IX. THAT you do not allow any Minister to serve more than one Church, or Chapel, in one Day, except that Chapel be a Member of the Parish-Church, or united thereunto; and unless the said Church, or Chapel, where such Minister shall serve in two Places, be not able in your Judgment to maintain a Curate.

X. THAT in the Instrument of License granted to any Curate, you appoint him, what shall appear to you, upon due Consideration of the Duty to be perform'd by him, the Value of the Benefice, and the other Circumstances of the Case, a sufficient Salary according to the Power vested in you by the Laws of the Church, and the particular Direction of the Act of Parliament for the better Maintenance of Curates.

XI. THAT you take Care, as much as is possible, that whosoever is admitted to serve any Cure, do reside in the Parish where he is to serve; especially in Livings that are able to support a Resident Curate: And where that cannot be done, that he do at least reside so near to the Place, that he may conveniently perform all the Duties both in the Church and Parish.

XII. I HAVE only this farther now to recommend, That your Clergy be required to wear their proper Habits, agreeably to the Canons.

THESE Directions I desire you would, with all convenient Speed, communicate to the Clergy of your Diocese, assuring them, that it is your fix'd Resolution to make them the Rule of your own Practice. In the mean time commending you to the Divine Blessing, I remain,

My LORD,
