P R E F A C E.

IN the following adaptation of Chants to the Canticles and Psalter, in order to consult all tastes, Three Series of Chants are provided.

1. Series No. I. consists of the Ancient Chants of the Church. These may be sung either in unison, with the short score as an organ accompaniment; or in harmony, the parts of which have been made as vocal as possible.

2. Series No. II. consists of Anglican Single Chants. In this Series, founded on the traditional use of Westminster, most of the older Chants were originally composed for the Psalms to which they are here affixed.

3. Series No. III. consists of Double Chants, including some few which may be considered somewhat florid, but are both popular and good of their kind.

4. To meet the requirement of a change of Chant where there is a change of subject, whether in the same Psalm or in two consecutive Psalms, each Series, where necessary, contains a succession of Chants, major or minor, adapted in key to follow each other.

5. Wherever a changeable Chant is employed for this purpose, the minor form—whether it be the one first used or not—is the one given, the signature of the major form being added at the end: but this change should be attempted only by skilled choirs.

6. In order to give the greatest variety in the least space, no Chant, except in the case of the first Series, has been inserted in the Psalter more than once. By this means a choice of two hundred and fifty old standard Chants is provided; to which fifty modern Chants, by living composers, are added in an Appendix.

7. With regard to the pointing of the words of the Psalms, so perplexing a variety has arisen from existing pointed Psalters having been arranged upon no definite principle, that it seemed advisable to recur to, at once, and to carry out, consistently and uniformly, the old and original principle laid down in the model verse given by Dr. Boyce. ('Cathedral Music,' Vol. I. p. 2).

O come let us sing un-| to the | Lord || let us heartily rejoice in the strength of | our sal-| va-| tion.

The fewest syllables possible, consistently with their correct accentuation, are given to the varied notes of the Chant; also it is observable, that the musical treatment of the word "salvation," is that which is usually adopted for it, and for other words of analogous form, in Services and Anthems, where the composer, unbiassed by conventionalism, follows his natural taste. Besides, the revival of this, the oldest form of adaptation of English words to the Anglican Chant (for it is the adaptation employed by Tallis) is the more desirable, as it corresponds so closely with their previous adaptation to the Ancient Chants, as to render the same printed arrangement of the Psalter equally available for both species.

In conclusion, it must be allowed that, as it has been most truly observed, "to point the Psalter for the purposes of chanting is an undertaking of extreme difficulty and delicacy. Not only is a thorough appreciation of the spirit and emphasis of the words among the necessary requirements, but, at the same time, a knowledge of the nature and accent of the Chants to be used is quite indispensable, as well as that familiarity with the best methods of setting words to music, which none but a practised musician possesses, and the most refined niceness of taste. . . . A quick and inconsiderate criticism is to be deprecated." *

Had it occurred to Dr. Elvey to return to the principle laid down by Dr. Boyce, little would have been left for succeeding Editors to accomplish.

* Preface to Dr. Stephen Elvey's Psalter.

APPENDIX.

ALPHABETICAL AND HISTORICAL INDEX.

EXPLANATION.

(') The acute accent is placed on the accented syllable to be sung to the first note of the Chant after the reciting note.

This accented syllable and those that follow are divided into three portions for the middle, and five for the close of the verse, for the corresponding notes, of which a Chant ordinarily consists.

(-) The hyphen separates two syllables of one word, to be sung to different notes.

(~) The tie unites two syllables of different words, to be sung to one minim (or its equivalent).

(. .) Two points indicate two minims (or their equivalent), to be sung to one syllable.

N.B. In those Chants where the reciting note is followed by an unaccented or passing note, if this note is to be assigned to a separate syllable or syllables, they are marked off from the preceding syllable or word by a point (.); but if the last syllable sung to the reciting note bears the circumflex accent, this syllable will be sung to the reciting note and the unaccented note also.

The marks pp, p, mf, f, ff in the margin are intended only approximatively to indicate piano and forte, &c., but always to mark the transition of sense from one paragraph to another, and therefore a suitable occasion for a change of stop on the organ.

With the same view (viz., to mark the transitions of sense), 2d Pt. is intended to show where, if a double Chant be used, the second part of it should be employed, out of its natural order.

The first bar in the series No. I. is to be used only to the first verse of the Psalms; but may be used to every verse of the Canticles on Sundays and Festivals.

In those Chants in series No. I., where two double bars occur in the middle of the Chant, the first is to be used when more than one syllable is assigned to the last bar, and the second when only one syllable is assigned to it.

The minims with united stems, while they show the notes that are to be sung to the same syllable, indicate a slight acceleration of time upon the strict minim.

It should be borne in mind that, as chanting is only musical declamation, strictness of time should always give way to the proper, deliberate accentuation and punctuation of the words; especially where three syllables (though short and unaccented) are assigned to one note (Ps. vii, v. 14, Ps. xxvii, v. 15.) Even the commas should be observed, and at all other stops the breath taken also, as in reading. The bars, in fact, are employed more to indicate the correct accent of the notes, and to facilitate the adaptation to the words, than to mark a rigorous exactitude of time.

Cheerful Psalms should be chanted more briskly than those which are Penitential.

VENITE, EXULTEMUS DOMINO. Psal. xcv.

f O COME, let us sing ún-to the Lord :
let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our sal-vä-tion.

Let us come before his prêsence with thanks-giving : and shew oursêves glád in him with Psalms.

For the Lôrd is a gréat God : and a gréat Kíng above äll gods.

In his hand are all the côrners óf the earth : and the strength of the hîlls is hîs äl-so.

2d Pt. The sea is hîs, and hê made it : and his hânds præpär-ed the dry land.

mf O come, let us wôrship, and fáll down :
and kneel befóre the Lórd our Mä-ker.

For hê is the Lórd our God : and we are the people of his pasture,* ând the sheép of his hand.

To day if ye will hear his voice, hârden p
nót your hearts : as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptâtion ín the wil-derness ;

When your fâthers témp-ted me : prôved
mé, and saw my works.

Forty years long was I grieved with thîs generá-tion, and said : It is a people that do err in their hêarts, for they hâve not known my ways.

EASTER DAY.

¶ At Morning Prayer, instead of the Psalm, O come, let us sing, &c., these Anthems shall be sung or said.

f CHRIST our pāssover is sacrific-ed
for us: thêrefore lét us keep the feast; mf Not with the old leaven, nor with the lêaven of má-lice and wickedness: but with the unleavened brêad of sincé-ri-ty and truth. [1 Cor. v. 7.]

f CHRIST being raised from the deâd dî-eth no more: death hath no môre domín-ion o-ver him.

p For in that he died, he dîed unto sín
once: but in that he lîveth, he lîv-eth un-to God.

Like-wise reckon ye also yourselves to be deâd indêed unto sín: but alive unto Gôd through Jé-sus Christ our Lord. [Rom. vi. 9.]

f CHRIST is rîsen fróm the dead: and becôme the fîrst-fruits of them that slept.

För since by mán came death: by man p
came âlso the resurréc-tion of the dead.

För as in Âdam âll die: even so in Chrîst shall âll be made a-live. [1 Cor. xv. 20.]

Glo-ry be to the Fâther, and to the ff
Son: ând tó the Ho-ly Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is nôw,

the Sôn Al-mighty : and the Hô-ly Ghôst Al-migh-ty.

And yet they âre not thrée Al-mighties : bútt óne Al-migh-ty.

So the Father is Gôd, the Sôn is God : and the Hô-ly Ghost is God.

And yet they âre not thrée Gods : bútt óne God.

So likewise the Father is Lôrd, the Sôn mf Lord : and the Hô-ly Ghôst Lord.

And yêtt not thrée Lords : bútt óne f Lord.

For like as we are compêlled by the mf Chrís-tian verity : to acknowledge every Person by himself to be Gôd and Lord ;

So are we forbídden by the Cá-tholick Re-ligion : to say, There be thrée Gôds, or thrée Lords.

The Fâther is made of none : neither creâ-ted, nôr be-gôt-ten.

The Sôn is of the Fâ-ther a-lone : not made, nor créat-ed, bútt be-gôt-ten.

The Holy Ghost is of the Fâther and óf the Son : neither made, nor created, nor begôt-ten, bútt pro-cëed-ing.

So there is one Father, not three f Fathers ; one Sôn, not thrée Sons : one Holy Ghôst, not thrée Ho-ly Ghosts.

And in this Trinity none is a-fôre, or mf áf-ter other : none is grêater, or lëss than a-nôth-er ;

But the whole three Persons are cò-etër-nal to-gether : and có-ë-qual.

So that in all things, as is a-foresaid :

AT MORNING PRAYER.

the Unity in Trinity, and the Trinity in Unity is to be wor-ship-ped.

f He therefore that will be saved : must thus think of the Trin-ity.

mf Furthermore, it is necessary to everlast-ing sal-va-tion : that he also believe rightly the Incarnâ-tion of our Lord Je-sus Christ.

For the right Faith is, that we believe and con-fess : that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Sôn of Gôd, is God and Man ;

God, of the Substance of the Father, begô-tten be-fô-re the worlds : and Man, of the Substance of his Mô-ther, bô-rn in the world :

Perfect Gôd, and per-fect Man : of a reasonable soul and hû-man flesh sub-sist-ing ;

Equal to the Fâ-ther, as touch-ing his God-head : and inferior to the Fâ-ther, as touch-ing his Mân-hood.

Who al-though he be Gôd and Man : yet he is not two, but one Christ ;

One ; not by conversion of the Gôd-head in-to flesh ; but by tâ-king of the Mân-hood in-to God ;

One alto-gether ; nô-t by confú-sion of Substance : bût by ú-nity of Për-son.

For as the reasonable soul and flesh is one man : so Gôd and Mân is one Christ ;

Who suf-fered for our sal-va-tion : descended into hell, rose again the third day from the dead.

He ascended into heaven, he sitteth on the right hand of the Fâ-ther, Gôd Al-mighty : from whence he shall come to jûd-ge the quick and the dead.

At whose coming all men shall rise again with their bodies : and shall give ac-count for their own works.

And they that have done good shall go into life év-er-lasting : and they that have done év-il in to év-er-last-ing fire.

This is the Cá-tholick Faith : which except a man believe faith-fully he can-not be sâv-ed.

Glory be to the Fâ-ther, and to the ff Son : and to the Ho-ly Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is nôw, and év-er shall be : wôrld with-out end. A-men.

PSALMS OF DAVID.

THE FIRST DAY.

MORNING PRAYER.

No. I. 1.

No. II. 1.

No. III. 1.

PSALM i. Beatus vir, qui non abiit, &c.

mf BLESS-ED¹ is the man that hath not walked in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stood in the way of sinners : and hath not sat in the seat of the scorn-ful.

2 But his delight is in the law of the Lord : and in his law will he exercise himself day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the water-side : that will bring forth his fruit in due season.

4 His leaf also shall not wither : and look, whatsoever he doeth, it shall prosper.

f 5 As for the ungodly, it is not so with them : but they are like the chaff, which the wind scattereth away from the face of the earth.

6 Therefore the ungodly shall not be able to stand in the judgment : neither the sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

7 But the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous : and the way of the ungodly shall perish.

PSALM ii. Quare fremuerunt gentes ?

f WHY do the heathen so furiously rage together : and why do the people imagine a vain thing ?

2 The kings of the earth stand up, and the rulers take counsel together : against the Lord, and against his Anointed.

3 Let us break their bonds asunder : and cast away their cords from us.

4 He that dwelleth in heaven shall ff laugh them to scorn : the Lord shall have them in derision.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath : and vex them in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet have I set my King : upon my holy hill of Sion.

7 I will preach the law, whereof the p Lord hath said unto me : Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

8 Desire of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance : and the utmost parts of the earth for thy possession.

9 Thou shalt bruise them with a rod of iron : and break them in pieces like a pot-ter's vessel.

10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings : be mf learned, ye that are judges of the earth.

11 Serve the Lord in fear : and rejoice unto him with reverence.

12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and so ye perish from the right way : if his wrath be kindled, (yea, but a little,) blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

No. I. 2.

No. II. 2.

No. III. 2.

PSALM iii. Domine, quid multiplicati?

p LORD, how are they increased that trouble me : many are they that rise against me.

2 Many one there be that say of my soul : There is no help for him in his God.

mf 3 But thou, O Lord, art my defender : thou art my worship, and the lifter up of my head.

4 I did call upon the Lord with my voice : and he heard me out of his holy hill.

5 I laid me down and slept, and rose up again : for the Lord sustained me.

6 I will not be afraid for ten thousands of the people : that have set themselves against me round about.

f 7 Up, Lord, and help me, O my God : for thou smitest all mine enemies upon the cheek-bone ; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.

mf 8 Salvation belongeth unto the Lord : and thy blessing is upon thy people.

PSALM iv. Cum invocarem.

p HEAR me when I call, O God of my righteousness : thou hast set me at liberty when I was in trouble ; have mercy upon me, and hearken unto my prayer.

mf 2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye blaspheme mine honour : and have such pleasure in vanity, and seek after leasing?

3 Know this also, that the Lord hath chosen to himself the man that is godly : when I call upon the Lord, he will hear me.

4 Stand in awe, and sin not : commune with your own heart, and in your chamber, and be still.

2d Pt. 5 Offer the sacrifice of righteousness : and put your trust in the Lord.

6 There be many that say : Who will show us a good?

7 Lord, lift thou up : the light of thy countenance upon us.

8 Thou hast put gladness in my heart : since the time that their corn, and wine, and oil, increased.

9 I will lay me down in peace, and take my rest : for it is thou, Lord, only, that makest me dwell in safety.

PSALM v. Verba mea auribus.

*P*OND my words, O Lord : consider my meditation.

2 O hearken thou unto the voice of my calling, my King, and my God : for unto thee will I make my prayer.

3 My voice shalt thou hear betimes, O Lord : early in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

4 For thou art the God that hast no pleasure in wickedness : neither shall any evil dwell with thee.

5 Such as be foolish shall not stand in thy sight : for thou hatest all them that work vanity.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing : the Lord will abhor both the bloodthirsty and deceitful man.

7 But as for me, I will come into thine house, even upon the multitude of thy mercy : and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

8 Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness, because of mine enemies : make thy way plain before my face.

9 For there is no faithfulness in his mouth : their inward parts are very wickedness. [10 Their

2 Have mercy upon me, O Lôrd, for I am weak : O Lord, hêal me, for my bônes are vëx-ed.

3 My soul âlso is sôre troubled : but,
Lôrd, how lóng wilt thou pun-ish me ?

4 Turn thee, O Lôrd, and delí-ver my

6 I am weary of my groaning ; every níght wash I my bed : and wáter my couch with my tears.

7 My beauty is gône for vé-ry trouble :
and worn away becâuse of áll mine

PSALM vii. Domine, Deus meus.

mf O LORD my God, in thêe have I put my trust : save me from all them that pêrsecute me, and de-liv-er-me ;

2 Lest he devour my soul, like a lion, and téar it in pieces : whîle there is nône to help.

p 3 O Lord my God, if I have done âny sîch thing : or if there be any wîck-edness in my hands ;

4 If I have rewarded evil unto hîm that dealt friêd-ly with-me : yea, I have delivered him that withôut any cause is mine ên-emy ;

mf 5 Then let mine enemy pêrsecute my soul, and take-me : yea, let him tread my life down upon the earth, and lâÿ mine hôn-our in the dust.

f 6 Stand up, O Lord, in thy wrath, and lift up thyself, because of the indignâtion of mine enemies : arise up for me in the jûdgment that thôu hast commând-ed.

