TO THE MEMORY
OF
THE RIGHT REVEREND FATHER IN GOD
CHARLES JAMES BLOMFIELD, LATE LORD BISHOP OF LONDON,
IN HUMBLE AND GRATEFUL ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF THE
CHRISTIAN ZEAL MANIFESTED IN HIS UNWEARIED EFFORTS TO INCREASE THE EFFICIENCY OF THE ENGLISH CHURCH
AND TO FURTHER THE GOSPEL
BOTH AT HOME AND ABROAD,
THIS MANUAL OF PRAYERS IS REVERENTLY INSCRIBED.

PREFACE.

---

A FEW words may not be out of place to explain the circumstances under which this little Manual of Prayers in behalf of Missions and Missionaries was originally compiled, and is now republished.

As long ago as the year 1842, two Friends, Members of the same College in Oxford, felt the want of some Prayers for this purpose, when, in common with a few others specially interested in the same work, they had agreed to meet occasionally for mutual instruction in the past and present history of the Missions of the Church, and with the hope of encouraging one another, under the blessing of God, in the work of Christian intercession.

However unequal they well knew themselves to be to the composition of such a Manual of Devotion, they were deeply persuaded that the one perfect treasure house of all supplication is the Blessed Word of God, and the best standard of Christian feeling, and the deepest expression of holy earnestness, that which has been preserved to us in the chaste and reverent language of the English Prayer Book.

They submitted the result of their efforts to the late Bishop of London, and it is due to his revered memory to mention, that in the midst of all his unceasing labours, he most kindly revised their Prayers page by page, and gave them the help of his patient and thoughtful criticism.

In the long interval which has since elapsed, there has been in several quarters a demand for a fresh Edition; and one of the original compilers now puts forth these Prayers afresh, in sincere consciousness of much imperfection still remaining in them, but with a deepened conviction, he trusts, of the solemn duty of us all, individuals and families, Clergy and Laity, grown up men and women and children, rich and poor, to offer up daily, and many times a day, that full and precious Prayer, "Hallowed be Thy Name, Thy kingdom come."

In the present form of the Manual there are many additions, the results in a few cases of the kind suggestions of some friends who have been in the habit of using the Prayers, in others occasioned by the strong convictions of the writer, after some thought for many years upon the subject of Christian Missions.

In arranging the first series of Sentences, he has tried to suggest by a few instances, to those who may use his book, the great importance of the combined use of different portions of Holy Scripture bearing on this subject; and in selecting those from the Psalms, he has wished to point out, (though he fears he has done this still more imperfectly,) the duty of submitting our minds to the whole teaching of a Great Book of Divine Revelation, so that we may try to see the work of the Missionary and the preaching of the Gospel in the breadth and depth of God's most gracious Will, and in the many lights of His rich Mercies, not narrowed and dwarfed by our own weak faith, or discoloured by our own prejudices.

As to the Litany and Prayers, he has been most anxious in revising and enlarging them to keep as strictly as he has been able not only to the words, but to the spirit and rule of Holy Scripture; and he has desired earnestly to invite the attention of his brethren to our Blessed Master's most solemn intercession, the night before He suffered, for the unity of those who should believe on Him, that the world might believe that the Father had sent Him.

Can we have a Christian hope for the real extension of Christ's kingdom and the conversion of the heathen, for the humbling of the proud heart of the Mussulman, and the gathering in into the fold once more of God's ancient people, while so many professing Christians amongst us still forget the lowliness, and long-suffering, and loving forbearance, with which the Apostle teaches us, to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, and so many more amidst the miserable divisions of Christendom and the strife of tongues seem only to glory in our shame.

