

Bodleian Libraries

This book is part of the collection held by the Bodleian Libraries and scanned by Google, Inc. for the Google Books Library Project.

For more information see:

http://www.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/dbooks

This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 2.0 UK: England & Wales (CC BY-NC-SA 2.0) licence.

SERMON

Preached to the

SOCIETIES

FOR

Reformation of Manners,

AT

St. Mary-le-Bow,

0 N

Monday, January the 15th, 1732.

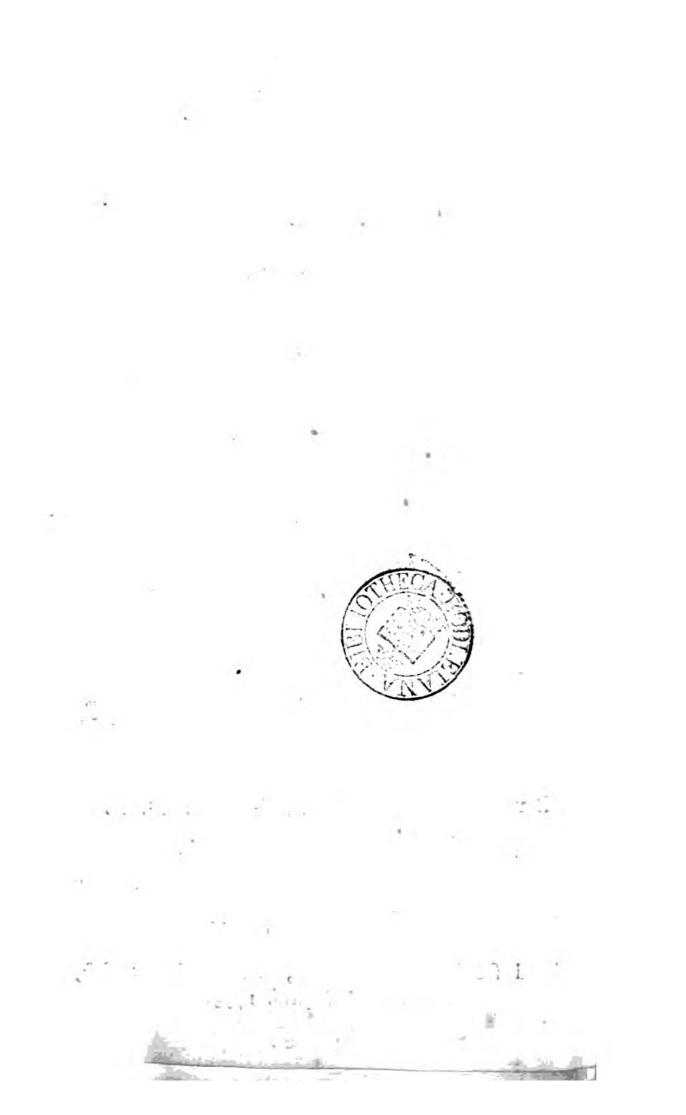

By JAMES KNIGHT, D. D.

Vicar of St. SEPULCHRE'S.

LONDON,

Printed for Jos. DOWNING, in Bartholomew-Close, near West-Smithfield. 1733.

(15.1

[3]

ISAIAH LIX. 19.

When the Enemy shall come in like a Flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a Standard against him.

H E Prophet, in the Context, gives a Description of the heinous Sins against G o D and Man, committed by the Jews, together with their dark and unhappy Condition, consequent thereupon; their Hearts were Sources of evil Thoughts, which their Mouths discharged in perverse Words, and their Hands and Feet were forward to execute; their Iniquity was such, that it broke off Communion with Almighty $G \circ D$; that it stood, as a Cloud, intercepting their Prayers, that they could not ascend to the Throne of Mercy; and left them in a dark and defolate State, with no Prospect of Peace and Happines, but with the stad Prognostics of approaching Ruin. The deadly Contagion was so far spread through every Rank and Condition A 2 of

4 A SERMON before the Societies

of Men, that not one could be found to stand in the Breach, and divert the Wrath of Almighty GOD from the Sinners Heads. He faw that there was no Man, (ver. 16.) and wondred that there was no Interceffor : In this Diffrefs, Mercy interposed, and set up a Standard to oppose Wickedness come in upon them like a fweeping Flood, and reftore Truth and Virtue to the Earth. The Chapter is a Prophecy of that which should happen in remote Times, and relates to the moral and religious State of the Jewish Church, when the Son of Gop should be ready to come and abolish Sin, and destroy the Devil, by his own Death ; that is, the Chapter foretels, that the Period allotted to the Jewish Oeconomy being almost ended, the Sins of the Nation would become fo great, that the Spirit of G o'D would lift up a Standard in Jefus Chrift, both GOD and Man, who should put a Stop to the growing Wickednefs, and deftroy the Devil, the Author of it.

THAT in Christ's Time there was such a Decline in the Jewish Church, the Gospel informs us in the clearest Terms. The Truth was corrupted (a), both prophetic and moral, with false Gloss; and some were so blinded, as to dare to maintain (b) there was no Refurrestion, neither Angel nor Spirit; the ritual Law, appointed for a Time, was observed by them with more Exactness than the Duties of Love, which always oblige, (c) for they passed over Judgment and the Love of God. They were more more intent on (a) washing the Hands, than purifying the Heart; on a Form of Godlineis, than the Power of it. Their Charity (b) to Men, and Devotion (c) to God, were done in a Manner, that shewed their Intention was popular Applause, or to cover (d) Hypocrify with other Wickedness abounding in them. They were Lovers (e) of the World, more than of GOD; Rebels in their Heart against GOD's Ordinance (f), the Civil Magistrate; and Despifers (g) of others, who had less shew of external Righteousness, but more Humility from a Senfe of their Sins. Their falfe Zeal in building (b) the Sepulchres of antient Prophets, was a dark Prelude to their finishing their Wickednefs with the worft of Crimes, the publick Crucifizion of the Son of GOD; in thort, their Righteousness was such, as none could (i) be faved by; and their Wickednefs fo great, they could hardly escape (k) the Damnation of Hell.

(a) Mat. xv. 3-10. Acts xiii. 27. (b) Acts xxiii. 8. (r) Lake xi. 42.

AND that Christ was raifed up for a Standard or Enfign in this Diffrefs, to revive the Knowledge and Practice of Truth, and abolish Sin with the Author of it, when the World was weak, and none could oppose them but Divine Power, is clear from 1/aiab, as well as St. John; from the Prophet Ifaiab in these Words, in that Day (1) there shall be a Root of Jeffe, which shall stand for an Enfign of the People ; to it shall the Gentiles feek : parallel to

- (a) Mark vii. 3.
- (d) Matth. xxiii. 25-29. (f) Matth. xxii. 15.-23.
- (b) Matth. xxiii. 29, &c.
- (k) Matth. xxiii. 33.
- (b) Matth. vi. 2. (c) Ver. 5.
- (e) Luke xvi. 14. John v. 44.
 - (g) Luke xviii. 9-15. (i) Matth. v. 20.
 - (1) Ifa. xi. 10.

to which are the Words of Christ in the Gofpel of St. John, and I, if I be lifted up from the Earth (a), will draw all Men unto me: this be faid, fignifying what Death he should die; by which Death undergone on the Cross, he destroyed him (b) that had the Power of Death, that is, the Devil.