7 And so shall the congregation of the pêople côm-e a-bout-thee : for their sakes therefore lift up thy-sêlf again.

8 The Lord shall judge the people ; give sêntence wîth me, O Lord : according to my righteousness, and according to the innocency thât is in me.

9 O let the wickedness of the ungôdly côm-e to-an end : bût guîde thou the just.

10 Fôr the rîght-eous God : trieth the vé-ry hearts and reins.

11 My hêlp côm-eth of God : who p presêrveth thém that-are true of heart.

12 God is a righteous Jûdge, strông, and patient : and Gôd is provôk-ed eve-ry day.

13 If a man will not tûrn, he will whét his sword : he hath bent his bôw, and mâde it rêa-dy.

14 He hath prepared fôr him the in-struments of death : he ordaineth his ârrows against the per-secu-tors.

15 Behold, he trâvailleth wîth mischief : f he hath conceived sorrow, and brôught fôrth un-gôd-liness.

16 He hath graven and dîgged úp a pit : and is fallen himself into the destrûction that he mâde for ô-ther.

17 For his travail shall côm-e upon his ôwn head : and his wîckedness shall fâll on his ôwn pate.

PSALM viii. Domine, Dominus noster.

f O LORD our Governour, how excellent is thy Nâme in âll the world : thou that hast sêt thy glô-ry abôve the heavens !

2 Out of the mouth of very babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strêngth, because of thine enemies : that thou mightest still the ênemy, and the avêng-er.

mf 3 For I will consider thy heavens, êven the wôrks of thy fingers : the moon and the stârs, which thôu hast ordâin-ed.

4 What is mân, that thou art mînd-ful of him : and the sôn of man, thât thou vi-sitest him ?

5 Thou madest him lôwer thán the angels : to crôwn him with glô-ry and wôr-ship.

6 Thou makest him to have domînion of the wôrks of thy hands : and thou hast put âll things in subjec-tion under his feet ;

7 Âll shêep and oxen : yêa, and the bêasts of the field ;

8 The fowls of the air, and the fishes of the sea : and whatsoever walketh through the pâths of the seas.

PSALM ix. Confitebor tibi.

f I WILL give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart : I will speak of all thy marvellous works.

2 I will be glâd and rejoice in thee : yea, my songs will I make of thy Nâme, O thou most High-est.

mf 3 While mine ênemies are drî-ven back : they shall fall and pêrish at thy prê-sence.

4 For thou hast maintâined my right and my cause thou art sêd in the thrône that judg-est right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the hêathen, and destrôyd the un-godly : thou hast put out their nâme for é-ver and ë-ver.

6 O thou enemy, destructions are côme to a perpét-ual end : even as the cities which thou hast destroyed ; their memôrial is pé-rished with them.

7 But the Lôrð shall endûre for ever : he hath also préparèd his séat for jûdg-ment.

8 For he shall jûdge the wôrld in righteousness : and minister true jûdgment ún-to the pëo-ple.

9 The Lord also will be a defênce fôr the op-pressed ; even a refuge in dûe tíme of trôu-ble.

10 And they that know thy Name will pût their trúst in thee : for thou, Lord, hast never fáiled thém that sêek thee.

11 O praise the Lôrð which dwéll-eth in f Sion : shêw the people óf his dô-ings.

12 For, when he maketh inquisition for blôod, he remém-bereth them : and forgêtteth nót the com-plaint of the poor.

13 Have mercy upon me, O Lord ; p consider the trouble which I sùffer of thém that hate me : thou that líftest me úp from the gates of death.

14 That I may shew all thy praises mf within the pôrts of the daugh-ter of Sion : I will rejôice in thy sal-vâ-tion.

15 The heathen are sunk dôwn in the pít that they made : in the same net which they hid prîvily, is their foot tâ-ken.

16 The Lord is knôwn to éx-ecute judgment : the ungodly is trâpped in the wôrks of his ôwn hands.

17 The wicked shall be tûrned ín-to hell : and âll the people thát for-gêt God.

18 For the poor shall not âlway bé for-gotten : the patient abiding of the mêek shall not pé-rish for é-ver.

19 Up, Lord, and let not mân have the f úp-per hand : let the hêathen be jûdg-ed in thy sight.

20 Pût them in féar, O Lord : that the heathen may knôw themsélves to be but men.

PSALM X. Ut quid, Domine?

mf WHY standest thou so fâr ôff, O Lord :
and hidest thy face in the nêedful
tîme of trôu-ble ?

2 The ungodly for his own lûst doth pér-secute the poor : let them be taken in the crafty wîliness that théy have-i-ma-gin-ed.

3 For the ungodly hath made boast of his ôwn héart's de-sire : and speaketh good of the còvetous, whom Gód ab-hör-reth.

4 The ungodly is so proud, that he câreth nót for God : nêither is Gód in all his thoughts.

5 His wâys are ál-way grievous : thy judgments are far above out of his sight, and therefore defiêth he ál his e-ne-mies.

6 For he hath said in his heart, Tush,
I shall nêver be cást down : there shall nô harm háp-pen un-to me.

7 His mouth is full of cûrsing, deceit,
and fraud : under his tongue is ungôdliness,
ánd va-ni-ty.

8 He sitteth lurking in the thievish còrn-ers óf the streets : and privily in his lurking dens doth he murder the innocent ;
his eýes are sêt a-against the poor.

9 For he lieth waiting secretly, even as a lion lûrketh he ín his den : thât hé may ra-vish the poor.

10 Hê doth rá-vish the poor : when he gêtteth him ín-to his net.

11 He falleth dôwn, and húm-bleth him-

may fâll into the hánds of his cáp-tains.

12 He hath said in his heart, Tûsh, Gód hath-for-gotten : he hideth away his face, and hê will né-ver sêe it.

13 Arise, O Lord God, and lift úp thine f
hand : fôrgêtt not the poor.

14 Wherefore should the wicked blasphême God : while he doth say in his heart, Tush, thôu God cá-rest-not fôr it.

15 Sûrely thóu hast seen it : for thou behôldest ungôd-li-ness and wrong.

16 That thou mayest take the mâtter
ín-to-thine hand : the poor committeth himself unto thee ; for thou art the hêlper óf the friênd-less.

17 Break thou the power of the ungôdly
ánd ma-licious : take away his ungôdliness, and thóu shalt fînd none.

18 The Lord is Kîng for é-ver and ever : and the heathen are pêrished óut of the land.

19 Lord, thou hast heârd the desíre of the poor : thou preparest their heart, and thine eâr héar-keneth thêre-to ;

PSALM xvi. Conserva me Domine.

p PRESERVE me, Ó God : fôr in thee have I put my trust.

2 O my soul, thou hast sâid ún-to the Lord : Thou art my God, my gôods are nó-thing un-to thee.

3 All my delight is upon the sâints, that are ìn the earth : and upon sùch as excél in vîr-tue.

4 But they that run âfter anó-ther
god : shâll have gréat trôu-ble.

5 Their drink offerings of blôod wîll
I not offer : neither make mên-tion of their nâmes with-in my lips.

6 The Lord himself is the portion of mine inheritance, ând óf my cup : thou shalt maintaîn my lot.

7 The lot is fallen unto mê in a fâir ground : yêa, I have a gôod-ly he-ri-tage.

8 I will thank the Lörd for gîv-ing me mf warning : my reins also châsten me in the nîght-sëa-son.

9 I have set Gôd ál-ways-be-fore-me :
for he is on my rîght hand, thére-fore I shall not fall.

10 Wherefore my heart was glâd, and my gló-ry-re-joiced : my flêsh ál-so shall rest in hope.

11 For why? thou shalt not leâve my sôul in hell : neither shalt thou suffer thy Hôly One to sée cor-rüp-tion.

12 Thou shalt shew me the path of life ; in thy prêsence is the fúl-ness of joy :
and at thy right hând there is pléa-sure for e-ver-more.

PSALM xvii. Exaudi, Domine.

mf HEAR the right, O Lord, consider my com-plaint : and hearken unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips.

2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence : and let thine eyes look upon the thing that is equal.

3 Thou hast proved and visited mine heart in the night-season ; thou hast tried me, and shalt find no wickedness in me : for I am utterly purposed that my mouth shall not offend.

4 Because of men's works, that are done against the words of thy lips : I have kept me from the ways of the destroyer.

2d Pt. 5 O hold thou up my goings in thy paths : that my foot-steps slip not.

p 6 I have called upon thee, O God, for thou shalt hear me : incline thine ear to me, and hearken unto my words.

7 Shew thy marvellous loving-kindness, thou that art the Saviour of them which put their trust in thee : from such as resist thy right hand.

8 Keep me as the apple of an eye : hide me under the shadow of thy wings,

9 From the ungodly that trouble me : mine enemies compass me round about to take away my soul.

10 They are inclosed in their own fat : and their mouth speaketh proud things.

11 They lie waiting in our way on every side : turning their eyes down to the ground ;

12 Like as a lion that is greedy of 2d Pt. his prey : and as it were a lion's whelp, lurking in secret places.

13 Up, Lord, disappoint him, and cast f him down : deliver my soul from the ungodly, which is a sword of thine ;

14 From the men of thy hand, O Lord, from the men, I say, and from the evil world : which have their portion in this life, whose bellies thou fillest with thy hidden treasure.

15 They have children at their desire : and leave the rest of their substance for their babes.

16 But as for me, I will behold thy p presence in righteousness : and when I awake up after thy likeness, I shall be satisfied with it.

PSALM xviii. Diligam te, Domine.

mf I WILL love thee, O Lord, my strength ; the Lord is my stony rock, and my defence : my Saviour, my God, and my might, in whom I will trust, my buckler, the horn also of my salvation, and my refuge.

[2 I will call

2 I will call upon the Lord, which is worthy to be praised : so shall I be safe from mine enemies.

3 The sorrows of death compassed me : and the overflowings of ungodliness made me afraid.

p 4 The pains of hell came about me : the snares of death overtook me.

5 In my trouble I will call upon the Lord : and complain unto my God.

mf 6 So shall he hear my voice out of his holy temple : and my complaint shall come before him, it shall enter even into his ears.

f 7 The earth trembled and quaked : the very foundations also of the hills shook, and were removed, because he was wroth.

8 There went a smoke out of his presence : and a consuming fire out of his mouth, so that coals were kindled at it.

9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down : and it was dark under his feet.

10 He rode upon the cherubims, and did fly : he came flying upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his secret place : his pavilion round about him with dark water, and thick clouds to cover him.

12 At the brightness of his presence his clouds removed : hailstones, and coals of fire.

13 The Lord also thundered out of heaven, and the Highest gave his thunder : hailstones, and coals of fire.

14 He sent out his arrows, and scattered them : he cast forth lightnings, and destroyed them.

15 The springs of waters were seen, and the foundations of the round world were discovered, at thy chiding, O Lord : at the blasting of the breath of thy displeasure.

mf 16 He shall send down from on high to fetch me : and shall take me out of many waters.

17 He shall deliver me from my strongest enemy, and from them which hate me : for they are too mighty for me.

18 They prevented me in the day of my trouble : but the Lord was my upholder.

19 He brought me forth also into a place of liberty : he brought me forth, even because he had a favour unto me.

20 The Lord shall reward me after my righteous dealing : according to the cleanness of my hands shall he recompense me.

21 Because I have kept the ways of the Lord : and have not forsaken my God, as the wicked doth.

22 For I have an eye unto all his laws : and will not cast out his commandments from me.

23 I was also uncorrupt before him : and eschewed mine own wickedness.

24 Therefore shall the Lord reward me

after my right-eous dealing : and according unto the cleanness of my hands in his eye-sight.

p 25 With the holy thou shalt be holy : and with a perfect man thou shalt be perfect.

26 With the clean thou shalt be clean : and with the forward thou shalt learn forwardness.

27 For thou shalt save the people that are in adversity : and shalt bring down the high looks of the proud.

28 Thou also shalt light my candle : the Lord my God shall make my darkness to be light.

29 For in thee I shall discomfit an host of men : and with the help of my God I shall leap over the wall.

30 The way of God is an undefiled way : the word of the Lord also is tried in the fire ; he is the defender of all them that put their trust in him.

No. I. 3.

No. II. 3.

mf 31 For who is God, but the Lord : or who hath any strength, except our God ?

32 It is God, that girdeth me with strength of war : and maketh my way perfect.

33 He maketh my feet like harts' feet : and setteth me up on high.

34 He teacheth mine hands to fight : and mine arms shall break even a bow of steel.

35 Thou hast given me the defence of thy salvation : thy right hand also shall hold me up, and thy loving correction shall make me great.

36 Thou shalt make room enough under me for to go : that my foot-steps shall not slide.

37 I will follow upon mine enemies, and over-take them : neither will I turn again till I have destroyed them.

38 I will smite them, that they shall not be able to stand : but fall under my feet.

39 Thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle : thou shalt throw down mine enemies under me.

40 Thou hast made mine enemies also to turn their backs upon me : and I shall destroy them that hate me.

41 They shall cry, but there shall be none to help them : yea, even unto the Lord shall they cry, but he shall not hear them.

42 I will beat them as small as the dust before the wind : I will cast them out as the clay in the streets.

43 Thou shalt deliver me from the strivings of the people : and thou shalt make me the head of the heathen.

44 A people whom I have not known : shall serve me.

45 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me : but the strange children shall dissemble with me.

46 The strange children shall fail : and be afraid out of their prisons.

47 The Lord liveth, and blessed be my strong helper : and praised be the God of my salvation.

48 Even the God that seeth that I be avenged : and subdueth the people unto me.

49 It is he that delivereth me from my cruel enemies, and setteth me up above mine adversaries : thou shalt rid me from the wicked man.

50 For this cause will I give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the Gentiles : and sing praises unto thy Name.

5 Draw me out of the net, that they have lãid prî-vily for me : för thou art my strength.

6 Into thy hãnds I commënd my spirit : for thou hast redëemed me, O Lörd, thou God of truth.

7 I have hated them that hõld of superstî-tious vanities : ând my trúst hath been in the Lörd.

8 I will be glãd, and rejoyce in thy mercy : for thou hast considered my trouble, and hast knöwn my söl in ad-ver-si-ties.

2d Pt. 9 Thou hast not shut me üp into the hãnd of the enemy : but hast sët my fëet in a lãrge room.

10 Have mercy upon me, O Lörd, for I am in trouble : and mine eye is consumed for very heaviness ; yëa, my söl and my bö-dy.