In the earnest belief that we need to enter afresh upon the holy work of Christian Missions in a spirit of deeper humility, and more abounding charity, with minds invigorated with a far more thorough and reverent study of Sacred Scripture, and hearts devoted singly to God's Eternal Glory, and the help of a suffering world, the Writer has added to his own imperfect selections from the Book of Revelation, some few Meditations of the great Saints of our Mother Church of England in the days of her trial and her glory. May the learning and devotion of Andrews, the primitive simplicity and righteous zeal of Wilson, the loving fervour of Taylor, kindle in us, under God, a holy resolution to rise to a nobler manhood in Christ, and a more loyal service to His truth. As the heirs of their work, and when praying their prayers, may we feel more deeply how great a blessing it is to be permitted to labour, hand and head and heart, for the Name of JESUS, and how greatest far of all blessings, and most sure and satisfying of all labours, it is, to be enabled, with childlike simplicity and love, to be ever praying for the Mercy of Christ, ever looking for His great Appearing.

May the God of peace and of all comfort, stablish, strengthen, settle us. To Him be glory, and dominion, for ever and ever, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OXFORD,
November 1, 1860.

St. John xvii. 20, 21.

Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on Me through their word: that they all may be one; as Thou, Father, art in Me, and I in Thee, that they also may be one in Us: that the world may believe that Thou hast sent Me.

St. Matthew ix. 36—38.

But when He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd. Then saith He unto His disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He will send forth labourers into His harvest.

Sentences.

AND Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto Me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen. St. Matt. xxviii. 18—20.

And He said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His Name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. And ye are witnesses of these things. St. Luke xxiv. 46—48.

Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. Unto you first God, having raised up His Son Jesus, sent Him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities. Acts iii. 25, 26.

And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear My voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. St. John x. 16.

Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou Me more than these? He saith unto Him, Yea, Lord; Thou knowest that I love Thee. He saith unto him, Feed My lambs. St. John xxi. 15.

I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee ; delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in Me: Acts xxvi. 16—18.

Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly ; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind ; neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock. And when the Chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. 1 St. Peter v. 2—4.

Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the Church of God, which He hath purchased with His own blood. For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them. Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears. Acts xx. 28—31.

Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the Word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you: and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith. But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil. 2 Thess. iii. 1—3.

I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at His appearing and His kingdom; preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. 2 Tim. iv. 1—5.

Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest. And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth. I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours. St. John iv. 35—38.

Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness. But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To Him be glory both now and for ever. Amen. 2 St. Peter iii. 17, 18.

I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. Acts xx. 35.

Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him; let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins. St. James v. 19, 20.

Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen. 1 St. John v. 21.

He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus. Rev. xxii. 20.

Sentences from the Book of Psalms.

Ask of Me, and I shall give Thee the heathen for Thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for Thy possession. ii. 8.

Thou hast delivered Me from the strivings of the people ; and Thou hast made Me the head of the heathen : a people whom I have not known shall serve Me. As soon as they hear of Me, they shall obey Me : the strangers shall submit themselves unto Me. xviii. 43, 44.

Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. xix. 4.

All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the Lord : and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before Thee. For the kingdom is the Lord's: and He is the governor among the nations. xxii. 27, 28.

The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein. xxiv. 1.

Gird Thy sword upon Thy thigh, O most mighty, with Thy glory and Thy majesty. And in Thy majesty ride prosperously because of truth and meekness and righteousness; and Thy right hand shall teach Thee terrible things. Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies; whereby the people fall under Thee. xlv. 3—5.

Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth. The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. xlvi. 10, 11.

For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding. God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon the throne of His holiness. The princes of the people are gathered together, even the people of the God of Abraham: for the shields of the earth belong unto God: He is greatly exalted. xlvii. 7—9.

For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together. They saw it, and so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away. xlvi. 4, 5.

Praise waiteth for Thee, O God, in Sion: and unto Thee shall the vow be performed. O Thou that hearest prayer, unto Thee shall all flesh come. lxv. 1, 2.

God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause His face to shine upon us. That Thy way may be known upon earth, Thy saving health among all nations. lxvii. 1, 2.

Let God arise, let His enemies be scattered: let them also that hate Him, flee before Him. lxviii. 1.