THE fame Method of raifing up Perfons of Knowledge and Faith, was observed by Providence on like Occasions at other Junctures. Abraham (c) was called both to check the Progrefs of increasing Idolatry, and to put a Stop to the Conquests and Successes of those Princes, who were Patrons of it, and in whofe Dominions the Error began. And to pass by others, both eminent Perfons and Bodies of Men, who were timely raifed to fupport Virtue, and confound Vice, Johah appeared, according to Prophecy, to purge the Land from their Anceftors Sins, to renew the Covenant with Almighty GOD, and prevent, if poffible, by a thorough Reformation, the impending Ruin, which foon followed after his Death, through the Peoples Obstinacy, and the Prince's Folly.

WHAT has been done in our own Days, or what Standard GOD has fet up to fupprefs Wickednefs, we may fee with Pleafure in this awful Place, where excellent Perfons of different Ranks and eminent Stations, would not have affembled at this Time, if the Caufe of GOD, the Love of Mankind, and the Good of the Publick, had not engaged them in the pious Defign

(a) John xii. 32, 33. fee also ch. iii. 14. which compare with Numb. xxi. 8, 9. (b) Heb. ii. 14. (c) Gen. xiv.

Defign of ftemming the Torrent of abounding Wickednefs. What the Sins are which have given an Occafion to this Stand, we very well know; they are not concealed in dark Corners and fecret Receffes, but thruft themfelves upon us, wherefoever we go; and overgrown Wickednefs walks in our Streets, with the Air and Impudence of a bold Strumpet.

I SHALL not entertain you with the long Detail of fo horrid a Scene, which Action must remedy, and not Words. I shall only beg leave to touch by the way on two or three Sins of the largest Size, by which we may judge unto what Stature Sin has attained in the present Age.

THE first is, Apostacy from revealed Truth. If the Scriptures were delivered by Perfons acted by the Holy Ghoft, as Christians believe on the best Evidence, which has stood the Test of many Generations, and cannot give way to modern Attacks, having always triumphed in like Encounters with rude Infidels, the Scheme of Religion contained in them, or the Gofpel Scheme, is the Counfel of God, or the Method of Providence, foretold by the Prophets, and established in Jesus the Son of Mary, of the Seed of David, by which he decreed to deliver Man from the Guilt of Sin, and the Power of Death. The Substance of which is in short this, that a great King, Prophet, and Prieft, the Head of Mankind, both the Son of God, and the Son of Man, should appear in the World to reftore Truth, to renew Righteoufnefs, and to fave Man from the Confequences of Sin; and that at a Time, when the State of the World

8 ASERMON before the SociETIES

World should be so far depraved by a long Progrefs in Error and Vice, that nothing could prevail to divert the Stroke of Divine Justice, but his great Merit, Interceffion, and Sacrifice ; and that Jefus Chrift was this Prince and Deliverer, proved to be fuch by a punctual Accomplishment of ancient Prophecies, respecting the Time of his first Coming ; by a Course of Miracles during his Ministry, which none could perform but the great GOD, who created all Things; and after his Death, by his rifing again in the fame Body, a Pledge and Affurance to all Believers of the like Iffue of their Life of Faith, working by Love. This with the Truths relating to the Spirit, is the Sum of a Doctrine firmly established on the clearest Evidence, believed by Men of the greatest Abilities in all Ages, juffified in the Lives of eminent Saints and Martyrs difperfed through the World, and received into States, as the pureft Means to train up the People in the feveral Duties of the focial Life, and for future Happinefs. Now the Scriptures containing these weighty Truths, in Defiance to Evidence, to the Senfe of the Learned, to National Wildom, and the Fitnefs of the Scheme to the Circumstances of Men, are openly attacked as Forgery and Imposture by hardy Spirits, who do not confider, they confirm the Truth of what they oppose, by fulfilling the Prophecies contained in them; and with fo much Spleen, as may ufually be expected from unfettled Minds, which, not fatisfied with their own Systems, relieve their Uneafinefs by the rough Affaults which they make make on others ; and to what End ? but to fet up a Faculty as fupreme Guide, which, without Revelation, cannot difcover the Counfel of GOD ; and which, biaffed by Appetites, and temporary Views, can never produce a confiftent Scheme of Doctrines and Precepts in different Persons, whose ruling Passions are not the same. As Pride runs through this whole Management, which will not permit them to think themfelves fuch, as Scripture describes them in their natural State; and they fcorn to be Debtors for their Future Happiness to another's Merit, which they hope to gain by their own Conduct; and as Habit has advanced them to the Scorner's Seat, there is little Hope of reforming these, but by such Method as Solomon prefcribes, Smite the Scorner, and the Simple will beware (a).

THE fecond Sin, is that of Uncleanness, the natural Confequent of the Love of Error : For if Men fall from the Spirit of God, which fanctifies the Body, it is no Wonder they become Slaves to the Lufts of it. Having turned their Backs to the Means of Salvation appointed of GOD, they have no folid and well-grounded. Hope of their Future Happineis, no lasting and firm Peace in their own Minds, the pure Effect of Righteoufnels and Truth, nor any Teftimony of a good Confeience. In this Uncertainty and Darkness within, they are forced to look for the Comfort without, which they cannot find in their own Bosom; sensible Objects are the Goods applied to for this purpose; the importunate Appetite is chiefly indulged; В and

(a) Prov. xix. 25.

and the Reafon they boaft of, is vilely imployed to defend the Practice: Nay, this fort of Commerce is fo tenderly thought of, in certain Circumstances, by some People, that the BIBLE it felf has been tampered with by them, and a new Verfion published to the World, with such Variations from the old Text, as would almost perfwade us they were purpofely made for the Sake of those, who retaining a Reverence for this Book, could not be expected to comply with a Practice condemned in it; for Harlot and Whore, the common Appellations for unmarried Women lewdly conforting with unmarried Men, are changed into (a) Terms, which feem to be defigned to exclude all, but the worfe Sinners of the lewd Kind, from the Number branded with those Names.

IF the wanton Appetite be not reftrained in its first Sallies, what Security can the Sober have, that it will not advance to greater Excess, and invade the Right and Property of others? and what Confusion will not enfue in the conjugal State upon fuch Infults? mutual Affection and Confidence will ceafe; Families be corrupted with a vile Iffue, multiplied for the Sword, the Pestilence, and the Famine, or other Calamities; Education be neglected; the Parents punished in the Vices and Rebellions of their wicked Children, and the Children undone by the bad Example of their worfe Parents; and publick Profperity founded on the Prudence of Family-Oeconomy will fink with it. BUT

(a) See New Verfion, Matth. xxi. 31. Luke xv. 31. 1 Cor. vi. 15. Heb. xi. 31. James ii. 25.

