P R E F A C E.

THERE needs no more to recommend this Manual to the pious reader, than the name of its great author, who was both so excellent a judge of the matter and language of devotion, and so lively an example of its use, as made him in all parts qualified and furnished to direct others.

But of the manner of this Edition, we would trouble the reader with a word of explanation.

Great care have we bestowed in order to retain most carefully the words, as they were written and employed by the Archbishop; but inasmuch as in many cases, he of his learning made use of the Latin tongue, and as there be many who, unlike him, are ignorant of other than their own tongue, (yet we would not that they should be deprived of the service of so useful and excellent devotions,) we have taken the great liberty of appending a translation into our own language to those portions which in most editions are only to be found in Latin; believing that the usefulness will outweigh the presumption. So that, while we give the book complete and entire, we at the same time give it in such manner as to be serviceable to all.

And for distinction, we have printed the Latin in red colour, the English throughout appearing in the ordinary black; which we think has, besides enhancing the utility of the book, added much to the beauty thereof,—if the reader will pardon us, who should least judge of our own work, saying so.

It remains but that we should tell the authority on which we have printed our Edition, for the original MS. is, as many persons know, not to be found; it has therefore appeared good to follow the edition which was put forth by Dr. Bayly at Oxford, in the year of our Lord 1667, and was printed from the Bishop's own handwriting.

And as to those excellent Latin prayers selected from the primitive writers which are now made into English, we have not presumed to take upon ourselves the rendering thereof, but have extracted that which was required from the DAILY OFFICE OF A CHRISTIAN, which was printed at the Great Turk's Head in Fleet-street, for Samuel Keble, in 1705; for besides our wanting of confidence in our powers, our admiration of the skill and excellence of the translator, and of the good and pious language, (although to some ears it may sound a little quaint,) has afforded an additional reason why we should hold ourselves to it. Notwithstanding that we have adopted the order of the book as handed down to us, we are fully sensible that it is not very natural, nor very apposite for the ready guiding of persons at the first sight; but as it is very probable that the pious Archbishop's constant practice might have made it so familiar that he could with ease dip upon what place he pleased, so it is much hoped by us, that it may be made familiar also to others than its author. Yet for its first using we have added a table of the contents, arranged according to reasonable order.

Finally. Lest there be any who will object to the division of the day into hours, as not considering it in accordance with the teaching of the primitive Church, we add hereto an advertisement concerning such division which we have met with. And with this we commend the book into the good reader's hands.

AN ADVERTISEMENT.

CONCERNING

THE DIVISION OF THE HOURS OF

PRAYER.

IT appeareth, both by the histories of the Jews, and by plain observations out of the New Testament, that the space of the day from the morning to the evening was solemnly divided into four equal parts, which they called Hours: [to wit] the First, the Third, the Sixth, and the Ninth. The First Hour comprehended the whole space from the sun being risen, about six of the clock in the morning after our account, till nine, or thereabouts. The Third Hour began from thence, and lasted till high-noon with us. The Sixth, from thence to our three of the clock after noon. The Ninth, from that hour to the Vespers, or Evensong, about six in the evening, or sunset. And what was done in any part of the four spaces was indifferently taken and said to be done in that Hour, whereunto every space of time was allotted. In which respect St. Mark, chap. xv. 25, saith, "It was the Third Hour when they crucified Christ:" and yet St. John, chap. xix. 14, saith, "It was about the Sixth Hour before He was yet crucified." Nor is there any contradiction at all between these two Evangelists: St. Mark understanding the last part of the Third Hour, which was now at the very end; and St. John meaning that it was now near upon the beginning of the Sixth Hour, which was immediately to follow; the ending of the Third, and the beginning of the Sixth, being both one and the same point of time.

FOR PREVENTING GRACE.

O LORD, I am risen up, and fallen prostrate before Thee; prevent me, I beseech Thee, in all my doings with Thy most gracious favour, and further me with Thy continual help; that in all my works begun, continued, and ended in Thee, I may glorify Thy holy Name, and finally by Thy mercy obtain everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen^b.

CONFESSIO CUM PRECATIONE.

THE CONFESSION WITH A PRAYER.

By L. A. W.^c

Almighty God and most merciful Father, all merciful, mercy itself; I have erred wittingly, and strayed willingly, nay, run from Thy ways, more like an untamed heifer, than a lost or wandering sheep. I have followed too much, even altogether, the absurd devices and brutish desires of my own heart. I have offended against, nay, been offended at, Thy holy, most holy laws; I have left undone, not done at all, those things which I ought to have done; and I have done, done nothing else, but those things which I ought not to have done; and there is no health, no hope of health in me. But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon me, miserable, most miserable sinner, the greatest sinner, and most unthankful for so great grace. Spare me, and them all, O God, which confess their faults; restore me, and all them that be penitent, that desire to be penitent, that wish they were, would be glad if they were so, that fear they are not enough, and are sorry they are no more: for this is according to Thy promises, most precious, most gracious, most sweet promises, declared unto mankind in Christ Jesu our Lord. Grant therefore, O most merciful Father, for His sake, Who is our Redeemer, Advocate, Author and Finisher of our faith, our propitiation, righteousness, and justification, that I and all penitents may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of Thy holy Name, and the salvation of our own souls. Amen.

PRO REMISSIONE PECCATORUM.

FOR FORGIVENESS OF SINS.

O eternal God and merciful Father, pardon, I beseech Thee, all the sins, omissions, and commissions, thoughts, words, and deeds, by which I have provoked Thee unto anger, from the time of my birth to this present moment. That no one, nor all of my sins together, may ever be able to cry oftener or louder in Thine ears for vengeance, than the cry of my prayers may ascend up unto Thee for mercy and for forgiveness, and obtain that they sue for. Particularly I humbly beseech Thee, forgive unto me my great and my clamorous sins, such as are,

O Lord, against Heaven and against Thee have I sinned, and committed foul transgressions in Thy sight; but, I beseech Thee, wipe them all out of the book of remembrances which Thou hast written, through Jesus Christ our Lord and only Saviour. Amen.

PRO DONIS.

FOR GIFTS.

Give unto me, O Lord, I humbly beseech Thee, a wise, a sober, a patient understanding, a devout, a religious, a courageous heart; chaste and temperate reins and thought; a soul full of devotion to do Thee service, strength against all temptations, especially the temptations of, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GRATIARUM ACTIO.

THANKSGIVING.

O Lord, I give Thee humble and hearty thanks, increase my thankfulness, I beseech Thee, for all benefits and blessings, both spiritual and temporal, which in the riches of Thy great mercy Thou hast liberally poured down upon me, but especially spiritual. Lord, let me not live but to praise and magnify Thee and Thy glorious Name. Particularly I give Thee most unfeigned thanks for my preservation from the time of my birth to the present moment, for, . . . For bringing me safe to the beginning of this day, in which and all the days of my life, I beseech Thee, preserve me from sin and from danger, in soul and in body, that all my thoughts, words, and works, may tend to the honour and glory of Thy Name, the good of Thy Church, the discharge of my duty, the salvation of my soul in the day of my appearance and account to be made before Thee, through Jesus Christ, our only Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

PRO ECCLESIA CATHOLICA.

FOR THE CATHOLIC CHURCH.

O eternal God and merciful Father, I humbly beseech Thee bless Thy holy Catholic Church, wheresoever spread upon the face of the whole earth. Good Lord, purge it from all atheism, heresy, schism, superstition, factious maintenance of groundless opinions; that one Faith, one Lord, one Baptism, may in all places be uniformly professed, as Thy Church is and can be but one. And grant, good Lord, that I may be, and continue, a faithful, living, and a working member under Christ the Head, in that Church the Body, all the days of my life, and through the hour of my death, through the merits, and by the grace, of the same Jesus Christ, our Lord and only Saviour. Amen.

PRO ECCLESIA PARTICULARI.

FOR THIS PARTICULAR CHURCH.

O merciful God, bless this particular Church in which I live; make it, and all the members of it, sound in faith, and holy in life, that they may serve Thee, and Thou bless them, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRO REGINA.

FOR THE QUEEN.

Lord, bless our most gracious Sovereign, treasure up in her all Thy hidden blessings, make her and keep her a devoted servant to Thee, a constant patron of the Church and truth; that she may live long, and be full of honourable success all her days, in her person, in her actions, in her consort, in her children, in her servants, in her people, and crowned with glory after life, and in that good time that shall be best both for her and us, make her a joyful mother of happy and successful children. Under her, bless the whole state, ecclesiastical and civil, that righteousness and peace may kiss each other, and we serve and honour Thee for ever. Amen.

PRO AMICIS ET CONSANGUINEIS.

FOR FRIENDS AND RELATIONS.

Good Lord, bless all the places to which Thou hast made me have any nearer reference, the place where I was born, . . . ; every soul contained in any of these, all my friends, kindred, acquaintance, any unto whom Thou hast made me any way beholding; especially my nearer and my bosom friends, All those, . . . Lord, I beseech Thee, forgive me and them all our sins, and continue us Thy servants both in life and death. Amen.

PRO SERVIS.

FOR SERVANTS.

Gracious Father, bless my servants, and make them Thine; give them grace to serve Thee first, then me, with faithfulness, soberness, and diligence. Make me ever willing, and in some measure able, to repay unto them the time and the strength which they either have or shall spend to do me service, even for Jesus Christ His sake. Amen.

PRO AFFLICTIS.

FOR THE AFFLICTED.

O Lord, bless all the afflicted members of the body of Thy Son, wheresoever, howsoever afflicted. Send them constant patience or speedy deliverance, as seems best to Thee, and is best for them, according to their several wants and necessities whatsoever (particularly,); and do unto them according to all those mercies which I would or should desire Thou shouldest shew to my own soul^d, if at any time Thou shalt be pleased to make my estate as theirs is at this present. And, O Lord, be merciful. Amen.

PRO OMNIBUS ETIAM INIMICIS.

FOR ALL MEN, EVEN OUR ENEMIES.

Blessed Father, bless all sorts of men in their particulars; mine enemies with the forgiveness of sins: turn their hearts, that they may no longer hate Thy servant; and if they will not be turned, deliver me not over, I beseech Thee, into their power. And next after the salvation of my soul, I humbly beg it, deliver me not into the hands of men, to the shame or scorn of the world. Amen.

SUBMISSIO MEI.

O Domine Jesu! Da quod jubes, et jubè quod vis. Facias animam meam paratam in adventum Tuum, veni quando vis. Des mihi ad minimum sufficientem, si placet pacatissimam patientiam, et veni quomodo vis, O Tu, qui salus es omnium sperantium in Te. Et in super interpone obsecro, O Domine Jesu, mortem, crucem, passionem, meritum et sanguinem Tuum inter iudicium Tuum et animam meam, nunc et semper, et præcipue in hora mortis meæ. Quæ mors (obnixè precor) nunquam sit subitanea, nunquam adveniat me imparatum; nunquam ita adveniendò sæviat, quin ut retineam fidem, spem, et charitatem, memoriam et intellectum sanum usque ad extremum halitum. Et esto mihi in Deum protectorem. Des peccatis meis misericordiam et veniam, Ecclesiæ Tuæ pacem et concordiam, mihi peccatorum primo gratiam in hac vitâ et gloriam in futura. Ita, ita venias, O Domine Jesu, et miserere mei. Amen.

RESIGNATION OF MYSELF.

O Lord Jesus, give me to do what Thou commandest, and command what Thou wilt. Prepare my soul against Thy coming [and] come when Thou wilt. Give me, if it please Thee, a most serene patience, (but) at least as much as is sufficient for me, and come how Thou wilt, O Thou that art the Saviour of all that hope in Thee. And moreover I beseech Thee, O Lord Jesus, interpose Thy death, cross, passion, merit, and blood between Thy judgment and my soul, now and ever, and especially in the hour of my death. Which death I earnestly beg may never be sudden, may it never come and find me unprepared: and when it comes, never let it rage so, but that I may retain faith, hope, and charity, a sound memory and understanding even to the last gasp. And be Thou my defender, O God. Grant mercy and pardon to my sins, to Thy Church peace and concord, to me, the chief of sinners, grace in this life, and glory in the life to come. So, even so come, O Lord Jesus, and have mercy upon me. Amen.

Lord, here I am, do with me as seems best in Thine own eyes; only give me, I humbly beseech Thee, a penitent and a patient spirit to expect Thee. Amen.

Lord, make my service acceptable to Thee while I live, and my soul ready for Thee when I die. Amen.

Our Father, which art in heaven, &c.

SUNDAY.

Hora Prima.

The First Hour.

That is, from Sunrise to Nine in the Morning.

O LORD, by Thy mercy I am risen out of my grave, where I might have slept in death, but that Thou preservedst me. Make it, I beseech Thee, a resurrection to grace in this life, and to glory in the life to come, through Jesus Christ, who merited both for us. Amen.

This day, by the resurrection of Thy Son, our blessed Saviour, was made holy to us; give me that grace that I may keep it holy to Thee, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

“O send out Thy light and Thy truth, that they may lead me, and bring me unto Thy holy hill, and to Thy dwelling; that I may go unto the altar of Thee, O my God, even the God of my joy and gladness, and give thanks unto Thee^e.” Amen.

^e Psalm xliii. 3, 4.

DOMINICA II. POST EPIPHANIAM.

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY.

Almighty and everlasting God, who governest all things both in heaven and earth, mercifully hear my supplications for myself and all Thy people; and grant us Thy peace all the days of our life, even for Jesus Christ His sake. Amen.

ADVENTUS. DOMINICA I.

FIRST SUNDAY IN ADVENT.

Almighty God, I humbly beseech Thee, give me grace to cast away the works of darkness, and to put on the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which Thy Son Christ Jesus came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when He shall come again in His glorious Majesty to judge both the quick and the dead, I with all Thy faithful servants may rise up to the life immortal, through Him Who liveth and reigneth, with Thee and the Holy Ghost, now and for ever. Amen.

ADVENTUS. DOMINICA II.

SECOND SUNDAY IN ADVENT.

Blessed God, which hast caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning, grant unto me and all Christians, that we may in such wise hear, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience and comfort thereof, we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which Thou hast given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

ADVENTUS, DOMINICA IV.

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ADVENT.

Lord, I humbly beseech Thee, raise up Thy power and come among us, and with great might succour us; that whereas by our sins we are sore let and hindered, Thy bountiful grace and mercy, through the satisfaction of Thy Son our Lord, may speedily deliver us; to Whom, with Thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

Hora Tertia.

The Third Hour.

Or, Nine in the Morning.

Lord, let Thine angels tarry round about me, and deliver me; that I may taste and see how gracious Thou my Lord art, and how blessed the man is that trusteth in Thee^d; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I will wait for Thy loving-kindness, O God, in ^d Ps. xxxiv. 7, 8.

the midst of Thy temple, and there will I praise Thee^e. Amen.