11 For my life is wãxen óld with heaviness : ând my yëars with möurn-ing.

12 My strength faileth me, becãuse of mine in-iquity : ând my bönes are consum-ed.

13 I became a reproof among all mine enemies, but espëcially among my neighbours : and they of mine acquaintance were afraid of me ; and they that did see me without convëyed themsëlves fröm me.

14 I am clean forgotten, as a dëad man óut of mind : I am becöme like a brö-ken vës-sel.

15 For I have heard the blãsphemy of the multitude : and fear is on every side, while they conspire together against me, and take their cöunsel to tãke a-way my life.

16 But my hope hath bëen in thée, O Lörd : I have sãid, Thöu art my God.

18 Shew thy sêrvant the lîght of thy countenance ; and sãve me för thy mer-cy's sake.

19 Let me not be confounded, O Lörd, for I have cãll-ed-up-on thee : let the ungodly be put to confusion, and be püt to sí-lence in the grave.

20 Let the lying lîps be püt to silence : 2d Pt. which cruelly, disdainfully, and despitefully, spëak against the right-eous.

21 O how plentiful is thy goodness, mf which thou hast lãid up for thém that fear thee : and that thou hast prepared for them that put their trust in thee, êven before the sons of men !

22 Thou shalt hide them privily by thine own presence from the provöking of áll men : thou shalt keep them secretly in thy tâbernacle fröm the strife of tongues.

23 Thãnks bë to the Lörd : for he hath shewed me marvellous great kîndness in a ströng cî-ty.

5 Heloveth righteousness and judgment :
the earth is f^ull of the g^ood-ness of the 6 By the word of the L^ord were the 16 A horse is counted but a v^{ai}n thing

8 Leave off from wrath, and let go displeasure : fret not thyself, else shalt thou be moved to do evil.

9 Wicked doers shall be root-ed out : and they that patiently abide the Lord, those shall inherit the land.

10 Yet a little while, and the ungodly shall be clean gone : thou shalt look after his place, and he shall be away.

11 But the meek-spirited shall possess the earth : and shall be refreshed in the multitude of peace.

12 The ungodly seeketh counsel against the just : and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

36 I myself have seen the ungodly in mf

13 As for me, I was like a deaf mán, and héard not : and as one that is dumb,
who dôth not ó-pen his mouth.

14 I became even as a mán that héar-eth not : and in whose móuth are nō reproofs.

mf 15 For in thee, O Lórd, have I pút my trust : thou shalt ânsWER fór me, O Lord my God.

16 I have required that they, even mine enemies, should not trîumph ó-ver me :
for when my foot slipped, they rejôiced
gréat-ly against me.

17 And I, trûly, am sèt in the plague :
and my héaviness is é-ver in my sight.

18 For I will conféss my wickedness :
and be sór-ry for my sin.

19 But mine ênemies líve, and are mighty : and they that hate me wrôngfully are má-ny in nûm-ber.

20 They also that reward êvil for goód are a-gainst me : because I fôllow the thîng

21 Forsake me nôt, O Lórd my God :
bê not thou fârr frôm me.

22 Hâste thée to help me : O Lord Gôd

4 My heart was hot within me, and

and at the lâst I spâke with my tongue ;

5 Lord, let me know mine end, and the pp
nûmber óf my days : that I may be cêrtified how lóng I háve to live.

6 Behold, thou hast made my days as it wêre a spán long : and mine age is even as nothing in respect of thee ; and verily every man living is âltogé-ther vâ-nity.

7 For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquîeteth himself in vain : he heapeth up riches, and cànnot tell whó

8 And now, Lórd, whât is my hope : p

11 Take thy plâgue awây from me : I am even consumed by the méans of thy héavy hand.

12 When thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin, thou makest his beauty to consume away, like as it were a môth frétt-ing a garment : every man thêrefore is but vâ-nity.

13 Hear my prayer, O Lord, and with pp thine eârs consî-der my calling : hólð not thy péace at my tears.

14 For I am a strân-ger with thee :
and a sôjourner, as áll my fâthers were.

15 O spare me a little, that I may recó-ver my strength : before I go hênce, and be nō móre seen.

PSALM xxxix. Dixi, custodiam.

2 The Lord preserve him, and keep him alive, that he may be blessed upon earth : and deliver not thou him into the will of his enemies.

2d Pt. 3 The Lord comfort him, when he lieth sick upon his bed : make thou all his bed in his sickness.

p 4 I said, Lord, be merciful unto me : heal my soul, for I have sinned against thee.

5 Mine enemies speak evil of me : When shall he die, and his name perish ?

6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity : and his heart conceiveth falsehood within himself, and when he cometh forth he telleth it.

7 All mine enemies whisper together against me : even against me do they imagine this evil.

4 I will incline mine ear to the parable ;
and shew my dark speech up-on the harp :

p 5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of wickedness : and when the wickedness of my heels compasseth me round a-bout ?

6 There be some that put their trust in their goods : and boast themselves in the multitude of their rich-es.

7 But no man may del-iver his brother :
nor make agreement un-to God for him ;

8 For it cost more to redeem their souls :
so that he must let that alone for e-ver ;

11 And yet they think that their houses generation to another ; and call the lands af-ter their own names.

12 Nevertheless, man will not abide in honour : seeing he may be compared unto them.

13 This is their foolishness : and their

14 They lie in the hell like sheep, death gnaweth upon them, and the righteous shall have domination over them in the

- f* 6 Therefore shall Gôd destrôy thee for ever : he shall take thee, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling, and root thee out of the lând of the liv-ing.
- 7 The righteous also shall sêe this, and fear : and shall laugh him to scorn ;
- 8 Lo, this is the man that took not Gôd for his strength : but trusted unto the multitude of his riches, and strêngthened himself in his wick-ed-ness.
- 9 As for me, I am like a green ôlive-tree p in the house of God : my trust is in the tender mercy of Gôd for é-ver and ë-ver.
- 10 I will always give thanks unto thee f for that thou hast done : and I will hope in thy Nâme, for thy saints like it well.

PSALM liii. Dixit insipiens.

mf THË ' foolish bô·dy hath saïd in his heart : Thêre is nō God.

2 Corrupt are they, and become abômina·ble in their wickedness : thêre is nōne that do-eth good.

3 God looked down from heaven upôn·the chîl-dren of men : to see if there were any, that would understand, and sêek af-ter God.

4 But they are all gone out of the way, they are altogether becôme·a-bô-mi-nable : there is also nōne that doeth good, no not one.

p 5 Are not they without understanding· that wôrk wickedness : eating up my people as if they would eat bread? they hâve not cáll-ed upôn God.

6 They were afraîd·where nō fear was : for God hath broken the bones of him that besieged thee ; thou hast put them to confusion, becâuse Gôd hath despis-ed them.

7 Oh, that the salvation were given f unto Îs·rael out of Sion : Oh, that the Lord would deliver his pêople out of capti-vity!

PSALM lvi. Miserere mei, Deus.

mf BE¹ merciful unto me, O God, for man goeth about to devour me : he is daily fight-ing, and troubl-ing me.

2 Mine enemies are daily in hand to swal-low me up : for they be many that fight against me, O thou most High-est.

p 3 Nevertheless, though I am some-time-a-fraid : yet put I my trust in thee.

4 I will praise Gôd, because of his word : I have put my trust in God, and will not fear what flesh can do unto me.

mf 5 They daily mistake my words : all that they imagine is to do me evil.

6 They hold all together, and keep themselves close : and mark my steps, when they lay wait for my soul.

2d Pt. 7 Shall they escape for their wickedness : thou, O God, in thy displeasure shalt cast them down.

p 8 Thou tellest my flittings ; put my tears in-to thy bottle : are not these things noted in thy book ?

9 Whensoever I call upon thee, then shall mine enemies be put to flight : this I know ; for Gôd is on my side.

f 10 In God's word will I re-joice : in the Lord's word will I com-fort me.

11 Yea, in Gôd have I put my trust : I will not be afraid what man can do unto me.

12 Unto thee, O Gôd, will I pay my vows : unto thee will I give thanks.

13 For thou hast delivered my soul from death, and my feet from falling : that I may walk before Gôd in the light of the liv-ing.

PSALM lvii. Miserere mei, Deus.

BE merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me, for my soul trust-eth in thee : and under the shadow of thy wings shall be my refuge, until this tyranny be over-past.

2 I will call unto the most high God : even unto the God that shall perform the cause which I have in hand.

3 He shall send from heaven : and save me from the reproach of him that would eat me up.

4 God shall send forth his mercy and mf truth : my soul is among lions.

5 And I lie even among the children of 2d Pt. men, that are set on fire : whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.

5 As long as I live will I magnify thee on this manner : and lift up my hands in thy Name.

6 My soul shall be satisfied, even as it were with marrow and fatness : when my mouth praiseth thee with joyful lips.

7 Have I not remembered thee in my bed : and thought upon thee when I was waking?

8 Because thou hast been my helper : therefore under the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

9 My soul hangeth upon thee : thy right hand hath upheld me.

10 These also that seek the hurt of my soul : they shall go under the earth.

21 God shall wound the héad of his enemies : and the hairy scalp of such a one as goeth on stíll in his wick-edness.

22 The Lord hath said, I will bring my people again, as I did from Basan : mine own will I bring again, as I did sometime frôm the déep ôf the sea.

2d Pt. 23 That thy foot may be dipped in the blóod of thine enemies : and that the tongue of thy dôgs may be red through the same.

mf 24 It is well seen, O Gôd, hów thou goest : how thou, my God and King, goest in the sanc-tua-ry.

25 The singers go before, the mînstrrels fól-low after : in the midst are the damsels plâying wíth the tim-brels.

26 Give thanks, O Israel, unto God the Lôrd in the cón-gre-gations : frôm the grôund ôf the heart.

27 There is little Benjamin their ruler, and the prínces of Jú-dah their counsel : the princes of Zabulon, and the prin-ces of Nêph-thali.

28 Thy God hath sent forth strength for thee : stablish the thing, O Gôd, that thóu hast wrought in us, 29 For thy têmples sake at Jerú-sa-lem : so shall kîngs bring pré-sents ünto thee.

30 When the company of the spear-men, and multitude of the mighty are scattered abroad among the beasts of the people, so that they hûmbly bring píec-es of silver : and when he hath scattered the péople that de-light in war ;

31 Then shall the princes côme out of Egypt : the Morians' land shall soon strêch out her hánds ünto God.

32 Sing unto God, O ye kîngdoms ôf the earth : Ô sing praís-es un-to the Lôrd ;

33 Who sitteth in the heavens over âll frôm the be-ginning : lo, he doth send out his voice, yêa, and thát a mighty voice.

34 Ascribe ye the power to Gôd over Ís-ra-el : his wôrship, and strength is in the clouds.

35 O God, wonderful art thou in thy hól-y places : even the God of Israel ; he will give strength and power unto his péople ; bléss-ed bë God.

PSALM lxix. Salvum me fac.

p SÄVE ' mē, Ō God : for the waters are cōme in, é-ven unto my soul.

2 I stick fast in the deep mīre, where nō ground is : I am come into deep waters,
sō that the floods run o-ver me.

3 I am weary of cŕyng ; my throāt is dry : my sight faileth me for waiting so lóng up-on my God.

4 They that hate me without a cause are mōre than the hairs of my head : they that are mine enemies, and would destrōy me guīlt-less, are mīgh-ty.

mf 5 I paid them the thngs that I né-ver took : God, thou knowest my simpleness,
ând my fáults are not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that trust in thee, O
Lord God of hosts, be ashâmed for mŷ cause : let not those that seek thee be confounded through mē, O Lórd God of Is-ra-el.

7 And why? for thy sâke have I súf-fer'd re-proof : shâme hath cō-vered mŷ face.

8 I am become a strânger ún-to my brethren : even an alien únto my mó-ther's chil-dren.

9 For the zeal of thine house hath éven
éat-en me : and the rebukes of them that rebuked thee are fál-len upōn me.

10 I wept, and châstened mysélf with fasting : and thât was túrn-ed to my re-proof.

11 I pût on sâck-cloth also : ând they jést-ed upōn me.

12 They that sit in the gâte speak
a-gâinst me : and the drûnkards make sóngs up-ōn me.

13 But, Lord, I mâke my prâyer unto p thee : ín án ac-cept-able time.

14 Hear me, O God, in the mûltitude
of thy mercy : even in the trûth of thy sal-vâ-tion.

15 Take me out of the mīre, that I sínk not : O let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the dêep wâ-ters.

16 Let not the water-flood drown me, neither let the dêep swâl-low me up : and let not the pit shût her móuth up-ōn me.

17 Hear me, O Lord, for thy loving-kindness is cōm-forta-ble : turn thee unto me according to the mûltitude of thy mêr-cies.

18 And hide not thy face from thy sêrvant, for Í am in trouble : Ō háste thee, and hêar me.

19 Draw nigh únto my sóul, and save it :
O delíver me, becâuse of mine e-ne-mies.

20 Thou hast known my reproof, mf

my shâme, and my dis-honour : mine adversaries are all in thy sight.

21 Thy rebuke hath broken my heart ; I am full of heaviness : I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to com-fort me.

22 They gâve me gall to eat : and when I was thirsty they gâve me vin-egar to drink.

23 Let their table be made a snare to take themselves with-al : and let the things that should have been for their wealth be unto them an occâ-sion of fall-ing.

24 Let their eyes be blinded, that they see not : and ever bow thou down their backs.

25 Pour out thine indignâ-tion upon them : and let thy wrathful displea-sure take hold of them.

26 Let their hâbitâ-tion be void : and no man to dwell in their tents.

27 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten : and they talk how they may vex them whom thou hast wound-ed.

28 Let them fall from one wickedness to a-nother : and not come in-to thy right-eous-ness.

29 Let them be wiped out of the book of the living : and not be written among the right-eous.

30 As for me, when I am poor and in heaviness : thy help, O Gôd, shall lift me up.

32 This also shall please the Lord : better than a bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

33 The humble shall consider this, and be glad : seek ye after Gôd, and your soul shall live.

34 For the Lord hear-eth the poor : and despiseth not his pri-son-ers.

35 Let heaven and earth praise him : the sea, and all that moveth there-in.

36 For God will save Sion, and build the ci-ties of Judah : that men may dwell there, and have it in pos-ses-sion.

37 The posterity also of his servants shall inherit it : and they that love his Nâme shall dwell there-in.

PSALM lxx. Deus in adiutorium.

HASTE thee, O Gôd, to deli-ver me : mf make haste to help me, O Lord.

2 Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek af-ter my soul : let them be turned backward and put to confusion that wish me e-vil.

3 Let them for their reward be soon brought to shame : that cry o-ver-me, There, there.

4 But let all those that seek thee be joyful and glad in thee : and let all such as delight in thy salvation say alway, The Lord be praîs-ed.

5 As for me, I am poor and in misery : p haste thee un-to me, O God.

rid me, and deliver me, in thy righteousness ;
incline thine êar unto mé, and sâve me.

2 Be thou my strong hold, whereuntô I may ál-way re-sort : thou hast promised to help me, for thou art my house of defênce, and my cäs-tle.