BUT the worft Sin of the lewd Kind, is Unnatural Lust, an outward Sign of an inward Apostacy from God's Word. St. Paul mentions it as a Crime prevailing in the Dregs of Time; They changed, fays he, the Glory of the uncorruptible God into an Image made like unto corruptible (a) Man, and to Birds, and four footed Beafts, and creeping Things. ---- For this Caufe, God gave them up unto vile Affections, &c. Apostacy from GOD gave an Occasion to the heinous Sin, and the heinous Sin practifed by many, shewed the Extent of the Apostacy from God. If we look o'er the Catalogue which the Apostle gives us of the Sins of the Times, we shall foon fee that none could be worfe. The blackeft Iniquity may fometime be acted in the best Days, but when Numbers are concerned, the Extent of the Caufe is known from the Effect. There were Sodomites in the Land (b), was a Mark of Infamy, when Idolatry revived, and Uncleannefs followed as the Shadow of it; the taking away whom, is mentioned with Honour of King Aja, as a visible Proof, that be did (c) right in the Eyes of the Lord; and is Part of the Character of good Jehoshaphat, who finished (d) the Work of rooting out this vile and abominable Race, which his Father had begun. As this great Sin difcovered of late in the Practice of many, is a Sign of Infidelity fecretly propagated, fo the vigorous Efforts made to suppress it, may be looked on, I hope, as the Effect of the Grace and Goodnefs of GOD, as a comfortable Omen that his King. B 2

(a) Rom. i. 23, 26. (c) 1 Kings xv. 11, 12. (b) 1 Kings xiv. 24. (d) _____ xxii. 46.

12 A SERMON before the Societies

Kingdom will be fuffered to continue with us, and in part, a fulfilling of the Words of my Text. A late Adverfary to revealed Truth, in touching on the War that was made on Benjamin by the other Tribes, for attempting the Wickednefs I now fpeak of, though they failed in it, and for practifing another of a leffer Kind, or probably the fame, with the utmost Greedines, calls it, a Quarrel the oddest that ever was(a), though the Offenders were protected by the whole Tribe, and the Crime fuch as threatned to root out the whole Nation, if it were not reftrained by timelyReproof; but fuch are the Sentiments of these Moralists, and fuch the Reformation the World must expect.

⁶ THE third Sin is, Open Perjury in Courts ⁶ of Justice. An Oath is a folemn and reli-⁶ gious Act, where the Perfon fwearing, calls ⁶ upon GOD, the impartial Judge, and most ⁶ fure Avenger of false Dealing, to witness the ⁶ Truth of fomething affirmed or denied by ⁶ him; which, if not performed with an honess ⁶ Mind, is a heinous Crime in respect of GOD, ⁶ of the Civil Magistrate, of the Perfon injured, ⁶ and the false Swearer.

'IN respect of GOD: For the hardened 'Wretch, who touches the Gospels with a 'Hand defiled with the Works of Wickedness, and kisses the Book with deceitful Lips, in order to testify and establish a Lie, is guilty of a Sin, which in Truth implies, whatsoever Appearance it may outwardly have, 'that

(a) Christianity as old, Gr. p. 348.

What is thus mark'd ['] was not delivered in the Preaching.

that he does not believe that there is any GOD, the Witnefs and Avenger of falfe Swearing, or that any Providence governs the World; that the Scriptures he fwears on, are a facred Syftem of Doctrines and Precepts given by GOD; and that any better and more ufeful Guide can be followed by him, than his own Senfe and Opinion of Things, howfoever difagreeable to publick Laws, if he can but efcape the Penalties of them. Such is the Contempt which is flung upon GOD, and his holy Word, by the Sin of Perjury.

' IN respect of the Magistrate; who, not ' being prefent in all Places at all Times, muft take Information from others Report, and act ' in Conformity to the Evidence given. In ' which Cafe, the Civil Authority may be fo far abused by mischievous Tongues, represent-' ing Matters in a false Light, as to mils of the ' End for which it was ordained, the Encouragement of Virtue, and the Punishment of · Vice ; and the Sword be directed at the Head ' of those whom it ought to protect; and un-· happily imployed to protect those whom it ' ought to punish; a Misfortune fo great, that * perhaps a greater can hardly happen to a good " Magistrate, intent on the Benefit of each In-" dividual, as well as the whole.

IN respect of the Injured: For the false
Swearer dresses the Innocent in his own Crimes, and appears adorned with the other's Virtues;
by which Fraud, he gains the Encouragement due to Virtue; and the Honess and Just, the Rewards of Wickedness. Where this prevails, there is no Security; nothing we enjoy

14 ASERMON before the Societies

' enjoy can be called our own, but a good Con-· fcience, and God's Favour. The Labour of · Years, and the fweet Fruits of a painful In-' duftry, may be fnatched from us in a Mo-' ment of Time by a perjured Tongue. Vir-' tuous may be turned into vicious Actions; · Credit and Interest, the outward Advantages ' of a good Life, may be fuddenly funk; and ' the best of Men be put on a Level with the ' worft Subjects by the Magic of it; especi-' ally those, who, resisting the Progress of a-· bounding Wickednefs, are exposed thereby to ' its Lash and Venom above others. A Man · that beareth false Witness against his Neigh-· bour, fays Solomon (a), is a Maul, and a Sword, ' and a sharp Arrow.

' IN respect of the Perjured : For he who ' fwears, renounces the Help of Almighty GoD, · if he do not fpeak in Sincerity and Truth. · So help me God, fays he, that is, as the Word · is true, or the Promise fure, which his Lips · have uttered. By which it appears, that the · falle Swearer forfeits the Protection and Fa-· vour of GOD, the greatest Loss which a Man · can fustain on this Side the Grave. For no-· thing can conduct us, but God's Grace, thro' • the various Trials of this Life; can direct our · Counfels, prosper our Endeavours, and at last · convey us through the Gates of Death, to e-· ternal Happinefs. Sad then is his State, who, · ftript of the Help and Protection of GoD, ' is exposed thereby to the manifold Ills, which ' the Cunning of Men, and the Malice of Sa-' tan, may contrive against him; who always ' rang-ranging, like a hungry Lion, through the wide · World, devours faithlefs and unhappy Souls, ' which forfake the Fortress of Divine Power. • For the perjured Man (a) is hated of GOD, as ' a bold Profaner of his holy Name; the Juffice ' he appealed to, daily (b) purfues him; the ' Cries of the Injured teftify against him, and · call for Vengeance; the Curfe due to his ' heinous Wickedness preys (c) on his Family ' like a foul Leprofy, or an eating Canker; and the profane Tongue, shall be (d) burnt ' and tortured with eternal Fire. Such is the ' Damage which refults on the perjured and ' deceitful Man, from his Sin against GOD, the ' Magistrate, his Neighbour, and his own Soul.

(a) Prov. xxv. 18.