Because of Thy temple at Jerusalem shall kings bring presents unto Thee. lxviii. 29.

Princes shall come out of Egypt; Ethiopia shall soon stretch out her hands unto God.

Sing unto God, ye kingdoms of the earth ;
O sing praises unto the Lord ; lxxviii. 31, 32.

Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things.
And blessed be His glorious Name for ever :
and let the whole earth be filled with His glory ; Amen, and Amen. lxxii. 18, 19.

Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God. I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon to them that know me : behold Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia ; this man was born there. And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was born in her :
and the Highest Himself shall establish her.
The Lord shall count, when he writeth up the people, that this man was born there.
lxxxvii. 3—6.

Remember, Lord, the reproach of Thy servants ; how I do bear in My bosom the reproach of all the mighty people ; Wherewith Thine enemies have reproached, O Lord ; wherewith they have reproached the footsteps of Thine anointed. lxxxix. 50, 51.

O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: fear before Him, all the earth. Say among the heathen that the Lord reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: He shall judge the people righteously. xcvi. 9, 10.

Confounded be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols: worship Him, all ye gods. xcvii. 7.

Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more. Bless thou the Lord, O my soul. Praise ye the Lord. civ. 35.

Save us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto Thy Holy Name, and to triumph in Thy praise. Blessed be the Lord God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting: and let all the people say, Amen. Praise ye the Lord. cvi. 47, 48.

The Lord at Thy right hand shall strike through kings in the day of His wrath. He shall judge among the heathen, He shall fill the places with the dead bodies; He shall wound the heads over many countries. cx. 5, 6.

O praise the Lord, all ye nations; praise Him, all ye people. cxvii. 1.

I will speak of Thy testimonies also before kings, and will not be ashamed. cxix. 46.

Jerusalem is builded as a city that is compact together: whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord, unto the testimony of Israel, to give thanks unto the Name of the Lord. cxxii. 3, 4.

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee. Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces. For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee. cxxii. 6—8.

The Lord is good to all: and His tender mercies are over all His works. All Thy works shall praise Thee, O Lord; and Thy saints shall bless Thee. cxlv. 9, 10.

The eyes of all wait upon Thee; and Thou givest them their meat in due season. Thou openest Thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing. cxlv. 15, 16.

Let the saints be joyful in glory: let them sing aloud upon their beds. Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand; to execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people; to bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron; to execute upon them the judgment written: This honour have all His saints. Praise ye the Lord. cxlix. 5—9.

Let every thing that hath breath praise the Lord. Praise ye the Lord. cl. 6.

Litany.

O GOD THE FATHER, Who hast made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth<sup>a</sup>,

Have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O GOD THE SON, Who art the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world<sup>b</sup>,

Have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O GOD THE HOLY GHOST, Who makest intercessions for us with groanings which cannot be uttered<sup>c</sup>,

Have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O HOLY, BLESSED, and GLORIOUS TRINITY, THREE PERSONS and ONE GOD, our Creator, Redeemer, Sanctifier,

O Ever-Blessed Trinity, Three Persons
and One God,

Make us all one fold under one Shepherd.

God be merciful unto us, and bless us,
and cause His Face to shine upon us. Selah.

That Thy way may be known upon earth, Thy saving health among all nations<sup>q</sup>.

Let the people praise Thee, O God; let all the people praise Thee.

Then shall the earth yield her increase; and God, even our own God, shall bless us.

God shall bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear Him <sup>1</sup>.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Almighty God, Who hast promised to hear the petitions of them that ask in Thy Son's Name; We beseech Thee mercifully to incline Thine ears to us that have made now our prayers and supplications unto Thee; and grant, that those things, which we have faithfully asked according to Thy will, may effectually be obtained, to the relief of our necessity, and to the setting forth of Thy Glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

<sup>1</sup> Ps. lxxviii. 5—7.

An Intercession for the Purifying of the Church, and the Conversion of the Jews, the Mahometans, and of the Heathen world to the faith of Christ.

Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel,
Thou that leadest Joseph like a flock ;
Thou that dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth.

Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours,
And our enemies laugh among themselves.

Turn us again, O God of hosts, and cause
Thy face to shine ;
And we shall be saved.

Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt ;
Thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.

Thou preparedst room before it,
Thou didst cause it to take deep root,
And it filled the land.

She sent out her boughs unto the sea,
And her branches unto the river.

Why hast Thou then broken down her hedges,
So that all they which pass by the way do pluck her?

The boar out of the wood doth waste it,
And the wild beast of the field doth devour it.
Return, we beseech Thee, O God of hosts, Look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine<sup>a</sup>.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and
ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Thou didst divide the sea by Thy strength; Thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters<sup>b</sup>.

Thou didst cleave the fountain and the flood<sup>c</sup>;
Thou driedst up rivers of strength.

The day is Thine, the night also is Thine;
Thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

<sup>b</sup> Ps. lxxiv. 13.

<sup>c</sup> Ps. lxxiv. 15—23.

Thou hast set all the borders of the earth ;
Thou hast made summer and winter.

Remember this, the enemy hath reproached,
O Lord ;
The foolish people have blasphemed Thy Name.

O deliver not the soul of Thy turtle dove unto the multitude ;
Forget not the congregation of Thy poor
for ever.

Have respect unto the covenant,
For the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.

O let not the oppressed return ashamed ;
Let the poor and needy praise Thy Name.

Arise, O God, plead Thine own cause ;
Remember how the foolish man reproacheth
Thee daily.

Forget not the voice of Thine enemies ;
The tumult of those that rise up against Thee ascendeth continually.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost :

As it was in the beginning, is now, and
ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Make Thy Church, O Christ, to be as a candle set upon a candlestick<sup>d</sup> ;

As a city set upon a hill which cannot be hid<sup>e</sup>.

Establish it in Thy faith and fear,

And make it perfect in love.

Feed the babes of Thy flock with the sincere milk of Thy Word<sup>f</sup>,

And bring them to the fulness of Thy stature<sup>g</sup>.

Lord, turn the heart of Israel to Thyself;

Then shall the vail be taken away<sup>h</sup>.

Pour on them the spirit of grace and sup-plications,

And let them mourn for Him whom They have pierced<sup>i</sup>.

Take from them all hardness of heart, and contempt of Thy Word,
And reveal to them the Beauty of Thy Christ.

Also from the rising up of the sun, to the going down of the same,
Let Thy Name be great among the Gentiles<sup>k</sup>.

O Lord, let the dry bones hear Thy Word<sup>l</sup>,
And cause Thou breath to enter into them<sup>m</sup>.

Our Father, which art in heaven, Hal-

 Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our trespasses, As we for-

Out of Holy Scripture.

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty,
Which Was, and Is, and Is to come.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

Who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ; in Whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace; wherein He hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence; having made known unto us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure, which He hath purposed in Himself; that in the dispensation of the fulness of times He might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth, even in Him<sup>a</sup>.

<sup>a</sup> Eph. i. 3, 7—10.

Blessed be our Lord Jesus Christ,
 Who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel<sup>b</sup>.

Blessed be Thou, Lord God of Israel, our Father,
 For ever and ever.
 Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power,
 And the glory, and the victory, and the majesty;
 For all that is in the heaven and in the earth
 Is Thine.

Thine is the kingdom, O Lord,
 And Thou art exalted as Head above all<sup>c</sup>.

Thou, Father, didst so love the world,
 That Thou gavest Thy only-begotten Son,
 That whosoever believeth in Him
 Should not perish,
 But have everlasting life<sup>d</sup>.
 All Glory, Praise, and Thanksgiving

APPENDIX.

A General Intercession.

O Thou, Who art the hope of all the ends of the earth,
And of those who are far off upon the sea,
Remember Thy whole creation for good ;
Visit the world in Thy Compassion.