Lord, let me behold Thee in Thy sanctuary, and there see Thy power and glory. For Thy loving-kindness is better than life, therefore my lips shall praise Thee^f. Thus will I magnify Thee all my life, and lift up my hands in Thy Name. O satisfy me with that riches of mercy which is in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O how amiable are Thy dwellings, Thou Lord of Hosts^g! My soul hath a desire and a longing to enter into the courts of Thee, O Lord; my heart and my flesh rejoiceth in Thee, O merciful God. Amen.

DOMINICA I. POST EPIPHANIAM.

THE FIRST SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY.

Lord, I humbly beseech Thee to hear and accept my prayers for myself, and for Thy people which call upon Thee; and grant that we may perfectly know what things we ought to do, and also have grace and power faithfully to fulfil the same, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DOMINICA III. POST EPIPHANIAM.

THE THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY.

Almighty and everlasting God, mercifully look upon all my infirmities; and in all dangers and ^e Ps. xlvi. 9.

^f Ps. lxxiii. 3.

^g Ps. lxxxiv. 1.

adversities, stretch out Thy right hand to help and defend me, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DOMINICA IV. POST EPIPHANIAM.

THE FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY.

God, Thou which knowest us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that for man's frailty we cannot always stand upright; grant, I most humbly beseech Thee, to me the health of body and soul, that all those things which I suffer for sin, I may by Thy help well pass and overcome, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hora Sexta.

The Sixth Hour.

Noon.

O Lord, the sun is at height for this day upon me, but lift up the light of Thy countenance, and I shall be whole. Make all darkness and spiritual shadows short upon me, and shorter in me, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

AGAINST PRESUMPTION.

“Who can tell how oft he offendeth? O cleanse Thou me from my secret sins; keep me also, O Lord, from presumptuous sins, lest they get the dominion over me; and keep me innocent from the great offence^h," I humbly beseech Thee. Amen.

"Blessed are they that dwell in Thy house, they will be alway praising Thee. Blessed is the man whose strength is in Thee, in whose heart are Thy waysⁱ." Lord, thus bless the heart of Thy servant, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

ORATIO XIII.

S. GREG. NAZIAN.

O sancta, adoranda, et longanimis Trinitas! Longanimis enim es, quæ eos, a quibus scinderis, tam diu toleras. O Trinitas, cujus ego ut cultor ac minime fictus præco essem, jam pridem dignus habitus sum; O Trinitas omnibus aliquando vel per illuminationem vel per pœnam agnoscenda! Oro Te, ut hos quoque qui nunc contumeliis Te afficiunt, adoratores accipias, ne quisquam vel ex minimis pereat; et hoc, etiamsi mihi propterea aliqua gratiæ jactura facienda sit. Neque enim tantum dicere audeo, quantum Apostolus. Concede autem hoc per et propter merita Jesu Christi Redemptoris nostri. Amen.

O holy Trinity, whom every man must one day acknowledge either by illumination or by punishment, I pray Thee make and accept even those also to be Thy adorers who now blaspheme Thee, that not one even of the least of these may perish. And this, though on condition that I lose some part of Thy favour; for I dare not say what the Apostle does. Grant this by and for the merits of Jesus Christ our Redeemer. Amen.

DOMINICA PASCHALIS.

COLLECT FOR EASTER-DAY.

PRO GRATIA.

FOR GRACE.

Almighty God, who, through Thine only-begotten Son Jesus Christ, hast overcome death, and opened to us the gate of everlasting life; I humbly beseech Thee, that as by Thy special grace preventing me, Thou dost put into my mind good desires; so by Thy continual help, I may bring the same to good effect, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DOMINICA I. POST PASCHAM.

FIRST SUNDAY AFTER EASTER.

CONTRA MALITIAM.

AGAINST MALICE.

Almighty God, who hast given Thine only Son to die for our sins, and to rise again for our justification ; give me grace so to put away the leaven of malice and all wickedness, that I may always serve Thee in pureness of living and in truth, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DOMINICA II. POST PASCHAM.

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EASTER.

Almighty God, who hast given Thine only Son to be unto us both a sacrifice for sin, and an example of godly life ; give me grace that I may always most thankfully receive that inestimable benefit, and also daily endeavour to follow the blessed steps of His most holy life, even for the same Thy Son Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

Hora Nona.

The Ninth Hour.

i. e. Three in the Afternoon.

Lord, give me that grace, that I may hold me still by Thee, and abide patiently upon Thee^j ; that I may not grieve myself at the man whose way doth prosper, nor against him that doeth after evil counsels ; that I may leave off from wrath, and let go displeasure, lest I fret myself, and be moved to do evil. Amen.

^j Ps. xxxvii. 7, 8.

PAULINUS EPIST. IX. PRINCIP.

Tribuat hic mihi Dominus, ut in me, pro me, fiat ignis consumens; et ardeat hoc igne cor meum in lumen æternum mihi, ne eodem ardeat anima mea in pœnam perennem; per Jesum Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

The Lord grant that here, in me, and for me, he may be a consuming fire: and [O] that my heart may be kindled with this fire, that it may be an eternal light to me, lest my soul burn in it unto everlasting punishment; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

“O Lord, make me like a green olive-tree in Thy house; for I trust in Thy tender mercy for ever; and I will always praise Thee for that Thou hast done, and hope in Thy Name for ever^k.” Amen.

PRO MEIPSO.

FOR MYSELF.

O Lord, I beseech Thee, make me remember how much more than other men I have need to call upon Thee. My charge is great, and my strength little; O give me grace to come often before Thee, and to ask that help, which Thou art readier to give than I to ask, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

^k Ps. lii. 8.

Have mercy upon me, O Lord; consider the troubles which I suffer of them that hate me, O Thou which didst lift me up from the gates of death¹. Amen.

PRO OMNI DONO.

FOR ALL GRACES.

O Lord, increase in me faith and devotion; replenish my heart with all goodness, and by Thy great mercy keep me in the same. Give me godly zeal in prayer, true humility in prosperity, perfect patience in adversity, and continual joy in the Holy Ghost; even for Jesus Christ His sake, my only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

PENTECOST.

COLLECT FOR WHIT-SUNDAY.

O God, who hast taught the hearts of Thy faithful people by sending to them the light of Thy Holy Spirit; grant me by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in His holy comfort, through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who liveth and reigneth with Thee, in the unity of the same Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

DOMINICA SS. TRINITATIS.

COLLECT FOR TRINITY SUNDAY.

Almighty and everlasting God, who hast given unto Thy servants grace by the confession of true faith to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of the Divine Majesty to worship the Unity; I humbly beseech Thee, bless me also, that I may live in the stedfastness of this faith, and through it be evermore defended from all ghostly and bodily dangers, for Thy 'mercies' sake, who livest and reignest, one God, world without end. Amen.

Vesper.

AT EVENING.

O my God, incline Thine ear and hear, open Thine eyes and see. O Lord, forgive; O Lord, consider and do it, for Thine own sake, O my God^m; and for my Saviour Jesus Christ His sake. Amen.

PATIENTIA.

FOR PATIENCE.

Lord, let me not be afraid, though one be made rich, or though the glory of his house be increased; for he shall carry nothing away with him when Completorium.

THE PRAYER BEFORE BED-TIME.

O Lord, fill me with grace that I may fulfil all the service which I owe Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Lord God, spare, I beseech Thee; who shall raise up Jacob? for he is small^p. Spare him, therefore, O Lord; spare Thy people, spare me. Say unto my soul, Thou hast repented of the evil intended, and it shall not be. Amen.

SOMNUS.

FOR SLEEP.

Lord, when I am asleep let me not be made afraid; but let my sleep be sweet^q, that I may be enabled to serve Thee.

DOMINICA IV. QUADRAGESIMA.

FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT.

FOR RELIEF.

Grant, I beseech Thee, most merciful Father, that I, who for my evil deeds am worthily punished, may by the comfort of Thy grace be mercifully relieved, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

PENITENTIA.

FOR PENITENCE.

O Lord, look upon me in mercy; in the greater mercy, because the calling and place I am in must give a stricter account to Thee. Look therefore upon me, O Lord, but not till Thou hast nailed my sins to the Cross of Christ; not till Thou hast bathed me in the Blood of Christ; not till I have hid myself in the Wounds of Christ; that so the punishment, which should else overtake me, may pass over me: then look, and say unto my soul, I have forgiven thee; and by the work of Thy mercy in my soul, make me feel it, through Jesus Christ, our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

PRO GREGE.

LAUS DEI.

PRAISE OF GOD.

Thy righteousness, O God, is very high, and great things are they which Thou hast done for me^a. O God, who is like unto Thee? Thou hast brought me to great honour, and comforted me on every side. Therefore will I praise Thee and Thy righteousness, O God, and unto Thee will I sing, O Thou Holy One of Israel. My lips will be glad when I sing unto Thee, and so will my soul which Thou hast delivered. My tongue also shall talk of Thy righteousness all the day long: for many are confounded and brought to shame that have sought to do me evil. O Lord, continue Thy blessings to me, and multiply my thankfulness to Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

table, never new and never old, yet renewing all things; ever in action, and yet ever quiet; heaping up, yet needing nothing; creating, upholding, filling, protecting, nourishing, and perfecting all things. Thou lovest, and yet Thou art not transported; Thou art jealous, yet Thou art void of fear; Thou dost repent, yet thou art free from sorrow; Thou art angry, and yet never art unquiet; Thou takest what Thou findest, yet didst Thou never lose any thing; Thou art never poor, and yet Thou art glad of gain; never covetous, and yet Thou exactest profit at our hands. We bestow largely upon Thee that Thou mayest become our debtor, yet who hath any thing but of Thy gift? Thou payest debts when Thou owest nothing; Thou forgivest debts, and yet Thou lovest nothing. And what shall I say, O my God, my life, my joy, my holy dear delight? Or what can any man say when he speaketh of Thee? And woe be to them that speak not of Thee, but are silent in Thy presence. Have mercy upon me, O Lord, that I may speak unto Thee, and praise Thy name. Amen.

backslidings are many, and we have sinned against Thee: yet, O Thou hope of Israel, Thou Saviour thereof in time of trouble, shew mercy for Thy Name's sake; and on me especially. For Thy Name's sake, O Lord, be merciful unto my sin, for it is great^q. Amen.

O Lord Almighty, I acknowledge and confess I am not worthy to lift up mine eyes to heaven, much less to present myself before Thee with any confidence that Thou shouldest hear my prayers and grant my requests, if I consider my own deserving. For my conscience accuses me, and my sins witness against me; and Thou art a just and an upright Judge, and wilt not justify any sinner in his transgressions. O Lord, suffer me not to be swallowed up of death and desperation, but in the multitude of Thy mercies pardon me, O Lord, for Thy goodness' sake. For though I am a worm and no man, yet Thou art my Creator, and I am the work of Thy hands; yea, Thou art my Father, and I Thy son; Thou my Shepherd, and I one of Thy straggling flock; Thou my Redeemer, and I one of Thy people whom Thou Contra Inimicos.

Against Enemies.

O LORD, consider mine enemies how many they are, and they bear a tyrannous hate against me^r. Lord, deliver me from them. Amen.

DOMINICA III. QUADRAGESIME.

THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT.

Almighty God, I humbly beseech Thee, look upon the hearty desires of Thy humble servant, and stretch out the right hand of Thy Majesty to be my defence against all mine enemies, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Be merciful unto me, O God, for mine enemies would swallow me up, and many they are which fight against me, O Thou Most Highest^s; they gather together and keep themselves close, they mark my steps, because they lay wait for my soul.

^r Ps. xxv. 19.

^s Ps. lvi. 1, 2.

But when I was afraid I trusted in Thee; and when I cry, then shall mine enemies turn back. This Thou wilt make me know, when Thou art with me. Be with me therefore, O Lord, and let me see deliverance. Amen.

O Lord, let not them that are mine enemies triumph over me, neither let them wink with their eyes that hate me, either without a cause^t, or for Thy cause. Amen.

O Lord God, in Thee have I put my trust, save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me^u; lest they devour my soul like a lion, and tear it in pieces while there is none to help. Lift up Thyself, O God, because of the indignation of mine enemies; arise up for me in the judgment which Thou hast commanded, that my help may still be from Thee, O God, who preservest them that are true of heart. Amen.

Have mercy upon me, O God, consider the trouble which I suffer of them that hate me, O Thou that liftest me up from the gates of death^x. Amen.

Hear my voice, O God, in my prayer, preserve my life from fear of the enemy^v; hide me from the conspiracy of the wicked, and from the rage of the workers of iniquity. They have whet their tongues like a sword, and shoot out their arrows, even bitter words; Lord, deliver me from them. Amen.

O God, the Pastor and Governor of all Thy faithful people, look down in mercy upon me Thy servant whom Thou hast been pleased to appoint chief pastor of the Church of Canterbury: grant, I most humbly beseech Thee, that I may profit those whom I am

O Deus mi, Pater clementissime, gratia Tua ita in me operetur, ut sim humilis in recusando omne magnum ministerium, subditus tamen in suscipiendo, fidelis in servando, strenuus in exsequendo, in regendo populo vigilans, in corrigendo vehemens, in amando ardens, in sustinendo patiens, in moderando prudens; ut pro iis quibus præsum Deo me interponam consulenti, opponam irascenti, in fiducia et meritis Jesu Christi Salvatoris nostri^a. Amen.

O my God, my most merciful Father, let Thy grace work so in me, that I may be [truly] humble in the refusal of every great office, and yet obedient to undertake it; that I may be faithful in the possession, and courageous in the administration of it; [that I may be] watchful in ruling [them,] earnest in correcting them, fervent in loving them, patient in bearing with them, prudent in governing them: that in behalf of those who are under my care, I may wrestle with God when He has a controversy with them, and stand in the gap when He is angry, through the faith and merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

O Lord, as the rain cometh down from heaven, and returns not thither, but waters the earth, and

For the Queen.

O LORD, grant the Queen a long life, that her years may endure as many ages^c: furnish her with wise and safe counsels, and give her a heart of courage and constancy to pursue them. O prepare Thy loving mercy and faithfulness for her, that they may preserve her; so will I always sing praises unto Thy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Lord, hear the Queen in the day of her trouble, that Thy Name, O God of Jacob, may defend her^d. Send her help from Thy sanctuary, and strength out of Sion. Grant her her heart's desire, and fulfil all her mind. DOMINICA V. POST EPIPHANIAM.

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY.