I MIGHT add fomething of the various Forms which Sin has appeared in among others, who feem to profess the Religion of Christ; such as, Cursing and Swearing, notorious Frauds and Breaches of Trust, Violence and Rapine, with other Vices obvious to most; but I hast to speak of the Cause and Remedy.

THE inward Caufe, as is well known, is the Principle of Sin fubfifting in the Nature derived from Adam; but the Doctrine of Chrift being published to the World to prevent its Increase, and instruct the Mind in Virtue and Truth, a Question may be asked, how it comes to pass, that it has not obtained the defired Effect? The best Answer I can possibly make, and what I am perswaded is the chief Reason, is the great Neglect of the facred Books, contain-

(a) Prov. vi. 16, 19. (b) ch. xix. 5, 21, 28. (c) Zech. v. 3, 4.

(d) Pfalm cxx. 3. Old Verfion, comp. with James iii. 6.

16 A SERMON before the Societies

taining the Rule both of Faith and Manners; my Meaning is this, that Error and Vice could never have fpread into all Ranks, nor attained to that Stature, Confidence, and Strength, which they have at prefent, had the Word of Go p been allowed a Place in every Family, and been read and confidered with a Zeal equal to the Importance of it. There is no Hope of a publick Reformation but from that of Families; nor of that of Families, but from fome perfect and adequate Rule, unmixed with the Fancies and Errors of Men, which Mafters and Parents may all depend on as a fure Director of their own Conduct; and by Help of which, they may teach, correct, and educate others under their Care, for the honeft Support of the Business of Life, and the Bleffing of GOD in the next World. Were the Bible often in every one's Hand, the Doctrine it contains would be written on his Heart, and impreffed upon his Mind; it would fpread its; Influence through the whole Man, and furnish. him with proper and inftructive Thoughts on every Occafion inviting him to fin. But without the Direction of God's Word, and the Grace accompanying the Knowledge of it, each. must be guided by his own Light, imperfect as it is, which, fecretly biaffed by fome ruling Paffion, will ever be forward to determine for the Flesh, where Flesh is concerned, and not for the Caufe of Virtue and Truth, or accordding to the Nature and Reafon of Things.

THIS then being the Cafe, the first Step towards a publick Reformation by amending Fa-

Families, is to do our Endeavour, that the Use of the BIBLE be revived in them. The Doctrine is derived from the Spirit of God, who, perfect in Knowledge, adapts his Laws to the Nature and Circumstances of Mankind, and does not oppress them with unprofitable Truth. The End it proposes, is the Vision of GoD; and the Means is fuch, as cannot be met with in any System of Doctrines and Precepts, that folely proceed from rational Light, being the pure Effect of the infinite Wildom and Goodnefs of God, which none could difcover till himself revealed it by his own Spirit. It shews us our Corruption, as a faithful Mirror the Blemishes of the Face; the Misery we are exposed to without a Remedy; the Nature of the Remedy provided by GOD; the Manner of applying it, or Conditions requifite on Man's Part, to obtain the Benefit; the present Advantage of fuch Application; and the future Bleffing in the State of Glory. Its Pages fwell with fo copious, inftructive, and delightful a Variety of Facts and Remarks, Exhortations and Precepts, relating to private and publick Life, to Persons and Communities; and open fo large and furprizing a Scene of divine Oeconomy, that it truly may be faid, that the Order of Nature and civil Prosperity depend on the Knowledge and Practice of them. For certain it is, that the publick Peace and Welfare of the Jews, and their natural Bleffings, were more or lefs, as the Law was regarded or neglected by them; and there is no Reason to expect lefs from from a constant Adherence to the Gospel of Christ.

18 A SERMON before the Societies

BUT further; the Book of GOD should often be read with Attention equal to the Importance of it : Be read often; to renew the Memory of what we have learned, which might otherwife be loft in the Torrent of Bufinefs rolling in upon us every Day." For the Doctrines relating to the Person, Dignity, and Miniftry of Chrift, the Trinity in Unity, and the Method of Salvation, being transmitted to us in the facred Books, and not difcoverable by meer Reafon or natural Light, might foon be forgotten, if they were not impressed and fixed in the Mind, by frequent Recourses to God's Word. The fame must be faid of the moral Law, the Duties of which are fummed up in Love, which should bear a Proportion in the Gospel Oeconomy to (a) the Love of GOD in his Son Chrift. It must also be read with Attention by our felves, and with Diligence to our Families; and the Paffages compared, the dark with the clear, that the Light of one may illustrate the other, till the whole be digested, and become a Part of our own felves : Ye fhall teach your Children, fays Go D, fpeaking of them, when thou fittest in thine House (b), and when thou walkest by the Way; when thou liest down, and when thou rifest up : And Solomon, When thou goeft, it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee (c). The Pfalmift was fo zealous in conver-

(a) i John iv. 10, 11. John xiii. 34. xv. 12. (b) Deut. vi. 7. (c) Prov. vi. 22. verfing with the Law, or meditating on it, that he fays, Mine Eyes prevent the Night-watches, that I might meditate in thy Word (a). And the Advantage was fuch, that he gratefully declares it in these Words, Thou (b) through thy Commandments hast made me wiser than mine Enemies, for they are ever with me. I have more Understanding than all my Teachers, for thy Testimonies are my Meditation. I understand more than the Antients, because I keep thy Precepts.

THE Bufinefs of the World fhould be no Objection in this Cafe; for the Knowledge of Truth, which quickens the Soul, is of more Concern to the Happinefs of Man, than a temporal Intereft affecting the Body, and extending no farther than this Life. The most bufy Men, howfoever oppressed with the Weight of Affairs, will yet find Leisure to refresh the Body, and why not the Soul? will dedicate Evenings to Company and Mirth, and why not a Part of their spare Time to converse with Scripture, a fure Guide, a Comforter in Trouble, a Fund of folid and concealed Pleasure, fweeter (c) than Honey, and the Honey-comb, and furpaffing in Value the greatest Treasure?

IF those who attend on the Business of Shops, would employ Part of their dead Hours every Day, when Trade intermits, in reading the Bible, and not in a listless and idle Posture, or in gazing on the Crowd that passes by the Door, or amuzing the Mind with unprofitable Books, or mischievous Pamphlets, which the Age abounds with, the unhappy Product of misem-C 2 ployed

(a) Pfalm cxix. 148. (b) Ver. 98, 99, 100. (a) Pfalm xix. 10.

20 A SERMON before the Societies

ployed Heads; and if other Perfons of higher Stations, and greater Talents, would not be backward to confult a Rule defigned for the Benefit of all Ranks and Conditions of Men. what an Improvement would they not make in Knowledge and Practice? how would they be able to caft off the Impressions of Error and Vice? the important Truth would be uppermost in their Minds; their Heart would burn with the Love of it; and the Mouth speak from the Abundance of the Heart. Conversation would turn on the right Foot; and religious Difcourfe, accounted by many an unfit Entertainment for polite Company, would recover its Credit in the Interview of Friends, and prove a Refreshment, exceeding any thing that Wealth could afford for the Pleafure of Sense. But the Practice of some is an evident Proof, that their spare Hours are otherwife fpent, than in reading and meditating on God's Word.