O Thou Preserver of men,
O Lord, Who lovest Thy people,
Remember all our race ;
Thou, Who hast shut up all in unbelief,
On all have pity, O Lord.

O Thou, Who didst die, and rise again,
To be Lord both of the dead and the living,
Whether we live, or whether we die,
Thou art our Lord.

O Helper of the helpless,
O Refuge for the oppressed,
O Refuge in times of trouble,
Remember all who are in necessity,
All who need Thy succour.

O God of grace and truth,
Establish all who stand
In grace and truth ;
Restore all who are sick
With heresies and sins.

O wholesome defence of Thine Anointed,
Remember Thy congregation,
Which Thou hast purchased and redeemed
of old.

O may the multitude of those that believe
Be of one heart and of one soul.

O Thou, that walkest in the midst of the golden candlesticks,
Remove not our candlestick
Out of its place.

Set in order the things that are wanting,
Strengthen the things which remain,
Which Thou art ready to cast away,
Which are ready to die.

O Lord of the harvest,
Send forth labourers made sufficient by Thee

Into Thy harvest.

O Thou, Who art the Portion of those who wait in Thy Temple,
 Grant to our Clergy
 Rightly to divide the word of Truth,
 Rightly to walk in it;
 Grant to Thy dear people in Christ
 To obey and submit to them.

O King of nations,
 Unto the ends of the earth,
 Strengthen all the kingdoms and states
 of the whole world,
 As being Thy Ordinance, through a creation
 of man.

Scatter the people
 That delight in war;
 Make wars to cease
 Unto the end of the earth.

O Thou, upon whom the Islands wait,
 In whose Arm they trust,
 Lord, save this Island,

And all the country in which we sojourn,
From all affliction, and peril, and need.

O Lord of lords, and King of kings,
Remember all rulers,
To whom Thou hast given rule in the earth;
And especially remember
• Our Queen, whose heart is in Thy hand<sup>a</sup>,
And work with her more and more,
And prosper her way in all things.
Speak good things to her heart,
For Thy Church
And for all Thy people.
Grant to her assured peace,
That in her peace
We may lead a quiet and peaceable life
In all godliness and honesty.

Let us lift up our hearts,
Lift them up to the Lord;
Let us give thanks unto our Lord God;
It is meet and right so to do.

<sup>a</sup> Regis nostri Deo cari, in original. The passage in Prov. xxi. 1, has been substituted for this.

Thou art the Creator, and the Preserver,
 The Beginner and Finisher of all,
 Our Lord, and our Father,
 Our King, and our God,
 Fountain of Life and Immortality,
 Treasure of eternal good,
 Whom the heavens praise,
 And the heavens of heavens.
 Angels, Dominions, Principalities, and Powers,
 Ever crying one to another,
 And we with them, under their feet,
 All weak and unworthy sinners,
 Holy, Holy, Holy,
 Lord God of Hosts,
 Heaven and earth is full of Thy glory ;
 Blessed be the glory of the Lord
 From His place. Amen <sup>b</sup>.

 Ed. Oxf. 1853.

For a Bishop at his Consecration, or in behalf of his Work and Mission.

O God, the Shepherd and Ruler of all Thy faithful people, look graciously upon Thy servant . . . . Whom Thou hast chosen to be overseer over Thy Church in . . . . Grant him, we most humbly beseech Thee, to be an example of the believers in word and conversation, that, together with the flock which Thou hast given to him, he may attain to everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ARCHBISHOP LAUD.

O God, and merciful Father, may Thy Grace so work in Thy servant . . . . now called to the office of a Bishop in Thy Church, that he may be humble in refusing every high and awful charge, yet, if it be Thy will, obedient in undertaking it; make him faithful in keeping the trust committed to him, and diligent in fulfilling it; make him watchful in rule, zealous in discipline, fervent in love, patient in consolation, and wise in judgment; that he may ever further Thy counsels for Thy people, and, if Thou art displeased with them, intercede for their pardon, in the faith and through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

ARCHBISHOP LAUD<sup>c</sup>.