O LORD, we humbly beseech Thee to keep Thy Church and household continually in Thy true religion, that they which do lean only upon hope of Thy heavenly grace, may evermore be defended by Thy mighty power; and that I may humbly and faithfully serve Thee in this Thy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gracious Father, I humbly beseech Thee for Thy holy Catholic Church, fill it with all truth, in all truth with all peace. Where it is corrupt, purge it; where it is in error, direct it; where it is superstitious, rectify it; where any thing is amiss, reform it; where it is right, strengthen and confirm it; where it is in want, furnish it; where it is divided and rent asunder, make up the breaches of it; O Thou Holy One of Israel. Amen.

O merciful God, since Thou hast ordered me to live in these times, in which the rents of Thy Church are grievous; I humbly beseech Thee to guide me, that the divisions of men may not separate me either from Thee or it, that I may ever labour the preservation of truth and peace, that where for and by our sins the peace of it succeeds not, Thou wilt yet accept my will for the deed, that I may still pray, even while Thou grantest not, because I know Thou wilt grant it when Thou seest it fit. In the meantime bless, I beseech Thee, this Church in which I live, that in it I may honour and serve Thee all the days of my life, and after this be glorified by Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

O Lord, Thou hast brought a Vine out of Egypt, and planted it^e; Thou madest room for it, and when it had taken root, it filled the land. O why hast Thou broken down her hedge, that all which go by pluck off her grapes? The wild boar out of the wood rooteth it up, and the wild beasts of the field devour it. O turn Thee again, Thou God of hosts, look down from heaven, behold, and visit this Vine, and the place of the Vineyard that Thy right hand hath planted, and the Branch that Thou madest so strong for Thyself. Lord, hear me, for Jesus Christ His sake. Amen.

Therefore, O Lord, build Thy Church and keep it, and take care for it, that there may be no lost labour among the builders of it. Amen.

Thou art just in all that is brought upon us: for Thou hast done right, but we have done wickedly^g. Yet, O Lord, have mercy, and turn to us again, for Jesus' and His mercy's sake. Amen.

Lord, hear and grant, for Jesus Christ His sake. Amen.

Lord, bless this kingdom, that religion and virtue may season all sorts of men: that there may be peace within the gates, and plenty within the palaces of it. In peace I beseech Thee so preserve it, that it corrupt not: in war so defend it, that it suffer not: in plenty so order it, that it riot not: in want so pacify and moderate it, that it may patiently and peaceably seek Thee, the only full supply both of men and states; that so it may continue a place

O Almighty Lord God, bless this kingdom, and grant that health, chastity, victory, and all virtue may abound therein, with thanksgiving to God the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost. And may this blessing remain upon this kingdom, and upon all the inhabitants thereof, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Jejunium.

In Fasting.

O LORD, the zeal of Thine house hath even eaten me up, and the rebukes of them which rebuked Thee are fallen upon me¹. Therefore I wept, and chastened myself with fasting, and that was turned to my reproof. I put on sackcloth also, and they jested upon me : they that sat in the gate also spake against me, and the drunkards made songs upon me. But, Lord, I make my prayer unto Thee, and, I hope, in an acceptable time. O hear me in the multitude of Thy mercies, which are in Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

Exilium.

Against Banishment.

LORD, send me not to the waters of Babylon, that I may have no cause to weep when I remember Sion^o: that no man's cruelty may lead me away captive, nor no man's scorn call upon me to sing in my heaviness: but that in my country where I learned to serve Thee, I may live to honour Thee all the days of my life, even for Jesus Christ His sake. PRÆVIA.

PREPARATION.

QUÆCUNQUE ab Infantia usque ad momentum hoc, sciens vel ignorans, intus vel extra, dormiens vel vigilans, verbis, factis vel cogitationibus, per jacula inimici ignita, per desideria cordis immunda peccavi Tibi, miserere mei et dimitte mihi, per Jesum Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Forgive me, [O Lord,] whatsoever I have transgressed against Thee, from [the time of] my infancy even to this very moment, [whether] against knowledge or through ignorance, at home or abroad, sleeping or waking, in thoughts, words, or deeds, (whether occasioned) through the fiery darts of (our ghostly) enemy, or by the unclean desires of my heart; have mercy upon me, and forgive me, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God and most merciful Father, give me, I beseech Thee, that grace, that I may daily examine the inmost of my heart, and my most secret thoughts, how I stand before Thee. Lord, I confess all my sins, and my unworthiness to present myself at Thine altar. But Thou canst forgive sin, and give repentance; do both, gracious Father, and then behold I am clean to come unto Thee. Lord, make me a worthy receiver of that for which I come,—Christ, and remission of sin in Christ: and that for His own mercies' sake and Thine. Amen.

O Lord, into a clean, charitable, and thankful heart, give me grace to receive the blessed Body and Blood of Thy Son, my most blessed Saviour, that it may more perfectly cleanse me from all dregs of sin; that being made clean, it may nourish me in faith, hope, charity, and obedience, with all other fruits of spiritual life and growth in Thee; that in all the future course of my life, I may shew myself such an ingrafted member into the Body of Thy Son, that I may never be drawn to do any thing that may dishonour His name. Grant this, O Lord, I beseech Thee, even for His merit's and mercy's sake. Amen.

O Lord God, hear my prayers, I come to Thee in a steadfast faith; yet for the clearness of my faith, Lord, enlighten it; for the strength of my faith, Lord, increase it. And, behold, I quarrel not with the words of Thy Son my Saviour's blessed Institution. I know His words are no gross unnatural conceit, but they are spirit and life, and supernatural. While the world disputes, I believe. He hath promised me, if I come worthily, that I shall receive

His most precious Body and Blood, with all the benefits of His Passion. If I can receive it and retain it, (Lord, make me able, make me worthy,) I know I can no more die eternally, than that Body and Blood can die, and be shed again. My Saviour is willing in this tender of them both unto me: Lord, so wash and cleanse my soul, that I may now, and at all times else, come prepared by hearty prayers and devotion, and be made worthy by Thy grace of this infinite blessing, the pledge and earnest of eternal life, in the merits of the same Jesus Christ, who gave His Body and Blood for me. Amen.

LITANIA BREVIS.

A BRIEF LITANY.

Pater de cœlis Deus, qui unigenitum Tuum pro nobis ad mortem tradidisti.

Fili Redemptor mundi Deus, qui sanguine Tuo pretioso nos a peccatis abluisti.

Spiritus Sancte Paraclete Deus, qui corda sanctorum Tua gratia visitas et confirmas.

Sacra, summa, sempiterna, beata, benedicta Trinitas; Pater bone, Fili pie, Spiritus benigne: cujus opus vita, amor gratia, contemplatio gloria: cujus majestas ineffabilis, potestas incomparabilis, bonitas inæstimabilis: qui vivorum Dominus es simul et mortuorum: Te adoro, Te invoco, et toto cordis affectu nunc et in sæculum benedico. Amen.

O God the Father of heaven, who hast delivered Thy only-begotten [Son] to death for us.

O God the Son, Redeemer of the world, who by Thy precious blood hast cleansed us from our sins.

O God the Holy Ghost, the Comforter, who by Thy grace dost visit and establish the hearts of Thy saints.

O [most] holy, high, eternal, happy, [ever] blessed Trinity; [O] good Father, holy Son, loving Spirit, by whose operation we receive our being, by whose love we obtain grace, and in contemplation of whom we hope for glory; whose majesty is unspeakable, [whose] power is incomparable, [whose] goodness is inestimable: [O] Thou that art the Lord both of quick and dead, I adore Thee, I call upon Thee, and with the utmost affection of my heart I bless Thee, now and for evermore. Amen.

O Domine Jesu, da vivis misericordiam et gratiam:

da Tuis regimen et lucem perpetuam: da Ecclesiæ Tuæ veritatem et pacem; da mihi miserrimo peccatorum pœnitentiam et veniam. Amen.

O Lord Jesus, grant us while we live mercy and grace: guide us Thy servants by Thy perpetual light, grant to Thy Church truth and peace; grant me, a most wretched sinner, repentance and forgiveness. Amen.

O Domine, errantes, oro, corripere, incredulos convertere, Ecclesiæ fidem auge, hæreses destrue, hostes versutos detege, violentos et impœnitentes contere, per Jesum Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

O Lord, I pray Thee correct those that are in error, convert the unbeliever, increase the faith of Thy Church, root out [of it] all heresies, discover [and confound] her secret designing enemies, and break in pieces those that are openly fierce, violent, and impenitent, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Misericors Pater, pro beneficiis, quæ mihi largiti sunt in terris benefactores mei, præmia æterna consequantur in cœlis. Oro etiam, ut cum his pro quibus oravi, aut pro quibus orare teneor, et cum omni populo Dei, introduci mihi detur in Regnum Tuum, et ibi apparere in justitia, et satiari gloria, per Jesum Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

O merciful Father, let my benefactors obtain eternal rewards in heaven, for the benefits [which] they have bestowed upon me on earth. I pray Thee also, that Thou wouldest [vouchsafe to] bring me, together with those whom I have prayed for, or whom I am bound to pray for, and together with all the people of God, into Thy kingdom, that there we may appear in righteousness, and be fully satisfied with (Thy) glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Lord, consider my complaint, for I am brought very low. O Lord, how long wilt Thou be angry with Thy servant that prayeth? O Lord, give me grace and repentance, and Thou canst not be angry with my prayer. O Lord, I am Thine, save me, and deliver me not into the will of mine enemies, especially my ghostly enemies. O Lord, I am Thy servant, Thy unprofitable, wasteful servant, yet Thy servant. O Lord, set my accounts right before Thee, and pardon all my mis-spending and mis-reckonings. O Lord, I am Thy son, Thy most unkind, prodigal, runaway son, yet Thy son. O Lord, though I have not retained the love and duty of a son, yet do not Thou cast off (I humbly beg it) the kindness and compassion of a Father. O Lord, in Thy grace I return to Thee; and though I have eaten draff with all the unclean swine in the world, in my hungry absence from Thee, yet now, Lord, upon my humble return to Thee, give me, I beseech Thee, the bread of life, the Body and Blood of my Saviour, into my soul, that I may be satisfied in Thee, and never more run away from Thee, even for Jesus Christ His sake, that gave Himself for me. Amen.

COLL. 3. IN DIE PARASC.

THIRD COLL. FOR GOOD FRIDAY.

Misericors Deus, Creator omnium hominum, qui nihil odisti eorum quæ condidisti, nec vis mortem peccatoris, sed magis ut convertatur et vivat; miserere omnium Judæorum, Turcarum, Infidelium, et Hæreticorum. Aufer ab iis ignorantiam, duritiem cordis, et contemptum verbi Tui: et reduc eos, misericors Domine, ad gregem Tuum, ut serventur inter reliquias veri Israelis, ut fiat unum ovile, et unus Pastor, Jesus Christus Dominus noster, qui vivat et regnat, &c. Amen.

O merciful God, who hast made all men, and hatest nothing that Thou hast made, nor wouldest the death of a sinner, but rather that he should be converted and live; have mercy upon all Jews, Turks, Infidels, and Heretics, and take from them all ignorance, hardness of heart, and contempt of Thy word; and so fetch them home, blessed Lord, to Thy flock, that they may be saved among the remnant of the true Israelites, and be made one fold under one Shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

DUM ALTARI ADSTO SI FIERI POSSIT; SI NON TUM MANE, &c.

WHILST STANDING AT THE ALTAR (IF IT MAY BE); IF NOT, IN THE MORNING.

Tanquam pro tribunali Tuo tremendo (ubi nullus erit personarum respectus) reum memet peragens, ita hodie antequam præveniat me dies iudicii mei coram sancto Tuo altari prostratus, coram Te et stupendis angelis Tuis a propria conscientia dejectus, profero improbas et nefarias cogitationes et actiones meas. Respice, oro, Domine, humilitatem meam, et remitte omnia peccata mea, quæ multiplicata sunt super capillos capitis mei. Quodnam enim est malum quod non designavi in anima mea: quin et multa et nefanda opere perpetravi. Reus enim sum, O Domine, invidiæ, gulæ, &c. Omnes sensus meos, omnia membra mea polui. Sed incomparabilis est multitudo viscerum Tuorum, et ineffabilis misericordia bonitatis Tuæ, qua peccata mea toleras. Quare, O Rex omni admiratione major, O Domine longanimis misericordias Tuas mirificato in me peccatore: potentiam benignitatis Tuæ manifestato, clementissimæ propensionis Tuæ virtutem exserito et me prodigum reverentem suscipito, per Jesum Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

As I must (one day) appear and answer at Thy dreadful tribunal, where there shall be no respect of persons, so at this time, ere the day of judgment overtakes me, I prostrate myself before Thy holy altar, and being burdened by my own conscience, I lay open my evil thoughts and ungodly deeds before Thee and Thy glorious angels. I beseech Thee, O Lord, regard my lowliness, and forgive me all my sins, which are more in number than the hairs of my head. For what evil have I not designed in my heart? but many and most abominable things have I committed in very deed: for I am guilty, O Lord, of envy, gluttony, &c. All my senses (and) all my members have I polluted. But incomparable is the multitude of Thy bowels, and unspeakable (is) the mercy of Thy goodness, through which Thou bearest with my sins. Wherefore, O King whom we can never praise enough, O Thou long-suffering Lord, magnify the wonders of Thy mercy upon me a sinner, discover (in me) a prodigal returning, (unto Thee,) through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

IMMEDIATE ANTE PERCEPTIONEM PANIS.

IMMEDIATELY BEFORE THE SIGHT OF THE BREAD.

O Lord God, how I receive the Body and Blood of my most blessed Saviour Jesus Christ, the price of my redemption, is the very wonder of my soul, yet my most firm and constant belief upon the words of my Saviour. At this time they are graciously tendered to me and my faith: Lord, make me a worthy receiver, and be unto me as He hath said. Amen.

IMMEDIATE POST RECEPTIONEM UTRIUSQUE SPECIEI.

IMMEDIATELY AFTER RECEIVING OF BOTH KINDS.

Lord, I have received this Sacrament of the Body and Blood of my dear Saviour. His mercy hath given it, and my faith received it into my soul. I humbly beseech Thee speak mercy and peace unto my conscience, and enrich me with all those graces which come from that precious Body and Blood, even till I be possessed of eternal life in Christ. Amen.

O qui sursum Patri assides et hic nobiscum invisibiliter versaris, venito et sanctificato præsentia hæc dona; eos item pro quibus, et eos per quos, et ea propter quæ offeruntur Amen.

O Thou that sittest on high with the Father, and art here invisibly present with us; come and sanctify these (Thy) gifts (here present), and those also by (whom) and (those) for whom, and the end for which they are offered up. Amen.

Pro Duce Buckinghamia.

For the Duke of Buckingham^a.

