Dear Monsieur Baze,

I am so glad you are back again in London, but no doubt you both wish yourselves in Roumania once more, such is life!!

GODALMING

will be annexed at "The Field", it is a sporting paper. I have had many delightful letters about the book, among them a most charming one from H. M. of Roumania who says

"I am completely fascinated by Mr. Byng's tales, & the style in which they were told." My brother writes "Colonel Rosette finds the translation very good & he wishes

Mr. Byng would present some more Rumanian Stories etc.

English public."

Island Cook

forward to your books.

Many thanks for your information about Sir Walter Scott.

I can at last read a Hungarian book without a dictionary, I have taken up Timmel again, but it bores me.

My kindest greetings to you both

Yrs. very sincerely
Lucy Page