3 Deliver me, O my God, out of the hând of the un-godly : out of the hând of the unright-eous and cru-el man.

4 For thou, O Lord God, art the thing that I lóng for : thou art my hôpe, é-ven from my youth.

2d Pt. 5 Through thee have I been holden up êver sínce I was born : thou art he that took me out of my mother's womb ; my prâise shall be ál-ways of thee.

p 6 I am become as it were a mônster ún-to many : but my sûre trûst is in 7 O let my mouth be filled wíth thy prâise : that I may sing of thy glory and hônour ál the dâý long.

8 Cast me not awâý in the tíme of age :
forsake me not wêhen my strêngth fail-eth

9 For mine enemies speak against me, and they that lay wait for my soul take their còunsel to-gé-ther, saying : God hath forsaken him ; persecute him, and take him, fôr there is nône to deliver him.

10 Go not fâr fróm me, O God : my Gôd, háste thee to hêlp me.

11 Let them be confounded and perish that âre agâinst my soul : let them be covered with shame and dishonour that sêek to dó me è-vil.

12 As for me, I will pâtiently abíde alway : and will prâise thee more and 13 My mouth shall daily speak of thy righteousness and sal-vation : fôr I knów no end there-of.

14 I will go forth in the strêngth of the my Lôrd God : and will make mên-tion of thy right-eousness ön-ly.

15 Thou, O God, hast taught me from my youth úp ún-til now : thêrefore will I têll of thy won-drous works.

16 Forsake me not, O God, in mine old age, wêhen I am grâý-headed : until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to ál them that are yêt for
to come.

17 Thy righteousness, O Gôd, is vé-ry high : and great things are they that thou hast done ; O God, wêho is líke ún-to 18 O what great troubles and adversities hast thou shewed me ! and yêt didst thou túrn and re-fresh me : yea, and broughtest me fróm the déep of the eârth again.

19 Thou hast bròught me to grêat

mf 20 Therefore will I praise thee and thy faithfulness, O God, playing upon an instrument of musick : unto thee will I sing upon the harp, O thou Hôly One of Is-ra-el.

21 My lips will be fâin when I sing

3 The mountains âlso shall brîng peace : and the little hills righteousness ún-to the pëo-ple.

4 He shall keep the simple fôlk by their right : defend the children of the poor, and pûnish the wrông dö-er.

5 They shall fear thee, as long as the sùn and móon en-dureth : from one generâtion tó a-nö-ther.

6 He shall come down like the raîn into a fleece of wool : êven as the drôps that water the earth.

mf TRU-LY God is lôving unto Ís-ra-el :
even unto sùch as áre of a clëan heart.

2 Nevertheless, my fêet were ál-most gone : mý trëad-ings had well-nigh slipt.

p 3 And why? I was griëved át the wicked : I do also see the ungôdly in sùch pros-pë-rity.

4 For they are in nô pé-ril of death :
bût are lús-ty and strong.

5 They come in no misfortune lîke
ô-ther folk : neither âre they plágu-ed lîke
o-ther men.

6 And this is the cause that they are sô
hóld-en-with pride : and ôverwhélm-ed with crü-elty.

7 Their êyes swëll with fatness : and they dô é-ven what they lust.

8 They corrupt other, and spëak of wîck-ed blasphemy : their talking is against the môst High.

9 For they stretch forth their môuth
ún-to the heaven : and their tôngue gó-eth through the world.

10 Therefore fall the pëople ún-to them : and thereout suck they nô smáll ad-ván-tage.

2d Pt. 11 Tush, say they, hów should Gód per-ceive-it : is there knôwledge ín the môst High?

mf 12 Lo, these are the ungodly, these prosper in the world, and these have rîches ín pos-session : and I said, Then have I cleansed my heart in vain, and wâshed mine hânds in in-nocen-cy.

13 All the day lóng have Í been punished : and châstened éve-ry mörn-ing.

14 Yea, and I had almost sâid é-ven-as they : but lo, then I should have condemnèd
the generâtion ôf thy chîl-dren.

15 Then thóught I to ún-derstand this :
bût it was tóo hard for me,

16 Until I went into the sânc-tuá-ry of God : then understôod I the énd of these men ;

17 Namely, how thou dost sët them in slîp-pery places : and câstest them dówn, and destroy-est them.

18 Oh, how súddenly dó they con-sume :
pêrish, and cóme to a fear-ful end !

19 Yea, even like as a drëam wên one-a-waketh : so shalt thou make their image to vânish óut of the cî-ty.

20 Thûs my hëart was griëved : and it wënt é-ven through my reins. p

21 So fôolish wás I, and ignorant : even as it wêre a béast be-fôre thee.

22 Neverthelëss, I am ál-way by thee :
for thou hast hóldeñ me bý my right hand.

23 Thou shalt guîde me with thy counsel : and after thât receîve me with glô-ry.

24 Whom have Í in héaven but thee :
and there is none upon earth that I désîre
in compá-rison ôf thee.

25 My fîesh and my hëart faileth : but God is the strength of my hëart, and my pór-tion for é-ver.

26 For lo, thêy that forsáke thee shall perish : thou hast destroyed all them that commit fôrnicá-tion against thee.

27 But it is good for me to hold me fast
by God, to put my trûst in the Lórd God :

2 O think upôn thy cón-gre-gation : whom thou hast pûr-chased, and re-deemed of old.

3 Think upon the trîbe of thîne in-her-itage : and mount Sîon, whereín thou hast dwelt.

4 Lift up thy feet, that thou mayest utterly destrôÿ éve-ry enemy : which hath done évil ín thy sanc-tua-ry.

f 5 Thine adversaries roar in the mîdst of thy cón-gre-gations : and set úp their bân-ners for tó-kens.

6 He that hewed timber afore ôut of the thîck trees : was known to brîng it tó an ex-cel-lent work.

7 But now they break down all the cârved wórk there-of : wîth áx-es, and hâ-m-mers.

8 They have set fire upôn thy hó-ly places : and have defiled the dwelling-place of thy Nâme, é-ven un-to the ground.

9 Yea, they said in their hearts, Let us make há-vo-ck of them ál-to-gether : thus have they burnt up all the hóuses of Gôd in the land.

10 We see not our tokens, there is not ône pró-phét more : no, not one is there among us, that ûnder-stánd-eth a-ny more.

mf 11 O God, how long shall the âdversary dó this dis-honour : how long shall the enemy blasphemé thy Nâme, for é-ver ?

12 Why withdrâwest thóu thy hand : why pluckest thou not thy right hand out of thy bosom tó consúme the é-nemy ?

13 For Gôd is my Kíng of old : the help that is done upon éarth he dó-eth it him-self.

14 Thou didst divíde the séa through thy power : thou brakest the heads of the drâ-gons ín the wä-ters.

15 Thou smotest the hêads of Leví-athan in pieces : and gavest him to be meat for the pêople ín the wîl-derness.

16 Thou broughtest out fountains and waters ôut of the hârd rocks : thou dríedst up mígh-ty wä-ters.

17 The day is thîne, and the níght is thine : thou hast præpâred the líght and the sun.

18 Thou hast set all the bôrders óf the earth : thou hast mâde sùm-mer and wîn-ter.

19 Remember this, O Lord, how the p ênemy háth re-buked : and how the foolish people háth blasphem-ed thy Name.

20 O deliver not the soul of thy turtle-dove unto the mûltitude óf the enemies : and forget not the congregation ôf the pór for é-ver.

21 Lôok upôn the covenant : for all the earth is full of darkness, and crûel há-bi-tä-tions.

4 That we should not hide them from

13 Marvellous things did he in themf

15 In the day-time also he lêd them with a cloud : and all the nîght through with a light of fire.

16 He clave the hârd rócks in the wilderness ; and gave them drink thereof,
as it had bêen out of the grêat depth.

17 He brought waters out of the stó-ny rock : so that it gûshed out like the 20 They spake against Gôd ál-so, saying : Shall God prepare a tâ·ble in the wil·derness ?

21 He smote the stony rock indeed, that the water gushed out, and the strêams flôw-ed-with-al : but can he give bread also, or provîde flesh for his pëo-ple ?

f 22 When the Lord hêard thís, he was wroth : so the fire was kindled in Jacob, and there came up hêavy·dis-plêa-sure-a-against Is-ra·vel ;

23 Because they believed nót in God : and pût not·their trúst in his help.

24 So he commâded the clóuds a-bove : and ó-pen'd the doors of heaven.

25 He rained down manna also upôn them fór to eat : and gáve them food from heaven.

2d Pt. 7 And what is hê among the gods : that shall be líke un-to the Lord ?

8 God is very greatly to be feared in the cöuncil of the saints : and to be had in reverence of all thê that are röund a-böut him.

9 O Lord God of hosts, whô is líke unto thee : thy truth, most mighty Lörd, is on eve-ry side.

10 Thou rulest the râging of the sea : thou stillest the waves thereof wêhen they arise.

11 Thou hast subdued Êgypt, and deströy-ed it : thou hast scattered thine ênemies abroad with thy migh-ty arm.

12 The heavens are thine, the êarth ál-so is thine : thou hast laid the foundation of the round wörld, and ál that there-in is.

13 Thou hast mâde the nóth and the south : Tabor and Hêrmon shall rejoice in thy Name.

14 Thou hâst a migh-ty arm : strong is thy hând, and hígh is thy right hand.

15 Righteousness and equity are the habitâtion of thy seat : mercy and trûth shall gö be-fore thy face.

16 Blessed is the people, O Lörd, that mf can rejoice in thee : they shall wâlk in the líght of thy cöun-tenance.

17 Their delight shall be dâily in thy Name : and in thy righteousness shall they make their boast.

18 For thou art the glôry of their strength : and in thy loving-kindness thou shalt líft up our horns.

19 For the Lörd is óur de-fence : the Hôly One of Ís-ra-el is our King.

20 Thou spakest sometime in visions f unto thy saints, and saidst : I have laid help upon one that is mighty ; I have exalted one chösen out of the pëo-ple.

21 I have fôund Dá-vid my servant : with my holy ôil háve I a-noint-ed him.

22 My hând shall hólđ him fast : and my árm shall strength-en him.

23 The enemy shall not be âble to dó him violence : the son of wíckedness shall not hürt him.

24 I will smite down his fôes befóre his face : and plágue them that hâte him.

25 My truth also and my mër-cy shall be with him : and in my Nâme shall his hór-n be exált-ed.

26 I will set his dominion also in the sea : and his right hand in the floods.

27 He shall call me, Thóu art my Father : my Gôd, and my stróng sal-vä-tion.

28 And I will make him my first-born : higher than the kings of the earth.

29 My mercy will I keep for him for é-ver-more : and my covenant shall stand fast with him.

2d Pt. 30 His seed also will I make to endure for ever : and his throne as the days of hëa-ven.

mf 31 But if his children forsake my law : and walk not in my jüdgments ;

32 If they break my statutes, and keep not my com-mandments : I will visit their offences with the rôd, and their sin with scôurg-es.

33 Nevertheless, my loving-kindness will I not utterly take from him : nor súf-fer my truth to fail.

34 My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips : I have sworn once by my holiness, that I will not fail Dä-vid.

35 His seed shall endure for ever : and his seat is like as the sun be-före me.

36 He shall stand fast for evermore as the moon : and as the faithful wít-ness in hëa-ven.

39 Thou hast overthrown all his hedges : and broken down his strong holds.

40 All they that go by spoil him : and he is become a reproach to his neigh-bours.

41 Thou hast set up the right hand of his enemies : and made all his ad-versaries to re-joice.

42 Thou hast taken away the edge of his sword : and givest him not victory in the bät-tle.

43 Thou hast put out his glory : and cast his throne down to the ground.

44 The days of his youth hast thou shortened : and covered him with dis-hö-nour.

45 Lord, how long wilt thou hide thyself, for ever : and shall thy wrath burn like fire ?

46 O remember how short my time is : wherefore hast thou made all men for nought ?

47 What man is he that liveth, and shall not see death : and shall he deliver his soul from the hand of hell ?

48 Lord, where are thy old lov-ing-kindnesses : which thou swarest unto Dä-vid in thy truth ?

49 Remember, Lord, the rebuke that thy sér-vants have : and how I do bear in my bosom the rebukes of má-ny pëo-ple ;

PSALM xc. Domine, refugium.

p LÖRD, 'thôu hast béen our refuge :
from one generâtion tó a-nö-ther.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the êarth and the wôrld were made : thou art God from everlâsting, and wôrld with-öut end.

3 Thou tûrnest mán to-de-struction :
again thou sayest, Côme agáin, ye chil-dren

4 For a thousand years in thy sight áre but-as yesterday : seeing that is pâst as a wáitch in the night.

5 As soon as thou scatterest them they are éven ás a sleep : and fade awây súd-denly like the grass.

6 In the morning it is grêen, and grów-eth up : but in the evening it is cut down, dríed úp, and wither-ed.

7 For we consume awây in thy dis-pleasure : and are afraid at thy wrâthful ín-dig-nä-tion.

8 Thou hast sêt our mís-deeds before thee : and our secret sîns in the líght of thy cöun-tenance.

9 For when thou art angry áll our dâys are gone : we bring our years to an end,

as it wêre a tãle that is told.

10 The days of our age are threescore years and ten ; and though men be so strong that they côme to fôur-score years :
yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow ; so soon pâsseth it awây, and we are gone.

11 But who regârdeth the pów-er of thy wrath : for even thereafter as a man feareth, sô is thy dis-plêa-sure.

12 So têach us to núm-ber-our days :
that we may applý our héarts unto mf WHOSO dwelleth under the defence of the most High : shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2 I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope, and my strong hold : my God, in him will I trust.

3 For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter : and from the noisome pestilence.

4 He shall defend thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers : his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5 Thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night : nor for the arrow that flieth by day ;

6 For the pestilence that walketh in darkness : nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day.

7 A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand : but it shall not come nigh thee.

8 Yea, with thine eyes shalt thou behold : and see the reward of the ungodly.

p 9 For thou, Lord, art my hope : thou hast set thine house of defence very high.

10 There shall no evil happen unto thee : neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11 For he shall give his angels charge over thee : to keep thee in all thy ways.

12 They shall bear thee in their hands : that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

2d Pt. 13 Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder : the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet.

14 Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him : I will set him up, because he hath known my Name.

15 He shall call upon me, and I will hear him : yea, I am with him in trouble ; I will deliver him, and bring him to honour.

3 Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the lute : upon a loud instrument, and upon the harp.

4 For thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy works : and I will rejoice in giving praise for the operations of thy hands.

5 O Lord, how glorious are thy works : mf thy thoughts are very deep.

6 An unwise man doth not well consider this : and a fool doth not understand it.

7 When the ungodly are green as the 2d Pt grass, and when all the workers of wickedness do flourish : then shall they be destroyed for ever ; but thou, Lord, art the most High-est for ever more.

8 For lo, thine enemies, O Lord, lo, thine f enemies shall perish : and all the workers of wickedness shall be destroyed.