THE poorer Sort, who have little Pleafure in this World, fhould, above others, feek for their Comfort in this Book, and fupport their Spirits in their low State, with the Hope of the Promifes contained in it; but Experience teaches us, it is quite otherwife with many of them. They do not fly to the Word of GoD for Relief in their Trouble, Labour, and Pain, but to Publick-houfes, looking no further than the little Refreshment they find there, the Effect of which being foon over, they repeat the Remedy, till in Process of Time they ruin their Body to quiet their Mind. It is much to be feared, feared, that the Word of GOD is the only Neceffary which they have not purchased; for it is fcarce credible, but fo good a Book, were it always by them, would invite them fometime to look into it; or that any could read, and not be reproved, or instructed by it. The first Impreffion, which is thus made, might prepare the Way for a fecond Thought, and gently lead them to higher Sentiments, and a better Conduct. For the Word of GOD (a) is like as a Fire, - and like a Hammer that breaketh the Rocks in Pieces. It is quick (b), and powerful, and sharper than any two edged Sword, piercing even to the dividing afunder of Soul and Spirit, and of the Joints and Marrow, and is a Difcerner of the Thoughts and Intents of the Heart. There is enough plain for the meaneft Capacity; the Grace of GOD will never be wanting to fincere Hearts; and the Learned are near to refolve Difficulties.

I F any be fo poor, that their fmall Income, which their bodily Wants continually demand, is the true Reafon, that they are not provided with this Book; in fuch cafe, to procure them That which they cannot purchafe, or to ufe their Endeavours that the Word of G o D, the Food of the Soul, be reduced to a Price, which does not exceed the Condition of the Poor, is a Work worthy of the Bounty of the Rich, and Authority of the Great. For the high Price is a Famine of the Word. Whatfoever abundance the Shops may afford, it is not for thofe who cannot be Purchafers, for on other Terms they will

(a) Jer. xxiii. 29.

(b) Heb. iv. 12.

22 ASERMON before the Societies

will hardly be fupplied, if they be not relieved by liberal Hands. But the generous Pity, which you fhewed to Chriftians of remote Countries, in the rich Prefent of facred Books, which you fent among them in their own Language, is a Ground of Hope to our ownPoor, that you cannot obferve their neceffitous State in your own Gates, near your own Doors, without extending convenient Relief according to your Power. For it no lefs concerns us to preferve Chriftianity in our own Land, than to use our Endeavours to revive it abroad.

I cannot but observe before I proceed to the next Head, that the great Reformations wrought in the Church, and the firm Adherence of private Christians, to the true Faith in perfecuting Times, were each owing to the facred Books, either publickly read, or privately studied. Ezra reformed (a) upon this Foot; they read in the Book, in the Law of God distinctly, and gave the Senfe, and caufed them to understand the Reading. And fo did Josiab, guided therein by the very Book, which the Lawgiver left them for a certain Standard of pure Doctrine to fucceeding Ages; he read in their Ears all the Words of the Book of the Covenant that was found in the House of the Lord (b) - and made a Covenant before the Lord, ---- to perform the Words of the Covenant, which are written in this Book. As Idolatry vanished at the Light of them, fo the Gentile Converts could not be reduced to their old Superstition by the worst Treatment, 10

(a) Nehem. viii. 8. fee alfo, ver. 13, 14. ch. ix. 3, 38. x. 29.

(b) 2 Chron. xxxiv. 30, 31.

fo long as the Scriptures continued in their Hands, and were read in private. Hence it came to pass that the Persecutors Rage fell on the BIBLE as well as on the Pastors, the removing of whom from their feveral Flocks could avail little, while their Place was fupplied by fo perfect a Guide as the Gospel at Home. An Edict was published to compel them to deliver up the facred Books. Those who complyed, were looked on as Renouncers of the true Faith; but the brave Christian chose to fubmit to the worst Punishment, rather than be guilty of acting a Part, which too much refembled the Sin of Judas; and Christianity was preferved through their obstinate Zeal together with the BIBLE. Can then any one think, that That which supported the Christian Religion under fuch Difficulties, is not fufficient, if read and confidered, to revive and advance it in peaceable Times? What was the Confequence of not allowing it to private Families, most of us know. The Doctrines of Men were put in the Place of revealed Truth; and Articles introduced, which had no Foundation in God's Word, or were contrary to it. The Scripture reformed us from these Errors, and Scripture must preferve us from returning to them; for the Mind deftitute of God's Truth, is unarmed, and exposed to the Subtleties of Satan, and the Delutions of Men. What Attempts have been lately made to deftroy the Credit of this Book, is evident to all, who obferve the Diligence of a Set of Men, to compafs the vain and romantick Defign of rooting out out facred and revealed Truth. But I hope it is a Leffon to fincere Christians of every Rank to study it the more, fince the Importance of it to support Christianity is confessed by their Enemies, while they spare no Pains to leffen its Authority, and wrest it, if possible, out of Mens Hands.

THE fecond Step towards reforming the Publick, by amending Families, is the good Example of the Heads of them. Example shews that the Rule is practicable; as the Ufefulnefs of it to the Ends of Life, that it came from a Being perfectly wife, who adapts his Laws to the Nature of Things. The great Legislator, the Son of GOD, who delivered a Rule both for publick Life, and private Oeconomy, did not attempt to reform the World by Precept alone. Whatfoever he preffed on the Confciences of Men, he punctually fulfilled, as Circumstances permitted, in his own Person. His whole Life was a Comment on the Rule, and an outward Expression of its great Power. The Faith, the Patience, the Obedience, and Love, inculcated by him, appeared in the Cures and Wonders he wrought; in bearing Contradiction from the worst of Men, and submitting to Death, the Death of the Crofs, to execute the Counfel of him who fent him. And the Tendency and Iffue of the new Covenant, were displayed in Miniature in his Perfon, whole perfect Obedience was foon followed with a Train of Bleffings, whereby we are taught, that by fo obeying, we shall to triumph. Now That which was done by the Son of GOD, must be practifed by Parents and Mafters

Masters of Families in their private Sphere, that is, their Actions must confirm what their Mouth teaches; and the Fitnefs of the Rule. for the Peace and Happiness of the social Life, must be made to appear, from the good Effects that accrue to Families, from the Ufe of it; for these less Societies bear a Resemblance with greater Bodies. The good Conduct of a prudent Head, with the Comfort and Order confequent thereupon, both convince Beginners in the Path of Virtue, that 'the Difficulties of it are not invincible as Fear may represent, and further encourage them to try the lifue, which will more than recompence all that they fuffer by perfifting in it. The bright Example of fo good a Man is not confined to his own Family. The Influence is extended as far as his Commerce. And it teaches those, who will not be reformed by Liberty of Speech. The good Liver is always instructing in a filent Way. His Course of Actions is a constant Lecture, and his whole Life a State of Contention with wick-They fee their Follies in his Perfeced Men. tions. And his rigid Virtue, if it cannot reform by teftifying against them, yet will hardly fail to put them to Shame. They that for fake the Law, fays Solomon (a), praise the Wicked; but such as keep the Law contend with them.