O Lord, as the rain cometh down from heaven, and returns not thither, but waters the earth, and makes it bud and bring forth, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to him that eateth; so let Thy Word be that goeth out of the mouth of Thy servant . . . . let it not return to him void, but accomplish that which Thou wilt, and prosper in the thing whereto Thou hast sent it, that the people committed to his charge may go out with joy, and be led forth in peace to Thy freshest waters of comfort, in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ARCHBISHOP LAUD.

O Son of God, Thou which takest away
the sins of the world, have mercy upon
Thy servant . . . in this heavy charge.
Amen.

ARCHBISHOP LAUD<sup>d</sup>.

That the Church and Kingdom of England may be faithful to its Mission in the world.

Lord, bless this kingdom, that religion and virtue may season all sorts of men,
that there may be peace within the gates, and plenty within the palaces of it. In peace, we beseech Thee, so preserve it that it corrupt not, in war so defend it that it suffer not, in plenty so order it that it riot not, in want so purify and moderate it that it may patiently and peaceably seek Thee,
the only full supply both of men and states,

prayers are given as used by the Archbishop himself,
the pronouns only are altered.

that so it may continue a place and a people to do Thee service to the end of time, through Jesus Christ, our only Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.            ARCHBISHOP LAUD.

O Lord, according to all Thy righteousness, we beseech Thee let Thine anger be turned away from this country and Thy people, and cause Thy face to shine upon whatsoever is desolate therein, for Jesus Christ, His sake. Amen<sup>e</sup>.            ARCHBISHOP LAUD.

A Prayer to promote Christ's Kingdom, and for Grace to serve Him with fear and reverence.

O Blessed Jesu, into Whose hands are committed all dominion and power in the kingdoms and empires of the world, out of whose mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it Thou mightest smite the nations, and rule them with a rod of iron; on Whose Vesture and on Whose Thigh a Name is written, King of kings and Lord of lords; We adore Thee in Thy infinite excellence, and most glorious exaltation, beseeching Thee to reveal Thy Name and the glory of Thy kingdom to the heathen which know Thee not, and to the uttermost parts of the earth, which are given Thee for Thy possession and inheritance. And to us give Thy grace to serve Thee in fear, and plant the reverence of Thy Law and of Thy Name in our hearts; lest Thy wrath be kindled against us, and Thou break us in pieces like vessels of dishonour. Have mercy on us, O King of kings, for we have put our trust in Thee. Thou art our Saviour and Redeemer, Jesu. Amen.

A Prayer for the Church; for her Enemies; for Jews, Turks, Infidels, and Heretics.

O God, give unto our enemies grace and pardon, charity to us, and love to Thee; take away all anger from them, and all mistakes from us, all misinterpretations and jealousies; bring all sinners to repentance and holiness, and to all Thy saints and servants give an increasing love and a persevering duty; bring all Turks, Jews, and Infidels to the knowledge and confession of the Lord Jesus, and a participation of all the promises of the Gospel, all the benefits of His Passion; to all heretics give humility and sincerity<sup>s</sup>, repentance of their errors, and grace and power to make amends to the Church and truth, and a public acknowledgment of a holy faith, to the glory of the Lord Jesus.

Amen.

BISHOP JEREMY TAYLOR<sup>h</sup>.

A Prayer for the Extension of the Church.

Almighty and everlasting God, Who hast revealed Thy glory to Jews and Gentiles in our Lord Jesus Christ, extend Thy hand of mercy over all the world, that Thy Church may spread like a flourishing vine, and enlarge her borders to the uttermost parts of the earth; that, all nations partaking of the sweet refreshings of Thy Gospel, Thy Name may be glorified, the honour of our Lord Jesus advanced, His prophecies fulfilled, and His coming hastened<sup>i</sup>. And this we pray in His mediation, and for His merits, Who with Thee and the Holy Ghost liveth for ever.

A Supplication on behalf of the Heathen World.