GRACIOUS Father, I humbly beseech Thee, bless the Duke of Buckingham with all spiritual and temporal blessings, but especially spiritual. Make and continue him faithful to his prince, serviceable to his country, devout in Thy truth and Church; a most happy husband and a blessed father; filled with the constant love and honour of his Prince, that all Thy blessings may flow upon himself, and his posterity after him. Continue him a true-hearted friend to me, Thy poor servant, whom Thou hast honoured in his eyes. Make my heart religious and dutiful to Thee, and in and under Thee true, and secret, and stout, and provident in all* things which he shall be pleased to commit unto me. Even so, Lord, and make him continually to serve Thee, that

The Spanish journey here alluded to was with Charles the First during his father's life; and the unfortunate descent on the Isle of Rhé took place when war was declared against France in 1627. His character, most interesting from his influence with his royal Master, is given by Clarendon, vol. i. pp. 55, 56.

Thou mayest bless him, through Jesus Christ our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

THE SPANISH JOURNEY.

O most merciful God and gracious Father, the Prince hath put himself to a great adventure. I humbly beseech Thee make a clear way before him: give Thine angels charge over him, be with him Thyself in mercy, power, and protection; in every step of his journey; in every moment of his time; in every consultation and address for action; till Thou bring him back with safety, honour, and contentment, to do Thee service in this place.

Bless his most trusty and faithful servant, the Lord Duke of Buckingham, that he may be diligent in service, provident in business, wise and happy in counsels; for the honour of Thy Name, the good of Thy Church, the preservation of the Prince, the contentment of the King, the satisfaction of the State. Preserve him, I humbly beseech Thee, from all envy that attends him; and bless him, that his eyes may see the Prince safely delivered to the King and State, and after it live long in happiness to do them and Thee service, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE ISLE OF RHE. 1627^r.

O most gracious God and merciful Father, Thou art the Lord of hosts; all victory over our enemies, all safety against them, is from Thee; I humbly beseech Thee go out with our armies, and bless them. Bless my dear Lord the Duke, that is gone Admiral with them, that wisdom may attend all his counsels, and courage and success all his enterprises; that by his and their means Thou wilt be pleased to bring safety to this kingdom, strength and comfort to religion, victory and reputation to our country: and that he may return with our navy committed to him, and with safety, honour, and love, both of Prince and people. Grant this for Thy dear Son's sake, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O DOMINE, in multis deliqui, et improbe egi, et tristitia affeci Spiritum Tuum Sanctum. Exacerbavi viscera clementiæ Tuæ, cogitatione, sermone, opere, noctu et interdiu, palam et in occulto, consulto et inconsulto. O si constituas peccata mea in conspectu meo; O si rationem a me exigas peccatorum in se non ignoscibilium, quæ scienter commisi, quid faciam? quo fugiam? Sed, O Domine, ne in furore Tuo arguas me, nec in ira Tua corripas me. Miserere mei, non solum quia infirmus sum, sed quia figmentum sum Tuum. Obsecro Te, ne intres in iudicium cum servo Tuo: si enim iniquitates observaveris, Domine, Domine, quis in iudicio consistet? Non ego certe, si quis alius. Ego enim sum peccati pelagus, et non sum dignus in cœlum suspicere præ multitudine peccatorum meorum, quorum non est numerus; probra, injuriæ, &c., et mille præterea nefandæ passiones sunt, a quibus non destiti. Quibus enim non corruptus sum peccatis? Quibus non sum constrictus malis? Inutilis factus sum Tibi Deo meo, et hominibus. Quis me in talia prolapsus suscitabit? In Te, Domine, confido, qui es Deus meus: esto mihi Salvator secundum viscera compassionis Tuæ, et miserere mei secundum magnam misericordiam Tuam, et ne retribuas mihi secundum opera mea, sed converte Te ad me, me ad Te. Remitte omnia quæ in Te peccavi: conserva me propter misericordiam Tuam, et ubi abundavit peccatum, superabundet gratia Tua; et laudabo et glorificabo Te per omnes dies vitæ meæ. Tu enim es Deus pœnitentium, et Salvator peccantium. Tibi gloria per Jesum Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

O Lord, in many things I have offended and done wickedly and [have] grieved Thy Holy Spirit. I have provoked [to wrath] the bowels of Thy mercy, by thought, word, and deed, by night and by day, in public and in private, deliberately and by surprise. O if Thou shouldst set my sins in the sight of Thy countenance; O if Thou shouldst call me to account for my sins, those sins which are unpardonable in themselves, [those] which I have committed against [my own] knowledge. [O] what shall I do? whither shall I fly? But, O Lord, rebuke me not in Thy fury, nor chasten me in Thine anger. Have mercy upon me not only because I am weak, but [also] because I am the work of Thy hands. I beseech Thee, enter not into judgment with Thy servant; for if Thou, Lord, shalt [be extreme to] mark what is done amiss, O Lord, who may abide it?

whosoever may, yet [most] certainly I shall not: for I am a sea of sin, and am not worthy [so much as] to look up to heaven, by reason of the multitude of my sins, which cannot be numbered, evil-speakings, injuries, &c., and besides a thousand other abominable passions [there are] from which I have not refrained myself. For with what wickedness am I not defiled? to what sins am I not enslaved? I [altogether] become an unprofitable servant to Thee my God, and to all mankind. Now that I am fallen into such sins as those, who shall raise me up again? O Lord, Thou art my God, in Thee is my trust; be Thou my Saviour according to the bowels of Thy compassion, and be merciful to me according to the greatness of Thy mercy, and reward me not according to my works, but turn Thyself to me, and [turn] me to Thee. Forgive me all my sins that I have committed against Thee, and save me for Thy mercies' sake. And where sin has abounded (there) let Thy grace abound much more; so shall I praise and glorify Thee all the days of my life. For Thou art the God of those that repent, and the Saviour of sinners. Glory be to Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Thou hast given me temporal blessings beyond desert or hope; O be graciously pleased to heap spiritual blessings on me, that I may grow in faith, obedience, and thankfulness to Thee; that I may make it my joy to perform duty to Thee. And after my painful life ended, bring me, I beseech Thee, to Thy joys, to Thy glory, to Thyself; that I and my parents, with all Thy saints and servants departed this life, may meet in a blessed glorious resurrection, ever to sing praises and honour to Thee, in and through Jesus Christ our Lord. Chaplain, then Dr. Laud, to marry them at Wanstead, on St. Stephen's Day, 1605. The Archbishop seems to have felt afterwards, that he had not acted quite honestly with his own conscience in this particular. In consequence of the loss of the royal favour, the Earl's spirits were quite broken, and he died not long afterwards. The festival of St. Stephen was always observed by the Archbishop as an annual fast and day of humiliation. This matter is made much of by Prynne, (vide Canterbury's Dream,) who, like other rude and bad men, could not understand the strong language of self-condemnation, which a sensitive conscience is apt to use before God in prayer, or in private memoranda. Still less could he appreciate, what doubtless rendered Laud's feelings more acute, the fact, that his sacerdotal power had been employed in solemnizing holy matrimony, when he ought to have refused the nuptial benediction, though slight and disgrace might and would have been the consequence.

servi Tui. Parce, Domine, et remitte peccata, quæ peccatum hoc et induxerunt et sequuta sunt. Nam confiteor, Domine, iterum et eodem die revolventis anni, nec satis adhuc cautus, aut satis humilis factus in aliud grave peccatum incidi; lapidatus iterum non pro, sed a peccato. Nunc plene suscita me, Domine, ne moriar ultra in peccatis meis; sed des ut vivam, et vivens gaudeam in Te, permerita et miserationes Jesu Christi Salvatoris nostri. Amen.

Have regard unto Thy servant, O my God, and be merciful unto me according to the bowels of Thy mercy. Behold, I am become a reproach to Thy Name, by serving my own ambition and the sins of other men. And though the persuasions of others moved me to do this [thing], yet my own conscience cried aloud against it. I beseech Thee, O Lord, by the mercies of Jesus, enter not into judgment with Thy servant, but hearken to His blood that pleads for me; and let not this marriage divorce my soul from Thy embraces. O how much better had it been [for me] (if I had been but duly mindful of this day) rather to have suffered martyrdom with Thy first martyr, for denying the vehement importunity of those my friends who were either too unfaithful [to me] or else too ungodly. I flattered myself with hope that this sin should have been hid in darkness, but lo, the night presently vanished, and the day itself was not more apparent than I that committed it. Thus it pleased Thee, O Lord, for the abundance of Thy mercy, to cover my face with confusion, that I might learn to seek Thy Name. O how grievous to me, still even at this day, is the remembrance of this my sin, even after [those] so many and so often repeated prayers which I have poured out before Thee from my sorrowful and troubled spirit! O Lord, have mercy, hear the prayers of Thy most dejected and lowly servant. Spare me, O Lord, and forgive [me] all those sins which brought in this, and which followed upon it; for I confess, O Lord, that yet [once] again and upon the very same day of the returning year; for want of due caution still, and sufficient humiliation, I fell into another grievous sin; I was stoned again, not for my sin, but by it. Now, O Lord, raise me up again entirely, that I may no longer lie dead in my sins; but grant that I may live, and living may rejoice in Thee, through the merits and mercies of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

FIRE AND THE PERIL THEREOFⁱ.

O misericors Pater, quo me vertam? Qui et ex-cundo et revertendo peccavi contra Te. Abii cum prodigo prodigus in longinquam regionem. Dissipavi substantiam meam, Tuam luxuriose. Ibi primum sensi omnia consumpta, et me dignum non meliori quam porcorum consortio: nec tamen aut vita illa immunda, aut fames gratiæ, de reditu ad meliorem frugem vel cogitare fecit. Reversum jam ab itinere infausto ecce judicia Tua, Domine, insequuntur me. Ignis corripit tecta sub quibus sum; vidit enim Deus, nec multum distulit, sed ignis accensus est in Jacob, et ira ascendit in Israel. Et scelera (non dubito) mea conflagrationem Collegio minitabantur, et mihi. Nam dum igni extinguendo intentior sum, parum abfuit, quin ab igne extinguerer. Quam ecce misericordia Tua, Domine, vix sine miraculo me flammis eripuit. Nam dum amica manus astantis me vi quadam amovit, eodem instanti ex eodem loco, ubi pedem figere decrevi, prorupit inclusus ignis, in flammis subsidunt gradus, et ego, si ibi invenisset incendium, una periissem. O peccata mea nunquam satis deplenda! O misericordia Tua, Domine, nunquam satis prædicanda! O poenitentia nunquam mihi magis necessaria! O gratia Tua, Domine, humillime et jugiter imploranda! Surgo, ô Domine Pater, et ecce venio; lento quidem et instabili gressu, sed venio, et confiteor: peccavi enim in cœlum et contra Te, nec dignus sum vocari filius Tuus. Sim, ô Domine, quid vis, modo Tuus. Ablue peccata mea in sanguine Filii Tui, ut sim Tuus. Et concede, obsecro, ut sicut tum terror, ita quotidie memoria ignis hujus exurat fæces omnes et reliquias peccatorum meorum: ut me cautiorem factum melior ignis charitatis et devotionis in amorem Tui et in odium peccati accendat, per Jesum Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

O [most] merciful Father, whither shall I turn myself, who both [in my] going out and coming in have sinned against Thee? I a prodigal departed like the prodigal into a far country, and riotously wasted my substance which Thou gavest me. There first of all I grew sensible that all I had was consumed, and myself not worthy of [any] better company than the swine; and yet neither that filthy life, nor the famine of Thy grace, did [so much as] make me think of returning to a better temper. But now at my return from this happy journey, behold, O Lord, Thy judgments overtake me, a fire catches hold of the roof under which I was; for God saw and delayed not long, but a fire was kindled in Jacob, and there came up heavy displeasure against Israel. My wickedness (no doubt) it was which threatened this conflagration to the College and to myself: for whilst I was busily employed about putting out the fire, I was within very little of being destroyed by it, when lo, Thy mercy, O Lord, rescued me from the flames almost by a miracle; for whilst a friendly hand of one that stood by thrust me away with a kind of violence, the very same instant, at that very place where I intended to take up my standing, the fire that had been [a while] pent in, broke out, the stairs sunk down all in flames, and if the fire had found me there, I had also perished. O my sins, which I never can bewail enough! O Thy mercies, O Lord, which I can never sufficiently extol! O repentance, that never was more necessary for me! O Thy grace, O Lord, which I ought to implore with all humility and without ceasing! I arise, O Lord my Father, and lo, I come; my pace indeed is but slow, and [it is] unsteady, but yet I come and [I] confess I have sinned against heaven and before Thee, and am no more worthy to be called Thy Son.

Let me be what Thou wilt, O Lord, so I [may] be but Thine. Wash away my sins in the blood of Thy Son, that I may be Thine. And grant, I beseech Thee, that as the terror then, so now the remembrance of that fire may daily burn up [in me] all the dregs and relics of my sins, that I may grow more circumspect [for the future], that a better fire of charity and of devotion may inflame me with [the] love of Thee, and [with] hatred of sin, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FEB. 5, 1628, (DIE MARTIS,) COMPUTO JULIANO TENDONEM FREGI, ET ITER. MAR. 6, (DIE SOLIS,) INTER AMBULANDUM IN CUBICULO IN TURRI LONDON, ANNO 1641, 2.

FEB. 5, 1628, (Wednesday,) ACCORDING TO THE JULIAN ACCOUNT, I BROKE A VEIN;
AND AGAIN, MARCH 6, (Saturday,) WALKING IN MY CHAMBER IN THE TOWER OF LONDON, 1641.

O Domine misericors, glorificetur beatissimum nomen Tuum: ecce enim ego, dum pro officio regem sequor, et Tui, et humanorum casuum immemor, et mihi præfidens, infausto in via saltu in terram infidam incidi, et tendonem fregi. Levatus in currum, Hamptoniam perveni. Cruciatu talis fuit, qualem nervi sentire solent. Et certe in febrem ferventior ipse angor conjecisset, nisi ingens defluxus sanguinis me ab illo metu liberasset. Magna infirmitate laboravi, et fere per biennium claudus incessi. Infirmitatem aliquam adhuc sentio, sed, gratiæ im-mortales Tibi, O beatissima Trinitas, usum satis perfectum crurium dedisti mihi, et confirmasti, præter omnium expectationem, gressus meos. Dirigas nunc eos, O Domine, in viis mandatorum Tuorum, ut nunquam vel inter Te et falsum cultum, vel inter Te et mundum claudicem; sed recta pergam, et viam testimoniorum Tuorum curram, quum dilatasti cor meum. Oro itaque, ne differas vel dilatationem cordis, vel confirmationem pedum in semitis justificationum Tuarum, per et propter Jesum Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

O [most] merciful Lord, glorified be Thy ever-blessed Name: for behold, whilst I was attending on the king, according to my place, unmindful of Thee, and of the misfortunes that are incident to mankind, and having too much confidence in myself, by an unhappy leap in the road, I fell to the ground, mistaken ground, and broke a tendon. I was helped up into a coach, and came to Hampton. The torment [I had] was such as the nerves are wont to feel, and [so great that] the very anguish [of it] had certainly cast me into a violent burning fever, but that a vast quantity of blood flowed out, [and so] delivered me from that fear. It brought me very low, and I went lame [for] almost two years; I am sensible of some weakness (by it) still; but immortal thanks be unto Thee, O [Thou] ever-blessed Trinity, Thou hast given me the use of my legs perfectly enough, and hast established my goings beyond all men's expectation. Direct them now, O Lord, in the ways of Thy commandments, that [so] I may never halt between Thee and a false worship, nor between Thee and the world; but that I may walk uprightly, and run the way of Thy testimonies when Thou hast enlarged my heart. I pray Thee therefore set my heart at liberty without delay, and confirm my steps in the paths of Thy righteousness, by and for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MY HOUSE AT LAMBETH BESET WITH VIOLENT AND BASE
PEOPLE^k.