IF a Man, bleffed with a found Mind, and Riches fufficient to procure him the Pleafures and Amufements of Life, be found to employ them in a temperate Way, and in Acts of Beneficence to Mankind, turning his Back to fen-D

(a) Prov. xxviii. 4.

26 A SERMON before the Societies

fual Delights, and directing his Countenance to fomething better, as his chief Good, than the World affords : What an Incitement to a Life of Virtue is not here given to his Friends and Family? His Temperance is his Choice, and not of Neceffity. His Prudence fecures him from Sufpicion of Weaknefs. And they cannot but believe, from his fleady Pursuit of what he is engaged in, that he would not have flighted a prefent Felicity, which many prefer, if a greater Pleafure did not arife from observing the Rule, than departing from it; and he had not been affured of a better lifue of renouncing the World, than conforming to it; the Hope of which can prevail more to confirm his Practice, than the best Advantages of this Life, to divert him from it. From this Observation, and these Thoughts, they proceed to confider the Grounds of his Conduct, which fortifying the Mind to refift Pleasure, thew their Sufficiency to support and comfort it in all Troubles. Whereas on the other Side, if Heads of Families caft off the Bands of Virtue and Truth, which they feem folicitous to impose on others; what an Occafion of Anger and Scorn is hereby administred to those under them! who may thus argue in their own Hearts; If you hate the Faults you reprove in others, why do you practife That which you hate? If you love the Duties you inculcate on them, why are you negligent in what you approve? They will refolve all into temporal Views, and not a Concern for their future Happines; which they hardly can believe that any will confult, whole own Satisfaction faction only arifes from fenfual Pleafure. The abfurd Conduct may tempt them to fufpect, that the Rule is contrived to inflave fome for the Benefit of others; and Actions being confidered as Interpreters of Words, it is no Wonder if they drop the Rule, that is painful and contrary to Flefh and Blood in its plain Senfe, and follow the Comment agreeable to them.

THE last Step I shall here mention, towards reforming the Publick, by amending Families, is private Discipline. If the Rule of Truth, confirmed and explained in the Lives and Actions of virtuous Parents, Masters, or Governors, be yet difregarded by negligent, ftubborn, and ill-difpofed Youth, Difcipline muft fucceed, and reftrain That by timely Severity, which cannot be corrected by milder Methods. If they will not act as intelligent Beings, but become like Beafts that have no Understanding, they must not complain if they are treated like them. It is an Act of Pity exercised towards them, and a prudent Provision for our own Safety as well as others. It is an Act of Pity to the Sinners themfelves, as it tends to prevent them from finishing their Sin; as it gives them Occasion to reflect on the Error of their past Conduct, and the Issue of purfuing the fame Measures; and separates them from their Counfellors and Companions in Sin.

It is a prudent Provision for our own Safety, fince Vice unreftrained, will expose our Fortunes, Credit, and Persons, to the Frauds and Injuries of wicked Domesticks. And for others Safety, fince the Rebel at home, will hardly be D 2 quiet quiet and orderly abroad. If a Child be refractory, or a Servant Slothful, Dishonest, or Profane, their Vices will follow them wherefoever they go. Publick and Private make no Difference in this Matter. A change of Situation changes not Manners. Their Sin will operate in all Conditions, in every Air; and their Private appear in their Publick Behaviour. The Streets will ring with their Oaths and Curfes; the Houses of Refort will proclaim their Excefs. They will purfue their Follies as far as they can; and will not be backward, when their own is wafted, to fupply their Wants out of other Men's Fortunes. They will be Knaves in Business, and Plunderers out of it. The Roads and the Streets will fcarcely be free from their bold infults. The Simple and Industrious will be Tributary to them. And the honeft Man, who strictly adheres to the Methods of Juffice, and cannot retaliate Violence with Violence, or one Fraud with another, will find himfelf oppressed by a fett of Men, for Protection from whom the Laws were appointed, and the Sword put into the Magistrate's Hand. The checking this Wickedness in its first Efforts, before it arrives at Confidence and Strength, is the Work of Families; for the Torrent of Iniquity is fed by Rivulets from these Springs.

CHILDREN are a Truft committed to Parents by Almighty God, to be trained and difciplined for his Service, and in fuch Manner as himfelf has prefcribed; and not to be fashioned as their Friends please, whose temporal Views fometimes accomplish them more for the Service vice of the God of this World, than the GOD of Heaven. Nor should Masters think, that a prefent Advantage, or the learning a Trade to procure the Conveniencies of a fhort Life, is the only End they are obliged to purfue in educating Youth. No; the Principal Business for which they were made, is to ferve GoD, and express his Image in a Life of Virtue. This should be uppermost in every Office and Station of Life, and ought not to be prejudiced by any Contract or Covenant with Man. For which Reafon, the want of Difcretion in a Child removed from his Parents Care, should be constantly supplied by the Master's Prudence, and every Thing be done to reform or improve, which the Friends themselves should have done for him, had the Youth continued under their Government. Does he come recommended with a good Education? 'tis the Master's Duty to finish the Work, as far as he can, so happily begun. Is he curfed with a bad One? it no lefs becomes him to undo all; and add this to the worldly benefits received from him, that by found Instruction and due Restraint, he become the Parent of the Child's Hope of a better Life. But what a Reproach would it caft on him, should a good Education be suffered to be lost, or a bad one to continue in his Family through his Fault! or what Satisfaction would it prove to the Youth, that he has gained an Art, which only can profit him in this Life, at the expence of Innocence, Virtue, and Truth, which, if duely cultivated, would have made him happy in both Worlds? The like Conduct should be thewn

٩.

Thewn by Maîters, with proper Abatements, to their other Servants: But if after all, the inbred Iniquity awed and kept under by private Difcipline, caft off Reftraint when the Servant is freed, or the Child attains to the Stature of Man; or impatient of Reproof, flies for Relief to the Patrons of Wickednefs; the Publick Difcipline fucceeds the Private, and the ftubborn Neck, which would not fubmit to the Yoke of Wood, is forced to bend down to the Yoke of Iron.

IF they ftill contend with National Juftice, as they did with Private, and Punishments repeated only produce repetition of Sin, a general good will however refult from extream Punishment, the Publick will be freed from Enemies to Order, Industry, and Peace; the Scandal of Example be removed out of it; the Sober be admonished to avoid their Fate, by perfifting in the righteous and fure Way; the Novices in Wickednefs, not to proceed in a Courfe of Life, which will probably end in the fame Ruin; and the Profperous and Old, to reflect on the Patience and Forbearance of Gon, which if ftill neglected, will furely be followed with greater Severities in the next World, fhould they prove fo lucky in their own Conceit, as not to go off by the Punifhments of this. To which may be added, that the due Execution of National Juffice, will preferve the Publick from the Guilt and Punishment of Sin unre-Itrained.