4 Who sâveth thy lîfe from de-struction : and crowneth thee with mērcy and lōv-ing-kind-ness ;

2d Pt. 5 Who satisfieth thy mōuth with good things : making thee young and lûsty ás an ēa-gle.

mf 6 The Lord executeth righteousness and judgment : for all thēm that are opprēss-ed with wrong.

7 He shēwed his wâys unto Moses : his works ûnto the chîl-dren of Is-ra-el.

8 The Lord is fûll of compâs-sion and mercy : long-suffering, and of grēat good-ness.

9 He will not ál-way be chiding : neither keepeth hē his án-ger for ē-ver.

10 He hath not dêalt with us af-ter our sins : nor rewarded us accôrding to our wicked-nēss-es.

11 For look how high the heaven is in compârisôn of the earth : so great is his mercy also tôward thēm that fēar him.

12 Look how wide also the êast is fróm

the west : so far hath he sêt our sins fróm us.

13 Yea, like as a father pîtieth his ôwn children : even so is the Lord merciful ûnto thēm that fēar him.

14 For he knôweth whereôf we are p made : he remēbereth thât we are but dust.

15 The days of mân âre but as grass : for he flourisheth âs a flôw-er of the field.

16 For as soon as the wind goeth ôver it, ít is gone : and the place thereôf shall knôw it nô more.

17 But the merciful goodness of the Lord endureth for ever and ever upôn thēm that fear him : and his righteousness upôn chîl-dren's chîl-dren ;

18 Even upon sûch as kēep his covenant : 2d Pt. and think upôn his commând-ments to dô them.

19 The Lord hath préparéd his séat in mf heaven : and his kîngdom rûl-eth o-ver all.

20 O praise the Lord, ye angels of his, yê that excél in strength : ye that fulfil his commandment, and hearken ûnto the vóice of his words.

21 O praise the Lôrd, all yé his hosts : ye servants of hîs thât dó his pleä-sure.

f PRAISE the ' Lôrd, Ó my soul : O Lord my God, thou art become exceeding glorious ; thou art clôthed with má-jesty and hô-nour.

2 Thou deckest thyself with lîght as it wére with a garment : and spreadest out the hêavens lîke a cûr-tain.

3 Who layeth the beams of his châmbers în the waters : and maketh the clouds his chariot, and wâlketh upon the wings ôf

4 He mâketh his ân-gels spirits : and his mí-nisters a flam-ing fire.

mf 5 He laid the foundâtions ôf the earth :
that it nêver should móve at âny time.

6 Thou coveredst it with the deep lîke as wîth a garment : the wâters stând in the hills.

7 At thy rebúke they flee : at the vóice of thy thun-der they are afraid.

8 They go up as high as the hills, and dôwn to the vâl-leys be-neath : even unto the place which thou hast appoint-ed for

them.

9 Thou hast set them their bôunds which they shâll not pass : neither tûrn agâin to co-ver the earth.

10 He sendeth the sprîngs ín-to the p rivers : whîch rûn a-mông the hills.

11 All beasts of the fîeld drînk there-of ;
and the wîld âss-es quench their thirst.

12 Beside them shall the fowls of the air hâve their há-bi-tation : and sîng among the brânc-es.

13 He wâtereth the hîlls from a-bove :
the earth is fîlled with the fruft of thy works.

14 He brîngeth forth grâss for the cattle : and green hêrb fór the ser-vice ôf men ;

15 That he may bring food out of the 2d

mf 16 The trees of the Lord also are full of sap : even the cedars of Libanus which he hath plant-ed ;

17 Wherein the birds make their nests : and the fir-trees are a dwelling for the stork.

18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats : and so are the stony rocks for the conies.

p 19 He appointed the moon for certain seasons : and the sun knoweth his going down.

20 Thou makest darkness that it may be night : wherein all the beasts of the forest do move.

21 The lions roaring after their prey : do seek their meat from God.

22 The sun ariseth, and they get them away together : and lay them down in their dens.

23 Man goeth forth to his work, and to his labour : until the evening.

mf 24 O Lord, how manifold are thy works : in wisdom hast thou made them all ; the earth is full of thy riches.

25 So is the great and wide sea also : wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

26 There go the ships, and there is that Leviathan : whom thou hast made to take his pas-time therein.

27 These wait all upon thee : that thou mayest give them meat in due season.

28 When thou givest it them they gather it : and when thou openest thy hand they are filled with good.

29 When thou hidest thy face they are troubled : when thou takest away their breath they die, and are turned again to their dust.

30 When thou lettest thy breath go forth they shall be made : and thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

33 I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live : I will praise my God while I have my being.

34 And so shall my words please him : my joy shall be in the Lord.

PSALM CV. Confitemini Domino.

f O ¹ GIVE thanks unto the Lord, and call upon his Name : tell the people
what things he hath done.

2 O let your songs be of him, and praise him : and let your talking be of all his wondrous works.

3 Rejoice in his holy Name : let the heart of them rejoice that seek the Lord.

4 Seek the Lord and his strength :
seek his face e-ver-more.

5 Remember the marvellous works that he hath done : his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth,

6 O ye seed of Abraham his servant :
ye children of Jacob his chosen.

mf 7 He is the Lord our God : his judgments are in all the world.

8 He hath been alway mindful of his covenant and promise : that he made to a thousand generations ;

9 Even the covenant that he made with Abraham : and the oath that he swore unto Isaac ;

10 And appointed the same unto Jacob for a law : and to Israel for an everlasting tes-tament ;

11 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan : the lot of your inheritance ;

12 When there were yet but a few of them : and they strangers in the land ;

13 What time as they went from one nation to another : from one kingdom to another people ;

14 He suffered no man to do them wrong : but reprov'd even kings for their sakes ;

15 Touch not mine Anointed : and do my prophets no harm.

16 Moreover, he called for a dearth upon the land : and destroyed all the provision of bread.

Ham.

28 He sent dârkness, and it was dark :
and they were nôt obê-dient unto his word.

29 He turned their wâters ín-to blood :
ând slêw their fish.

30 Their lând brôught forth frogs :
yea, êven in their kîngs' chäm-bers.

31 He spake the word, and there câme

all mán-ner of flies : and lîce in áll their 32 He gâve them hâf-stones for rain :

and flâmes of fîre in their land.

33 He smote their vînes ál-so and in their coasts.

34 He spake the word, and the grasshoppers came, and câterpillars innúme-rable : and did eat up all the grass in their land, and devôured the frúit of their ground.

35 He smote all the fîrst-born ín their

36 He brought them forth âlso with sîl-ver and gold : there was not ône feeble pêr-son among their tribes.

38 He spread out a clôud to bé a nîght-sêa-son.

39 At their desîre he brôught quails :
and he fîlled them wîth the bread of heaven.

40 He opened the rock of stone, and the wâters flôw-ed out : so that rivers rân
in the dry plâc-es.

41 For why ? he remêmbèred his hó-ly p

2 Who can express the nôble ácts of the 7 Our fathers regarded not thy wonders in Egypt, neither kept they thy great disobedient at the sêa, éven at the Rêd sea.

8 Nevertheless, he hêlped them for his Nâme's sake : that he might mâke his pôw-er to be known.

9 He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was drî-ed up : so he led them through the dêep, as through a wil-der-ness.

10 And he sâved them from the âd-versary's hand : and delivered them from the hând of the e-ne-my.

15 And he gâve them theîr de-sire :
and sent lêanness with-âll into their soul.

16 They angered Môses also in the 17 So the earth ôpened, and swâllow'd-up Dathan : and côvered the 19 They mâde a câlf in Horeb : and mf

20 Thus they túrn-ed their glory : into the similitude · of a cálf that eat-eth hay.

21 And they forgât Gód their Saviour : who had done so gréat thîngs in Ê-gypt ;

22 Wondrous wôrks in the lând of Ham : and fearful thîngs bý the Rêd sea.

23 So he said, he would have destroyed them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the gap : to turn away his wrathful indignâtion, lest · he should de-strôÿ them.

PSALM cvii. Confitemini Domino.

mf O GIVE ' thanks unto the Lōrd, for hé is gracious : and his mērcy endūr-eth for ē-ver.

2 Let them give thānks whom the Lōrd hath re-deemed : and delīvered from the hānd of the ē-nemy ;

3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the eāst, and from the west : frōm the nōrth, and from the south.

p 4 They went astray in the wīlderness out of the way : and fōund no cī-ty to dwell in ;

5 Hūngry and thirsty : their sōul fāint-ed in them.

† 6 So they crīed unto the Lōrd in their trouble : and he delīvered thēm from their dis-tress.

7 He led them fōrth by the right way : 2d. that they might gō to the cī-ty where they dwelt.

8 O that men would therefore praise f the Lōrd for his goodness : and declare the wonders that he dōeth fōr the chil-dren of men !

9 For he sātisfieth the ēmp-ty sōul : and filleth the hūngry sōul with gōod-ness

* 10 Such as sit in darkness, and in the shā-dow of death : being fast bōund in mī-sery and i-ron ;

11 Because they rebelled against the wōrds of the Lord : and lightly regarded the cōūsel of the mōst High-est ;

12 He also brought dōwn their héart through heaviness : they fell dōwn, and there was nōne to hēlp them.

† 13 So when they cried unto the Lórd in their trouble : he delivēred them out of their dis-tress.

2d Pt. 14 For he brought them out of darkness, and out of the shá-dow of death : and bráke their bōnds in sūn-der.

f 15 O that men would therefore praise the Lórd for his goodness : and declare the wonders that he dōeth fōr the chil-dren of men !

16 For he hath brōken the gátes of brass : and smitten the bārs of í-ron in sun-der.

p * 17 Foolish men are plágued for their of-fence : and becáuse of their wick-ed-ness.

18 Their soul abhōrred all mán-ner of meat : and they were éven hárđ at deáth's door.

† 19 So when they cried unto the Lórd in their trouble : he delivēred them out of their dis-tress.

20 He sent his wōrd, and héal-ed them : and they were sáved fōm their de-strúction.

f 21 O that men would therefore praise the Lórd for his goodness : and declare the wonders that he dōeth fōr the chil-dren of men !

22 That they would offer unto him the sâcristice of thanks-giving : and tell out his wōrks with glád-ness !

mf * 23 They that go dōwn to the séa in ships : and occupy their búsiness in gréat wā-ters ;

24 Thése men see the wōrks of the Lórd : and his wón-ders in the deep.

25 For at his word the stōrmy wínd a-riseth : which lífteth up the waves there-of.

26 They are carried up to the heaven, and dōwn again to the deep : their soul melteth awáy becáuse of the trōu-ble.

27 They reel to and fro, and stágger like a drúnk-en man : and áre at their wít's end.

† 28 So when they cry unto the Lórd p in their trouble : he delivēred them out of their dis-tress.

29 For he māketh the stōrm to cease : pp sō that the wáves there-of are still.

30 Then are they glad, becáuse they áre at rest : and so he bringeth them unto the hâven whére they wōuld be.

31 O that men would therefore praise f the Lórd for his goodness : and declare the wonders that he dōeth fōr the chil-dren of men !

32 That they would exalt him also in in the congregâtion of the people : and praise him in the séat of the él-ders !

33 Who turneth the fíloods in-to mf a wilderness : and drieth up the wa-ter-springs.

34 A fruitful lând māk-eth he barren : for the wickedness of thém that dwell there-in.

35 Again, he maketh the wilderness a stánd-ing water : and wáter-springs of a dry ground.

36 And thére he sēt-teth the hungry : that they may búild them a cí-ty to dwell in ;

37 That they may sow their lând, and plánt vineyards : to yiēld them fruits of in-crease.

38 He blesseth them, so that they mûltiply ex-ceedingly : and súffereth not their cá-t-tle to de-crease.

39 And again, when they are mînished, and bróught low : through oppression, through ány plágue, or trōu-ble ;

40 Though he suffer them to be évil intréat-ed through tyrants : and let them wander out of the wáy in the wil-derness ;

41 Yet helpeth he the pōor out of misery : and maketh him hōusholds líke a flock of sheep.

42 The righteous will consíder thís, and re-joyce : and the mouth of all wickedness sháll be stōp-ped.

PSALM CX. Dixit Dominus.

mf THE Lord 'sâid ún-to-my Lord : Sit thou on my right hand, until I mâke thine é-nemies thy foôt-stool.

2 The Lord shall send the rod of thy pôwer out of Sion : be thou ruler, even in the mîdst among thine ë-nemies.

3 In the day of thy power shall the people offer thee free-will ôfferings with an hól-y worship : the dew of thy bârth is of the wómb of the môrn-ing.

4 'The Lord swâre, and wíll not-re-pent : Thou art a Priest for ever after the ôrder of Mel-chî-sedech.

5 The Lôrd upon thy ríght hand : shall wound even kîngs in the dâý of his wrath.

6 He shall judge among the heathen ; he shall fill the plâces with the dëad bodies : and smite in sunder the hêads over dí-vers cöun-tries.

7 He shall drînk of the bröök in the way : thêrefore shall he líft up his head.

PSALM CXI. Confitebor tibi.

I WILL give thanks unto the Lôrd with mf my whöle heart : secretly among the faithful, and ín the cón-gre-gä-tion.

2 The wôrks of the Lôrd are great : sought out of all thê m that have plea-sure therein.

3 His work is worthy to be praised, and hâd in honour : and his ríghteousness endûr-eth for ë-ver.

4 The merciful and gracious Lord hath sô done his mâr-vellous works : that they ôught to be hâd in remëm-brance.

5 He hath given m^{eat} unto th^{em} that fear him : he shall ^ever be mindful of his c^o-venant.

6 He hath shewed his p^eople the p^ower of his works : that he may give them the h^eritage of the h^ea-then.

7 The works of his h^ands are v^e-rity and judgment : ^all his comm^and-ments ^are true.

8 They stand f^ast for ^e-ver and ever : and are d^one in tr^uth and ^e-quity.

9 He sent red^emption ^un-to his people : he hath commanded his covenant for ever ; h^oly and r^e-verend is his Name.

10 The fear of the L^ord is the b^egin-ning of wisdom : a good understanding have all they that do thereafter ; the p^raise of it end^ur-eth for ^e-ver

PSALM cxii. Beatus vir.

mf BLESSED is the m^an that fear-eth the L^ord : he hath great d^elight in his comm^and-ments.

3 Riches and pl^enteousness shall b^e in his house : and his rⁱghteousness end^ur-eth for ^e-ver.

4 Unto the godly there arⁱseth up lⁱght in the darkness : he is m^erciful, l^ov-ing, and rⁱght-eous.

p 5 A g^ood man is m^er-ciful, and lendeth : and will g^uide his w^ords with discr^e-tion.

6 F^or he shall n^e-ver be moved : and the righteous shall be h^ad in everl^ast-ing rem^em-brance.

7 He will not be afraⁱd of any ^e-vil tidings : for his heart standeth f^ast, and b^el^ev-eth in the L^ord.

8 His heart is est^ablished, and wⁱll not shrink : until he see his d^esire ^up^on his ^e-nemies.

9 He hath dispersed abr^oad, and gⁱven to the poor : and his righteousness remaineth for ever ; his h^orn shall be ex^alt-ed with h^o-nour.