O eternal God, and my most merciful Father, as this day the fury of the enraged multitude was fierce upon me and my house, to destroy me and to pillage it, it pleased Thee in mercy to preserve both, and bring some of them to shame and punishment. I have sinned many ways against Thee, O Lord, and this was a loud call of Thine, and a merciful, to bring me to repentance, which I beseech Thee give me grace to hear and obey. But what I have done to hurt or offend them, that should stir up this rage against me, I know not. Lord, in Thy mercy look down upon me; fill my heart with thankfulness for this great deliverance, and suffer me not to forget it,

^k "May 11, Monday night. At midnight my house at Lambeth was beset with 500 of these rascal routers. I had notice, and strengthened the house as well as I could; and, God be thanked, I had no harm: they continued there full two hours. or the examination which I took of myself upon it. And as for them and their like, let them not have their desire, O Lord, let not their mischievous imaginations prosper against me, nor their fury lay hold upon me; lest they be too proud, and lest I end my weary days in misery. Yet forgive them, O Lord, for they know not why they did it. And according to Thy wonted mercy preserve me to serve Thee, and let the same watchful protection which now defended me, guard me through the remainder of my life; and this for Thine own goodness' sake, and the merits of my Saviour Jesus Christ. ¹ "Dec. 18, Friday. I was accused by the House of Commons for high treason, without any particular charge laid against me; which, they said, should be prepared in convenient time. Mr. Denzil Hollis was the man that brought up the message to the Lords. Soon after, the charge was brought into the Upper House by the Scottish Commissioners, tending to prove me an incendiary. I was presently committed to the Gentleman Usher; but was permitted to go in his company to my house at Lambeth, for a book or two to read in, and such papers as pertained to my defence against the Scots. I stayed at Lambeth till the evening to avoid the gazing of the people. I went to evening prayer in my chapel. The Psalms of the day, Ps. xciii. and xciv., and chap. l. of Isaiah, gave me great comfort. God make me worthy of it, and fit to receive it! And howsoever, if Thou be pleased to try me to the uttermost, I humbly beseech Thee, give me full patience, proportionable comfort, contentment with whatsoever Thou sendest, and an heart ready to die for Thy honour, the King's happiness, and this Church's preservation. And my zeal to these is all the sin (human frailty excepted) which is yet known to me in this particular, for which I thus suffer. Lord, look upon me in mercy, and for the merits of Jesus Christ pardon all my sins, many and great, which have drawn down this judgment upon me, and then in all things do with me as seems best in Thine own eyes; and make me not only patient under, but thankful for whatsoever Thou dost, O Lord, my strength and my Redeemer. I RECEIVED SUMMONS TO APPEAR IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS NEXT MORNING.

O merciful Lord, I have had a long and tedious trial; and I give Thee humble and hearty thanks for the wonderful strength that I have received from Thee in the bearing up of my weakness. Lord, continue all Thy mercies towards me, for the storm gathers and grows black upon me, and what it threatens is best known to Thee. After a long trial I am called to answer in the House of Commons, and that not to evidence, but to one single man's report of evidence, and that made without oath. What this may produce in present or in future, Thou knowest also. O Lord, furnish me with patience and true Christian wisdom and courage, to bear up against this drift, and send not out Thy storms to beat upon me also; but look comfortably upon me to my end, in and through the merits of Jesus Christ, my Lord and only Saviour. Amen.

ADDED SINCE THE RESTORING OF THIS BOOK TO ME, WHICH WAS TAKEN FROM ME IN A SEARCH MADE BY MR. PRINNE, MAY 31, 1643; AND WITH MUCH DIFFICULTY RESTORED UNTO ME, NOV. 6, 1644.

AUGUST. SER. 193. DE TEMP.

O DOMINE, ad adventum Tuum secundum paratus sim, ne talem me non invenias, qualem voluisti invenire, qui omnia pro me passus es, ut invenires talem, cui non supplicia inferres, sed præmia redderes sempiterna. Amen.

Grant, O Lord, that I may be ready to meet Thee at Thy second coming, lest Thou shouldest find me such a one as Thou desirest not [to find me]. O Thou, who, that Thou mightest not find me such, hast undergone all punishments for me, even that Thou mightest not inflict upon me any punishments, but mightest everlastingly reward me. Amen.

IBIDEM. SER. 198.

O Domine, cum Christi adjutorio sic agere studeam, ut Te tam pium Dominum, non solum hospitem recipere possim, sed etiam perpetuum habitatorem habeam, per Jesum Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

O Lord, let it be my care so to behave myself, through the help of Christ, that I may [be able to] receive Thee my most holy Lord, that Thou mayest not only be my guest, but mayest abide with me for ever, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

IBIDEM. SER. 202.

O æterne Deus, auxilium Tuum imploro, ut veram discretionem, et perfectam charitatem præstare mihi pro Tua pietate digneris, cui est gloria et imperium eum Patre et Spiritu Sancto in sæcula sæculorum. Amen.

O eternal God, I sue to Thee for help, that of Thy goodness Thou wouldest vouchsafe to give me (the) true wisdom and perfect charity; for Thou, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, hast the glory and the kingdom for ever and ever. Amen.

IBIDEM. SER. 204.

O Domine misericors, qui tanta mihi beneficia concessisti, des insuper mihi cum omni humilitate fidem rectam tenere, charitatem integram cum omnibus hominibus conservare, mundo corde et casto corpore Tibi Domino meo servire, usque ad finem vitæ serio laborem, ut post labores desiderabilem Illam vocem audire possim; Euge serve bone, intra in gaudium Domini tui. Amen.

O merciful God, who hast afforded me so many favours, (add to the rest) this also, that I may retain the right faith in all humility, that I may preserve perfect charity with all men, that I may seriously endeavour to serve Thee, my Lord, with a pure heart and a chaste body, even to my life's end; that after (all) my labours, I may hear that most desirable voice, Well done, thou good servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord. Amen.

Meditationes Præparantes ad Mortem.

Meditations Preparatory for Death.

O LORD, quicken and comfort my soul, for I have sinned against Thee. Lord, I call to mind all the years of my life past in the bitterness of my soul for my sin. My misdeeds have prevailed against me, O be Thou merciful unto my sin; O, for Thy Name's sake, be merciful unto my sin, for it is great. Amen.

Namely and especially, O Lord, be merciful unto me, &c.

Herein, O Lord, be merciful unto Thy servant. O Lord, lay not these, nor the rest, unto my charge.

O let the depth of my sin call upon the depth of Thy mercies, of Thy grace. Lord, let it come, that where my sin hath abounded, grace may superabound.

Lord, I believe, help Thou my unbelief.

O Lord, though Thou kill me, yet will I put my trust in Thee.

Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, yet will I fear no evil: for I hope verily to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.

O let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, if it may not pass from me, but that I must drink of it, Thy will be done.

Thou art the Lord, do what seemeth good in Thine own eyes.

For I will take it as the cup of salvation, and give thanks to Thy Name, O Lord.

O Lord, grant that all the days of my appointed time upon earth I may wait, when my changing shall come.

O that Thou wouldst hide me in the grave, and keep me secret until Thy wrath be past, and appoint me a time in which Thou wilt remember me!

Say unto my soul, O say it now, I am thy salvation.

Command my spirit, whenever Thou wilt command it, to be received up to Thee in peace.

O bid me come unto Thee: say unto me, This day shalt thou be with Me in Paradise.

Lord, thus, and now, let Thy servant depart in peace, that mine eyes may see Thy salvation.

O Lord, Thou blessed Trinity, three Persons and one God, have mercy upon me.

I commend myself into Thy hands, as to a faithful Creator.

Lord, receive Thine own creature, not made by any strange god, but by Thee, the only living and true God.

Despise not, O Lord, the work of Thine own handsⁿ.

I am created to Thine own image and likeness^o; O suffer not Thine own image to be defaced, but renew it again in righteousness and true holiness^p.

I commend myself into Thy hands, as to a most gracious Redeemer; for Thou hast redeemed me, O Lord God of truth.

O Lord, I am the price of Thy Blood, of Thy most precious Blood; O suffer not so great, so invaluable a price to perish.

O Lord, Thou camest down from heaven to redeem that which was lost; suffer not that to be lost which Thou hast redeemed.

I commend myself into Thy hands, as to my most blessed Comforter.

O Lord, I am weary and heavy laden, and I come to Thee to be refreshed by Thee. Behold, O Lord, I have been the temple of Thy Holy Spirit; I have, I confess, strangely polluted it; yet destroy me not, but dedicate me anew, and sanctify me to Thyself yet once again.

O Lord, I wear Thy Name; 'tis Thy Name that is called upon me. For Thy Name's sake, therefore, be merciful unto me^q. O spare, Lord, if not me, yet ⁿ Ps. cxxxviii. 8.

Thine own Name in me. And do not so remember my sin, O Lord do not, as that in remembering it, Thou forget Thine own Name^r. I have desired to fear Thy Name, to love and to honour Thy Name. And I now desire to depart this life in the invocation and confession of Thy Name. Lord, I confess it, and call upon it, O come, Lord Jesu. Amen.

Peccavi, O Domine!

1. Sed non negavi Te: O nunquam prævaleat Inimicus ut negem.

2. Sed credo; O Domine, adauge fidem, et non confundar in æternum.

3. Sed spero; et quæ spes mea nisi Tu solus? suscipe me secundum eloquium Tuum, et non confundar ab expectatione mea.

4. Sed præparavi et direxi cor meum ad Te quærendum: et etiamsi non secundum munditiem sanctuarii, tamen linum fumigans et quassam arundinem nec extinguas nec frangas, O Domine Jesu.

5. Sed patienter sustineo castigationem Tuam, et taceo quia Tu fecisti.

6. Sed remitto debitoribus meis, et Tu pollicitus es remissionem remittenti.

7. Sed projicio me in Te; ne Te subtrahas, et venientem ad Te ne ejicias foras.

^r Nehem. i. 11.

8. Sed in Nominis Tui confessione et invocatione opto decedere.

Quare non propter me, O Domine Jesu, aut quicumquam mei, sed propter Temetipsum, propter Nomen Tuum, propter gloriam Nominis Tui, et veritatem Tuam, propter misericordias Tuas multas, magnas, mirificas, propter Christum Mediatorem, et Spiritum Paraclatum, suscipe reversum ad Se, et revertentem ad Te. Amen.

O Lord, I have sinned!

1. But I have not denied Thee; O never let the enemy prevail with me to deny Thee.

2. But I believe; O Lord increase my faith, and let me never be confounded.

3. But I hope; and what is my hope, but in Thee alone? Receive me, O Lord, according to Thy word, and let me not be disappointed of my hope.

4. But I have prepared and directed my heart to seek Thee; and though (I am) not (purified) according to the purification of the sanctuary, yet, O Lord Jesu, quench not the smoking flax, nor break the bruised reed.

5. But I bear Thy correction patiently, and I hold my tongue, because Thou, Lord, hast done it.

6. But I forgive those that have trespassed against me, and Thou hast promised forgiveness to him that forgives them.

7. But I cast myself upon Thee, (O) withdraw not Thyself (from me), and in nowise cast me out when I come unto Thee.

8. But I desire to depart confessing unto Thee, and calling on Thy Name.

Wherefore not for my sake, O Lord, nor for any thing that belongs to me, but for Thine own sake, for Thy Name's sake, for the glory of Thy (great) Name, and for Thy truth's (sake), for Thy many great (and) wonderful mercies' (sake), for the sake of Christ the Mediator, and of the Holy Ghost the Comforter, receive me that am returned to myself, and returning unto Thee. Amen.

Et ideo, O Domine Deus meus!

Inter Te et me,

Christum Sacerdotem, Agnum, Sacrificium;

Inter Satanam et me,

Christum Regem, Leonem, Triumphum;

Inter peccatum et me,

Christi innocentiam in vita;

Inter pœnam peccatorum et me,

Christi satisfactionem, passionem, sanguinem;

Inter defectum justitiæ et me,

Christi justitiam, obedientiam absolutam;

Inter defectum ad præmium et me,

Christi meritum;

Inter defectum doloris pro peccatis, et me,

Christi lacrymas, et sudorem;

Inter defectum fervoris in orando et me,
Christi intercessionem ;
Inter accusationem Satanæ vel propriæ con-
scientiæ, et me,
Christum Advocatum ;
Inter concupiscentiam et me,
Christi charitatem ostendo, offero, commemoro. Acceptum habe, Domine, propter Christum Ipsum.
Amen.

And therefore, O Lord my God,

I shew forth, I offer, I commemorate,

Between Thee and me,
Christ the Priest, the Lamb, the Sacrifice ;
Between me and Satan,
Christ a King, a Lion, a [triumphant] Conqueror ;
Between me and sin,
Christ's innocency in His life ;
Between the punishment of me and [my] sins,
Christ's satisfaction, passion, [and] blood [shedding] ;
Between me and [my] want of righteousness,
Christ's righteousness and unsinning obedience ;
Between me and my unworthiness to be rewarded,
Christ's merits ;
Between me and my want of sorrow for [my]
sins,
Christ's tears and [bloody] sweat ;

Between me and my want of fervency in prayer,
Christ's intercession ;

Between me and my own conscience, or the accusations of Satan,
Christ the Advocate ;

Between me and [my] concupiscence ;
Christ's Love.

Let it be acceptable unto Thee, O Lord, for the same Christ's sake. Amen.

Peccavi, O Domine!

Sed non abscondo peccatum.

Sed non excuso.

Sed ultro fateor.

Sed recogito in amaritudine animæ.

Sed meipsum propter peccata in Te odi : des gra-tiam, ut judicem et vindicem ; ut non sine venia exeam e vita hac mihi miserrima. Amen.

O Lord, I have sinned,

But—

I do not cover my sin.

I do not excuse [it].

I willingly confess [it].

I reflect on it in the bitterness of my soul.

