Dear Monsieur Boza,

Do you know this very lonely place? I think you once told me you had been some time in Spain. When I get home I hope I may find a book or a letter from you.

I heard last night that Mr. John Lane (The Bodley Head) Reader approves of our stories & Mr. Lane asks me to go see him about the publication which I shall do on my return to London. I hope to be at 36, Seymour Street on the 24 th & 25 th, please let me know there or to the Palace Hotel Madrid whether we could meet on either of to date I give.

Leave Madrid

for Biarritz on Tuesday, 19th -

What a beautiful country this is, I do admire the deep, rich tone of the colouring every where. I have spent four most happy days

Spent

wandering about the Alhambra; it is a most wonderful place certainly & it seems almost impossible that the civilization that produced it should have passed away so completely.

You would laugh at my Spanish!

Yours very sincerely

Lucy Byng.