10 The ungodly shall s^ee it, and it mf shall grieve him : he shall gnash with his teeth, and consume away ; the d^esire of the ungod-ly shall p^e-rish.

mf I AM well pleased : that the Lord hath heard the voice of my prayer ;

2 That he hath inclined his ear unto me : therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

pp 3 The snares of death compassed me round a-bout : and the pains of hell gat hold up-on me.

4 I shall find trouble and heaviness, and I will call upon the Name of the Lord : O Lord, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

p 5 Gracious is the Lord, and righteous : yea, our God is merciful.

6 The Lord preserv-eth the simple : I was in misery, and he help-ed me.

7 Turn again then unto thy rest, O my soul : for the Lord hath re-ward-ed thee.

8 And why? thou hast delivered my soul from death : mine eyes from tears, and my feet from fall-ing.

9 I will walk before the Lord : in the land of the liv-ing.

10 I believed, and therefore will I speak ; but, I was sore troubled : I said in my haste, All men are li-ars.

f 11 What reward shall I give un-to the Lord : for all the benefits that he hath done un-to me?

12 I will receive the cup of sal-va-tion : and call upon the Name of the Lord.

13 I will pay my vows now in the presence of all his people : right dear in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints.

14 Behold, O Lord, how that I am thy servant : I am thy servant, and the son of thine handmaid ; thou hast broken my bonds in sun-der.

15 I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanks-giving : and will call upon the Name of the Lord.

I DEAL with the thing that is law-ful and right : O give me not over unto mine op-pressors.

122 Make thou thy servant to delight in that which is good : that the proud do me no wrong.

123 Mine eyes are wasted away with looking for thy health : and for the word of thy right-eousness.

124 O deal with thy servant according unto thy loving mercy : and teach me thy statutes.

125 I am thy servant, O grant me understanding : that I may know thy testimonies.

126 It is time for thee, Lord, to lay to thine hand : for they have destroyed thy law.

127 For I love thy commandments : above gold and precious stone.

128 Therefore hold I straight all thy commandments : and all false ways I utterly abhor.

Mirabilia.

THY testimonies are wonderful : therefore doth my soul keep them.

130 When thy word goeth forth : it giveth light and understanding unto the simple.

131 I opened my mouth, and drew in my breath : for my delight was in thy commandments.

132 O look thou upon me, and be merciful unto me : as thou usest to do unto those that love thy Name.

133 Order my steps in thy word : and so shall no wickedness have dominion over me.

134 O deliver me from the wrongful dealings of men : and so shall I keep thy commandments.

135 Shew the light of thy countenance upon thy servant : and teach me thy statutes.

136 Mine eyes gush out with water : because men keep not thy law.

Justus es, Domine.

RIGHTEOUS art thou, O Lord : and true is thy judgment.

138 The testimonies that thou hast commanded : are exceeding right-eous and true.

139 My zeal hath even consumed me : because mine enemies have forgotten thy words.

140 Thy word is tried to the uttermost : and thy servant loveth it.

141 I am small, and of no reputation : yet do I not forget thy commandments.

142 Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness : and thy law is the truth.

143 Trouble and heaviness have taken hold upon me : yet is my delight in thy commandments.

No. III. 1.

PSALM CXXXIX. Domine, probasti.

f O LORD, thou hast sêarched me out,
and known me : thou knowest my down-sitting, and mine up-rising; thou understandest my thoughts long be-fore.

2 Thou art about my pâth, and about my bed : and spîest out all my ways.

3 For lo, there is nôt a wôrd in my tongue : but thou, O Lord, knôwest it âl-to-gë-ther.

4 Thou hast fâshioned me behind and be-fore : and laïd thine hând up-ôn me.

2d Pt. mf 5 Such knowledge is too wônderful and ex-cel-lent for me : I cànnot attain un-to it.

6 Whither shall I gô then frôm thy Spirit : or whither shall I gô then frôm thy prë-sence?

7 If I climb up into heâven, thou art
there : if I go down to hêll, thou art thêre âl-so.

8 If I tâke the wings of the morning :
and remain in the úttermôst pârts of the
sea ;

9 Even there âlso shall thy hând lead me : and thy rîght hând shall hõld
me.

10 If I say, Peradventure the dârkness shall cõ-ver me : thên shall my nîght be turn-ed to-day.

11 Yea, the darkness is no darkness with thee, but the nîght is as clêar as the day : the darkness and lîght to thee are both a-like.

2d Pt. 12 Fôr my reins are thine : thou hast
cõ-vered me in my mo-ther's womb.

13 I will give thanks unto thee, for I am feârfully and wón-derfully made :
marvellous are thy works, and thât my soul knôw-eth rîght well.

14 My bônes are not hîd from thee :
though I be made secretly, and fâshioned
benêath in the earth.

15 Thine eyes did see my sùbstance, yet bé-ing im-perfect : and in thy book were âll my mêm-bers writ-ten ;

16 Which dây by dây were fashioned :
whên as yét there was none of them.

17 How dear are thy còunsels unto mé, p O God : Ô how gréat is the sum of
them !

18 If I tell them, they are more in nûmber thán the sand : when I wake up I am prë-sent with thee.

19 Wilt thou not slây the wîck-ed, O f
God : depârt from me, ye blòod-thîrs-ty men.

20 For they speak unrîghteously agâînst thee : and thine ênemies tâke thy Name in vain.

21 Do not I hate thê, O Lord, that hâte thee : and am not I grieved with thôse that rîse up agâînst thee?

22 Yea, I hâte them rîght sore : even as thòugh they wêre mine ê-nemies.

23 Try me, O God, and sêek the gròund of my heart : pròve me, and exá-mine my thoughts.

24 Look well if there be any wây of wîck-edness in me : and lead me in the wây é-ver-lâst-ing.

PSALM cxl. Eripe me, Domine.

mf DELIVER me, O Lôrd, from the é-vil man : and presêrve me frôm the wick-ed man.

2 Who imagine mîschief ín their hearts : and stir úp strífe all-the dâý long.

3 They have sharpened their tôngues líke a serpent : adder's pôi-son is ún-der their lips.

4 Keep me, O Lord, from the hânds óf the-un-godly : preserve me from the wicked men, who are pûrposed to overthréw my gö-ings.

5 The proud have laid a snare for me, and spread a nêt abróad with cords : yêa, and set trâps in my way.

p 6 I said unto the Lôrd, Thóu art-my God : hear the vóice of my práy-ers, Ó Lord.

7 O Lord Gôd, thou stréngth of-my health : thou hast covered my hêad in the dâý of bät-tle.

8 Let not the ungodly hâve his desíre, O Lord : let not his mischievous imagination prô-sper, lést they be too proud.

f 9 Let the mischief of their own lips fâll upon the hêad of them : thât côm-pass me a-bout.

10 Let hot burning côals fâll up-on-them : let them be cast into the fire, and into the pit, that they nêver rîse up a-gain.

11 A man full of words shall not prô-sper upôn the earth : evil shall hunt the wicked person to ó-ver-thréw him.

12 Sure I am that the Lôrd will avênge the poor : and maintaîn the cause of-the hêlp-less.

13 The righteous also shall give thâ-ñks ún-to-thy Name : and the júst shall contí-nue in thy sight.

PSALM cxli. Domine, clamavi.

LORD, I call upon thee, hâste thee ún-to p me : and consider my vóice when I crý un-to thee.

2 Let my prayer be set fôrth in thy sight as-the incense : and let the lifting up of my hânds be an éve-ning sa-cri-fice.

3 Set a watch, O Lôrd, befóre my mouth : and kêep the dôor of my lips.

4 O let not mine heart be inclîned to any é-vil thing : let me not be occupied in ungodly works with the men that work wickedness, lest I êat of súp such things-as plêase them.

5 Let the righteous râther smíte me friendly : and re-prôve me.

6 But let not their precious bálms brêak my head : yea, I will prây yet agâinst their wick-ed-ness.

7 Let their judges be overthréwn in mf stó-ny places : that they may hêar my wó-ords, for they are sweet.

8 Our bones lie scâttered befóre the pit : like as when one breaketh and hêweth wóod up-on the earth.

9 But mine eyes look unto thêe, O Lôrd God : in thee is my trûst, O cást not out my soul.

10 Keep me from the snâre that they have laíd for me : and from the trâps of the wick-ed dō-ers.

11 Let the ungodly fall into their ôwn nêts to-gether : and lêt me é-ver escâpe them.

PSALM cxlviii. Laudate Dominum.

mf O PRAISE the Lórd of heaven : praise him in the height.

2 Praise him, áll ye ángels of his : praise him, all his host.

3 Praise him, sún and moon : praise him, áll ye stárs and light.

4 Praise him, áll ye heavens : and ye wátters that are abóve the hëa-vens.

5 Let them praise the Náme of the Lórd : for he spake the word, and they were made; he commáded, and they were creä-ted.

6 He hath made them fást for é-ver and ever : he hath given them a lãw which sháll not be brö-ken.

f 7 Praise the Lórd upon earth : yê drá-gons, and áll deeps;

8 Fíre and hail, snów and vapours : wínd and storm, fullfíll-ing his word;

9 Mòuntains and áll hills : fruitful trêes and áll cë-dars;

10 Bêasts and áll cattle : wórms and fea-thered fowls;

11 Kings of the êarth and áll people : prínces and all júd-ges öf the world;

12 Young men and maidens, old men and children, praise the Náme of the Lórd : for his Name only is excellent, and his praise above hëa-ven and earth.

13 He shall exalt the horn of his people; áll his saínts shall praise him : even the children of Israel, éven the péo-ple that sêrveth him.

PSALM cxlix. Cantate Domino.

mf O SÍNG unto the Lórd a new song : let the congregátion of saínts praise him.

2 Let Israel rejoice in hím that made him : and let the children of Sîon be jóy-ful in their King.

3 Let them praise his Náme in the dance : let them sing praises unto hím with tá-bret and harp.

4 For the Lórd hath pléasure in his p people : and hêlpeth the mœek-heärt-ed.

5 Let the saínts be jóy-ful with glory : f lêt them rejoice in their beds.

6 Let the praises of Gôd bé in their mouth : and a twô-edged sword in their hands;

7 To be avênged öf the heathen : and to rebúke the péo-ple;

8 To bind their kîngs in chains : and their nôbles with línks of î-ron.

9 That they may be avênged of them, ás it is written : Sûch hó-nour have all his saínts.

PSALM cl. Laudate Dominum.

O PRAISE Gôd in his holiness : praise f him in the fírmament öf his pöw-er.

2 Praise him in his nó-ble acts : praise p him accôrding to his éx-cellent greät-ness.

3 Praise him in the sôund of the trumpet : praise him upôn the lute and harp.

4 Praise him in the cým-bals and f dances : praise him upôn the strings and pipe.

5 Praise him upôn the wêll-tuned cymbals : praise him upôn the loud cým-bals.

f BLESS-ED 'bê the Lórd my strength :
who teacheth my hânds to wár,
and my fin-gers to fight;

2 My hope and my fortress, my castle and deliverer, my defênder in whóm I trust : who subdûeth my péople that is ün-der me.

p 3 Lord, what is man, that thou hast
súch respect unto him : or the sôn of man, that thou só re-gard-est him?

4 Mân is like a thîng of nought : his tîme passeth away like a shä-dow.

mf 5 Bow thy heâvens, O Lórd, and come down : toúch the móun-tains, and they shall smoke.

6 Cast forth thy lîghtning, and tear them : shoot out thine árrows, and consume them.

7 Send dôwn thine hánd from a-bove :
deliver me, and take me out of the great wâters, from the hánd of strange chil-dren ;

8 Whose móuth tálk-eth of vanity :
and their right hánd is a ríght hand of wîck-edness.

9 I will sing a new sông unto thée, O f
God : and sing praises unto thée upón a ten-stringed lute.

10 Thou hast given vîctory ún-to kings :
and hast delivered David thy sêrvant from the pé-ri! of the sword.

11 Save me, and deliver me from the hánd of strânge children : whose mouth talketh of vanity, and their right hánd is a ríght hánd of ín-î-quity.

12 That our sons may grow úp as the yôung plants : and that our daughters may be as the pólîshed córners of the têm-ple.

13 That our garners may be full and plênteous with all mán-ner of store : that our sheep may bring forth thôusands and tén thousands in our streets.

14 That our oxen may be strong to labour, that thêre be nó de-cay : no leading into captivity, and nô complâin-ing in our

PSALM xlv. Eructavit cor meum.

mf MY heart is inditing of a good matter : I speak of the things which I have made un-to the King.

2 My tongue is the pen : of a ready writer.

3 Thou art fairer than the children of men : full of grace are thy lips, because God hath blessed thee for ever.

f 4 Gird thee with thy sword upon thy thigh, O thou most Mighty : according to thy worship and renown.

5 Good luck have thou with thine honour : ride on, because of the word of truth, of meekness, and righteousness ; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

6 Thy arrows are very sharp, and the people shall be subdued un-to thee : even in the midst among the King's enemies.

7 Thy seat, O God, endureth for ever : the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.

8 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity : wherefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

9 All thy garments smell of myrrh, p aloes, and cassia : out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.

10 Kings' daughters were among thy honourable women : upon thy right hand did stand the queen in a vesture of gold, wrought about with di-vers colours.

11 Hearken, O daughter, and consider, incline thine ear : forget also thine own people, and thy father's house.

12 So shall the King have pleasure in thy beauty : for he is thy Lord God, and worship thou him.

2d Pt. 13 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift : like as the rich also among the people shall make their supplication before thee.

f 14 The King's daughter is all glorious within : her clothing is of wrought gold.

15 She shall be brought unto the King in raiment of needle work : the virgins that be her fellows shall bear her company, and shall be brought in-to thee.

16 With joy and gladness shall they be brought : and shall enter into the King's palace.

17 Instead of thy fathers thou shalt have children : whom thou mayest make princes in all lands.

18 I will remember thy Name from one generation to another : therefore shall the people give thanks unto thee, world without end.

2 Thou hast forgiven the offence of thy people : and covered all their sins.

2d Pt. 3 Thou hast taken away all thy displeasure : and turned thyself from thy wrathful indignation.

p 4 Turn us then, O God our Saviour : and let thine anger cease from us.

5 Wilt thou be displeased at us for ever : and wilt thou stretch out thy wrath from one generation to another?

6 Wilt thou not turn again, and quicken us : that thy people may rejoice in thee?

7 Shew us thy mercy, O Lord : and grant us thy salvation.

8 I will hearken what the Lord God mf will say concerning me : for he shall speak peace unto his people, and to his saints, that they turn not again.

