To the Worthy Electors of Westminster.

GENTLEMEN, YOUR Votes and Interest are desired for

Sir George Vandeputt, Bart.

A True Lover of the Laws and Liberties of England.

- Quære* 1. Whether, upon your late Representative's Resignation of the Trust you had repos'd in him, he ought not to have taken the Opinion of a general Meeting, if thought a proper Person for your future Confidence.
2. Whether his nominating himself a Candidate without such Opinion, does not imply a sevreign Sufficiency in himself as well as Contempt of his Electors.
3. Whether, from his Behaviour, it may not fairly be infer'd; that he thinks, the Admiral can command, what the Lord formerly condescended to solicit.
4. Whether a PLACE is such an Ingredient in a Member of Parliament, as is likely to render him of more constitutional Service to his Country or Constituents.
5. Whether, by the Suddenness of the Election, it was not intended (according to some late political Practices) to smuggle a Member upon this City.
6. Whether, if a Representative thinks proper to vacate his Seat without Your Consent, it may not be prudent to fill it up again without His.