This then is the Sum of what has been faid, in relation to the Method of reforming the Age,

Age. The Rule of Duty is conveyed to us in the facred Books, the Study of which should be followed and encouraged in private Families. The Grace of GOD will affift the honeft and That which is learned must be fincere Heart. shewn and illustrated in good Works; and Example confirm what Instruction inculcates. The hard Heart must be plowed with Discipline for the good Seed. By which Method, Knowledge and Virtue, founded in Youth, and cherished in-Families, will fhine in their Beauty, Stature, and Strength in Maturity of Years, and adorn the Publick with useful Subjects for the various Business of the focial Life. The unhappy few, who will not be worked on by milder Methods, must be taught Obedience by the heavier Strokes of National Justice; in bringing them to which, if honeft, virtuous, and reputable Men are fometimes concerned, they fhould not be blamed for an Act of Compassion to the Sinners themfelves, or for timely providing for their own Safety, who must otherwife share with these bold Criminals in the common Ruin, as joint Members of the fame Body, should Sin unreftrained by human Authority, fwell to that Bulk, as to call down Vengeance on the whole Nation.

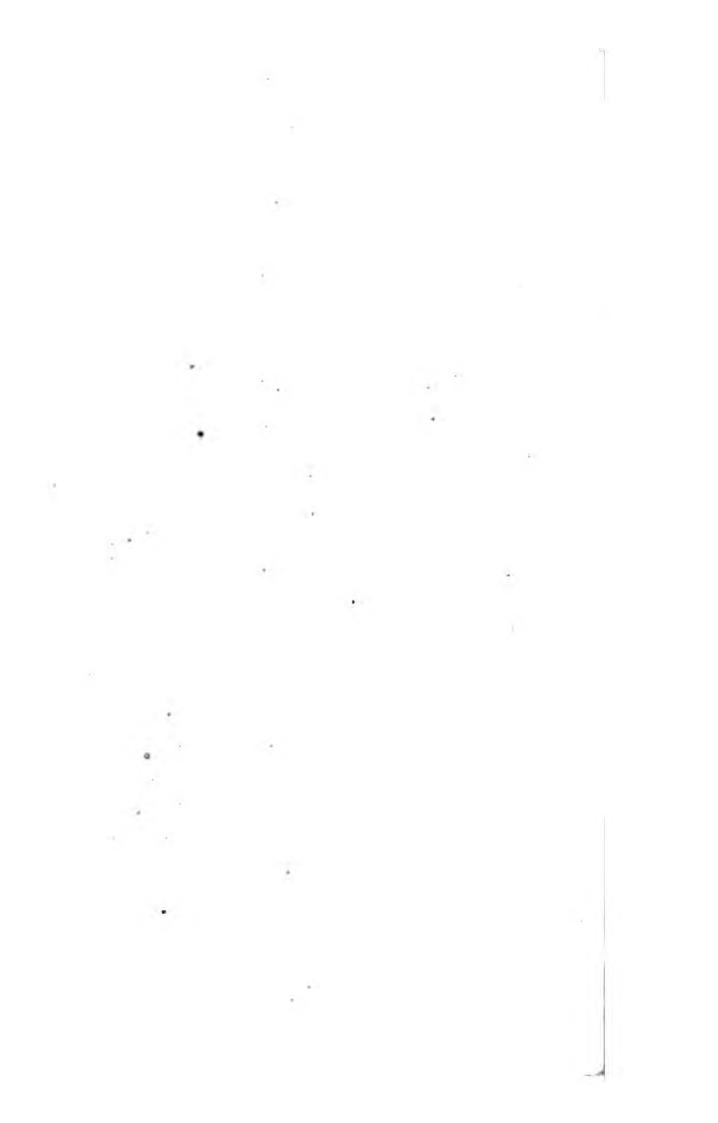

OF what Confequence fo venerable an Affembly, as is here gathered, must neceffarily be in promoting the Work of Reforming Manners, we may well infer from the Stations and Authority, the known Virtues and Abilities of many; who strengthened with Laws, both human and divine, and supported by Magistrates, and

and the greater Succours coming from Above, will trample down Wickednefs, and advance Righteousness in due Time, as the Power of GOD shall march on before them, and prepare their Way. It is no Discouragement to confiderate Men, if a good Work fometime proceed but with flow Steps, and bold Iniquity rear up its Head with renewed Rage. For Virtue and Knowledge gain on the Soul by little and little, as the fpringing Light prevails on the Earth by Seconds and Minutes, except in Cases where GOD is pleased to discover the Force and Efficacy of Grace, in compendious Inftances of Goodness to Men. It is not improbable, that fome Opposition to this good Work, may be fuffered to continue, to exercise Patience, to add Experience to other Talents, and increase Faith and Dependance on GOD for a happy Success; but notwithstanding this Opposition, the Cause of Religion will furely prevail, the Progress of which, the longer it is hindred by contrary Measures, will be fo much the swifter, when the Rubs are removed that lie in the Way; and the Labourers in it, the more they are exercised by obstinate Sinners, will be more furbished, like polished Shafts, to pass through the Heart of the Body of Sin. The bold Stand which is fometimes made by overgrown Vice, is no more a Sign of confirmed Power, than it was to Jericho of invincible Strength, that its thick Walls did not fall down at the first Sounding of the facred Trumpets. And its fierce Affaults in fevere Cenfures, and bitter Words, will as little -avail in the Islue of Things, to prevent the Increafe crease of Virtue and Truth, as the Wind and the Waves to keep back the Veffel that was carrying Chrift to the opposite Shore. There is fomething in Iniquity boifterous and bold; it conceals its Weakness in an Air of Terror; its Onfet is fierce, and Retreat contemptible. But it is otherwife with Virtue, which is mild and modeft; it acts without Tumult; its Courage increases together with the Contest, and appears glorious in its full Strength, when the other languishes, faints, and expires. It is God's Decree, that the Earth shall be full of the Knowledge of the Lord (a), as the Waters cover the Sea; But fince GOD operates by fecond Caufes, let this worthy Body of the Church militant join its Endeavours to the Counfel of God, with Meeknefs, Patience, Prudence, and Love, every Member in his feveral Sphere, and his different Way, as their various Talents fit and invite them; and the Fruit will appear of their good Offices in due Seafon. However, if the Time should be prolonged, and others should reap what they now fow; yet this is their Comfort, that they cannot fail of the hoped for Reward, Christ affuring us, that both he that foweth, and he that reapeth, shall rejoice together. To which Joy, may GOD bring us in due Time, through Perfeverance in well doing, for Jefus Chrift his Sake, to whom, Sc.

(a) Ifa. xi. 9.

FIN.IS.

[35]

The Eight and Thirtieth ACCOUNT OFTHE PROGRESS made in the Cities of London and Westminster, And Places adjacent, By the Societies for Promoting a Reformation of Manners;

By furthering the Execution of the LAWS against Prophaneness and Immorality, and by other Christian Methods.