9 For his salvation is nigh them that fear him : that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth are met together : righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

11 Truth shall flourish out of the earth : and righteousness hath looked down from heaven.

10 Thou rulest the r^aging ^of the sea :
thou stillest the waves thereof when they arise.

11 Thou hast subdued ^Egypt, and destr^oy-ed it : thou hast scattered thine enemies abroad with thy migh-ty arm.

12 The heavens are thine, the ^earth al-so is thine : thou hast laid the foundation of the round w^old, and all that there-in is.

13 Thou hast m^ade the n^orth and the

in thy Name.

14 Thou hast a migh-ty arm : strong is thy h^and, and high is thy right hand.

15 Righteousness and equity are the habit^ation ^of thy seat : mercy and truth shall go be-fore thy face.

mf 16 Blessed is the people, O L^ord, that can rejoice in thee : they shall walk in the light of thy c^oun-tenance.

17 Their delight shall be d^aily in thy thou shalt lift up our horns.

19 For the L^ord is ^our de-fence : the H^oly One of Is-r^ael is our King.

f 20 Thou spakest sometime in visions unto thy s^aints, and saidst : I have laid

27 He shall c^all me, Thou art my Father : my G^od, and my str^ong sal-v^a-tion.

28 And I will m^ake him my first-born :
higher than the kⁱngs of the earth.

29 My mercy will I keep f^or him for e-^ver-more : and my covenant shall stand shalt préserve me from trouble : thou shalt compass me abôut with sôngs of delî-verance.

9 I will inform thee, and teach thee in the wâ-y whereín thou shalt go : and I will guîde thee with mine eye.

10 Be ye not like to horse and mule, which have no understanding : whose mouths must be held with bit and bridle, lest they fall up-on thee.

No. III. 2.

PSALM xxxviii. Domine, ne in furore.

mf PUT me not to rebuke, O Lord, in thine anger : neither chasten me in thy heavy displeasure.

2 For thine arrows stick fast in me : and thy hand press-eth me sore.

pp 3 There is no health in my flesh, because of thy displeasure : neither is there any rest in my bones, by reason of my sin.

4 For my wickednesses are gone over my head : and are like a sore burden, too heavy for me to bear.

5 My wounds stink, and are corrupt : through my foolishness.

6 I am brought into so great trouble and misery : that I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with a sore disease : and there is no whole part in my body.

8 I am feeble, and sore smitten : I have roared for the very disquietness of my heart.

p 9 Lord, thou knowest all my desire : and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength hath failed me : and the sight of mine eyes is gone from me.

11 My lovers and my neighbours did stand looking upon my trouble : and my kinsmen stood afar off.

12 They also that sought after my life laid snares for me : and they that went about to do me evil talked of wickedness, and imagined deceit all the day long.

13 As for me, I was like a deaf man, and heard not : and as one that is dumb, who doth not open his mouth.

14 I became even as a man that hear-eth not : and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15 For in thee, O Lord, have I put my trust : thou shalt answer for me, O Lord my God.

16 I have required that they, even mine enemies, should not triumph over me : for when my foot slipped, they rejoiced greatly against me.

17 And I, truly, am set in the plague : and my heaviness is ever in my sight.

18 For I will confess my wickedness : and be sorry for my sin.

19 But mine enemies live, and are mighty : and they that hate me wrongfully are many in number.

20 They also that reward evil for good are against me : because I follow the thing that good is.

21 Forsake me not, O Lord my God : be not thou far from me.

22 Haste thee to help me : O Lord God of my salvation.

PSALM cii. Domine, exaudi.

mf HĒAR ¹ my práy·er, O Lord : and let my crý·ing cōme un-to thee.

2 Hide not thy face from me in the time of my trouble : incline thine ear unto me when I call ; O hēar·me, and that right soon.

pp 3 For my days are consumed away like smoke : and my bones are burnt up·as it were a fire-brand.

4 My heart is smitten down, and withered like grass : so that I·for·get to eat my bread.

5 For the voice of my groaning : my bones will scarce cleave to my flesh.

6 I am become like a pelican in the wilderness : and like an owl·that is in the de·sert.

7 I have watched, and am even as it were a sparrow : that sitteth alone·up·on the house-top.

8 Mine enemies revile me all the day long : and they that are mad upon me are sworn·to·ge·ther against me.

9 For I have eaten ashes as it were bread : and mingled·my drink with weep·ing ;

10 And that because of thine
indigná·tion and wrath : for thou hast tāken·me up, and cast me down.

11 My dāys are gone like a shadow :
and I·am wi·thered like grass.

p 12 But, thou, O Lōrd, shalt endure for ever : and thy remembrance throughout all gé·ne·rā·tions.

13 Thou shalt arise, and have mē·cy up·on Sion : for it is time that thou have mercy up·on·her, yea, the time is come.

14 And why ? thy servants think up·on her stones : and it pitieth thēm·to see her in the dust.

15 The heathen shall fear thy Nā·me,
O Lord : and all the kīngs of·the eā·th
thy Mā·jesty ;

16 When the Lōrd shall build up Sion : mf
and when·his glō·ry shall ap·pear ;

17 When he turneth him unto the prayer of the poor destitute : and despī·seth nōt their de·sire.

18 This shall be written for those that come after : and the people which shāl·be bōrn shall praise the Lōrd.

19 For he hath looked dōwn from his sānc·tu·ary : out of the heaven dīd·the Lōrd be·hold the eā·th ;

20 That he might hear the mournings of sūch as are in cap·tivity : and deliver the children·ap·point·ed ünto death ;

21 That they may declare the Nā·me of the Lōrd in Sion : and his wōr·ship at Je·rū·salem ;

22 When the pēople are gā·ther·d·to· gether : and the kīng·doms āl·so, to serve the Lōrd.

23 He brought dōwn my strength in my p
journey : and short·ened my days.

24 But I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of mine age : as for thy years, they endure throughout all gé·ne·rā·tions.

25 Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth : and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure : they all shall wax old as doth a garment ;

27 And as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed : but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

28 The children of thy servants shall continue : and their seed shall stand fast in thy sight.

PSALM CXXX. De profundis.

p OUT of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord : Lord, hear my voice.*

2 O let thine ears consider well : the voice of my complaint.

3 If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done a-miss : O Lord, who may abide it ?

4 For there is mercy with thee : therefore shalt thou be feared.

pp 5 I look for the Lord ; my soul doth wait for him : in his word is my trust.

6 My soul fleeth unto the Lord : before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch.

mf 7 O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy ; and with him is plenteous redemption.

PSALM cxliii.† Domine, exaudi.

p HEAR my prayer, O Lord, and consider my desire : hearken unto me for thy truth and righteousness' sake.

2 And enter not into judgment with thy servant : for in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

mf 3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul ; he hath smitten my life down to the ground : he hath laid me in the darkness, as the men that have been long dead.

4 Therefore is my spirit vexed within me : and my heart within me is desolate.

5 Yet do I remember the time past ; I muse upon all thy works : yea, I exercise myself in the works of thy hands.

6 I stretch forth my hands unto thee : my soul gaspeth unto thee as a thirsty land.

7 Hear me, O Lord, and that soon, for my spirit waxeth faint : hide not thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

8 O let me hear thy loving-kindness betimes in the morning, for in thee is my trust : shew thou me the way that I should walk in, for I lift up my soul unto thee.

9 Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies : for I flee unto thee to hide me.

10 Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee, for thou art my God : let thy loving Spirit lead me forth in to the land of righteousness.

11 Quicken me, O Lord, for thy Name's sake : and for thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.

12 And of thy goodness slay mine enemies : and destroy all them that vex my soul ; for I am thy servant.

PSALM xxii. Deus, Deus meus.

p Mÿ! God, my God, look upon me;
why hast thou forsá-ken me : and art so far from my hêalth, and from the wórds of my com-plaint?

2 O my God, I cry in the day-time, bût thou héar-est not : and in the nîght-season
ál-so I take no rest.

mf 3 And thôu contí-nuest holy : Ô thou wór-ship of Is-ra-el.

4 Our fâthers hó-ped in thee : they trusted in thêe, and thóu didst deliver them.

5 They called upôn thee, ánd were holpen : they put their trust in thêe, and wêre not confóund-ed.

6 But as for me, I am a wôrm, and nó man : a very scorn of men, and the óut-cast óf the pëo-ple.

7 All they that sêe me láugh me to scorn : they shoot out their lips, and shâke their hêads, sâying,

8 He trusted in God, that hê would delí-ver him : let him delí-ver him, íf
he wíll háve him.

9 But thou art he that took me óut of 14 I am poured out like water, and all my bônes are óut of joint : my heart also in the midst of my bôdy is even líke melt-ing wax.

15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue clêaveth tó my gums : and thou shalt bríng me ín-to the díust of death.

16 For many dôgs are cóme a-bout me :
and the council of the wicked lâ-yeth síege
a-gáinst me.

17 They pierced my hands and my feet ; I may têll ál my bones : they stand stâring and lóok-ing upôn me.

18 They pârt my gár-ments avës-ture.

19 But be not thou fâr fróm me, Op

PSALM lxix. Salvum me fac.

p SÄVE 'mê, Ô God : for the waters are côme in, é-ven unto my soul.

2 I stick fast in the deep mîre, where nò
ground is : I am come into deep waters,
sô that the floods run o-ver me.

3 I am weary of cryîng ; my throát is dry : my sight faileth me for waîting so
lóng up-on my God.

4 They that hate me without a cause
are môre than the hairs of my head : they that are mine enemies, and would destrôÿ me guîlt-less, are mîgh-ty.

mf 5 I paid them the thîngs that I né-ver
took : God, thou knowest my simpleness,
and my fáults are not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that trust in thee, O Lord God of hosts, be ashâmed for mÿ cause :
let not those that seek thee be confounded through mê, O Lórd God of Is-ra-el.

7 And why? for thy sâke have I súffer'd re-proof : shâme hath cò-vered mÿ face.

8 I am become a strânger ún-to my

chîl-dren.

9 For the zeal of thine house hath éven
éat-en me : and the rebukes of them that rebuked thee are fá-l-len upôn me.

10 I wept, and châstened mysêlf with fasting : and thât wast úrn-ed to my re-proof.

11 I pût on sâck-cloth also : and they jést-ed upôn me.

12 They that sit in the gâte speak
agâinst me : and the drûnkards make sôngs up-ôn me.

p 13 But, Lord, I mâke my prâyer unto thee : ín an ac-cept-able time.

14 Hear me, O God, in the mûltitude

of thy mercy : even in the trûth of thy
sal-vâ-tion.

15 Take me out of the mîre, that I sînk that hate me, and oût of the deép wä-ters.

16 Let not the water-flood drown me, neither let the dêep swäl-low me up : and let not the pit shûtt her móuth up-ôn me.

17 Hear me, O Lord, for thy lovingkîndness is côm-forta-ble : turn thee unto me
according to the mûltitude of thy mër-cies.

18 And hide not thy face from thy sêrvant, for I am in trouble : Ô háste

19 Draw nigh únto my sôul, and save it :
O delîver me, because of mine e-ne-mies.

20 Thou hast known my reproof, mf

âdversaries are áll in thy sight.

21 Thy rebuke hath broken my heart ;
I am fûll of heaviness : I looked for some
to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither fôund I á-ny to com-fort me.

22 They gâve me gáll to eat : and when I was thirsty they gâve me vín-egar tô drink.

23 Let their table be made a snare to tâke themsêlves with-al : and let the things that should have been for their wealth be unto thêem an occâ-sion of fáll-ing.

24 Let their eyes be blînded, that they sêe not : and éver bôw thou down their backs.

25 Pour out thine îndignâ-tion upon them : and let thy wrâthful displeá-sure take hold of them.

26 Let their hâbitâ-tion be void : and

27 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten : and they talk how they may vex them whom thou hast wound-ed.

28 Let them fall from one wickedness to a-nother : and not come in-to thy right-eous-ness.

No. I. 2.

PSALM lxxxviii. Domine Deus.

mf O LORD GOD of my salvation, I have cried day and night be-fore thee : O let my prayer enter into thy presence, incline thine ear un-to my call-ing.

p 2 For my soul is full of trouble : and my life draweth nigh un-to hell.

3 I am counted as one of them that go down in-to the pit : and I have been even as a man that hath no strength.

4 Free among the dead, like unto them that are wounded, and lie in the grave : who are out of remembrance, and are cut away from thy hand.

5 Thou hast laid me in the low-est pit : in a place of dark-ness, and in the deep.

6 Thine indignation lieth hard up-on me : and thou hast vexed me with all thy storms.

7 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance far from me : and made me to be abhor-red of them.

8 I am so fast in prison : that I can-not get forth.

9 My sight faileth for very trouble : 211 Lord, I have called daily upon thee, I have stretched forth my hands un-to thee.

10 Dost thou shew wonders among the mf dead : or shall the dead rise up again, and praise thee?

11 Shall thy loving-kindness be shewed in the grave : or thy faithfulness in de-struc-tion?

12 Shall thy wondrous works be known in the dark : and thy righteousness in the land where all things are for-got-ten?

13 Unto thee have I cried, O Lord : and early shall my prayer come be-fore thee.

14 Lord, why abhorrest thou my soul : p and hidest thou thy face from me?

15 I am in misery, and like unto him that is at the point to die : even from my youth up thy terrors have I suffered with a troubled mind.

16 Thy wrathful displeasure goeth over me : and the fear of thee hath undone me.

18 My lovers and friends hast thou put away from me : and hid mine acquaintance out of my sight.

PSALM cxi. Confitebor tibi.

mf I WILL give thanks unto the Lôrd with my whôle heart : secretly among the faithful, and în the cón-gre-gâ-tion.

2 The wôrks of the Lôrd are great :

sought out of all thêem thát have plea-sure therein.

3 His work is worthy to be praised, and hâd in honour : and his rîghteousness endúr-eth-for ë-ver.

4 The merciful and gracious Lord hath sô done his mâr-vellous works : that they ôught to be hâd in remêm-brance.

5 He hath given mêat unto thêem that fear-him : he shall ëver be mindful óf his cö-venant.

6 He hath shewed his pêople the pówér of-his works : that he may give them the hêritage óf the hêa-then.

7 The works of his hânds are vé-rity and judgmēt : âll his commánd-ments äre true.

8 They stand fâst for é-ver and ever : and are dône in trúth and ë-quity.

9 He sent redêption ún-to-his people : he hath commanded his covenant for ever ; hôly and ré-verend is his Name.

10 The fear of the Lôrd is the begín-ning of wisdom : a good understanding have all they that do thereafter ; the praise of it endúr-eth-for ë-ver.

PSALM cxviii. Confitemini Domino.

f O GIVE thanks unto the Lôrd, for hé is gracious : because his mēcy endûr-eth for ë-ver.

2 Let Israel now confêss, that hé is gracious : and that his mēcy endûr-eth for ë-ver.

3 Let the house of Âaron nów con-fess : that his mēcy endûr-eth for ë-ver.

4 Yea, let them now that fêar the Lôrd con-fess : that his mēcy endûr-eth for ë-ver.

p 5 I câlled upon the Lôrd in trouble : and the Lôrd heard mē at-large.

