Dear Monsieur Bega,

Thank you very much for further copies of Sasha. I have not heard anything of the books from any well-known writers but everyone

Thomson who has read it is most delighted with it & charmed with the whole almost.

Thomson of the books. H. 2.

of Roumania seems very pleased too with the books I sent her, but I cannot say that

Queen Mary's ladies are very efficient! I have had two letters with R.

~~Zampirescu's name wrong~~
& my own! Personally I do not mind but I think they might try to get their own authors names correctly don't you? I am always so interested in hearing of your lectures on English Literature.

When Madame Bega returns can you persuade me both to come to London on Sunday? I would meet you at Godalming station.

Yrs. very sincerely Please write your next letter in Romanian!

Lucy Bega
