and Epsom in page 43.

From London to Epping.

See Index for London, you will find it in page 25, & 26, refer to the General Map for the Squares leading from London to Epping, you will find the numbers thro' which the road passes, to be 26-27-17-7-8-which gives you the number of the pages for traceing the Road. From London page 25 you go to Stratford le Bow in page 26, to Stratford page 27, to Leyton Stone & Woodford page 17, to Loughton and acrofs Epping forest page 7 to Epping in page 8.

ADVERTISEMENT.

The generous encouragement that the Proprietor receiv-ved in the publication of the survey of Middlesex, as well as the Country ten Miles round Hampton Court and Richmond; encourages him to submit to the Public this Survey of the Country fifteen Miles round London; the utility of which, it would be vanity in the author to pass any encomeums on; suffice it to say, that his utmost En-deavours have been used to render the work compleat; to the attainment of which, neither pains nor expence have been spared, & should it meet with the approbation of the Public whose countenance it is his ardent wish to obtain it will induce him to improve on the same Scale and to con tinue the work to a much greater extent

The junction of the pages being preserved with great exactness may be pasted together for Roll & Ledge &/ if prefered may be fitted on canvas for the pocket

The proprietor will think himself much obliged for any improvement that may be offered which will be attended to with the greatest care.