6 The Lôrd is on mý side : I will not fear what mân dô-eth ûnto me.

7 The Lord taketh my pârt with thém that help me : therefore shall I see my desîre upôn mine ë-nemies.

8 It is bêtter to trúst in the Lord : than to pôut any cón-fidence in man.

9 It is bêtter to trúst in the Lord : than to put any cón-fidence in prin-ces.

10 All nations cômpassed me rôund a-bout : but in the Name of the Lôrd wíll I destrôy them.

11 They kept me in on every side, they kept me in, I sây, on éve-ry side : but in the Name of the Lôrd wíll I destrôy them.

12 They came about me like bees, and are extinct even as the fire amóng the thorns : for in the Name of the Lôrd I will destrôy them.

13 Thou hast thrust sôre at me, that I might fall : bût the Lôrd was my help.

mf 14 The Lôrd is my stréngth, and my song : and ís becôme my salvä-tion.

15 The voice of joy and health is in the dwéllings óf the righteous : the right hand of the Lôrd bringeth mígh-ty things to-pass.

16 The right hand of the Lôrd háth the pre-e-minence : the right hand of the Lôrd bringeth mígh-ty things to-pass.

17 I shâll not dîe, but live : and declâre the wôrks óf the Lord.

18 The Lord hath châstened and corrêct-ed me : but he hath not gîven me ó-ver ûnto death.

19 Ópen me the gâtes of righteousness : f that I may go into thém, and give thánks un-to the Lord.

20 Thîs is the gâte óf the Lord : the the righteous shall én-ter in-to it.

21 I will thânk thee, for thóu hast heard me : ând art becôme my salvä-tion.

22 The same stône which the buíld-ers re-fused : is become the hêad-stone in the cör-ner.

23 Thîs is the Lôrd's doing : ând it is már-vellous in our eyes.

24 This is the dây which the Lôrd hath made : wê will rejoyce and be glâd in it.

25 Hêlp me nów, O Lord : O Lôrd, send us nów pros-pë-rity.

26 Blessed be he that cômeth in the Náme óf the Lord : we have wished you good luck, ye that âre of the hóuse óf the Lord.

27 God is the Lôrd who hath shêw-ed us mf light : bind the sacrifice with cords, yea, éven unto the hórn's óf the âl-tar.

28 Thou art my Gôd, and I will thânk thee : thou art my Gôd, and I will praise thee.

f O LORD! our Governour, how excellent is thy Nâme in âll the world : thou that hast sêt thy glô-ry aböve the heavens!

2 Out of the mouth of very babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strêngth, because of thine enemies : that thou mightest still the ênemy, and the avêng-er.

mf 3 For I will consider thy heavens, êven the wôrks of thy fingers : the moon and the stârs, which thóu hast ordâin-ed.

4 What is mân, that thou art mînd-ful of him : and the sôn of man, thát thou vi-sitest him?

5 Thou madest him lôwer thán the angels : to crôwn him with glô-ry and wôr-ship.

6 Thou makest him to have domîniön of the wôrks of thy hands : and thou hast put âll things in subjéc-tion under his feet;

7 Âll shêep and oxen : yêa, and the bêasts of the field;

8 The fowls of the air, and the fîshes of the sea : and whatsoever walketh through the pâths of the seas.

PSALM XXI. Domine, in virtute tua.

mf THE King shall rejoice in thy strength, O Lord : exceeding glad shall he be of thy sal-vä-tion.

2 Thou hast given him his heart's de-sire : and hast not denied him the request of his lips.

3 For thou shalt prevent him with the bless-ings of goodness : and shalt set a crown of pure gold up-on his head.

4 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest him a long life : even for é-ver and é-ver.

5 His honour is great in thy sal-vation :
glory and great worship shalt thou lay up-on him.

6 For thou shalt give him everlasting felicity : and make him gläd with the joy of thy cöunte-nance.

7 And why ? because the King putteth his trust in the Lord : and in the mercy of the most Highest he shall not miscärry.

8 All thine enemies shall feel thy hand : f
thy right hand shall find out them that hate thee.

9 Thou shalt make them like a fiery oven in time of thy wrath : the Lord shall destroy them in his displeasure, and the fire shall consume them.

10 Their fruit shalt thou root out of the earth : and their seed from among
the children of men.

11 For they intended mischief against thee : and imagined such a device
as they are not able to perform.

12 Therefore shalt thou put them to flight : and the strings of thy bow shalt thou make ready against the face of
them.

PSALM xlviii. Magnus Dominus.

mf GREAT is the Lord, and highly to be praised : in the city of our God, even upon his holy hill.

2 The hill of Sion is a fair place, and the joy of the whole earth : upon the north-side lieth the city of the great King ; God is well known in her palaces as a sure refuge.

p 3 For lo, the kings of the earth : are gathered, and gone by together.

4 They marvelled to see such things : they were astonished, and suddenly cast down.

5 Fear came there upon them, and sorrow : as upon a woman in her travail.

6 Thou shalt break the ships of the sea : through the east-wind.

7 Like as we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the Lord of hosts, in the city of our God : God upholdeth the same for ever.

mf 8 We wait for thy loving-kindness, O God : in the midst of thy temple.

9 O God, according to thy Name, so is thy praise unto the world's end : thy right hand is full of righteousness.

10 Let the mount Sion rejoice, and the daughter of Judah be glad : because of thy judgments.

f 11 Walk about Sion, and go round about her : and tell the towers thereof.

12 Mark well her bulwarks, set up her houses : that ye may tell them that come after.

13 For this God is our God for ever and ever : he shall be our guide unto death.

PSALM lxviii. Exurgat Deus.

mf LET God arise, and let his enemies be scattered : let them also that hate him flee before him.

2 Like as the smoke vanisheth, so shalt thou drive them away : and like as wax melteth at the fire, so let the ungodly perish at the presence of God.

3 But let the righteous be glad and rejoice before God : let them also be merry and joyful.

4 O sing unto God, and sing praises f unto his Name : magnify him that rideth upon the heavens, as it were upon an horse ; praise him in his Name JAH, and rejoice before him.

5 He is a Father of the fatherless, and defendeth the cause of the widows : even God in his holy habitation.

6 He is the God that maketh men to be of one mind in an house, and bringeth the prisoners out of captivity : but letteth the rûnagates continue in scarcity.

7 O God, when thou wentest forth before the people : when thou wentest through the wilderness,

8 The earth shook, and the heavens dropped at the presence of God : even as Sinai also was moved at the presence of God, who is the God of Israel.

9 Thou, O God, sentest a gracious rain mf upon thine inheritance : and refreshedst it when it was weary.

10 Thy congregation shall dwell there-in : for thou, O God, hast of thy goodness prepared for the poor.

11 The Lord gave the word : great was the company of the preachers.

12 Kings with their armies did flee, and were discomfited : and they of the house-hold divided the spoil.

13 Though ye have lien among the pots, yet shall ye bē as the wings of a dove : that is covered with silver wings, and her féa-thers like gold.

14 When the Almighty scâttered kîngs for their sake : then were they as white as snôw in Säl-mon.

15 As the hill of Basan, sô is Gôd's hill : even an high hill, âs the hîll of Bâ-san.

19 Praîsed be the Lôrd daily : even the God who helpeth us, and pôureth his bé-nefits upôn us.

20 He is our God, even the God of whôm côm-eth sal-va-tion : God is the Lôrd, by whôm we escape death.

21 God shall wound the héad of his enemies : and the hairy scalp of such a one as goeth on stîll in his wick-edness.

22 The Lord hath said, I will bring my people again, as I dîd from Basan : mine own will I bring again, as I did sometime frôm the dêep of the sea.

2d Pt. 23 That thy foot may be dîpped in the blôod of thine enemies : and that the tongue of thy dôgs may be rêd through the same.

f 24 It is well seen, O Gôd, hów thou goest : how thou, my God and King, goest in the sanc-tua-ry.

25 The singers go before, the mînstrels fól-low after : in the midst are the damsels plâying wîth the tîm-brels.

26 Give thanks, O Israel, unto God the Lôrd in the cón-gre-gations : frôm the grôund of the heart.

27 There is little Benjamin their ruler, and the princes of Jú-dah their counsel : the princes of Zabulon, and the prin-ces of Nêph-thali.

28 Thy God hath sent forth stréngth for thee : stablish the thing, O Gôd, that thôu hast wrought in us, 29 For thy tēple's sake at Jerú-sa-lem : so shall kîngs bring pré-sents ünto thee.

30 When the company of the spear-men, and multitude of the mighty are scattered abroad among the beasts of the people, so that they hūmbly bring píec-es of silver : and when he hath scattered the pēople thát de-light in war ;

31 Then shall the princes côme out of Egypt : the Morians' land shall soon strêch out her hānds ünto God.

No. III. 1.

mf Ô LÓRD our Governour : how êxcellent is thy Nâme in äll the world !

[Psalm viii. 1.]

Lord, what is man, that thou hast súch respect unto him : or the sôn of man, that thou só re-gard-est him ? [Psalm cxliv. 3.]

The merciful and gracious Lord hath sô done his már-vellous works : that they ôught to be hád in remêm-brance.

[Psalm cxi. 4.]

O that men would therefore praise f the LÓRD for his goodness : and declare the wonders that he dôeth fór the chil-dren of men !

[Psalm cvii. 21.

p Behôld, O Gód our-de-fender : and look upon the fâce of thine A-noînt-ed.

[Psalm lxxxiv. 9.

O hold thou up her goîngs in thy paths : thât her fôot-steps slip not.

[Psalm xvii. 5.

Grant the Quêen a lóng life : and make her glâd with the jôy of thy còuntenance.

[Psalm lxi. 6 & xxi. 6.

Let her dwell befôre thee for ever : O prepare thy loving mercy and faithfulness, thât they may presêrve her.

[Psalm lxi. 7.

In her tîme let the rîght-eous flourish : and let pêace be in áll our bôr-ders.

[Psalm lxxii. 7 & cxlvii. 14.

As for her enemies, clôthe them with shame : but upon herself let her crôwn flôu-rish.

[Psalm cxxxii. 19.

Blessed be the Lord God, even the Gód of Ís-ra-el : which ônly dô-eth won-drous things.

[Psalm lxxii. 18.

And blessed be the Nâme of his Má-jesty for ever : and all the earth shall be filled with his Mâjesty. Á-men, Á-men.

[Ver. 19.

Glory be to the Fâther, ánd to the Son : ánd tó the Ho-ly Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is nôw, and é-ver shall be ; wôrld with-out end Á-men.

PSALM XX. Exaudiat te Dominus.

mf THÉ ! Lord hear thee in the dáy of trouble : the Name of the Gód of Já-cob defend thee ;

2 Send thee hêlp from the sanc-tu-ary : and strêngthen thee out of Sî-on ;

3 Remêmbër áll thy offerings : and accêpt thy búrnt-säcri-fice ;

4 Grânt thee thy héart's de-sire : ánd fulfil all thy mind.

5 We will rejoice in thy salvation, and triumph in the Nâme of the Lórd our God : the Lórd perform áll thy peti-tions.

p 6 Now know I, that the Lord helpeth his Anointed, and will hear him from his hó-ly heaven : even with the whôlesome strêngth of his rîght hand.

7 Some put their trust in châriots, and sóme in horses : but we will remêmbër the Nâme of the Lord our God.

8 They are brought dówn, and fallen : but we are rîsen, and stánd up-right.

9 Save, Lord, and hear us, O Kîng of heaven : whên we cáll up-on thee.

PSALM XXI. Domine, in virtute tua.

mf THE King shall rejoice in thy strêngth, O Lord : exceeding glâd shall he bê of thy sal-vä-tion.

2 Thou hast gîven him his héart's de-sire : and hast not denied him the request of his lips.

3 For thou shalt prevênt him with the blêss-ings of goodness : and shalt set a crôwn of pure góld up-on his head.

4 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest him a lóng life : éven for é-ver-and é-ver.

[5 His

5 His honour is grêat in thy sal-vation :
glory and great wôrship shalt thou láy up-ôn him.

6 For thou shalt gîve him everlásting felicity : and make him glâd with the jôy of thy cöunte-nance.

7 And why? because the Kîng putteth his trûst in the Lord : and in the mercy of the most Hîgh he shâll not miscär-ry.

f 8 All thine ênemies shall féel thy hand :
thy right hand shall fînd out thém that hâte thee.

9 Thou shalt make them like a fiery ôven in tîme of thy wrath : the Lord shall destroy them in his displêasure, and the fîre shall consume them.

10 Their frûit shalt thou root out of the earth : and their sêed from among
the chil-dren of men.

11 For they intêded mîs-chief against thee : and imagined such a device
as they âre not á-ble to per-form.

12 Thêrefore shalt thou pût them to flight : and the strings of thy bow shalt thou make rêady against the face of them.

13 Be thou exalted, Lôrd, in thine ôwn strength : sô will we sîng, and praise thy power.

PSALM ci. Misericordiam et judicium.

mf MY song shall bê of mër-cy and judgment : unto thêe, O Lôrd, will I sing.

2 O let me hâve ún-der-standing : in the wáy of god-li-ness.

3 Whên wilt thou côme unto me : I will wâlk in my hóuse with a per-fect heart.

4 I will take no wicked thing in hand ;
I hâte the síns of un-faithfulness : there shall nô such cleáve un-to me.

5 A froward heart shall depârt from me : I will not knôw a wîck-ed pèr-son.

6 Whoso prîvily slán-dereth his neighbour : hîm will I de-destroy.

7 Whoso hath also a proud lôok and hîgh stomach : I wîll not suf-fer him.

8 Mine eyes look upon such as are faîthful in the land : thât thêy may dwell with me.

9 Whoso lêadeth a gód-ly life : hê shall bê my sêr-vant.

10 There shall no deceitful pèrson dwell in my house : he that telleth lîes shall not tár-ry in my sight.

11 I shall soon destroy all the ungódly that are in the land : that I may root out all wicked dôers from the cí-ty of the Lord.

* All the Ancient Chants are retained in their legitimate seats except this (II.), which being too low for effective use, is raised to its authentic (a fourth), in conformity with the established usage of the 16th century. If the Chants of the VIIth mode are found inconveniently high, they may be transposed a tone lower, as they stand in certain Psalms (distinguished by *), for the sake of combining them with others.

* The first part of the above Chant was adapted by Mr. Turle, for the commemoration of Purcell in Westminster Abbey, from the movement, "O Lord, in Thee have I trusted," in Purcell's Service in D.

† Called by Lowe and Clifford Christchurch Tune, being the simplest form of the Ancient Chant I. 4. There is no conclusive evidence that the harmony is by Tallis, though ascribed to him in Aldrich's M.S., where it is set in G. On the contrary the harmonies, of which there are two to this melody, in Tallis' Service, as first printed by Barnard, are different, and in five parts. It is nearly identical with what Clifford calls Mr. Adrien Batten's Tune.

* Called by Lowe, Clifford, and Playford, Canterbury Tune, and not found in Tallis' Service as given by Barnard. It is set to the Venite in Byrde's Preces, CC., Oxford, and is probably harmonized by him.