I abhor myself for the sins I have committed against Thee : [O] give me grace, that I may judge and take vengeance on myself, that I may not depart this most miserable life without forgiveness.

O Lord, I have not only sinned, but provoked Thee with many and grievous sins; yet, I beseech Thee, remember that I am but flesh, even a wind that passeth, and cometh not again^a.

Et plus potest ad salutem misericordia servatoris, quam ad perniciem nequitia mei peccatoris. Amen.

And the mercy of my [blessed] Saviour can avail more towards the salvation of me a sinner, than my iniquity can do to my destruction. Amen.

O Domine Jesu, non habebas Tu quare morereris, et mortuus es pro me: ego habeo quare des gratiam, ne dedigner mori, et paratus sim^t. Amen.

O Lord Jesus, in Thee there was [found] no cause of death, and yet didst Thou suffer death for me: I have deserved death; give me grace [O Lord] that I may not fear to die, and that I may be prepared for it. Amen.

O Domine Jesu, propter illam amaritudinem quam pro me miserrimo sustinuisti in cruce; maxime in illa hora, quando nobilissima anima Tua egressa est de benedicto corpore Tuo, deprecor Te, miserere animæ meæ in egressu suo, et perduc eam in vitam æternam. Amen.

O Lord Jesus, for those bitter pains which Thou

^a Ps. lxxviii. 40.

didst endure on the Cross for me a most miserable creature, and especially at that hour when Thy most precious soul went forth from Thy blessed body, I beseech Thee have mercy on my soul when she takes her flight, and bring her unto life eternal. Amen.

Pro Infirmis.

For the Sick.

DEUS, sub cujus nutibus vitæ nostræ momenta decurrunt, suscipe, quæso, preces meas pro ægrotantibus famulis Tuis, pro quibus humillime misericordiæ Tuæ auxilium imploro. Ut reddita sibi sanitate, gratiarum Tibi in Ecclesia Tua referant actiones, per Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum. Amen.

O God, by whose appointment the moments of our life run out, I beseech Thee receive my prayers for Thy sick servants, in whose behalf I most humbly beg the assistance of Thy mercy, that their health being restored to them, they may return thanks to Thee in Thy [holy] Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

At the Visitation of the Sick.

Existimasne?

1. Nullum morbum aut crucem casu evenire cuiquam, vel temere,

2. Quin immitti a Deo, citra cujus providentiam neminem morbo laborare?

3. Deum autem sapientissimum, ut nihil unquam permittat contingere, nisi quum expedit?

4. Expedire itaque tibi morbum hunc vel crucem, quem vel quam tibi nunc immisit Deus.

5. Porro Deum Paterno erga nos animo esse. Patrem autem, sive indulgeat sive castiget, æque Patrem esse: nec minore, et forsan majore, hoc quam illud amore facere.

6. Bona tibi diu dedisse, nunc mala dare; sed nec mala hæc, nisi ut majoris boni causa sint, nempe ut redeas ad Illum.

7. Gratiaë esse hoc, quod toties a te repulsus, tamen nec sic deserat; quin visitet te denuo, et requirat te.

Si sic; subdes hac in re Divinaë voluntati voluntatem tuam, sacrificium omnium (post Christi) Deo gratissimum.

Are you persuaded,

1. That no sickness or cross comes to any one by chance, or at all adventures?

2. But that they come from God, without whose providence nobody is afflicted with diseases?

3. And that God being most wise, never will suffer anything to befall us, but when it is expedient [to be so]?

4. And that this sickness or cross which God has now sent upon you, is [therefore] expedient for you?

5. And moreover, that God has the affection of a Father towards us? And that a father, whether he be indulgent to his children, or whether he correct them, is a father alike [in both], and that he does the latter with no less kindness, nay perhaps with greater, than [he does] the former.

6. That for a long time He has bestowed good things upon you: and though now He gives you evil things, yet He would not have brought the evil upon you but only to be the occasion of greater good, that is, that you may return to Him?

7. That 'tis an effect of His [gracious] favour, that notwithstanding you have so often rejected Him, yet He does not leave you so, but does visit you at last, and seek [after] you again?

Now if this be the case, submit your own will in this matter to the Divine will, a sacrifice which is of all others next to that of Christ [Himself] the most acceptable unto God.

Confiterisne?

1. Non tam bene vixisse te quam oportuit? imo vixisse te male, sæpeque et graviter peccasse?

2. Estne peccatum aliquod præter vel supra cætera? vel suntne peccata aliqua, quæ gravent conscientiam tuam, ut peculiaris absolutionis beneficio tibi sit opus?

3. Estne scrupulus aliquis circa ea quæ sunt fidei, vel religionis?

4. Recogitasne annos elapsos vitæ tuæ in amaritudine animæ tuæ?

5. Cuperesne majorem pro iis amaritudinem sentire, quam sentis? et gauderesne, si sentires? et doletne, quod majorem non sentias?

6. Petisne illuminari de iis quæ ignoras, vel oblitus es, ut de iis pœnitere possis? et pœnitetne id etiam quod vel ignoras, vel oblitus es?

7. Estne propositum, si vixeris, judicandi te, et vindicandi in teipsum quod deliquisti?

8. Estne propositum, si vixeris, emendandi vitam, et devitandi tum media, tum signa eorum, quæ hactenus peccasti?

9. Hoccine sancte promittis?

10. An petis de hoc promisso admoneri te libere?

Do you confess ?

1. That you have not lived so well as you ought ? nay, that you lived ill, and that you have often and grievously sinned ?

2. Is there any [particular] sin besides or above the rest ? or are there any sins that lie heavy upon your conscience, so that you need the benefit of a peculiar absolution ?

3. Have you any scruple about those things which appertain to faith or religion ?

4. Do you call to mind the past years of your life in the bitterness of your soul ?

5. Would you wish to feel greater bitterness for them than you are now sensible of ? and would you be glad if you felt more ? and are you grieved that you feel no more ?

6. Do you desire to have your mind enlightened concerning those things which you are ignorant of, or which you have forgotten, that you may repent of them ? and does it also repent you that either you do not know them, or have forgotten them ?

7. Do you purpose, if you live, to judge [yourself], and [to] take vengeance upon yourself for your offences ?

8. Do you purpose, if you live, to amend your life, and to avoid both the means and [the] appearances of those sins which you have lived in ?

9. Do you solemnly promise thus much ?

10. And do you desire to be freely admonished of this [your] promise?

Credisne?

1. Quæ in Symbolo sunt fidei Christianæ semel sanctis traditæ?

2. Te servari non posse, nisi ea credas?

3. Lætarisne et gratias agis Deo, quod in hac fide natus es, vixisti, et jam morieris in ea?

4. Petisne ipse, et visne nos tuo nomine a Deo supplices petere, ne deficiat in te fides hæc ad ipsum, atque adeo ne in ipso mortis articulo?

5. Petisne etiam, ut fructus fidei hujus, et præcipue mortis Jesu Christi, utcunque in vita Tua periit, tamen ne pereat in morte?

6. Si te sensus defecerit, aut dolor seu debilitas eousque pertulerit, ut quædam tibi excidant contra religionem, seu præcepta ejus, visne haberi pro non dictis? et renunciasne iis tanquam non tuis?

Do you believe?

1. Those matters that are contained in the articles of [the] Christian faith once delivered to the saints?

2. [And] that you cannot be saved unless you do believe them?

3. Do you rejoice and give [heartly] thanks to God [for] that you were born in this faith, [that you] have lived in it, and now that you shall die in it?

4. Do you yourself desire, and would you have us in your name humbly to beg of God that this faith in Him may not decay in you, and [especially] that it may not [fail] when you are just at the point of death?

5. Do you desire also that the fruit of this [your] faith, and chiefly of your faith in the death of Jesus Christ, may not be lost at your death, how much soever it may have been lost in your lifetime?

6. If your sense should fail, or if [your] pain or weakness should bring you to that pass that any expressions should fall from you [that are] contrary to religion or its precepts, would you have them be accounted as not spoken [by you]? and do you renounce them as none of yours?

Remittisne?

1. Illis, qui Te quocunque modo læserint, sicut tibi vis remitti?

2. Petisne a Deo, ut ipse quoque illis remittat?

3. Remittisne illis satisfactionem ad quam tenentur ratione illorum, quibus te verbo vel facto læserunt?

4. Visne hoc illis, qui in te peccarunt, tuo nomine significari; te illis quantum in te est noxas omnes remisisse?

5. Remissurusne esses, si graviora et plura in Te deliquissent?

6. Gauderesne, si plures jam haberes quibus remittere possis, quo inde uberius Tibi remissio peccatorum Tuorum a Deo impertiri possit?

Do you forgive?

1. Those that any manner of way have offended you, as [freely as] yourself would be forgiven?

2. And do you desire of God that He also would forgive them?

3. And do you forgive them the satisfaction they are bound to make upon account of those things wherein they have offended you, [whether] in word or deed?

4. Will you have thus much signified in your name to those that have offended you, that you for your part have forgiven them all their injuries?

5. Would you be ready to forgive them if they had done you more and greater mischiefs?

6. Would you be glad if you had more [enemies] to forgive, that so God might bestow on you a more plentiful remission of your own sins?

1. Tu ipse si quos læsisti, petisne ab iis veniam, ut et tibi remittant?

2. Ecquos imprimis commemorasti, et vis significari illis hoc tuo nomine?

3. Quum remissio nulla sperari potest peccatorum contra octavum vel nonum præceptum Legis Divinæ, nisi fiat restitutio; paratusne es restituere illis rem, quibus in re familiari, et illis famam, quibus in fama detraxisti; idque sine dolo, et dilatione?

4. Recordarisne qui tandem sint.

1. If you yourself have offended any [others], do you beg pardon of them [likewise] [and desire] that they may forgive you?

2. Whom do you chiefly remember [that you have offended]? and would you have thus much made known to them in your name?

3. Forasmuch as no forgiveness is to be hoped for of sins against the eighth or ninth Commandment of God's Law, unless restitution be made, are you ready to restore goods to those whom you have wronged in their estates, and repair the credit of those whom you have injured in their good name; and that without fraud or delay?

4. And now at last, can you call to mind who these are?

Symbolum Apostolicum.

The Apostles' Creed Paraphrased.

CREDO, Domine, (Tu meæ incredulitati subvenito,) esse Te Unum Deum, Patrem, Filium, Spiritum Sanctum.

O Lord, I believe (help Thou my unbelief). [I believe that] Thou the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, art one God.

Pro summa Tua benignitate et potentia, creasse cœlos et terram.

Pro immensa charitate omnia in Christo recapitulasse.

Qui caro factus et conceptus est. Natus. Passus. Crucifixus. Mortuus. Sepultus. Descendit. Resurrexit. Ascendit. Assedit. Revertetur. Retribuet.

I believe,

That of Thy unlimited goodness and power Thou didst create the heavens and the earth.

That of Thy unbounded love Thou hast gathered together in one, all things in Christ:

Who was made flesh, and [was] conceived.

Was born, suffered, was crucified, dead, buried, descended, rose again, ascended, sitteth, shall return, shall reward.

Virtute et operatione Spiritus Sancti, ex universo vocasse Ecclesiam ad sanctitatem.

In ea nos consequi bonorum participationem, et peccatorum remissionem.

In ea nos expectare carnis resurrectionem, vitam æternam.

I believe,

That by the power and operation of Thy Holy Spirit, Thou hast called Thy Church out of all the world unto holiness.

That in it we are made partakers of all good things, and of forgiveness of sins.

That in it we expect the resurrection of the flesh, and life everlasting.

Credo, Domine, (O supple defectus fidei meæ!)

Patris benevolum affectum.

Omnipotentis potentiam salutarem.

Creatoris providentiam in custodia, gubernatione, consummatione mundi.

Credo magnum pietatis mysterium, propter nos homines, pro nostra salute Deum in carne revelatum, Filium Patris, Unctum Spiritus, Dominum Jesum.

Conceptum esse, et natum; ad purgandam impuritatem conceptionis et nativitatis nostræ.

Passum esse; quæ nos oportuit, (inexplicabilia) ne nos oporteret.

Crucifixum, mortuum, et sepultum; ne hæc pro eo timeamus subire.

Descendisse; quo nos oportuit, et ne nos omnino.

Resurrexisse, ascendisse, consedis; ubi nihil nobis, et ut nos quoque.

Adventurum Judicem mundi, ut nos assumat.

Lord, I believe, (O supply Thou my want of faith).

I believe,

The affectionate kindness of the Father.

The saving power of the Almighty.

The wisdom of the Creator, in the preservation, government, and consummation of the world.

The great mystery of godliness, that for us men, and for our salvation, God was manifested in the flesh, [even] the Lord Jesus, the Son of the Father, the Anointed of the Spirit.

That He was conceived and born to cleanse us from the filthiness of our conception and birth.

That He suffered, what we ought [to have suffered], most unspeakable torments, that we might escape them.

That He was crucified, dead, and buried, that we may not be afraid to undergo the same things for His sake.

That He descended to that [dismal] place whither we must have gone, that He might wholly excuse us from it.

That He rose again, ascended, and sitteth [in that place] where we had no portion, that even we also might inherit it.

That He shall come to judge the world, that He may take us up [into His glory].

Credo Eum esse,

In conceptione et generatione, naturæ purgatorum ;

In passione crucis, mortis sepulturæ, redemptorem personæ ;

In descensu, triumphatorem inferni et mortis ;

In resurrectione, primitias dormientium ;

In ascensione, præcursorem ;

In sessione, paracletum sive advocatum ;

In secundo adventu et iudicio, consummatorem fidei.

Sic loco

Abaddon,

Satanæ,

Diaboli,

Delatoris,

Captivantis,

Aculei,

Jesum intueor.

Mediatorem.

Paracletum.

Intercessorem.

Redemptorem.

Christum.

I believe [that] He is come.

By His conception and birth, the Purifier of our nature.

By His suffering on the cross, death, and burial, the Redeemer of our bodies.

By His descent, a [triumphant] Conqueror over hell and death.

By His resurrection, the first-fruits of them that sleep.

By His ascension, our Forerunner [gone to prepare a place for us].

By His session [at the right hand of God] the Intercessor, or our Advocate.

By His second coming to judgment, the Finisher of our faith. Thus—

Instead of the

Destroyer,

Accuser,

Slanderer,

Enslaver,

I behold

Jesus [a Saviour].

A Mediator.

An Advocate.

An Intercessor.

A Redeemer.

Christ [the Anointed].

Credo autem et Spiritus vim vivificam, sanctificantem,

Invisibiliter, extra, efficaciter, tanquam ventus,
In increpatione, compunctione, doctrina, commone-factione, advocacione, consolatione, attestacione, diffusione charitatis, illuminatione cognitionis.

But I believe also the quickening and sanctifying power of the Holy Ghost.