St. Matt. ix. 36—38<sup>k</sup>.

How many, O Jesus, of Thy sheep have no shepherd! none to shew them their danger! none to keep them out of danger!

none to lead them where they may find pasture!

May Thine infinite wisdom and goodness, O Lord, reveal to us the means by which Thy Gospel may be preached unto them; and prepare their hearts to receive the truth, that they may be delivered from the bondage of corruption, unto the glorious liberty of the children of God! Send them Pastors after Thine own heart; full of knowledge, compassion, and zeal; that pitying their sad condition, they may instruct them in the ways of truth, and of eternal life. Increase the number and the graces of Thy Messengers and Ministers; and touch the hearts of all Christians with a true compassion, like Thine, O Lord, for all such as are strangers to Thee, and the merits of Thy death, by which they have been redeemed, that they may cheerfully contribute to a work so acceptable to Thy Divine Majesty.

And may Thy Holy Spirit, by the preaching of the Gospel, add daily to the Church such as shall be saved, through Thy merits and mediation, O Lord and Lover of souls.

Amen.

BISHOP WILSON<sup>1</sup>.

A Prayer that God's Kingdom may come.

May the kingdoms of this world become the kingdoms of the Lord and of His Christ, that He may reign for ever and ever<sup>m</sup>.

Heavenly Father, O that the saving laws of Thy Kingdom may be received in all the world.

Take possession of my heart, O King of Heaven, and subdue whatever is amiss in me.

Make me instrumental in promoting the interests of Thy Kingdom, that truth and righteousness may be established in this place.

Make all the Ministers of Thy Kingdom zealous in advancing Thy honour, and the welfare of all Thy subjects.

Do Thou, O King of Saints, establish Thy Kingdom of grace in all our hearts, that we may be Thy subjects out of choice, and ever yield Thee willing obedience.

Rebuke all the enemies of Thy Kingdom, and all such as would not have Thee to reign over them.

May the heathen fear Thy Name, O God, and all the kings of the earth Thy Majesty.

May all that own Thee for their King become Thy faithful subjects.

Bless the pious endeavours of all such as strive to propagate the Gospel of Christ; and may its saving truths be received in all the world.

Deliver the world, O Jesus, in Thy good time, from the tyranny of Satan, that all nations may obey and glorify Thy Holy Name.

O that Satan may never set up his kingdom in this place.

O God, recover Thy whole right and dominion over my soul, and rule in me by Thy holy, all-powerful Spirit.

Set up, O God, Thy throne in our hearts,
and reign for ever and ever. Amen.

BISHOP WILSON<sup>n</sup>.

A Prayer for the Church and the World.

‘ O Father in heaven !’ May the Gospel be received and have its saving effects in all the world ; that, being brought from the power of Satan unto God, we may all become one fold under one Shepherd and King, the Lord Jesus ; ‘ and this we pray for His sake, our only Mediator and Advocate.’
Amen.

BISHOP WILSON<sup>o</sup>.

Enlarge Thy kingdom, O God, and deliver the world from the dominion and tyranny of Satan. Hasten the time, which Thy Spirit has foretold, when all nations whom Thou hast made shall worship Thee, and glorify Thy Name. Bless the good endeavours of those who strive to propagate the truth, and prepare the hearts of all men to receive it. To the honour of Thy holy Name. Amen. BISHOP WILSON<sup>P</sup>.

O God, Almighty and Merciful, let Thy fatherly kindness be upon all that Thou hast made.

Have mercy upon all Jews, Turks, Infidels, and Heretics; and grant that none may deprive themselves of that happiness, which Jesus Christ has purchased by His death. Bless the pious endeavours of all those who strive to propagate the Gospel of Christ, and may its saving truths be received in all the world.

Preserve Thy Church in the midst of the dangers that surround it; purge it from all corruptions, heal its divisions, that all Christian people may unite and love as becomes the disciples of Jesus Christ.

Hear us, O Father, we beseech Thee, for Thy dear Son's sake Amen.¶
