NEW EDITION

OF THE

PHONOGRAPHIC DICTIONARY

IS NOW READY, PRICE 4s.

Instead of reprinting the Work in the same form, the Editor has prepared a new edition, in which the number of words has been increased from 25,000 to 60,000. A part of this increase consists of the past tense and the present participle of verbs, the outlines of which sometimes present difficulties to the learner.

TESTIMONIAL.

"Dear Sir,—Your idea of a Phonographic Copy Book is an excellent one, and has been excellently carried out. The benefit to be derived from repeatedly writing the same outlines till they become easy and familiar to the hand is, I imagine, not less than that which the musical student obtains by the practice of scales and exercises. Wishing your new venture the success it deserves, "I am, faithfully yours,

"THOMAS A. REED."