[A power that works]

[Inwardly and] invisibly, [openly and] outwardly, effectually, as the wind [that bloweth where it listeth].

By reproof, by compunction [of the heart], by doctrine, by admonition; as an Advocate, as the Comforter; as a Witness; by diffusion of charity, by illumination of knowledge.

Credo præterea Spiritus Sancti corpus mysticum vocatorum ex universo mundo, ad fidem veritatis et sanctitatem vitæ;

Membrorum vero corporis reciprocam participa-tionem;

Præterea remissionem peccatorum in præsentī,
spem vero resurrectionis et translationis ad vitam æternam.

I believe also,

The mystical body of this Holy Spirit, consisting of those that are called out of the whole world unto belief of the truth and holiness of life.

The mutual fellowship of the members of that body.

The remission of sins in this present time, and the hope of a future resurrection, and of our translation to the life eternal.

Domine, adde mihi fidem; non fidem quæ legem annihilat;

Sed fidem { per charitatem operantem,
operibus efficacem,
vincentem mundum;

O Lord, give me faith; not such faith as would make the law of none effect;

But such faith as { works by love,
is powerful in working,
overcomes the world.

Sanctissimam denique, ut te amem ut Patrem, ve-rear ut Omnipotentem;

Ut fideli Creatori animam in beneficentia commit-tam;

Ut in me Christus formetur; ego vero conformer imagini Ejus;

Ut pro iis, quæ pro me passus est, agam gratias; ipsi compatiar: pro ipso patiar, quodcumque Ipsi vi-sum fuerit;

Ut pro Ejus cruce, morte, sepultura ulciscar, cru-cifigam, interimam, sepeliam, quod istis causam præ-buit, peccatum;

Ut pro descensu ad inferos, vivus frequenti meditatione descendam in infernum ;

Ut conformer resurrectioni Ejus, in novitatem vitæ resurgens ;

Ascensioni vero, quæ sunt supra meditans, et quærens ;

Ut et consessus sim memor, quoties dono aliquo cœlestis consolationis egeo ; et quoties in invocatione frigeo ;

Adventus autem, et judicii nunquam obliviscar ;

[And besides] a most holy faith,

That I may love Thee as a Father, and fear Thee [as] the Almighty.

That I may commit my soul unto Thee in well-doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

That Christ may be formed in me, and that I may be conformed unto His Image.

That I may give [Him] thanks for those things which He has suffered for me, [that I may] suffer [together] with Him ; [that I may] suffer for Him whatsoever He shall see good.

That for His cross, death, [and] burial I may revenge, crucify, kill, bury my sins, which caused [all] these.

That for His descent into hell, I may descend thither whilst I live [here], by frequent meditations [upon it].

That I may be [made] conformable to His resurrection by [my] rising again to newness of life.

And to His ascension, by meditating upon and seeking [after] those things that are above.

That I may be also mindful of His session [at God's right hand] whensoever I want any gift of heavenly consolation, and as often as I am cold in my devotions.

And that I may never forget His [second] coming at the day of judgment; [O] that I may always think I hear the noise of the last trumpet sounding, and that I may pray without ceasing till I am placed at the right hand. Amen.

Conscientiæ Quotidianum Examen.

The Daily Examination of Conscience.

O anima mea!

1. An egisti Deo pro acceptis beneficiis gratias?
2. An petiisti gratiam a Deo pro cognitione et expulsionem peccatorum?
3. An exegisti a te ipsa rationem de admissis præsentis die peccatis, cogitatione, verbo, opere, per singulas horas ex quo evigilasti?
4. An expetiisti veniam de delictis? An proposuisti cum Dei gratia emendationem?

Benedicta sit sancta et individua Trinitas nunc et semper, et in sæcula sæculorum. Amen.

O my soul!

1. Hast thou given God thanks for the benefits [which] thou hast received?
2. Hast thou prayed for [the assistance of] God's grace, that thou mayest know thy sins and cast them out?
3. Hast thou called thyself to [an] account for the sins thou hast committed this present day, by thought, word, or deed, in every hour since thou hast been awake?

4. Hast thou begged pardon for thy offences, and [hast thou] purposed through God's grace to amend [them]?

Blessed be the holy and undivided Trinity now and for ever, world without end. Amen.

For a good Journey.

O DOMINE, stellam ducem non sum meritis, tribue tamen, quæso, mihi iter prosperum, tempus tranquillum, reditum felicem. O Lord, I deserve not the guidance of a star to guide me, yet I beseech Thee, grant me a good journey, seasonable weather, [and] a happy return; that Thy holy angel being my companion and protector, I may arrive happily to my journey's end, and back again to my own home, and at last to the port of everlasting salvation, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Be present [with me], O Lord, and preserve Thy servant. Be Thou my upholder, when I am in slippery places; and [be Thou] my haven [when I am] in [danger of] shipwreck, that by Thy guidance I may finish this journey prosperously, and at length return in safety to my own [place], through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Exaudi, Domine, supplicationes meas, et viam famuli Tui dispone: ut inter omnes vitæ et viæ hujus varietates, Tuo semper protegar auxilio, per Jesum Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Give ear, O Lord, to my supplications, and [so] dispose the way of Thy servant, that amidst all the changes [and chances] of this life and [this] way, I may ever be defended by this [most gracious] help, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Domine, salvum me fac servum Tuum sperantem in te. Mitte mihi auxilium de Sancto, et de Sion tuere me. Esto mihi turris fortitudinis a facie Inimici. Domine, exaudi orationem meam, et clamor meus ad te veniat, per Jesum Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

O Lord, save me Thy servant who put my trust in Thee; send me help from Thy holy place, and defend me out of Sion. Be Thou unto me a strong tower from the face of my Enemy. Let the Enemy have no advantage over me, nor the son of wickedness approach to hurt me. O make my journey prosperous [to me], Thou [that art the] God of my health. O Lord hear my prayers, and let my crying come unto Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

At the Laying of the First Stone of a Chapel^u.

O LORD, merciful and gracious, this Thy people are preparing to build a place for Thy service :. accept, I humbly beseech Thee, their present devotion, and make them perfect both in their present and future duty ; that while Thou givest them ease to honour Thee, they may with the greater alacrity go on in Thy service. And now, O Lord, I have by Thy mercy and goodness put to my hand to lay the first stone in this building ; it is a corner-stone, make it, I beseech Thee, a happy foundation, a durable building. Let it rise up, and be made, and continue, a house of prayer and devotion through all ages ; that Thy people may here be taught to believe in Jesus Christ, the true Corner-stone, upon whom they and their souls may be built safe for ever. Grant this for the merit of the same Jesus Christ, our most blessed Lord and Saviour ; to whom, with the Father and the Holy Spirit, be ascribed all power, and majesty, and dominion, this day and for ever. FOR THE HIGH COURT OF PARLIAMENT, 1625.

TEMPORE JEJUNII OB PESTEM GRAVISSIMAM*.

IN A FAST FOR THAT GREAT PLAGUE.

Most gracious God, we humbly beseech Thee, as for this kingdom in general, so especially for the High Court of Parliament, under our most religious and gracious King at this time assembled; that Thou wouldest be pleased to bless and direct all their consultations, to the preservation of Thy glory, the good of Thy Church, the safety, honour, and welfare of our Sovereign and his kingdoms. Lord, look upon the humility and devotion with which they are come into Thy courts. And they are come into Thy house in assured confidence upon the merits and mercies of Christ, our blessed Saviour, that Thou wilt not deny them the grace and favour which they beg of Thee. Therefore, O Lord, bless them with that wisdom which Thou knowest necessary to speed and bring great designs into action, and to make the maturity of his Majesty's and their counsels the happiness and the blessing of this Commonwealth. These, and all other necessaries, for them, for us, and Thy whole Church, we humbly beg in the name and mediation of Jesus Christ, our most blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

FOR THE NAVY, 1625^v.

O eternal God, and our most gracious Father, Thou art the Lord of Hosts, and the strength of all nations is from Thee; if Thou keepest not the city, the watchman waketh but in vain; and no victory can wait upon the justest designs, upon the wisest counsels, upon the strongest armies, if Thou teach not their hands to war, and their fingers to fight. Thou art the steady hope of all the ends of the earth, and of them which go and remain in the broad sea. Lord, at this time we need Thy more special assistance both by land and sea; and for the mercy of ^v This year the Duke of Buckingham was sent out with a fleet of eighty sail, ten thousand soldiers on board, to seize the shipping that was lying in harbour at Cadiz.

Christ deny us neither. Be with our armies, and the armies of our allies and associates by land; be with our navy at sea. Be not from the one, nor from the other, in power and in great mercy, until Thou hast brought them back with honour and a settled peace. Lord, turn our enemy's sword into their own bosom; for we sought peace and ensued it, and while we did so, they did more than make themselves ready to battle. We are Thy servants, truly and heartily sorry for our sins. Lord, forgive them, and then we will trust upon Thee, that Thou wilt pour down all Thy blessings upon this and all other designs and actions of this State, undertaken for Thy glory, the honour of our most gracious King Charles, and the peace and welfare of this Church and Commonwealth. Grant this, we humbly beseech Thee, for Jesus Christ His sake, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

IN TIME OF PESTILENCE AND UNSEASONABLE WEATHER^z, 1625.

Thy punishments, until Thou hast forgiven our sins : we may not think Thou wilt forgive our sins, until our humiliation and repentance come to ask forgiveness. We have been too slow to come, and now Thou hast apparelled Thy mercy in justice, to force us to Thee. Lord, we believe ; but do Thou increase our faith, our devotion, our repentance, and all Christian virtues in us. At this time, the vials of Thy heavy displeasure drop down upon us, and while we smart under one judgment, Thou threatenest the rest. The pestilence spreads in our streets, and so as if it sought whom to devour. No strength is able to stand against it, and it threatens to make families, nay cities, desolate. While the pestilence eats up Thy people, we hear the sound of war, and the sword calleth for such as it would devour. In the meantime, the heavens are black over us, and the clouds drop leanness ; and it will be famine, to swallow what the pestilence and the sword shall leave alive, unless Thou send more seasonable weather to give the fruits of the earth in their season. Our sins have deserved all this, and more, and we neither do nor can deny it. We have no whither to go but to mercy : we have no way to that, but by the all-sufficient merit of Thy Son our blessed Saviour. Lord, for His merit and mercies' sake look down upon us Thy distressed servants ; command Thine angel to stay his hand ; and remember that in death we cannot praise Thee, nor give thanks in the pit. Go forth with our armies when they go, and make us remember that all our strength and deliverance is in Thee. Clear up the heavens over us, and take not from us the great plenty with which Thou hast crowned the earth: but remember us, O Thou that feedest the ravens when they call upon Thee. Lord, we need all Thy mercies to come upon us, and Thy mercies are altogether in Christ, in whom, and for whose sake, we beg them of Thee, who livest and reignest in the unity of the Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

IN DANGER OF ENEMIES, 1626.

O eternal God and most merciful Father, we humbly beseech Thee be merciful unto us, and be near to help us in all those extremities which our sins threaten to bring upon us. Our enemies are strengthened against us, by our multiplied rebellions against Thee. And we deserve to suffer whatever our enemies threaten. But there is mercy with Thee, that Thou mayest be feared. O Lord, shew us this mercy, and give us grace so to fear Thee, as that we may never be brought to fear or feel them. And whensoever Thou wilt correct us for our sins, let us fall into Thy hands, and not into the hands of men. Grant this for Jesus Christ His sake, our only Mediator and Redeemer. Amen

O eternal God and most gracious Father, we have deserved whatsoever Thy law hath threatened against sinners. Our contempt of Thy divine worship is great, and we hear Thy word, but obey it not. Forgive us, O Lord, forgive us these and all other our grievous sins. Give us light in our understanding, readiness and obedience in our will, discretion in our words and actions; true, serious, and loyal endeavours for the peace and prosperity of Jerusalem, the unity and glory of this Church and State; that so we may love it and prosper in it, and be full of grace in this life, and filled with glory in the life to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GRATIARUM ACTIO PRO PESTILENTIA EXTINGTA, 1626.

THANKSGIVING FOR THE CEASING OF THE PLAGUE.

O most merciful God, we give Thee praise and thanks for the wonderful ceasing of the late raging pestilence in the chief city of this kingdom, and other places. Lord, shew us yet further mercy, and look upon all parts of this land with tender compassion. Keep back the destroying angel, that he enter not into places that are yet free, nor make further waste in those which are already visited. Comfort them that are sick, preserve them that are sound, receive them that die to mercy, that living and dying, they and we may continue Thy faithful servants, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

IN DANGER OF ENEMIES, 1626.

O most gracious God and loving Father, we have felt Thy manifold mercies, no nation more; and we have committed sins against Thee, few nations greater. Enter not into judgment with us, O Lord, but for Christ and His mercy's sake, pacify Thine anger, and save us from the malice and cruelty of our enemies. They are our crying sins that have called them upon us. Let it be an addition to Thy wonted mercy, to restrain their fury. To this end, Lord, put Thy bridle into their mouths, and Thy bit between their teeth. Frustrate their designs, and let them find no way in our seas, nor any path in our floods; but scatter them with Thy tempest, and follow them with all Thy storms; that we, being delivered by Thy hand, may bless and honour Thy name, devoutly serving Thee all our days, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

1626. 1628.

O Lord, Thou gracious Governor of all the kingdoms of the earth, look down, we beseech Thee, in mercy upon this realm, and upon all other reformed Churches. Save and deliver us and them from the hands of all such as threaten our destruction. Protect the person of our gracious Sovereign, direct his councils, go forth with his armies, be unto him and to us a wall of brass, and a strong tower of defence against his and our enemies; that so we, being safe through Thy mercy, may live to serve Thee in Thy Church, and ever give Thee praise and glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR THE SAFE CHILD-BEARING OF THE QUEEN'S MAJESTY, 1628^a.

O eternal God and merciful Father, all peace and strength of kingdoms is from Thee; and lineal succession is Thy great blessing, both upon princes and states; the great means to preserve unity, and confirm strength. We therefore give Thee humble and hearty thanks, as for all Thy blessings, so especially at this time for Thy great mercy and loving-kindness to our dread Sovereign, his royal Queen, and this whole State, in giving her Majesty hope of her long-desired issue, thereby filling their and our hearts with gladness. Lord, go along with Thine own blessings to perfect them. Be with her in soul and in body, preserve her from all dangers, keep her safe to and in the hour of travail, that there may be strength to bring forth her joy and our hope. And make her a joyful mother of many children, to the glory of Thy great Name, the happiness of his Majesty, the security of this State, and the flourishing of the Church and true religion amongst us. FOR THE SAFE CHILD-BEARING OF THE QUEEN'S MAJESTY, 1629.