HE Reafonableness of Uniting in Societies for the more effectual carrying on a Work of this Nature, need not be further proved, after what has been faid with fo much Advantage upon that Subject in the Annual Reformation Sermons; as also by the excellent Author of the Whole Duty of Man, who, in his Treatife of the Caufes of the Decay of Christian Piety, hath this remarkable Paffage : The Scandal, faith he, brought upon Religion, as it was not contracted by the Irregularities of one or two Persons, but by affociated and common Crimes; so neither will it be removed by a few fingle and private Reformations. There must be Combinations and publick Confederacies in Virtue, to ballance and counterpoise those of Vice, E 2

Lac. - -

[36]

Vice, or she will never recover that Honour which she acquir'd by the general Piety of her Profess.

THANKS be to God, many fuch Combinations and publick Confederacies are now in Being, whomake it a great Part of their Business to oppose associated, as well as particular Offenders.

The Societies for Reformation of Manners are eminently of that Number : And the Ufefulnefs of fuch Confederacies is visible from what has been actually brought about by means of the faid Societies, far beyond what could have been hoped for from any private Endeavours. Multitudes, for near Forty Years last past, have been profecuted, and punished according to Law, for lewd and fcandalous Practices. Great Numbers of Bawdy-houfes, Sodomitical Haunts, Common Gaming-houfes, and other Diforderly Houfes, have been fuppreffed and fhut up; and the Streets very much purg'd from the wretched Tribe of Night-walking Proftitutes and most detestable Sodomites. Many young Men, taken with lewd Women, have, by their being brought to timely Shame and Punishment, been difcouraged, and turned (as we have reason to hope) from following fuch finful Courfes, which often caufe them to defraud their Parents, Masters, Gc. and bring themfelves to utter Ruin. Moreover, many Thousands of good Books have been difperfed by thefe Societies throughout the Kingdom, and put into the Hands of lewd and profane Perfons, to awaken them to a Senfe of their Sins. By thefe various Methods, many Perfons have, by the Bleffing of GoD, been brought to a Senfe of their Sin and Danger; and tho' they have at first been exasperated againft against the Instruments of awakening them out of their dreadful Lethargy, and stopping them in their sinful Courses; yet have they afterwards blessed GoD for their Recovery, and been heartily thankful to those, who had been ferviceable to them therein.

THIS Undertaking, begun by a very few Perfons, has mightily fpread it felf, not only in Great Britain, but in Foreign Parts. And the great Good which, by Goo's Bleffing, has been done by the faid Societies, has very much animated their Endeavours. They likewife have been encouraged by feveral Royal Proclamations, Orders of Seffions, Prefentments of Grand-Juries in many Counties in England; by the Lord-Mayors and Court of Aldermen of the City of London; by many Sermons of the Right Reverend the Bilhops, and other eminent Divines, preached to the Societies, and by the Writings of other learned Men; as also by the folemn Approbation of a confiderable Number of Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Honourable Judges of England and Ireland and the Commillioners of feveral Protestant Churches.

Ir must be confessed, That Profaneness and Debauchery do very much abound, for Want of a more general and hearty Concurrence in this Work of Persons of all Orders amongst us, in Proportion to the Greatness of the Concern.

THE faid Societies have profecuted, and been affifting in Profecuting, from the First of December 1731, to the First of December 1732, divers forts of Offenders, viz.

For

Lewd and Diforderly Practices 230 Keeping of Diforderly Houses -For { Exercifing their Trades or Ordinary?

275 Callings on the Lord's-Day -Prophane Swearing and Curfing 14

THE Total Number of Perfons profecuted in or near London only, for Debauchery and Profanenels, for near 40 Years last past, are calculated at about 98483.

THEY have also been affisting in bringing to Punishment feveral Sodomitical Houses, as well as divers Perfons for Sodomy, and Sodomitical Practices, who have been profecuted by the Direction, and at the Charge of the Government.

THOSE therefore that have a just Zeal for the Honour of GOD and Religion; who defire to prevent the fpreading of the Leprofie of Sin; who are unwilling to have their Children and other Relations, or their Friends and Servants, corrupted by ill Examples and wicked Allurements: Those that fincerely wish well to those excellent and hopeful Nurseries of Piety and good Manners, the CHARITY SCHOOLS; and would be heartily grieved to fee the Chriftian Instruction and pious Education that Children receive therein, miscarry, through prevailing open Temptations to Wickednefs, and a general Contempt of Religion: Thofe, laftly, who have any due Love to their Country, and would prevent a National Guilt, and thereby keep off National Judgments, cannot poffibly, one would think, but heartily approve and affift this useful Defign for suppressing Profanenefs and Immorality.

Now,

9

Now, Whereas fome have most maliciously infinuated, That it is not Reformation which is intended, but the getting of Money from the Delinquents ; and by fuch bafe and vile Reports have imposed on fome very well-meaning People: It is hereby declared to the World, That fuch a Charge upon these Societies is absolutely falfe. It is allowed, that there have been fome base and wicked Persons (not engag'd, or in the least concerned in this Work) who have extorted Money from Offenders, and fometimes from honeft Men. But all fuch Practices are utterly detefted by thefe Societies, (who, it is well known, have strictly enquired after fuch Perfons, and when difcovered, have brought them to Punishment) nor do they know or believe that any who are engag'd with them are chargeable with fuch vile Practices. And to prevent as much as is poffible, all Sufpicion of a mercenary Defign or Principle in any that act in the Business of Reformation, the GENTLEMEN concern'd have all along recommended and infifted upon it with their Friends, that those who give Information against Vice or Profanenes, should never receive that Part of the Pez nalty which the Law allows the Informer; and it has not come to their Knowledge, that any fuch Perfon hath acted otherwife. However, if at any Time hereafter it should happen, that any Person, or Perfons, concern'd in this good Defign, should be chargeable with any of the evil Drac

Practices before-mentioned, or even with taking the Reward which the Law allows them; it is humbly requested of all that are heartily concerned for the Interest of Religion, that they will give Notice thereof to any of the faid Societies.

N. B. The Perfons concerned in this Defign confine their Profecutions to the Offences mention'd in this Account.

A N D for the further preventing any Objections from those who are too much dispos'd to raise them, against this necessary Work, that there is more Regard had to the Punishment, than to the Conversion of profane and vicious Persons; it may not be improper to acquaint the World: That in Conjunction with the other pious and proper Methods of Instruction, Admonition, and Reproof, the number of Books written and published for those and the like Ends, and given away at their own Charge, are calculated at above Four hundred and twenty three Thousand.

N. B. It must ever be most thankfully acknowledg'd by all who wish well to Mankind, and the Prosperity of the Government, That the Justices of the Peace of the COMMITTEE appointed at the Sessions of the Peace for the City and Liberty of Westminster, for Supprefsing of the Night-Houses and other Disorderly Houses, Gr. have been very instrumental in Promoting this good Work, by Punishing as well the Keepers and Maintainers of a great Number of those fort of Houses, as also of many Level and Disorderly Persons.

FINIS