O eternal God and merciful Father, since lineal succession is under Thee the great security of kingdoms, and the very life of peace, we therefore give Thee most humble and hearty thanks for the great blessing which Thou hast again begun to work for our gracious King Charles and this whole State, in giving the Queen's Majesty further hopes of a desired and happy issue. And as we give Thee humble and hearty thanks for this, so we pray Thee to perfect this great blessing thus begun, to preserve her from all dangers, and to be with her by special assistance in the hour of travail. Lord, make her a happy mother of successful children, to the increase of Thy glory, the comfort of his Majesty, the joy of her own heart, the safety of the State, and the preservation of the Church and true religion among us. Grant this even for Jesus Christ His sake, our only Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

A THANKSGIVING FOR THE QUEEN'S SAFE DELIVERY, AND

hast given us the joy of our hearts, the contentment of our souls for this life, in blessing our dear and dread Sovereign, and his virtuous royal Queen, with a hopeful son, and us with a prince, in Thy just time and his to rule over us. We give Thy glorious Name most humble and hearty thanks for this. Lord, make us so thankful, so obedient to Thee for this great mercy, that Thy goodness may delight to increase it to us. Increase it, good Lord, to more children, the prop one of another against single hope; increase it to more sons, the great strength of his Majesty and his throne; increase it in the joy of his royal parents, and all true-hearted subjects; increase it by his Christian and happy education both in faith and goodness; that this kingdom and people may be happy in the long life and prosperity of our most gracious Sovereign and his royal consort. And when fulness of days must gather time, Lord, double his graces, and make them apparent in this his heir, and his heirs after him, for all generations to come, even for Jesus Christ His sake, our Lord and only Saviour. Amen.

HAPPY BIRTH OF THE LADY MARY, NOV. 4, 1631^c.

Thee, as we are bound, most humble and hearty thanks for Thy great mercy extended to us and this whole State, in blessing the Queen's Majesty with a happy deliverance in and from the great pains and perils of childbirth. We humbly beseech Thee to continue and increase this blessing; to give her strength that she may happily overcome this and all dangers else; that his most gracious Majesty may long have joy in her happy life: that she may have joy in his Majesty's prosperity; that both of them may have comfort in the royal Prince Charles, the new-born Princess the Lady Mary, and with them in a hopeful, healthful, and successful posterity; that the whole kingdom may have fulness of joy in them; and that both they and we may all have joy in the true honour and service of God; that both Church and kingdom may be blessed, and their royal persons filled with honour in this life, and with eternal happiness in the life to come, even for Jesus Christ His sake, our only Lord and Saviour.

of Thy hand in a disease otherwise so troublesome and fearful, and for the mercifulness of Thy hand in taking it off so soon and so happily. We know, and acknowledge before Thee, our sins, and what grievous punishments they have deserved: but, Lord, we beseech Thee still to remember us in mercy, and long to bless our gracious King with life, and health, and strength, and happiness, and above all, with the fear of Thy holy Name; that so he may continue under Thee, and over us, a father of the State, a patron of the Church, a comfort to his royal Queen, till he see his children's children, and peace upon Israel. A DAILY PRAYER.

O LORD, forgive me all my sins that are past.
O Lord, strengthen me against all temptations, especially the temptations of, &c.

O Lord, fill my heart with thankfulness: and I do give Thee most humble and hearty thanks for the great deliverance of me from the rage and fury of the multitude. O Lord, let the same wings of Thy merciful protection be spread over me all the days of my life. O Lord, give me a faithful, a patient, a penitent, a persevering heart in Thy service; that so I may with comfort daily, nay hourly, expect when my changing shall come. So Amen, Lord Jesu. Amen

The Archbishop's Speech upon th Scaffold.

His Grace's Speech, according to the original, written with his own hand, and delivered by him upon the scaffold on Tower Hill, Jan. 10, 1644, to his Chaplain, Dr. Sterne, after Lord Archbishop of York.

Good people,

THIS is an uncomfortable time to preach; yet I shall begin with a text of Scripture, Hebrews xii. 2: "Let us run with patience the race which is set before us: looking unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith, who, for the joy that was set before Him, endured the Cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God."

I have been long in my race; and how I have looked unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher of my faith, He best knows. I am now come to the end of my race, and here I find the Cross, a death of shame. But the shame must be despised, or no coming to the right hand of God. Jesus despised the shame for me, and God forbid that I should not despise the shame for Him.

I am going apace, as you see, towards the Red sea, and my feet are upon the very brink of it: an argument, I hope, that God is bringing me into the land of promise; for that was the way through which He led His people.

But before they came to it, He instituted a pass-over for them. A lamb it was, but it must be eaten with sour herbs^l. I shall obey, and labour to digest the sour herbs, as well as the lamb. And I shall remember it is the Lord's passover. I shall not think of the herbs, nor be angry with the hands that gathered them; but look up only to Him who instituted that, and governs these: for men can have no more power over me than what is given them from above^k.

I am not in love with this passage through the Red sea, for I have the weakness and infirmity of flesh and blood plentifully in me. And I have prayed with my Saviour, Ut transiret calix iste, that this cup of red wine might pass from me^l. But if not, God's will, not mine, be done. And I shall most willingly drink of this cup as deep as He pleases, and enter into this sea, yea, and pass through it, in the way that He shall lead me.

But I would have it remembered, good people, that when God's servants were in this boisterous sea, and Aaron among them, the Egyptians which persecuted them, and did in a manner drive them into that sea, were drowned in the same waters, while they were in pursuit of them.

^l Ex. xii. 18.

^k St. John xix. 11.

^l St. Luke xxii. 42.

I know my God, whom I serve, is as able to deliver me from this sea of blood, as He was to deliver the three children from the furnace^m. And (I most humbly thank my Saviour for it) my resolution is, as theirs was: they would not worship the image which the king had set up, nor will I the imaginations which the people are setting up. Nor will I forsake the temple and the truth of God, to follow the bleating of Jeroboam's calves in Dan and in Bethel.

And as for this people, they are at this day miserably misled: God of His mercy open their eyes, that they may see the right way. For at this day the blind lead the blind; and if they go on, both will certainly fall into the ditchⁿ.

For myself, I am (and I acknowledge it in all humility) a most grievous sinner many ways, by thought, word, and deed: and yet I cannot doubt but that God hath mercy in store for me, a poor penitent, as well as for other sinners. I have now upon this sad occasion ransacked every corner of my heart; and yet I thank God I have not found among the many any one sin, which deserves death by any known law of this kingdom.

And yet hereby I charge nothing upon my judges: for if they proceed upon proof by valuable witnesses, I or any other innocent may be justly condemned. And I thank God, though the weight of the sentence

^m Dan. iii.

ⁿ St. Luke vi. 39.

lie heavy upon me, I am as quiet within as ever I was in my life.

And though I am not only the first Archbishop, but the first man, that ever died by an ordinance in Parliament, yet some of my predecessors have gone this way, though not by this means: for Elphegus was hurried away and lost his head by the Danes; Simon Sudbury in the fury of Wat Tyler and his fellows. Before these, St. John Baptist had his head danced off by a lewd woman; and St. Cyprian, archbishop of Carthage, submitted his head to a persecuting sword. Many examples great and good; and they teach me patience. For I hope my cause in heaven will look of another dye, than the colour that is put upon it here.

And some comfort it is to me, not only that I go the way of these great men in their several generations; but also that my charge, as foul as it is made, looks like that of the Jews against St. Paul^o; for he was accused for the law and the temple, i. e. religion; and like that of St. Stephen^p, for breaking the ordinances which Moses gave, i. e. law and religion, the holy place and the law^q.

But you will say, Do I then compare myself with the integrity of St. Paul and St. Stephen? No: far be that from me. I only raise a comfort to myself, that these great saints and servants of God were laid at in their times, as I am now. And it is memorable that St. Paul, who helped on this accusation against St. Stephen, did after fall under the very same himself.

Yea, but here is a great clamour that I would have brought in popery. I shall answer that more fully by and by. In the meantime, you know what the Pharisees laid against Christ Himself, "If we let Him alone, all men will believe on Him, et venient Romani, and the Romans will come, and take away both our place and nation^r." Here was a causeless cry against Christ, that the Romans would come: and see how just the judgment of God was. They crucified Christ for fear lest the Romans should come; and His death was it which brought in the Romans upon them, God punishing them with that which they most feared. And I pray God this clamour of venient Romani, (of which I have given no cause,) help not to bring them in. For the pope never had such an harvest in England since the Reformation, as he hath now upon the sects and divisions that are amongst us. In the meantime, "by honour and dishonour, by good report and evil report, as a deceiver and yet true^s," am I passing through this world.

Some particulars also I think it not amiss to speak of.

1. And first, this I shall be bold to speak of the King, our gracious Sovereign. He hath been much traduced also for bringing in of popery: but on my conscience (of which I shall give God a present account) I know him to be as free from this charge as any man living. And I hold him to be as sound a Protestant, according to the religion by law established, as any man in his kingdom; and that he will venture his life as far and as freely for it. And I think I do or should know both his affection to religion, and his grounds for it, as fully as any man in England.

2. The second particular is concerning this great and populous city, (which God bless). Here hath been of late a fashion taken up to gather hands, and then go to the great court of the kingdom, the Parliament, and clamour for justice; as if that great and wise court, before whom the causes come which are unknown to the many, could not or would not do justice but at their appointment; a way which may endanger many an innocent man, and pluck his blood upon their own heads, and perhaps upon the city's also.

And this hath been lately practised against myself; the magistrates standing still, and suffering them openly to proceed from parish to parish without check. God forgive the setters of this; with all my heart I beg it: but many well-meaning people are caught by it.

In St. Stephen's case, when nothing else would serve, they stirred up the people against him^t. And ^t Acts vi. 12.

Herod went the same way: when he had killed St. James, yet he would not venture upon St. Peter, till he found how the other pleased the people^u.

But take heed of having your hands full of blood^x; for there is a time best known to Himself, when God above other sins makes inquisition for blood. And when that inquisition is on foot, the Psalmist tells us, that God remembers; but that is not all; He remembers, and forgets not the complaint of the poor^y, i.e. whose blood is shed by oppression^z.

Take heed of this: "it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God^a;" but then especially when He is making inquisition for blood. And with my prayers to avert it, I do heartily desire this city to remember the prophecy that is expressed in Jer. xxvi. 15.

3. The third particular is, the poor Church of England. It hath flourished, and been a shelter to other neighbouring Churches, when storms have driven upon them. But, alas! now it is in a storm itself, and God only knows whether or how it shall get out. And which is worse than a storm from without, it is become like an oak cleft to shivers with wedges made out of its own body; and at every cleft, profaneness and irreligion is entering in. While (as Prosper says^b) men that introduce profaneness are cloked over with the name religionis imaginariæ, of imaginary religion: for we have lost the substance, and dwell too much in opinion. And that Church, which all the Jesuits' machinations could not ruin, is fallen into danger by her own.

4. The last particular (for I am not willing to be too long) is, myself. I was born and baptized in the bosom of the Church of England, established by law: in that profession I have ever since lived, and in that I come now to die.

What clamours and slanders I have endured for labouring to keep an uniformity in the external service of God, according to the doctrine and discipline of this Church, all men know, and I have abundantly felt. Now at last I am accused of high treason in Parliament, a crime which my soul ever abhorred. This treason was charged to consist of two parts,—an endeavour to subvert the laws of the land; and a like endeavour to overthrow the true Protestant religion, established by law.

Besides my answers to the several charges, I protested mine innocency in both Houses. It was said, prisoners' protestations at the bar must not be taken. I must, therefore, come now to it upon my death, being instantly to give God an account for the truth of it.

I do therefore here, in the presence of God and His holy Angels, take it upon my death, that I never endeavoured the subversion either of law or religion.

And I desire you all to remember this protest of mine for my innocency in this, and from all treasons whatsoever.

I have been accused likewise as an enemy to Parliaments. No: I understand them, and the benefit that comes by them, too well to be so. But I did dislike the misgovernments of some Parliaments many ways, and I had good reason for it; for corruptio optimi est pessima. And that being the highest court, over which no other hath jurisdiction, when it is misinformed or misgoverned, the subject is left without all remedy.

But I have done. I forgive all the world, all and every of those bitter enemies which have persecuted me; and humbly desire to be forgiven of God first, and then of every man. And so I heartily desire you to join in prayer with me.

O eternal God and merciful Father, look down upon me in mercy, in the riches and fulness of all Thy mercies. Look upon me, but not till Thou hast nailed my sins to the cross of Christ, not till Thou hast bathed me in the blood of Christ, not till I have hid myself in the wounds of Christ; that so the punishment due unto my sins may pass over me. And since Thou art pleased to try me to the uttermost, I most humbly beseech Thee, give me now in this great instant, full patience, proportionable comfort, and a heart ready to die for Thine honour, the King's happiness, and this Church's preservation. And my zeal to these (far from arrogancy be it spoken) is all the sin (human frailty excepted, and all incidents thereto) which is yet known to me in this particular, for which I come now to suffer; I say, in this particular of treason. But otherwise, my sins are many and great; Lord, pardon them all, and those especially (whatever they are) which have drawn down this present judgment upon me. And when Thou hast given me strength to bear it, do with me as seems best in Thine own eyes. Amen.

And that there may be a stop of this issue of blood in this more than miserable kingdom, O Lord, I beseech Thee, give grace of repentance to all blood-thirsty people. But if they will not repent, O Lord, confound all their devices, defeat and frustrate all their designs and endeavours upon them, which are or shall be contrary to the glory of Thy great Name, the truth and sincerity of religion, the establishment of the King, and his posterity after him, in their just rights and privileges; the honour and conservation of Parliaments in their just power; the preservation of this poor Church in her truth, peace, and patrimony; and the settlement of this distracted and distressed people, under their ancient laws, and in their native liberties. And when Thou hast done all this in mere mercy for them, O Lord, fill their hearts with thankfulness, and with religious dutiful obedience to Thee and Thy commandments all their days. So, Amen, Lord Jesu, Amen. And receive my soul into Thy bosom. Amen.

Our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. . And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation ; But deliver us from evil : For Thine is the kingdom, The power and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

THE ARCHBISHOP'S PRAYER

AS HE KNEELED BY THE BLOCK.

LORD, I am coming as fast as I can. I know I must pass through the shadow of death, before I can come to see Thee. But it is but umbra mortis, a mere shadow of death, a little darkness upon nature: but Thou by Thy merits and passion hast broke through the jaws of death. So, Lord, receive my soul, and have mercy upon me; and bless this kingdom with peace and plenty, and with brotherly love and charity, that there may not be this effusion of Christian blood amongst them, for Jesus Christ His sake, if it be Thy will.

Then he laid his head upon the block, and after he had prayed to himself, said aloud, Lord receive my soul, which was the signal given to the executioner.
